REGARDLESS OF PRICE
The cold wave has struck this section and the thermometer ranges close to twenty, so that those who have killed their hogs are having a nice time of it. Jacob Fleming, son of Mr. John Fleming, has been quite sick with pneumonia, but we are glad to say is now thought to be improving.

Mr. Littlejohn has a flourishing school at Shiloh. He is doing quietly a noble work for this community. So is Prof. D. E. Adams at Mount Pleasant Springs. Mr. P. J. Vermillion training the young American boys to shoot at White Plains. These three would make for the moral as well as the educational training of their pupils. I don't think they use so much of this new-fangled ton-foolery as some of the more modern (7) teachers.

Mr. C. A. Barton, formerly of this place, but now of Walhalla, was through here last week shaking hands with his many friends. Our little county merchant down here at the Cross Roads is doing a splendid business, and is expected to do next year under the firm name of Messrs. Fruit & McGill.

Mr. E. J. Stevenson, of this place, and Mr. J. E. Manning, near Lowndesville, left last week for Jefferson, Texas, on a prospecting trip. It is expected that they will reside there in the future. Mr. C. A. Barton, formerly of this place, but now of Walhalla, was through here last week shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. L. L. Young, formerly of this place, but now of Level Land, was in our midst last week. He is a man of high character, showing her to his parents, relatives, &c. We join their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life. Mr. C. A. Barton, formerly of this place, but now of Walhalla, was through here last week shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. J. T. McBride, of Pendleton, has with a painful accident in that village last Thursday had a miraculous escape from a fearful death. Dr. Watkins, who accompanied by his wife, was visiting a patient. He had entered the latter's home, leaving Mrs. Watkins in the buggy in the street. The horse became frightened and started off at a rapid pace. Mr. McBride, who happened to be passing, grasped the reins, and stopped him, but as he did so the horse reared up and came down on him with both feet. Mr. McBride was thrown, and his arm and shoulder were broken. Dr. Watkins was with him, and we wish Mr. McBride a speedy recovery.

Rev. R. W. Wilson, the popular pastor of the Presbyterian Church, has resigned and another pastor has not yet been secured. It is hoped that arrangements will be made for one soon. Rev. R. W. Wilson has resigned at Princeton and accepted a call to Eureka, S. C. The Home Path High School has been doing excellent work this fall. The attendance is now very large. There will be one week's vacation at Christmas, and the bright boys and girls will come together again on Monday January 1st and enter with joy on a few more months of earnest work. Little Janie Bigby has attended school a session and a half, and during that time missed but one word. The name being a serious accident at the hot supper at the school house last Friday night. A large lamp fell and exploded, making big holes in the ceiling and causing some damage to be done. Mr. Ellis Latimer and Miss Gene Austin were married by Rev. R. W. Burns at the residence of the bride's father, on Thursday night, December 14th. On Thursday afternoon, December 14, Mr. Bob Kay and Miss Sallie Robertson were married by Rev. R. W. Burns at his residence. "Under the Spell" will be acted by the Home Path Dramatic Club on Tuesday night, December 23rd. This is a fine play, and all who come may expect a fine time. Dr. C. E. Spang has just returned from a visit to his old home in Chester County. Mr. D. R. Simmons has been re-elected cotton weigher for another year. Mr. Jones Wilson will move to Enoch Path this week. Josh Ashley came up from Columbia and spent Saturday night at home. Josh says he will vote for any genuine reform bill, but he won't vote for oppressive and spite bills.

Townville Locals.
Rev. O. L. Durant is on the Townville Circuit and Rev. J. C. Spann goes to the Walhalla Circuit. We are sorry to part with Bro. Spann so soon after making his acquaintance. Mr. W. A. Brownlee had a sale last Thursday preparatory to moving to Lowndesville, S. C. The Commissioners of Anderson County decided last spring that J. B. Holcomb had played a shaver in the public road, of this place, and it is still in the road. I wonder if there is no way to make the Commissioners do their duty. The public is asking private property to be the other day that he was satisfied the shaver was in the public road, and yet the shaver stays in the road. Mrs. Jane Martin lost a fine cow the other night. I will be co of fifty men to buy her another cow. Brethren, let us hear from you, for while we live in the heart to do what we can in the way of helping the unfortunate. Prof. Clayton is now boarding with Mr. J. C. Harris near town. J. C. Harris passed through Townville in a four-horse wagon the other day on his way from Collins County, Texas, to Charlotte, N. C. He made the trip this far in 43 and 1/2 miles in 42 days. Mr. M. D. Mays and family have moved into the John Burns' house. Mr. Mays has bought the Burns' place and will proceed to improve it. We welcome Mr. Mays to our midst and hope he will take a seat and make himself at home. Miss Maggie Nance, of Reasor, Ga., who has been spending the summer with her relatives and friends in and near this place, will return home this week. We understand that she will be accompanied by her mother and a sister. Christmas is near at hand and I want everybody to try to do some good in the holidays. Instead of giving all the presents to "me and my wife and my son John and his wife," let us remember the poor and the afflicted and give them something. Christ went about all the time doing good, and Christmas is to bring us in remembrance of Christ. Let us all remember the poor and the afflicted and the sick and the poor widows and the old and the young in our neighborhood. Mr. Rosin De Bow was in the little Robin De Bow was well and clamoring for Christmas presents. Mr. Editor send the live doll to them. Old ROSIN DE BOW.

Miss Onie Martin has charge of the school which opened here on the 5th inst. The average attendance is very good and will increase. Miss Martin is well known in this community, and needs no commendation from our pen. May success attend her every effort.

Mr. W. Lee was on a visit at his brother's on Sunday. The Exchange amongst whom was visiting his brother, George, and his uncle, H. R. Jones, on Sunday. He is from the Paris Mountain section in Greenville County. Partridges are plentiful, so come down, Messrs. Editors, and try your skill. We hear of a blind light-moonshine wagon going through this neighborhood frequently. I don't think the spies are spying much here with the country the White Plains side, will leave us to-morrow (Wednesday) morning for the "far west." He has a good horse and will locate in the fork of the Keowee and Twelve Mile Rivers, in Pickens County. We don't like to have to give up our beautiful country, but where we lose a good citizen will gain them. So it is when we gain a good neighbor—somebody has to lose by the way. We don't know of any marriages now, but if any of the young people want the "kiss" of God, let them come to me. I have the legal authority to tie it for them. SQUIRE FAWCETT.
