pastor never took a charge." The Hartwell (Ga.) Sun, of last Friday, says: "The remains of Mr. W. R. Cooley, who was buried in the Hartwell cemetery, were exhumed on Monday and removed to South Carolina for re-interment. The body was buried exactly two years previous to the day it was taken up. The removal was not accomplished without dif-ficulty; the coffin fell to pieces and the decaying body dropped to the ground. The body was about half decomposed and the stench was horrible. Mr. Cooley died from a malignant case of typhoid fever, and it was the intention of the friends of the deceased to take him to South Carolina for burial then, but the conditions were such as demanded a hasty burial. vear an attempt was made to make the removal, but the Board of Aldermen, acting under the advice of physicians, re-fused a permit. If there is anything in the germ theory, and if there was danger of infection then, there must have been as great if not greater danger at the time the exhumation was made. We doubt very much the propriety of allowing it to be done. The sacred sentiments of the friends of the deceased were altogether commend-

The live, energetic firm of C. F. Jones & Co. have two columns of solid facts which they present to the readers of the INTELLIGENCER this week, and we advise every one of you to read and note what they say. As is well known, these gentlemen occupy two large storerooms—up-per and lower floors—and carry a stock of goods that can't be excelled in any way in this State. We have had the pleasure of taking a peep at the many new novelties and stylish, attractive goods in every de-partment. Mr. Jones spent some time in the Eastern markets, and was very careful in selecting his stock for the fall and winter trade. In Store No. 1 they show nearly everything in the dry goods line The dress goods department is especially very attractive just now, for here you can buy all the new weaves at remarkably low prices. They have everything that a lady may need in wearing apparel. The millinery department is still in charge of Miss Virtue, who is posted in all the new styles. Their pattern hats are simply styles. Their pattern hats are simply beautiful. In jeans, cassimers, trim-mings, umbrellas, trunks, satchels, etc.. they show a great variety. In shoes they can fit any foot, old and young, male and female. Store No. 2 is devoted to clothing and men's shoes, hats, furnishing goods, etc., and they show all styles and quality. They have some fine tailor made suits, as well as an immense line of custom made suits, and can fit both boys and men. See the low prices they quote in their adver-tisement. They have many novelties here that will interest the boys and young men, and we advise you to call on them. Messrs. C. F. Jones & Co. are satisfied with small profits, and they consider it no

The health of our community is very good, with one exception. Mr. Asa Mahaffey is vary low with the fever. Mr. Cowan's holiness meeting is attracting a big crowd. It is five miles from Cedar Grove, and the other night we heard a man shouting down there. We said awbile back that there would be eighty-five per cent. of a cotton crop made in this section, but there has been great falling off. We believe sandy land will not make more than sixty-five and red land fifty per cent. Very few eats have been sown in this section. This is an important crop and car people should not neglect it.

- A St. Louis woman has lately perdays ago indicates: "I've just been reading about the Augusta Exposition."
"Yes, so have I. It's going to be a tolerable big thing aint it?" "You bet, it's going to be about as same as a World's Fair, a little samer, by hokie, for we'll have a hack at it." "Yes." "Have you seen the premium list?" "No." "Well, sit down there on that how. I've got one and fected an invention for making sweet po-tato flour. The process includes peeling the potato and dry the peel as a food for live stock, drying and grinding the po-tato into three grades of flour, and also slicing into Saratoga chips.
