

Anderson Cotton Market, December 2, 1891. Strict good middling 71 Good middling 71 Middling 71

The tax books will close on the 15th inst. Anderson is always full of attractions—pretty girls.

The complaint of hard times and no money is on the increase. Read what D. S. Maxwell & Son say in their new advertisement.

We invite your attention to Taylor & Crayton's new advertisement. Mr. J. D. Pruitt has recently moved from this County to Royston, Ga.

Miss Gene Benson, of Columbia, is visiting relatives at Lexington, S. C. Mr. J. G. Hutchace, of Lowndesville, is now clerking at the Hotel Choptank.

The doors of this office are supplied with hinges and latches. This is straight. Counterfeit dimes bearing date 1891 are being circulated. Look out for them.

Nearly every other man you meet thinks he has a touch of the grip again. The County Auditor has an important notice in another column. Read it, taxpayers.

Next Monday is Saleday. A large lot of land will be sold at public outcry by the Master. Three girls abreast on the sidewalk are like cyclones, they don't turn aside for anything.

Oranges, apples, bananas, etc. are about as cheap as they ever get to be in this section. Persons indebted to Dr. E. C. Frierson should read what he has to say in his advertisement.

The County Commissioners have an important notice in another column to read over soon. A number of our merchants are beginning to stock up with elegant line of Christmas goods.

The sportsmen are having fine fun now hunting birds, which are numerous in nearly every section. Miss Varina Brown, who has been very ill for several weeks of typhoid fever, is now rapidly convalescing.

Peoples & Burris are prepared for the Christmas trade, and will be ready by referring to their new advertisement. Mr. B. A. Davis has sold his property near Twiggs and moved up near Fair Play, where he has re-invested in land.

Our friends and readers should always bear in mind that we are not responsible for the expressions of our correspondents. Algon & Ledbetter have a new advertisement in another column. Read the notice which they quote on certain articles.

There are two things, we have noticed, that always make an old man sigh. One is a stack of money, and the other is a pretty girl. Editor Russell, of the Advertiser, returned from his travels after the meeting of the National Alliance, he visited relatives in Indiana.

The Beasley Messenger says several families from the upper edge of Anderson County contemplate moving to Texas in the near future. Mr. T. N. Berry, of Chester, S. C., representing the Fidelity Mutual Life Association of Philadelphia, is spending a few days in Anderson.

Christmas is just three weeks off, and everybody is preparing for it. The clerks are wondering if they are going to get two or three holidays. A valuable mule belonging to Mr. A. Kelly was stolen or estrayed from the wagon yard on Main street last Tuesday night. See advertisement.

Mr. J. R. Hamlin, of Bourbon, Mo., preached a very able and interesting sermon in the Baptist Church at Williamson last Sunday night. Everybody you meet is talking about "hard times." This is wrong. Let us cease talking about "hard times" and let us all feel better and have better times.

Our little friend, Crayton Cummings, of Mr. C. C. Cummings, while playing football at school last Monday, accidentally fell into a ditch and broke his right arm. Hartwell Sam: "Misses Fannie Hall and Edna Williams two beautiful and accomplished young ladies of Storeville, S. C., are visiting relatives and friends in Anderson."

Much interest is being manifested in the meetings that are being conducted by Rev. Mr. Cowan, on East Benson Street, and it is hoped that great good will be accomplished. The Baptist State Convention convenes at Spartanburg to-day. Rev. O. L. Martin, Col. J. B. Patrick and Judge W. F. Cox will represent the Anderson Church in Convention.

One day last week the ladies of the M. E. Church met at the parsonage and presented their pastor, Rev. Charles B. Smith, a beautiful silk quilt and a gold-headed walking stick. The Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, will be conducted by Mr. R. Allen, Sabbath school, "What is the Scripture lesson Eph. 2: 8-13. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. R. T. Thornton, who has been filling the position of book-keeper for the R. & D. R. B. at Seneca, has been transferred to Anderson to fill a similar position in the freight depot here. When you come to town don't leave without calling to see us. If you cannot pay us all you owe, a part will be more than welcome. We have waited long and patiently on some of our readers.

Mr. B. P. Norris, formerly of this County but who is now a member of the police force in Columbia, has been critically ill for several weeks. His friends of this County will recall to Anderson his sickness. Mr. W. M. Hall left Anderson Tuesday for Mississippi to attend the bedside of his brother-in-law, Mr. Warren Keown, who is ill with fever. Mr. Hall expects to bring Mr. Keown home as soon as he is able to make the journey.

Thanksgiving Day was very quietly observed in the city. Business generally was suspended, and everybody seemed to enjoy the holiday. Services were held in the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, and were well attended.

An exchange says: "Many persons are suffering this fall from foot troubles. In this connection it is well to remark that simple powdered alum may be as useful as any other remedy. It is a sure cure for soft corns. Apply after soaking the feet well in warm water."

Beasley Messenger: "Mr. A. Beckett Riley, son of Dr. A. B. Riley, who takes charge of the school at Denver, Anderson County, next week. Mr. Riley is a first-class gentleman, and well qualified by education and experience to make a successful teacher."

The Sunday school at Varrennes Church will meet next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. At the conclusion of the school services a concert will be given by the band and all of the members are urged to attend, as business of importance will come before it.

A. G. Means has a new advertisement in this paper that will prove of interest to all who want anything in the clothing line. Mr. Means keeps in stock a line of the latest styles of goods of all kinds. In the "big reduction" there may be a bargain in store for you. Try him.

Married, on Thursday, November 23, 1891, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. B. E. Telford, Mr. B. F. Watson, of Banks County, Ga., and Miss Orla Campbell, eldest daughter of Mr. W. H. Campbell, of this County. Mr. Watson has won the heart and hand of an excellent young lady, who will carry to her new home the best wishes of numerous friends.

We would like to see the sub-Alliance of the County, which is a great source of yield of corn, wheat, oats and such products as are needed at home. Much good would result from this, and would help along the "hog and hominy" cause, and would have its effect in reducing the cotton acreage next year.

Last Monday a difficulty occurred in Rock Mills Township between Geo. W. Brock and a negro named Eliza Brown about some cotton, and resulted in the latter being shot and seriously wounded. Mr. Brock is the proprietor of the store at Rock Mills. On Wednesday morning the negro was still living, but his recovery is doubtful.

Perhaps there was never a time in the history of this land when there was greater need of mutual help from debtor and creditor classes to each other than now. They are all in a state of distress, and it is as well as possible. This is the only way to keep up confidence, for both are equally dependent.

Chrysanthemums are pretty because they bloom when other flowers are dead. Only a few years ago chrysanthemums were of only one variety, and those were scrawny and ugly. Owing to careful cultivation, however, they have been brought up to a high degree of perfection. There now are several hundred varieties. A large number of our ladies take considerable interest in growing them.

Mr. W. J. Elix, a most excellent and highly esteemed citizen of the Fair Play section, died at Walhalla, S. C., Tuesday night, after a long illness. He went to Walhalla a few months ago to spend winter with his wife and family, and to return home. Mr. Elix was well known in both Coconee and Anderson Counties, and his many friends will regret exceedingly to hear of his death.

Messrs. Busch & Schillerer, the clever proprietors of the Anderson Candy Factory, are pushing their enterprises with all the energy possible, and are glad to have their meetings with success. They have increased the capacity of their factory, and are now supplying the wholesale trade with both plain and fancy confections. We are indebted to these gentlemen for samples of their candies, which are equal to the best we have ever eaten. Give them an order, and you will be pleased with their candies as well as their prices.

McCabe & Young's Minstrel Troupe, which visited Anderson last August, are on their way South, and will occupy the Opera House (Thursday) evening. Those of our people who saw the troupe when here were highly pleased with the entertainment, and will no doubt go out again to-night. Wherever the troupe has appeared it has been greeted by large audiences, and the press generally speaks in high terms of the entertainment. Many new features have been added to the program since the troupe was here, and if you have not seen them, hear them. They are good music, singing, etc. go out to-night. Death of Rev. Mr. Gaudin. Rev. Thomas Fisher Gaudin is dead. The sad announcement was about the first that reached our citizens last Tuesday morning as they emerged from their homes and a shock it was to every body, for very few knew that the good man was ill. His illness was of short duration. Two weeks ago he contracted a severe cold while in Walhalla. He came home on Wednesday of last week and was forced to take to his bed. He was not ill until a severe case of pneumonia was developed, which caused his death at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. He was buried in the cemetery at Walhalla, S. C., on Wednesday morning. He was a member of the Baptist Church, and he passed into eternal rest without a struggle.

Mr. Gaudin was born and reared in Charleston, and was a son of the late Rev. Bishop Gaudin, deceased. He was born March 6, 1839, and was therefore in the 53rd year of his age. After being thoroughly trained in the private schools of his native city, he entered the South Carolina College, from which he graduated. Shortly after his graduation the war came on and he served his services to his State as a member of the Marine Artillery, under the command of Capt. E. L. Parker. He served throughout the war, and made a good record as a soldier. At the close of the war he entered the ministry of the Episcopal Church, and about the year 1870 he married Miss Capler. His first charge was the Church at Mt. Pleasant in connection with two other churches. He continued to work there until 1877, when he came to Anderson, since which time he has resided here, serving faithfully as rector of the Anderson, Pendleton, Seneca and Walhalla Churches. The Churches at the two latter places were organized during his ministry, and has gone to reap the rewards of a consecrated life spent in the service of the Lord. He was a most devoted and successful minister, and his many friends will regret exceedingly to hear of his death.

Mr. Gaudin was a most excellent and highly esteemed citizen of the Fair Play section, died at Walhalla, S. C., Tuesday night, after a long illness. He went to Walhalla a few months ago to spend winter with his wife and family, and to return home. Mr. Elix was well known in both Coconee and Anderson Counties, and his many friends will regret exceedingly to hear of his death.
