LOCAL NEWS THURSDAY, JAN. 7, 1892.

Now don't forget to make your tax re-turn to the Auditor. See what A. N. Todd & Co. have to say in their new advertisement.

Miss Matilda Green, of Greenwood, is visiting friends in the city. Our farmers should sow more small

The firm of Seel & Archer has been dissolved. See advertisement.

Hunter's Spring Alliance will meet next Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

The Ladies' Store has a new advertise ment in another column. Read it. If you, reader, have made any new year

The stockholders of the Hones Path Canning Company will hold an important meeting at Hones Path next Saturday, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The taxpayers of the city should read carefully the Supply Ordinance published in another column. The city taxes will

The public schools of Varennes School

District No. 10 opened on Monday, the 4th. Teachers should make a note of this and

Rev. Dr. Frierson will preach at Flat Rock Church on the afternoon of the fourth Sunday, at half past 2 o'clock. All

Mr. Thomas M. Vandiver and his sister, are invited to attend the service.

be the same as last year.

ons or promises, stick to the Our clever friend, W. J. Jones, of Elbert County, Ga., gave us a call Monday.

Frank C. DuPree, of Augusta, Ga., spent a portion of the holidays in Anderson with relatives, Miss telle Norris, a charming young lady of treenville, is visiting relatives in this section.

Mr. H. W. Woolbright and family, of Atlanta, Ga., have been visiting relatives in the County.

Only five saloons have applied for license in the city for 1892. hight did bu-siness here last year. About everybody you meet thinks he has a touch of the grip, and with a good many the belief is a fact.

Mr. W. M. Sherard has located near Seneca, and will conduct a big farm this year. Success to you, Mac. It is not often that this section experiences any colder weather than we had Saturday and Sunday nights.

A big wood pile and a full coal bin are very consoling nowadays, especially if they are on your own premises. There is no improvement in the cotton market, and some farmers say they are "going to quit raising the stuff." iours in the city on Monday.

This is election year, and already it is considered suspicious when you see some cultivating the art of hand-shaking. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williamson, of Elberton, Ga., spent the holidays in Anderson. Our young friend, Scott Brown, has gone to Abbeville to take charge of the telegraph office at the R. & D. R R. depot.

Deputy Sheriff Green, who has had a genuine attack of the grip for a week or two, is now on the mend, we are glad to Mr. John T. Green, of the Belton section, has gone on a visit to relatives in Texas. He will spend several weeks out Mr. E. P. Vandiver has changed base, and is now with A. N. Todd & Co., where he will be pleased to serve his friends at

Do you owe us for your paper? If so, why can't you help us to a little money? It comes in very handy about this season of the year. See advertisement of Probate Judge in regard to annual returns. This is impor-tant to administrators, executors and Miles M. Hunter, Trustee, will sell two fine tracts of land at public outery in this city on Salesday in February. See adver-

From an exchange we learn that a good rat trap can be made by placing a wash pot in a corn crib, fill it half full of water, Mr. L. O. Williford has been appointed to succeed Mr. B. F. Shirley, who recently regioned the position of Trial Justice at cover it with cotton seed, and sprinkle drown. The water must be changed every two or three days. Hundreds of rats can be caught in a week. If you are troubled The Y. M. C. A. next Sunday, at 4 p. m., will be conducted by J. L. Tribble, Esq. Subject: "Persons and Character."—Acts with the pests try this plan which destroys

Gen; E. A. Durham, Junior Water, D. F. Mullikin, Treasurer; J. Jameson, Sec-retary; A. J. Smith, Senior Deacon; J. T. Johnson, Junior Deacon; R. L. Wil-liams and Willie Johnson, Stewards; A.

We were glad to meet Will. J. Moorhead, of Darlington, S. C., in the city a few days ago. He had been spending Christmas at Belton. The INTELLIGENCER was glad to have a call a few days ago from Mr. A. N. San-ders, of Bryant, Ark. Mr. Sanders was born and reared in Anderson County. Our friends should always bear in mind that we charge for publishing obituaries and tributes of respect exceeding ten lines, We are compelled to do this. Ten years ago he moved to Arkansas, and this is his first visit back to his old home. He will spend several weeks in the County visiting his daughters, Mrs. S. M. Jones and Mrs. D. F. West, and other relatives. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anderson Shoe and Leather Company will be held on Tuesday evening, 19th inst. See advertisement. His old friends, we know, are delighted to

Messrs. R. A. Mullikln and J. J. Owen, have formed a copartnership and will con-duct a general merchandise business in Juel Keys, Herbert Barnes, Blair Crayton, Lewis Harrison, Manton Frierson, Guy Rucker, all Anderson boys, came home to spend the holidays. duct a general merchandise business in Williamston Township, about six miles west of Williamston. They have just completed their store-room and are now receiving their goods. An effort is being made to have a postoffice, to be known as Welcome, established at their store. The visit of Mr. John W. Todd and family, of Senecs, to Anderson during the holidays, was a source of much pleasure to their friends and relatives. These young gentlemen are energetic and

Our young friend, Prof. Jno. M. Dean, of Texas, in a private letter to the INTEL-LIGENCER, says: "As an old Anderson County boy you can hardly imagine the pride I feel in the pluck and energy Anderson has shown in her grand effort to get the Female Industrial School located there. May she succeed and continue to go onward and unward in all her good

Miss Fannie, have returned home from Asheville, N. C., where they have been spending the Christmas holidays. The Christmas holidays were unusually quiet throughout this section. There was less drinking and rowdyism than usual, and the police had very little trouble. Salesday in January is always a big day in Anderson, and last Monday was no exception to the rule. The merchants, however, were not rushed with business. Townville, on the place now owned by J. A. Gantt, Esq., and among his pupils were W. F. M. Fant, Esq., Col. J. N. Brown, Mr. E. E. Ledbetter, Miss Mary Ann Dickson and Mrs. Rebecca Smith. He Messrs. J. O., J. W. and W. E. Bigby, of Texas, and brothers of our townsman, Mr. G. F. Bigby, are now visiting their old home and relatives in this County.

Judge Richard Lewis, master in equity and Judge of Probate for Oconee County, shot himself through the heart in his office in Walhalla at 10 o'clock on Monday In addition to the usual advantage conferred by Leap Year on energetic young ladies, 1892 will give them fifty-three Sundays in which to employ these advantages. The County Treasurer is not rushed very considerably at his office just now, and will write your tax receipt at any time. Don't put off paying your taxes too long. Read McGee & Dillingham's new adver-tisement. Their stables are full of fine young horses and mules, which will be sold at hard time prices. Call and see their

Mrs. Susan C. Poore, wife of Mr. J. J. Mr. J. W. Bowden has been elected Secretary and Treasurer and assistant-editor of the paper to be issued by the Alli-ance Publishing Company in Columbia in

Abbeville Press and Banner: "Mr. J. M. Hubbard, of Anderson, made a visit to Abbeville last Monday, leaving Tuesday morning. Come again, we know her well, and wish you success." Rev. T. H. Garrett will preach at Corinth Church No. 2 on the third Sunday and Saturday before at 11 o'clock a. m. The friends of the congregation are memory. cordially invited to attend the services. Laurens has had another fire. This time Messrs. Waymond Holland and J. S. Fowler are the losers, the fire having originated in the building occupied by them. Their stock of goods was partly insured.

The Anderson girls, we are told, are going to have something extraordinary pleasing and entertaining in the shap of a Leap Year dance and sociable before the flowers that bloom in the Spring trains. A large and appreciative audience greeted the Club. Honea Path has some good dramatic talent among her young people, and to make a success of The Presbyterian Church at Shelbyville, Ky., of which Rev. D. E. Frierson, jr., is the pastor, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, 27th ult. Mr. Frierson lost his library, which was a most valuable.

Mr. J. W. Kay, of Conway, Ark., has been spending a few weeks in this County of Broadway Township, has moved into Abbeville County, near Due West, where he will continue farming. Mr. Kerr is a worthy young man, and we join his friends in wishing him well in his new home. was a son of John Moornead, deceased, and was born and reared near Walhalla. In his early manhood he came to Anderson and was engaged in business here for several years. He afterwards did business in Greenville and Honea Path, and a few C. F. Jones & Co. did not hand in their

centlemen , have reduced prices on clothing, snoes and all winter goods, and now is your time to get bargains. Call and see J. W. Quattlebaum, E-q., received a telegram Tuesday evening informing him of the critical illness of his father from pneunew advertisement in time for this week, but look out for it in next paper. These monia. Mr. Quattlebaum left Wednes-day morning for his father's home, and will therefore be absent from his office for

A small 3 room dwelling house, occupied by Chaney Morris, a negro woman, in Pendleton Township, was destroyed by fire last Saturday, about 12 o'clock. Everything in the house was consumed. The fire was caused by the careleseness of

The Augusta (Ga.) Post of the Southern Travellers' Association on Christmas night presented Mr. H. Newt. Reed, the popular guardian of the Post's finances, a beautiful gold-headed cane. Friend Reed is an old Anderson boy, and one of the most popular drummers on the road.

Mr. J. R. Reed, of Cass County, Texas, is now visiting his brother, Mr. W. J. Reed, in Fork Township. Mr. Reed left Anderson County eleven years ago for the far West, and time has dealt gently with him. He will spend several weeks with his relatives and all old friends.

Rev. W. W. Orr, an evangelist representing the A. R. P. Synod, has been conducting a very successful meeting at Generostee Church, in the Corner, during the past week. Much interest is manifested, and up to Monday night thirty persons had joined the Church. The meeting will

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gaillard, of Pendleton, and Mrs. J. W. Stribling and Miss Mary Cherry, of Seneca, came down last week to see Mr. Palmer Gaillard, who was very ill. They were present when he died, and returned to their homes on Monday. Mr. J. W. Stribling spent a few homes in the city on Monday.

I Walhalla Courier: "Mr. J. E. Neville and family left this (Thursday) morning for Williamston, S. C., where they will make their future home. A better family could not move from Oconee County. Their many friends bid them adieu with regret, but wish them every good that fortune can bring in their new home."

We have received several marriage notices for publication without any name signed to them, and, under our rule, they are consigned to the waste basket. Our friends should bear in mind that we never the continuous of the contract of the co publish an announcement or notice of any sort without the name of the sender acsort without the name of the sender accompanies it. This prevents us from boing when she went back to Indiana, that she

The Newberry Herald, of the 30th ult., ays: "Last week Messrs. Sherard & Mior made an assignment to R. H. Wearn for the benefit of their creditors. Liabilities $1,100; nominal assets about $1,300, consisting of the stock. About four months ago these gentlemen came to Newberry from Anderson and opened a ten cent variety cash store."

Mr. L. P. Smith left Anderson for Gaffmey City, S. C., Tuesday afternoon on au important mission. On Wednesday after-noon, at 2,30 o'clock, be and Mrs. Tulie R. Wakefield were married, at the resi-R. Wakeneld were married, at the residence of Prof. R. O. Sams, Rev. Dr. Grif fith officialing. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reach home to-day, and will be warmly welcomed by their numerous friends.

The following officers have been elected to serve Barnett Lodge A. F. M., for the ensuing year: D. I. Spearman, Worshipful Master; A. M. Guyton, Senior Warden; E. A. Durham, Junior Warden; B.

ving, and we wish them much suc-

go onward and upward in all her good undartakings is the wish of an absent

Rev. Hiram Lecroy departed this life in Orangeburg County, S. C., in November, 1891, in his 83rd year. He lived in this County in early life, and was perhaps a native of Pendleton District, though of French descent—the original name being La Croix. In 1839 he taught school near was a Baptist minister for more than fifty afternoon. This is painful news to his friends, of whom he has many in this ed, one of which caused the loss of a leg.

Terrible suffering and prostration of the nervous system caused by his old wounds are supposed to have prompted him to the taking of his own life. He leaves a wife and three children.

Poore, died at her home in the Toney Creek section of the County, on Thursday Slat ult., and her remains were interred at Shady Grove Church the day following. She had been an invalid for a year or more, and her death has been expected at any time for weeks past. She leaves a husband and eight children to mourn the death of a devoted wife and an affectionate mother. Mr. Poore's family are all sick, and four of the children were unable to attend their mather's funeral. Mrs. Poore

. We spent Christmas night at Honea Path, and had the pleasure of witnessing the rendition by the Honea Path Dramatic Club of that interesting 4 act comedy, "Jedediah Judkins, J. P." The characters were sustained by Messrs. B. Y.
Culbertson, J. B. Watkins, J. F. Wilson,
J. G. Mattison, G. E. Moore, L. Y. Moore,
J. C. Latimer, W. C. Sharp, Pat. Muldoon,
Misses Fannie Watkins, Zula Brock,
Sallie Watkins, Lela Moore and Lou McGee, all of whom did exceedingly well. On Sunday, December 27, 1891, by R. P. Martin, Notary Public, at his residence, Mr. George Stratton, of Georgia, and Miss Georgie Black, of Anderson residence of Mr. S. W. Graham, in Abbeville County, by Rey. M. McGee, Mr. J. W. Anderson, of Laurens County, and Miss Mary A. Graham, daughter of the the pastor, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, 27th ult. Mr. Fierson lost his library, which was a most valuable one.

Rev. D. Weston Hiott will preach at Dorchester Church on Saturday before the third Sunday at 11 o'clock, and also on Sunday at the same hour. The members are urged to attend the services promptly.

Gus. Homer's Company gave four entartainments in the Opera House last week, and were greeted by good audiences at sach. Mr. Homer and Miss Minkley are the stars of the Company, and they have a good support.

Author of Brand and Standardson, all o'clock, and last on Sunday at the same hour. The members are urged to attend the services promptly.

Gus. Homer's Company gave four entartainments in the Opera House last week, and were greeted by good audiences at sach. Mr. Homer and Miss Minkley are the stars of the Company, and they have a good support.

Anderson until it moved to Augusta, 15 and 15 an

Mr. R. Lewis Moorhead died at his was a son of John Moorhead, deceased, and was born and reared near Walhalla. years ago moved down to his farm, where he died. Mr. Moorhead was about 44 years of age, and a good citizen in every sense of the word. A widow and five children are left to mourn his death, and in their bereavement they have many sympathizers. The remain s were laid to rest in the Johnson family burying ground, near the home of the deceased.

Mej. Thos. F. Anderson, of Williamston, died at the home of his brother, Mr. Dan-iel Anderson, in Broadway Township, last Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Just a week preceding his death he came to his brother's on a visit, and next day was stricken down with the grip. He gradually grew worse until death came to his relief. Maj. Anderson was about 67 years of age, and had long been a citizen of Williamston. He was strictly an upright, honest man, and by his death Anderson

County loses a most noble and excellent citizen. He was a most zealous member and officer of the Presbyterian Church, had been summoned to attend, and, of course, we were there. Mrs. Craig has an substantial of the season, prepared and served in the best of style, and the guests did justice to it. Officer King, Anderson's baby policeman, was present, and favored the guests with some good music. Mr. and Mrs. Craig made it a most delightful evening for their guests, who will long re

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith died at her home in Fayette County, Ind., on Christmas Day, and the announcement of her death was heard with regret by her old friends and relatives in and around Anderson. Mrs. Smith was born in Abbeville District

A number of years preceding the war Mr.

and Mrs. Smith moved to Indiana. Her husband preceded her to the grave about fifteen years, and in 1882 she returned to might be buried by the side of her hus-band. She left no children, but left a large number of collateral relatives, neph-ews and nieces and their descendants in

J. Palmer Gaillard died at the residence eath, and his physicians were unable to last 10 or 12 years he had been a citizen of Pendleton. A large circle of friends will fore on an American publication, graces of roses or chrysanthemum plants or flower seeds, for $1.60; but the Arkell Weekly Company, 110 Fifth Avenue,

Mr. Thos. A. Murrah, formerly of Anderson, shot and instantly killed Robert C. Bishop at Union, S. C., on Monday night, 28th ult. Mr. Murrah immediately as his counsel. Bishop was a most desper-ate character, and the sentiment of the people of Union are with Murrah. The Spartanburg Spartan, in speaking of the affray, says: "Bob Bishop was shot and affray, says: "Bob Bishop was shot and killed in Union Monday evening. A re-port that reached this place Tuesday of Tom Murrah. In the evening Bishop went into a store, drew a knife and threat-might have been expected any day. No one here is surprised to hear it." Mr.

On Thursday, December 23, 1891, at the residence of John G. Hall, by Rev. W. C. Seaborn, Col. H. Billingsley, of Pickens County, S. C., and Miss Lula Hall, of An-

On Sunday, December 27, 1891, by Rev. D. T. Hays, at Pendleton Factory, Mr. Jenkins Massey and Miss Florenco Kins-ley, all of Anderson County.

On Tuesday, December 29th, 1891, at the Murrah has been admitted to bail.

derson County.

son County.

ndered to the sheriff and engaged Hon. Wm. Munro and Chas. C. Culp, Esq.,

New York, are enterprising people.

this and the Western States.

we were going to sit down to an were interred at Big Creek Church.

home near Lowndesville on Monday, 28th | formed. The wedding supper was a grand been spending a few weeks in this county with his parents, and, of course, his visit was most highly enjoyed. He is enjoy-good health, and says he is well ped with his adopted home.

Though it was generally known that be had been in bad health for several months, the announcement of his death was a shock to his friends and relatives in and around Anderson. Mr. Moorhead deceased. bride. The INTELLIGENCER joins the many friends of the couple in extending congratulations, and hopes their pathway broughout life will be strewn with the richest flowers. The INTELLIGENCER is greatly indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt for a liberal supply of the wedding cakes.

The Anderson Dancing Club scored anther big success in its annual dance, which took place at the Chiquola on Tuesday evening, 29th ult. The occasion attracted a number of visitors to the city. The members of the Club left nothing un done that would add to the pleasures of the evening, and secured Bearden's celebrated orchestra, of Augusta, Ga, to furnish the music for the occasion. Capt. White, the genial manager of the Chiquola, lent the Club his assistance, and did much to make the merry fulks enjoy the evening. The beautiful parlors and spacious ball room of the Chiquola presented a lovely scene, throughout the evening. It was about 9 o'clock when the sweet strains of nusic were first beard and the handsome ouples entered the grand march. Then ollowed the various dances, and it was in the small hours of the morning before Home Sweet Home," was heard. The following ladies graced the floor

Christmas is gone, and things have asumed their natural appearance. Rabbits and birds have been treated very badly judging from the way in which mmunition has been used.

If you see anything unusual about Mr

George McClain next time you meet him, just attribute it to that new boy, for he

A few nights ago the young people of our community met at the residence of our pastor, where they organized a choir to be known as the Cottage Choir, the object of which will be to excel in music.

Weekly meetings will be held, and much improvement in singing is expected

That is much better than frollicking and dancing. It shows that our young people are made of better material, and that they have more self-respect tha those of some other communities, and that they had rather praise God in song than to worship the devil in their dance. May others follow their example.

Well, the children have about go through marrying, so the grown folks have started again. At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Marfon King, Mr.

Melzer Riley and Miss Nora King were married December 24th, 1891, Rev. T. H

Garrett officiating. We extend our con gratulations to the happy couple and wisl them much success.

On December 29th, 1891, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Scott Young, Mr. W. J. Mays and Miss M. E. Young were united in the bonds of matrimony, Rev. W. M. Pinson officiating. May Cupid ever guard their path with love's strongest

On the next third Saturday and Sunday

our pastor and Rev. H. M. Allen will ex-change pulpits. H. M. Allen will preach at Prospect, W. M. Pinson at Cross Roads.

Measles are reported to be in our com munity. Hope their stay will be brief.
Our school numbers forty-five, and is

Mr. T. E. Horton, associate editor o

the Atlanta Journal, spent Christmas with his parents. Williamston is proud to know week. Dr. John Wilson and Mrs. Wilson

Dr. J. T. Wilson, of Honea Path, is with his parents during their sickness. Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, of Greenville, visited their son, Mr. R. T. Smith, last

Miss Anna Dargan, assistant teacher of the High School, arrived Saturday. We hope she will be pleased with Williamston.

Mr. James Stoll, visited his parents during the holidays.

Mr. James Thompson, who has been ill with fever for six weeks, died Monday morning. He was a bright young man, and cut off just as life was beginning for

Mr. J. E. Neville has moved here from Walhalla. He comes here to educate his children. We are glad to welcome him

Prof. J. G. Clinkscales returned to Co-

hiss Lila Prince returned Saturday from an extended trip to Columbia, Augusta, Batesburg and Ninety Six.

We are glad that there were no drunks and rows during Christmas for us to tell of this week. There was not a single case of drunkenness in Williamston during the holidays. Where is another town that can say this?

At a meeeting of the congregation of St. John's Episcopal Church, Walhalla, which was called for the purpose of paying an appropriate tribute to our late Rector, Thos. F. Gadsden, the following resolutions were passed:

Father to remove from his sphere of use

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly llness an earth, our beloved Rector, the Rev. Thos. F. Gadsden, whose purity of character, energy of purpose and devo-tion to duty, combined with a singular gentleness and meekness, beautifully i!

ustrated the disciple of Him, who al-boldly, even to the death on the cross; and, whereas, we deeply feel the loss which has befallen us and the Diocese of South Carolina; therefore be it

Resolved, 1st. That we recognize and opreciate the great work performed by Mr. Gadsden in this section, which gave ncouragement and new life to our feeble and scattered church people, and brought system and order into the several places under his charge, resulting in the build-ing of the chapel in Seneca, the church in Walhalla, and the Rectory in Ander-

Resolved, 2d. That to have known and been intimately associated with Mr. Gadsden and to have been under his Christian character.

Resolved, 3d. That while we feel tha

God knows best, and while we bow in submission to his will, still we deeply grieve for him who has been taken.

Resolved, 4th. That we extend our most heartfelt sympathy to those whom he so dearly loved in their great affliction.

Resolved 5th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, that they be inscribed in our Parish Register, and that the Charleston

News and Courier, the Keowee Courier

the Anderson Intelligencer, and the Diocesan Intelligencer be requested to publish the same.

J. D. McCollough, Chairman.

and seventeen years of age, enjoys the distinction of being the father of a baby born three weeksago. This is the twenty-first child that he has dandled on his knee. He has been married three

LEMON ELIXIR.

A Pleasant Lemon Drink

For Billiousness, Constipation and Ma

A Missouri man, who is three score

C. M. NIELD, Secretary.

ough mild and gentle, yet met danger hat she gave Mr. Horton to the world. La grippe is quite prevalent. Dr. W. W. Wilson, Mr. Sadler, Prof. Gaines and Mr. G. K. Willis were suffering with it last reaking my record.

the boy) is the cause of it.

and his work there will be greatly missed. The funeral services were held in the Presith their presence: byterian Church at Williamston on Wednesday morning, being conducted by Miss Furguson, of Greenville, in crim-son cashmere, white chillen trimmings, Rev. C. I. Stuart, after which the remains princess style.
Miss Christine VonBorstell, of Ander-Mr. S. T. Craig, as was stated in our last issue, has moved into his handsome new residence, and on New Year's night he in-vited his workmen and a few friends to son, in pale blue and white silk, trim-med in beaded passementerie and chif-

Miss Kate Marshall, in yellow silk, gather around a bountiful table, which had been spread especially for the occa-sion. We were one of the fortunate who dotted tulle and pearls.

Miss C. Miller, of Greenville, in pink China silk, most tastefully trimmed. Mrs. John M. Patrick, in beautiful blue silk brocade en train trimmed with enviable reputation in the culinary art among her numerous friends, and we lue satin ribbon, ornaments diamonds. Miss Gertrude Hammond, pale blue albatross with garnet trimmings.

Miss Annie Humphreys, light blue
China silk, chiffon trimmings, with diaelegant feast—one that a country editor does not enjoy often—and so it was. The bill of fare included every luxury and aond ornaments.

Miss Eunice Prevost, gendarme blue, elaborately embroidered in boquets of ink and blue forget-me-nots. Miss Ina Hill, cream rhadame silk hiffon trimmings.
Mrs. A. G. Means, black silk, turquois rimmings. Miss Maggie Fretwell, of McCormack, in heliotrope albatross, trimmed profuse-ly with cream lace. and several others have it now.

Mr. Sadler has taken charge of the hotel.

Mr. H. M. Prince, who has had charge of the same, moved into the house vacated by Miss May Miller, white silk in cream Miss Eva Prevost, in pink satin, with tinsel tulle. Miss Lizzie Keese, pink silk trimmed

April 9, 1796, and was therefore in the 96th year of her age. She was the eldest of seven children of the late John and Mary Brown. Miss Donaldson, of Greenville, silk gauze trimmed in black lace.
Miss Mamie Webb, in green silk In early life she married Rev. George Smith, of the Methodist Church, and for rimmed in pink ribbon, and black more than seventy years of her long life was a consistent member of that Church. Miss Nannie Donaldson, of Greenville, in cream cashmere, with lace trim-Miss Claudia Prevost, in white satin, trimmed in white lace.

Miss McBee, of Greenville, pink chiffon, trimmed in blue.
Miss Fannie Hoke, of Grenville, in white satin trimmed with lace and feath-

Miss Birnie, of Greenville, in cream albatross, with white silk fringe trimnings. Miss Zoe Bleckley, in pink cashmere, of his sister, Mrs. R. L. Orborne, in this city, on the morning of the 2nd inst. Mr. Gaillard had been sick for a number of months, and came to Anderson about two Miss Zoe Bleckley, in pink cashmere, trimmed in Chiffon lace.

Miss Sophie Blythe, of Greenville, in pink silk and black tulle.

Miss Dunwoody, of Atlanta, Ga., in blue silk, trimmed with blue velvet, corsage boquet of white velvet posies.

Miss Leeze Whitner, in black and white, China silk, trimmed with handsome black lace. conths before his death. Dropsy of the Eart was the illness that brought on his stay the hand of the disease that had fastened itself upon him. The funeral took place Sabbath afternoon. Services were held in the Methodist Church by the pastor, the Rev. C. B. Smith, after which the Miss Marshall, of Abbeville, in cary silk, dotted tulle with gilt trimmings

Among the gentlemen visitors we seed body was borne to Silver Brook Cemetery and there laid to rest. Messrs. Wm. Laughlin, T. F. Hill, C. F. Jones, R. S. Hill, A. G. Means and D. S. Maxwell Among the gentlemen visitors we did the following: John Slattery, Jr., r. H. Pope, Joe Rutledge, R. L. Crooksha ks, J. W. Ferguson, T. H. Gossett, J. O. Westfield and C. B. Earle, of Greenville; J. D. Chalmers and Frank Smith, of Abbeville; D. A. P. Jordan, of Greenwood; H. P. McBrayer, Shellow N. C. T. M. acted as pall bearers. The deceased was a son of the late Dr. C. L. Gaillard and Mrs. A. L. Gaillard, and was born in this Coun-H. P. McBrayer, Shelby, N. C.; T. M. v. near Sandy Springs, in 1851. For the Weston and F. Marion Rucker, Columbia,

The farm of the late Hugh Knox, one This week's issue is really the first of mile above Belton, containing 77 acres, was bought at public sale Monday by M. A. Breazeale for $1,010. the colored Leslie numbers. A magnifi-cent frontispiece, finer than anything be-Mr. and Mrs. T. Columbus Poore have its pages. It represents a cow-boy race on the plains, and is printed in four colors. It is artistic to a degree unknown. The women will be interested in the picture which shows returned from Darlington, and will reside at the home place of the late Berry Lewis. The Belton school will resume its sessions next Monday.

Mrs. Jeff Poore, of the Toney Creek section, died last week of rheumatism of Baby Ruth Cleveland taking an airing, The striking picture of the burning of the steamer Abgssinia in mid-ocean and the rescue of the passengers; the magnificent the heart after a protracted illness.

Owing to the prevalence of sickness and Cold weither, no services were held in the Bapt'st Church last Sunday night.

R. E. Withers. of Yorkville, has been succeeded by W. N. Geizer as night operator at the R. & D. Station. A very pleasant masquerade party was held Thursday ni, it at the residence of Mrs. S. M. Geer.

rescue of the passengers; the magnificent features of the great poet, Walt Whitman; figure pieces by the best ameteur photographers, and the pages devoted to the children and the graphological department, will interest our readers. The beautiful bit of music called "Christmas Chimes" and the fourth of the saries of the Chimes" and the fourth of the series of the articles by Professor Totten make it the John T. Green and family will leave in few days for an exter led visit to Texas. Rev. and Mis J. T. Smith spent the most interesting publication of the new year. It is a wonder how twelve such good numbers can be furnished, together with the graphological chart, and an oder on Peter Henderson & Co. for $1.25 worth olidays with friends and relatives at Je-

sup. Ga.

Miss Daisy Rice, who has been attending Converse College, Misses Rosa Poore and Fannie Horton, who are at the Greenville Female College, and W. C. Clink-scales, of Furman University, spent the holidays at home.
Miss Birdie Gifford, of Marion, spent Christmas with Miss Rosa Poore and Miss Norma Howle, of Greenville, part of the holidays with Miss Mallie Geer.

Among recent visitors to Belton have been: Mrs. L. L. McGee, Misses Mamie Benson and Irene Osborne, Judge W. F.

Cox and Beattie Gossett, of Anderson; Wm. J. Moorhead and Ben. E. Geer, of Darlington; Mrs. A. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shannon, of Greenville; port that reached this place Tuesday morning is about as follows: During the day Bishop was drinking. He had a quarrel or two with a tinner by the name Dr. and Mrs. John McFall, of Cokesbury; Mrs. Emeline Vandiver, of Anderson County.

Dr. and Mrs. John McFall, of Cokesbury; Mrs. Emeline Vandiver, of Anderson County.

Dr. and Mrs. John McFall, of Cokesbury; Mrs. Emeline Vandiver, of Anderson County.

quarrel or two with a tinner by the name week at Fountain Inn, and Mr. and Mrs. went into a store, drew a knife and threatened to cut some person. Murrah was passing by and Bishop being in the door, or near it, the quarrel was renewed when Murrah fired and killed him. Murrah came from Anderson with Mr. Bewley several years ago. He is said to be a quiet, well-behaved man. Bishop's career has been a bloody one. He was a powerful.

A. C. Latimer at Greenville.

Several citizens have been recont sufferers from the grip. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler are still quite ill from this malady.

Mrs. Barbara Dean has for three weeks been seriously ill. Her condition has, however, recently improved, and her recovery is now looked for.

Relton is soon to have one or two wells. A. C. Latimer at Greenville. Belton is soon to have one or two wed-been a bloody one. He was a powerful man physically and when drinking was reckless. He killed a marshal at Blacks several years ago and was convicted of dings. The cards will be out in a fow days.

Prof. Daniel Ducello gave an exhibition manslaughter and sentenced to the peni-tentiary three years. He was pardoned a short time before expiration of his sen-tence. He was a great bully and took pleasure in intimidating the police force of any town. His violent death is what of feats in legerdemain and kindred arts in Stringer's Hall Tuesday night. According to the new railroad schedule the afternoon trains for Anderson, Green-ville and Columbia meet at Belton at 5 o'clock. The change is agreeable. Mr. Williamson Grubbs died at his home, three miles south of Belton, December 24th, after a two weeks illness from neumonia. The deceased was one of the est known and most respected citizens in the County, and was about $5 years old. His remains were interred, after approriate services, at Barker's Creek Church of which he was an honored and consistent member. He leaves four children: C. C., R. M. and George W. Grubbs, and

Mrs. T. J. Cox.

Flat Rock Items. It is not often, Mr. Editor, that the readers of the Intelligencer hear from our section, and as the news contributed by lo-cal correspondents is one of the most interesting features of the paper, and as we have so much news about here, I cannot orego the opportunity to let you hear

On Thursday, December 24, 1891, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Ransom Forrester, by Rev. W. C. Seaborn, Mr. Luther Bagwell and Miss Essie Forrester, both of Anderson County. On Wednesday, December 23, 1891, at residence of the bride's father, in Hart County, Ga., by Rev. H. B. Fant, Mr. A. Wayne Fant, of Anderson County, and Miss Ora T. Boleman, formerly of Ander-Flat Rock is certainly rising. We now have two fine Churches—Baptist and Presbyterian-and will have preaching four times a month this year by first-class di-On Tuesday, December 29, 1891, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. C. V. Barnes, Mr. B. F. Duncan and Miss Gula E. Strickland, all of Anderson

We also have just built a new school house, 40x30, which is elegantly finished and handsomely furnished. We have subscribed $400 to the school fund, and secured a classical teacher for ten months.

All we lack now of being a town is a store, postoffice and blacksmith shop. We have the material, and the others will come. We are all at peace and have good will toward each other. Young folks, here is the place to get the marriage ceremony performed. If you can't find either of the three preachers, we have one Trial Justice and six Notaries Public in a radius of one mile.

If you get sick four doctors in two miles If hungry six mills and cotton gins and saw mills, all run by steam, inside two

BIG REDUCTION

— IN —

PRICES! FOR THE WIL

FOR THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS

--- AT

increasing every day.

Mr. Thomas McClure has bought the place of Mr. Henry Cox. Our Large Stock must be sold Out Well, Mr. Editor, you did not come out and go bird hunting with me, but I tell you I made the feathers fly. There are other items that could be before the Holidays are Over. given, but as I never have contributed to the waste basket, I will close for fear of

Square Cut Sacks, Double-Breast Square Cut Sacks, Single Breast Sacks,

Prince Alberts,

a Christmas Present.

Come early and get a good selection.

A. C. MEANS, JR.

P. S .--- All Accounts must be Settled at once.

Special Gadsden and to have been under his spiritual charge, was a privilege for which we are profoundly thankful, and that our acquaintance with this good man will ever give us a higher opinion of the Christian chargetar.

BOYS' SUITS REDUCED IN PRICE. MEN'S SUITS REDUCED IN PRICE. OVERCOATS REDUCED IN PRICE. PANTS REDUCED IN PRICE.

COME, if you want Clothing. A Big Stock we must close out before Christmas. These prices mean business-we are going to sell and SAVE YOU MONEY

Nice Boys' Suits from $1.25 up. Men's Suits from $3.50 up. Don't pay big prices at other places, but come to us.

Shoes, Shoes! Shoes!

Douglass Shoes, best in the World. Shoes for Children. Shoes for Grown People. Shoes for Everybody.

WE HAVE A BIG STOCK OF

GOOD SOLID SHOES. Children's Shoes from 25c. up.

Ladies' Good Solid Button Shoes only $1.00. We have thousands of Shoes, and mean to sell. Come, see for yourselves.

From now until Christmas is the time to buy Shoes cheap at

C. F. JONES & CO.

JONES, SEYBT&Q

ARE PREPARED TO FIX YOU

Call on them and let them show their Line of

WINTER DRESS 600

EMBRACING ALL THE LATEST NOVELTIE

We have just received our SECOND ORDER, and they are just the this cold weather. Call and let us show you through.

Dress Trimming

In all the New Things that are out.

Cloaks, Jackets and Capes.

Be sure and look at our Stock of Ladies' Cloaks before you buy, Department we show the largest line that has ever been shown in Ande

Jackets In all the Latest Goods, Fur Capes at from Five to Ten D

Gents' All Wool Underwear from $1.00 to Our Woolen Underwear Dep Is again replete with all Wool Goods, all sizes and at all

BLANKETS, BLANKET

Do these cold nights remind you that you need Blankets? JONES, SEYBT & CO. and let them show you their elegant show you 10 4, 11-4 and 12-4 Blankets cheaper than you have eve

In fact, if you need anything in Wint CALL ON

JONES, SEYBT & CO

DURING THE NEXT 60 DAY

We will sell our Entire Stock of

Men's,

Youths' and Children

CLOTHIN

At Prices to correspond with the Low Price of Cotton and the scarcity of Money.

WE ARE MAKING THIS SPECIAL OFF

In order to enable us to change our business by January 1st, 1892.

THIS IS NO IDLE ASSERTION, Calculated to do a Catch-Penny business, but we mean exactly what we

NO MATTER HOW CHEAP Others are claiming to sell their Goods in this line, you will find us alwa

WE EMPHATICALLY MEAN BUSIN

You can save fully from ten to twenty per cent on any piece of C may buy of us, and the only way to convince yourself will be by it Stock and comparing our prices and quality.

LESSER &

Occupying Both Stores

UNDER MASONIC T

ANDERSON

For Indigestion, Sick and Nervous Head For Hungeston, Siek and Nervous Head-ache, take Lemon Elixir.

For Sleeplessness, Nervousness and Heartfailure take Lemon Elixir.

For Fevers, Chills and Debility, take Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take Lemon Elixir.

Dr. Mozley's Lemon Elixir will not fail you in any of the above named diseases, all of which arise from a torpid liver, aria, take Lemon Elixir.

stomach, kidneys or bowels.

Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga. 50c. and $1 bottles at drug-Cures all Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, fore Throat, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Hemorrhage and all throat and lung dis-An elegant and reliable preparation.
Twenty-five cents at druggists. Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga.

Ask your Grocer for White Rose Leaf Lard and Buffalo Hams. tf To Sportsmen

It is certainly a pleasing privilege to in-spect the superb line of Breech and Muzzle Loading Shot Gens, and other fire-arms now being offered by the Sullivar Hardware Company. They are certainly up with all the modern improvements in this line of goods, and notwithstanding the additional tariff duties recently im posed upon all imported fire-arms, their prices are remarkably low. This firm has taken out a license for the sale of pistols and pistol cartridges, and are giving spe-cial attention to the selection of these goods. Their stock of ammunition wil

When the blood is impure, thick, an sluggish, or thin and impoverished, there can be no health. With these conditions, all the functions of the body are im-paired, and the result is a variety of dan-gerous complications. The best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A. G. MEANS, JR.

SUITS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

Cutaways,

And all the Leading Styles at Reduced Prices.

$5.00 per Suit. Fine line of Umbrellas, something nice for Our entire Stock must be sold.

RED FRONT.

Sale