Mrs. Lizzie Sharpe died at the home of her brother, Mr. C. G. Richey, at Pendle-ton, last Thursday night, about 8 o'clock. She had been sick about ten days with pneumonia, which had followed an attack of the grip. Mrs. Sharp was 51 years of age, and was born and reared near Hodges, S. C. In her young womanhood she married Mr. Robert C. Sharpe, who she married Mr. Robert C. Sharpe, who moved to Mississippieand engaged in business. After a residence of twelve years or more in Mississippi, Mr. Sharpe died, and Mrs. Sharpe and her children came back to her old home. At one time she resided in this city, and by her gentle, loving disposition made many friends here, all of whom regret her death. Her remains were brought to Anderson Saturday morning and interred in the Baptist Churchyard, Rev. O. L. Martin conducting the funeral service. She leaves one son and three daughters, one of whom is Mrs. J. N. Watkins, of this city, to cherish her memory. She had long been a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and has gone to her eternal home to reap the rewards of a faithful christian.

South Carolina will be entitled to thir-teen beneficiary scholarships at the Pea-body Normal College at Nashville, Tenn., at the end of the present scholastic session. By the regulations of the board such students as attend the school for one year at their own expense are entitled to subsequent scholarships. Five South Carolina young ladies come in under this class. The remaining vacancies will be filled in the usual way.

It might not be known that the Peabody scholarship is worth $200 a year, and is good for two years. The college year consists of eight months, beginning on the first Wednesday in October and closing an the last Wednesday in May, and scholarship students receive from the president of the college $25 at the end of each of these eight months.

Each scholarship is good for any two consectutive years above the Freshman class; that is, for Sophomore and Junior, or for Junior and Senior, or for Senior or for Junior and Senior, or for Senior and Post-firaduate.

A competitive examination will be held during the summer to award the remaining eight places. The requirements for applicants will be: The ability to read fluently, to write a fair hand, to spell correctly, and to express thoughts in grammatical English; to solve problems of moderate difficulty under all the ordinary rules of arithmetic, and to de-

R." says how easy it would have been for the malcontents to have waited until April and controlled the organization of the Clubs with the large majority that they, the malcontents, claim to have, and send delegates to the May Convention, and that Convention would have carried out their wishes. Why didn't "T. H. R." talk that way two years ago? Men who have been vascillating all their lives, as some have, to rise up now and talk about men who are tried and true, I think it is just too much. To talk about such a man as Orr, whose service to the State is almost part of the State's history.
