

Eggs are scarce and in demand in the city. The P. M. I. Commencement is just one month off. Read the local notice of Dr. Quillian in another column. Improvements are going on in nearly every section of the city. Mr. J. A. Hutchinson, of Elbert County, Ga., was in the city Monday. The early gardener is now enjoying some of the fruits of his labor. The indications are that Winter has at last risen from the lap of Spring. Mr. Baylis Maxwell and family expect to go to the mountains next week. Several of our early gardeners are feasting on home-raised peas and potatoes. A number of our citizens are in Savannah enjoying the Gala Week festivities. Children's Day will be observed in the Presbyterian Church on the fourth Sunday. A 25 pound cat fish was caught in Seneca River a few days ago and brought to the city. Capt. P. K. Norris has spent his summer home in the mountains to spend a few days. Rev. A. L. Patterson will preach at Oodoch Church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Services are being held in the Methodist Church every night this week and are well attended. Business is holding up very well, and the people generally are paying cash for what they buy. Miss Nannie Donaldson, of Greenville, is in the city visiting her brother, Lieut. T. O. Donaldson. An old gardener says now "is the right time of the moon" to plant your main crop of potatoes. The price of cotton does not vary much, though the market has been a little firmer the past few days. Mayor Tolly has been spending a few days in Elberton, Ga., visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wilson. The Clerk of Court has received the pension money for the widows of the old soldiers in this County. The new front to the Peoples' block on Brick Range is about completed, and is a great improvement. The Intelligence Job Office does all sorts of Job printing. Send us your orders. Satisfaction guaranteed. There is an ordinance against fast driving on the streets of the city, and it should be enforced by the authorities. The County Commissioners have an important notice in another column in reference to cleaning out streams, etc. Mr. Mason Miller, of Lowndesville, has recently accepted a position with the C. A. Reed Music House, in this city. Mr. Warren D. Maroney, of Spartanburg, after an absence of five years, is in the city visiting friends and relatives. It seems that the cat crop will be short in every section of the South, and it will have its effect on the price of corn. Our young friend, Leland Frierson, who is a student of the Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C., is spending a few days at home. The drummers say business has dropped off suddenly in every section, and think it is likely to remain so for the next three or four months. Fires and orerats have felt comfortable for the past few days, and many persons who had laid aside their flannels retired their act. Capt. Walden the popular Conductor on the S. V. R. E., has been off duty for a few days resting and recovering at his home in this city. Young Mother—"Don't you think baby very much like his father?" Lady Yieling, I do. "But don't worry. He may grow out of it." Mr. E. Henderson has formed a partnership with Mr. G. L. Leak, and is conducting a family grocery and meat market on Depot Street. If the present fashion develops much further, it will take dressmakers and tailors to make a dress and twenty yards more to make the sleeves. Rev. O. L. Martin has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to attend the Southern Baptist Convention, and there will be no services in his Church next Sunday. We have received an invitation to attend the fifth annual commencement of the Montevideo (Ga.) High School, which takes place to-day and to-morrow. About seventy-five persons boarded the Savannah Valley train Monday morning for Augusta to attend the stockholders' meeting of the P. R. & W. C. R. R. Dr. J. M. Bosworth will deliver a lecture especially to young people at Oodoch Path next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. All are invited to attend the lecture. Mr. A. T. Nowell has returned home from an extended trip through the North-west, during which he visited Chicago and witnessed the opening of the World's Fair. Who can give a correct answer to the following question: "If a man sells a horse for $50, buys him back for $80, then resells him for $100, how much does he make?" Mr. Frank E. Harrison, of Wallhalla, has been spending a day or two in the city. Mr. Harrison, who is an old Anderson boy, is now one of Wallhalla's leading merchants. Gen. W. W. Humphreys, accompanied by a number of our citizens, went down to Augusta Monday to attend the annual meeting of the stockholders of the P. R. & W. C. R. R. Mr. A. B. Towers exhibited some very fine strawberries last Monday from his garden. Three of them weighed two ounces, and one measured five inches in circumference. The colored folks will have a picnic at Seneca Falls on Saturday. They are invited to all their friends to attend and bring their dinner baskets. The Ebenezer School will have a picnic at Martin's Spring next Saturday, 13th inst. The pupils cordially invite their friends to attend and join with them in the pleasures of the day. We are requested by the assignee of A. G. Means, Jr., and agent for creditors, to state that the account of Mr. S. A. McCowan was sold by Mr. S. A. McCowan was not notified of the account, and was not aware that he owed the same. Our city yards are now radiant with love-lies. Roses are blooming, and in this climate they grow to their greatest perfection. With lawns carpeted by green grass, and the walls bordered with roses of every hue, it is indeed a pleasing sight to the eye to wander around this city and view the lovely scene.

The Columbia Carnival takes place next Wednesday and Thursday, and an interesting program has been arranged for the occasion. The railroad will sell round trip tickets for one fare. Several of our friends tell us that they had the INTELLIGENCE force in mind when they planned their watermelon patches, and will remember us in a more substantial way when the melons ripen. J. W. Quattlebaum, Esq., is prepared to secure rooms in advance in Chicago for persons who expect to visit the World's Fair. If you contemplate making the trip, call on him for further information. Persons who contemplate going to the World's Fair, should note what Fred D. Bush, District Passenger Agent of the L. & N. R. R., Atlanta, Ga., says in his advertisement in another column. Mr. Bush will do you right. We invite the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Messrs. Brownlee & Vandiver. These gentlemen carry a general stock of merchandise, and will make it to your interest to consult them before buying elsewhere. Prof. John T. Milford will conduct a singing at Playah Church next Sunday, and wants the Sunday School of that Church to meet him there promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. All who feel interested are cordially invited to attend the singing. Messrs. C. S. Minor, S. D. Brownlee and C. W. Webb have recently had an increase in their families. "The two former have been presented with fine boys, while the latter is rejoicing because his is a daughter. Accept our congratulations, gentlemen. We had the pleasure of sampling G. M. Tolly's new brand of cigars, "The Sun-shine," and we commend them to those of our readers who enjoy a good smoke. Try this new brand, and you will agree with us that there is not a better 5-cent cigar in the city. A Georgia exchange remarks: "Glorious May, with its soft, balmy air and blue skies, and its picnics, woodchicks, summer girls, redbugs, baseball cranks, gentle zephyrs, beautiful flowers, fish liars and make life, is fairly upon us. Hail, gentle May, we are with you." Married, on Thursday evening, May 4, 1893, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Tribble, Dr. A. C. Tribble and Miss Lillian Hopkins, both of Anderson County. We join the friends of the young couple in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life. Under the new schedule the morning connection at Seneca with the southbound train on the Blue Ridge Road has been broken and our western mail is delayed twenty-four hours. An effort should be made to have the accommodation train bring us through mail pouch from Seneca in the afternoon. The Home School turned out this morning and decorated the graves of the sleeping heroes. The pupils marched in procession to the graves of Capt. Chas. and Silver Brook Cemetery, and with their arms full of beautiful flowers and their bright, happy faces wearing sweet smiles presented a fine appearance. Tickets are now on sale at the R. D. R. R. ticket office to the World's Fair in Chicago at $55.95 for a round trip, including return at any time prior to November 30th. Passengers from this section will have choice of three routes, viz., via Atlanta, Ga., Paint Rock, N. C., or Charlottesville and Lynchburg, Va. In response to a request contained in a circular letter from Senator George, chairman of the committee on agriculture, who is investigating the cotton raising and manufacturing industries of the South, Gov. Tillman has appointed Capt. D. K. Norris, of this County, with twenty-four other citizens from various sections of the State, to reply as fully as possible to the questions prepared by Mr. George's committee. Messrs. J. L. Brown and C. B. Triplett, two of Anderson's expert young cyclists will leave the city next Monday morning at 4 o'clock for Columbia to participate in the Carnival week festivities of the "Capital City." Their route will be via Laurens through Newberry and Lexington Counties, and they expect to arrive in Columbia that night by 9 o'clock. We wish the young gentlemen a pleasant journey. Hon. H. W. J. Ham, of Greenville, Ga., delivered his famous lecture, "The Georgia Cocker," at the Opera House last Monday evening, and was greeted by a very appreciative audience. The distinguished lecturer was introduced by Hon. John E. Brazelate, and for one hour and a half highly entertained his audience. Mr. Ham has a free, easy delivery, and his subject is handled masterly through the whole. He has a consistent and active member of the Methodist Church, and was a most estimable citizen. On Monday his remains were buried at Beaverdam Church, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. Mr. Whitaker. A widow and seven children survive him, and in their sorrow they have many sympathizers. Rev. E. C. Rice, formerly of Anderson County, but now of Texas, in a letter to us from Waco, under date of April 23, says: "Since December last I have been acting as agent and traveling correspondent of the Texas Baptist Standard, a publication in this city, the leading Baptist paper of Texas. Rev. J. B. Crawford and Rev. J. H. Luther are the editors. The latter is a Georgian, and in 1855 was pastor at Pendleton. The former, for six years, was agent of our State Mission Board, and was on the national convention as a candidate for Vice President. He is perhaps the best known Baptist preacher in Texas. Under their management the paper has more than doubled its circulation with the past year. I travel all over the State, and am meeting with fine success. I preach every where, and am blessed in my health and work. I hope to meet many from South Carolina while during the Southern Baptist Convention, and there will be a very frequent juxtaposition of Spring raiment and brass buttons. The visitors and the visited seemed to have a thoroughly good time, and one of the best features of the whole affair was the presence of some of the best set of features in Anderson, a select assortment of remarkably pretty girls having come over to help the P. M. I. represent that city. The ball game between the P. M. I. and Furman University was interesting and well played. Furman outdid Anderson at the bat, but the Cadets showed themselves to be wonderfully neat, quick fielders. Rev. W. T. Matthews, the evangelist of the South Carolina Presbytery, closed a very interesting and successful meeting at Roberts Church last Sunday night, after having preached eight successive days and nights. He was assisted by the pastor, Rev. R. C. Ligon and Rev. Hugh McLes. The Church was filled to its utmost capacity at nearly every service, and the members of all denominations manifested a deep interest in the meeting. It was one of the best meetings ever held in that section of the County, and the cause of the blessed Saviour has been revived in every household. Twenty-three persons professed conversion, all of whom except three, joined Roberts Church. Mr. Matthews is a most eloquent speaker and logical reasoner, and the good people of the Roberts section will long remember him. A little change was made in the schedule of the south bound passenger train on the C. & G. R. R. last Sunday, and as a consequence the through connection of the morning train from Atlanta has been broken at Seneca. The south bound passenger train now passes Anderson at 12:55 p. m., twenty minutes earlier than formerly. A mixed train is now run daily, except Sunday, between Greenwood and Wallhalla. Going to Wallhalla this train passes Honas Path at 8:20 a. m., Belton at 9 a. m., Anderson at 11, Pendleton at 12:12, and arriving at Wallhalla at 3 p. m. From Wallhalla this train passes Pendleton at 8 p. m., Anderson at 4, Belton at 3, Honas Path at 6:30, and arriving at Greenwood at 9 p. m. This train will be a great accommodation to the people along the railroad between Greenwood and Wallhalla, and people between Greenwood and Anderson can visit this city, spend five hours and return home the same day. A correct schedule will be published next week. The second annual meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Conference of Anderson County was held at Pendleton last Friday and Saturday, and was very well attended. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, R. W. Simpson; Vice-Presidents, Rev. John Ataway and Rev. S. H. Zimmerman; Secretary, Rev. H. Blasse; Treasurer, J. T. Busby; Executive Committee, R. W. Roberson, W. T. McGill, D. E. King, R. M. Graham and J. T. Busby. A number of interesting and profitable questions in reference to the Sunday School were discussed. Rev. J. C. Spang delivered an address on the relation of pastors to the Sunday Schools, and Rev. John Ataway on the conversion of children. The proceedings throughout were exceedingly interesting and will no doubt result in awakening new zeal and interest in the Sunday School work. The Misses Simpson conducted the song service of the Conference and by their songs added much to the interest of the meeting. The good people of Pendleton, in their usual hospitable manner, warmly welcomed and highly entertained the delegates. The next annual Conference will be held at Sandy Springs on Friday and Saturday before the first Sunday in May, 1894. Honas Path Items. There seems to be an epidemic of bad colds just at present. House Path people have found the fire very comfortable for the past few days. Erwin is in the market with some transplanting potato slips, cabbage plants, etc. J. R. Donaldson is out buying up cattle. He will ship in a few days. Leather Parker, of Annie, has been in town twice in the last week. He says he is docked for the picnic at Erwin's. A. B. Brock is the owner of a new Columbia bicycle, '93 model. It arrived yesterday. Cut worms are said to be playing havoc with gardens and cotton. Some farmers say they will have to plant over some patches of cotton. J. L. Brown drives an iron gray Rockey. He says he has never ridden in horse 78 inches high. He never rides horseback, as he hates to go to a stump to mount. A game of ball between our school boys and the Belton nine was played here Saturday evening. The score standing 16 to 17 in favor of Belton. No comment. We did not see the game. Mr. J. A. Brock, of Anderson, spent a couple of days in town this week. D. H. McGill, Esq., of Hodges, was in town yesterday on legal business. Those who want to attend a report a pleasant trip, Jodie Latimer and Charlie Chesire, two Anderson County boys, returned from a visit to the Opera House yesterday. He will arrive in a few days with his family for home. Rev. E. W. Mason, pastor of the Methodist Church, preached a doctrinal sermon Sunday last at the residence of Mr. Ben Greer, better known as "Tully Ben," at the residence of Mr. P. W. Dunlap, at the advanced age of 75 years. He died within 200 yards of where he was buried. He was 82 years of age, and was buried in the cemetery here this evening at 10 o'clock. Newton Lamberson, son of Mrs. Joe Lamberson of the Calhoun section, who was visiting his uncle, W. T. Calvert, a railroad hand, went out to where they were cutting rails, and fell from a tree, and it was not enough, Shady Grove Church will complete the amount. It is the only one of the kind in the county. D. F. Trinkle, section master, resigned immediately, but is still at his post at this writing. Mr. Calvert says he is the only one of the kind in the county. A petition from citizens was sent in asking that Mr. Trinkle be retained. Andersonville Items. The people of this section have organized a singing society at Shady Grove school house, and are to sing every Saturday night. One of our best speakers has come to Atlanta to get up some notes for his section in the coming year. The subject for to-night (Saturday) is "Which is the most attractive to the eye, the scene of the world or the art of man?" The subject for the last meeting was "Woman or Wealth," and we are sorry to say we went again. The first picnic of the season was held at this place the 29th inst. It was a school picnic, and was attended by a large number of the young people, with their parents, and was a most successful one. Whopping crowds is prevailing to a great extent in this neighborhood, and of a very severe type. The Sunday School at this place, by invitation, will have a special day on the 30th inst. The school last Sunday. They report a very pleasant time. The public roads have been put in good condition through this section. Mr. Will McAdams, of Antreville, has been spending several days in town, and has been confined to his room several days with rheumatism. Mr. J. R. Caldwell represented this section in the excursion to Atlanta. In conclusion, we will say to the people of this section, that if you are going to bring it to us; don't say for us to get it, but bring or send it immediately, if you have to use a special delivery, or if you can't get it, don't say for us to get it. The Church will commence on the second Sunday at this place. WACO. Teeth Extracted Painless. Dr. J. A. Quillian will be in the city a few days demonstrating the wonderful effects of O-DON-TUNDER for painless extraction of teeth. He will be at the Office at Mrs. Moore's Boarding House, Call and consult him. C. F. Jones & Co., Clothing Store, has a beautiful line of Gents' hand sewed shoes, Go and see their elegant spring styles.

Williamston Items. Prof. Raybill delivered an excellent lecture on education in the College chapel Saturday night. Mr. L. B. Brown, of Anderson, made a short visit to his parents last week. Mr. Ragdale was in town last week, and made a call on the Perseus, and had two convicts with him. Col. M. P. Tribble, of Anderson, is here on a visit to his parents. Mr. Williams, from Anderson, is here trying to get the town council to adopt the Orange orange grade fence for the spring road. Col. Henry Watterston, the great Kentuckian, will lecture here on June 10th. He has been invited by the Alliance Association of the Williamson Female College. This will, indeed, be a great treat for the people of Williamson and surrounding country. Mr. B. F. Brown, Jr., is visiting his parents at this time. The merchants of the town have decided to close at 6 o'clock until September. "Test" Brothers' dog show was in town last Tuesday. The P. M. I. boys stopped over on their way to Greenville and entertained the people of Williamson, especially the College girls, with a short drill. Edmund Crymes, favorably known as "Tack" Edmund, died last Tuesday, and was buried Tuesday evening. He was in the 80th year, and was, for about six years, unable to walk. He had a large large slave holder, but ran through nearly all his property. He leaves a wife and four children. He was a member of the M. E. Church, and an excellent preacher. Mr. Stoll preached an excellent sermon Sunday and Sunday night. Dr. Carter, the dentist, who moved here from the city, has moved back to Westminster. A protracted meeting of unusual interest was closed on Monday night at the Baptist Church at Peizer. During the meeting the Church received seventy-three additions. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Eliot, did all the preaching except one sermon, which was preached by Rev. W. B. Burts, the former pastor. The house, which has a large seating capacity, was packed at every night service. One night during the meeting there was a circus show, but the Church was well filled with interested people. The Baptist Church here has made up a list of names for the Southern Baptist Convention at Nashville, Tenn. The wedding of Mr. Willie S. Ramsey and Miss Sidie L. Hester, which took place in the Baptist Church Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. We wish for them a happy life. JESS H. Alice Dots. General Green has made his appearance. We have read of John the Baptist, but never read of John the kicker before. Mr. Whit Hall had the misfortune to lose a year's horse last week. Dr. W. H.
