Georgia Farmers in a Fix. AUGUSTA, GA., February 2.-Augusta banks are not loaning farmers any more noney on their country real estate. The Twitty bill that the last Georgia Legislature made a law causes ail the trouble. The new law is that all obligations to pay attorneys' fees on any note or other evidence of indebtedness, in addition to the rate of interest specified therein, is court has the power to enforce such a contract or agreement to pay such attorneys' fees unless a plea be filed by the law, if the banks loan money to farmers on their real estate and the farmer does not meet his obligation when it falls due the bank will have to pay the lawyer's fee of 10 per cent. to get judgment against the borrower in court and collect the account. This expense, the banks believe, should fall upon the man who defaults, and not upon the bank; and unless the law is repealed, farmers will find it a diffiguit matter to raise money on their country property. Unless the law is revoked the poor farmers will be in a worse

> Macon, Ga., February 14.—Some time ago the Telegraph mailed inquirles to every cotton raising County in Georgia asking for estimates on the cotton acreage of the present year. Reports were received from a large majority of these correspondents, and to-morrow morning the Telegraph will publish the result.

The replies indicate a general reduction of acreage devoted to cotton throughout the State of about 20 per cent. as compared with the crop of last year. Consider ing the early date at which these estimates were made the Telegraph will say that a conservative estimate will show at least 15 per cent. less acreage than that of

The acreage devoted to cotton herefofore will this year be planted in corn, wheat, peas, and other food crops. Tobacco culture will also claim attention from Georgia farmers, and in some Counties where experiments have proven successful a large crop will be planted. For instance, in Decatur County, where it has been demonstrated that cigar tobacco may be very successfully produced, the tobacco acreage this year will be a least 5.000 acres. The amount of commercial fertilizers used this year will be fully 30 per cent. less than last year, and this gives emphasis to the estimated reduction of the cotton crop, as it is almost out of the ques tion to raise a successful cotton crop in any portion of the State without their

The lady lived near the line of the road at a station where the freight and passenger trains meet. Both trains arrived there at about the same time. As the freight train was coming in, the lady, whose name my informant failed to get, saw her three children playing on the track, the engine being then nearly upon them. The mother ran to the track and tried to get them out of the way, but the engine struck the group. The body of the mother was rolled under the wheels and terribly mangled; one child was killed outright, and the other two children were tossed to the roadside. One had an arm outright, and the other two children were tossed to the roadside. One had an arm and a leg broken, and the other was cut and bruised, but not fatally hurt.

RAT TRAPS.

The famous Marty Traps are selling like hot cakes, and are giving universal satisfaction. We filled last week an order from Charleston for these Traps, and as an evidence of what they will do, we append several certificates from parties who have purchased and used them : CERTIFICATES.

Autun, S. C., Feb. 1. 1892-Cunningham & Humphreys, Anderson, S. C.-Sirs The Rat Trap I bought of you I consider a success. It is really the best Trap I ever saw. I have caught as high as 17 grown rats in one day. It caught it rats from noon until sundown at one haul. All you have to do is to keep it baited with something they will eat. Yours truly, SAM'L. McCRARY. Cunningham & Humphreys—Dear Sirs: I bought one of your Marty Rat Traps some time in last December, and have caught 50 rats up to this time, and think it the best Trap I ever saw. Any one who is troubled with rats can't do better than to buy one, as it is money well spent.

PETER G. ACKER.

To Messrs. Cunningbam & Humphreys: This is to certify that in one week we caught in your Celebrated Marty Rat Trap 123 rats, mostly grown. In one night we caught as many as 26. I regard it the best Trap in the world. J. S. FOWLER
