COLUMBIA. November 10 .- The ques tion as to who will have any influence in the distribution of the Federal offices in South Carolina is already being actively discussed. A great many of the good Domocrats of the State may think-and have good reason for it-that the Tillmanites will not get any important portion of the patronage. A great many more would suppose that the Tillmanites, considering the official as well as the unofficial abuse they heaped upon the shoul-ders of Grover Cleveland, would not have the audacity to ask for office. Some may imagine that these leaders would not condescend to ask for office after they did everything possible at the after they did everything possible at the most critical time to prevent the nomina-tion of the only Democrat who could have won such a "cyclonic" victory. But such is not the case, for the politicians of that stamp are "not built that way." They will, so I am informed, make a fort for every important place and it is fight for every important place, and it is suggested that they claim to have some assurances that they can get in a word to the powers at Washington u: der Cleveland. Anyway it is sure to be an inter esting fight, and somebody will be surprised at the result. It is stated on pretty good authority here that Cleveland has expressed himself that he would remember the action of the May Convention and those who took part in it. He is expected use his indivdual discretion in the appointments left entirely to him, and the Tillmanites are not quite so confident that they will have any considerable influence with President Cleveland. The Congressmen, it is thought, will have pretty full con-trol of the appointments in their districts and in most of the postoffice appointments the selections will be left mostly to the South Carolina delegation ; but of them all Major Brawley, on account of his devotion to Cleveland and the true Democracy, will be facile princeps. There is already considerable talk about those who will have any influence with the Federal authorities. The Hempwith the Federal authorities. The Hemp-hills-John J. and J. C.-Gen. Hampton, Gen. Kennedy and Ex-Governor Thomp-son, it is said, will have a considerable influence with Cleveland, and any one of them could get a desirable appointment by the mere turning over of the hand. Gen. Hampton, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the head of the war department, it is understood, does not want it or any other office. His intimate relationship to the war depart-ment as chairman of the war committee of the Senate makes him thoroughly familiar with the affairs of that department. Gen. Leroy F. Youmans, who was district attorney, is out for the place which was taken away from him by the Re-publicans. Gen. Youmans was regarded is one of the most efficient officers under President Cleveland. He is in high favor with the National Democratic lead ers, and has a great many political friends in this State among both factions. Col. Joseph H. Earle and Mr. Charles A. Douglass are also prominently mentioned for the place. Had not W. C. Benet made that bitter speech against Clove-land in the May Convention he would perhaps already have been a candidate for the place. The Tillmanites at this end of the line so far as can be understood, are disposed to leave Charleston to take care of her

The contest is over. There are sur-prises, and Illinois heads the list. No Republican believed the State in danger. No Democrat really claimed it. The city of Chicago has done the work. As for New York the result there has shown that that State is Democratic when the Democrats are united. They were united this year, and this fact, added to a certain not enjoyed this control since the 40th apathy which kept many Republicans at home, gives the thirty-six electoral votes to Cleveland. Let the Democrats profit by the lesson and remember in their administration of the affairs of the Government that public officers are but representatives of the people, and that their efforts should be directed in behalf of the whole people and not a part of them. Let them remember of West Virginia, and Hoke Smith, of Georgia, are among those mentioned for positions. What Will They Do With It.

WASHINGTON, November 11.—There is a probability that the 53d Congress will be called in extra session next March immediately after the inauguration of President Cleveland. The Senate will, ot course, be convened to act upon the nominations of the incoming President, but there is so much legislation for the Democrats to accomplish that it is the opinion of the party leaders that the the work cannot be commenced too soon. The great tidal wave of last Tuesday has brought with it complete control for

has brought with it complete control for has brought with it complete control for the Democrats of every branch of the National Legislature. For the first time since the war that party will be domi-nant and will be enabled to place upon the statute books the laws which the peo-ple have desired for so long in vain. The Senate is Democratic overwhelming Senate is Democratic, overwhelmingly so, on questions affecting the tariff, and at least a tie on organization. A general reorganization may be looked for next March, with the Democrats assuming other tariff reformers, who have been leading a hitherto hopeless fight, will enter with enthusiasm. They are thor-oughly familiar with the subject and will bring to bear upon their task the experi-order stight through many a patient in

There will be diverse interests to reconcile and extreme views will have to be The responsibilities that now rest upon the Democrats are great, but no one doubts for one moment that they will be acquitted with credit. As the great tariff reformer and Ex-Congressman, Wm. R. Morrison, said to your correspondent, "The Democrats have been waiting for a good many years for the responsibilities to come, and they are not likely to shirk hem now." But the tariff, while the most imporant matter to engage the attention of the Democrats, is but one of a number of opics that must be legislated upon. For years that partisan action of a Republican Senate has defrauded three Territories of the West of the right of Statehood, simply because they cast Democratic majorities at each election. Idaho, Montana, Wyming, the two Dakotas and Washington were all admitted without question because the Republicans knew that by their admission the votes in the Republican electoral column would be materi-ally swelled and a dozen Republican Sen-ators sent to the National Capital to swell the majority of that party. If it had not been for this action the Democrats would long since have been in control of the Senate. Happily the day of righteous-ness and justice has come at last. New Mexico, which has been vainly seeking Statehood for many long years, will enter the sisterhood through the agency of a Democratic House and Sen-ate, and Arizona and Utah will also be admitted. This will give the Democrats nine additional electoral votes, and will, moreover, add six Democratic votes to the Democratic side of the Senate chamber, The present House has already passed Acts for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona, so that as soon as the new Congress comes in it will not take long for both houses to agree upon a simple act of justice to the defrauded Territories. The repeal of the Federal election laws, which have been a disgrace and a blot upon the statute books, will be another important thing to damand the attention
