Iva News,

We have very little news. Everybody is busy. The crop preparations are pro-gressing well. The recent cold spell has gressing well. The recent cold spell has killed much more than was at first thought. It is said that large trees have been killed by the freeze. They are not putting out yet, and one cannot tell whether they are killed or not. The Quarterly Conference of the Meth-odist Church will meet here on Thursday dotted swisses, fersian minis, Egyptian lawns, in the most exquisite colors, so cheap that you will be astonished. Best calico and fine figured lawns at 5 cents, sea islands at five cents. They have white goods and embroideries of every style, quality and price, and a beautiful novelty three principal at 61 cents.

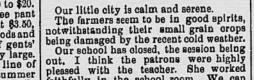

odist Church will meet here on Thursday cf this week. Rev. C. Pressley will preach in the Methodist Church at this place to-night. Rev. John O. Wilson is expected to preach Thursday. There is some talk of Rev. C Press-ley's going West. Should he leave this vicinity one of its best and most intelli-gent families will be lost to us. He is a man of big character and broad and libe-ral intellect, and his family is worth a great deal to any community. We shall hate to see him leave, but wherever he goes he will carry with him the good wishes of many friends. He will be an acquisition to whatever place he selects as his future home, The Mo-Co-Ge meets this week at Dr. duality and price, and a beautiful novelty dress gingham at 64 cents. In their millinery department, which has been enlarged, Miss Virtue, of Balti-more, has all the new and pretty things in ribbons, flowers and thousands of pret-ty little articles which we cannot mention. The Mo-Co-Ge meets this week at Dr.

Cook's. Rev. Mr. Pinson has made a favorable impression at this place as the pastor of the Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Harden is near the place of ais nativity, and is much liked.

Iola Happenings.

Properly conducted should be a guide and help to purchasers, and a bulletin of facts exactly as they are, and the Public ought to be able to rely implicitly upon the statements made.

IT IS A DEPLORABLE FACT.

However, that much of the advertising done at the present time is a welldefined system of deception.

IT IS OUR POLICY

To state facts as they are, without exaggeration or reservation, and we are especially conservative when speaking of all articles which, from their nature, TIDE OF TRADE HAS BEGUN! oblige our customers to rely strictly upon our representations.
