Miles Beard, a young white man who has made himself notorious in this section as a horse thief, and who has been in the hands of the officers of the law several times, is again at his old work. Last Wednesday Mr. L. N. Martin visited the city and when he went to feed his mule, it was gone. He made inquiry about it and soon learned that Beard had ridden it off. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and he was traced to near Whitefield Church, where he attempted to steal a wagon from Mr. J. M. Morgan, who ran him off He made the same attempt at Mr. Marvin Smith's, who ran him off by shooting him off. The thief next visited Mr. R. Q. Hammond's where he secured a saddle. He then rode the mule into the city and turned it loose near the cotton mills. Next day Constable Tate got after Beard, who threatened to shoot the officer, and then made his escape. On Friday he visited the New Prospect section, and that night stole the only mule of Mrs. M. B. Jackson, a widow lady. Saturday morning some of the neighbors got after him and traced him to Walhalla. Up to yesterday they had not succeeded in arresting him.

of R.S. Ligon, published last week, If there is anything in the world that tends to build up a city it is the number of small industries within its limits. Large manufacturing establishments are to be desired, but where the capital cannot be secured to establish them, then small industries come into play. They furnish employment for idle but honest people, they increase the value of property, they swell the volume of business and in every way are beneficial. There is room for a few more small industries in Anderson, and we must have them. Who will put the ball in motion?

Tender Ties Broken At the last meeting of South Carolina Presbytery, the following papers were adopted in reference to the dissolution of the pastoral relations of Rev. Drs. D. E. that we dissolved a relation that has existed so long, so peacefully, and so prosperously, and we do hereby express our heartfelt sympathy with our beloved brother in separating from a charge whom he has served for many years in the bonds of Christian love; and we assure him that he ought to feel greatly com-forted by the fact that this Presbytery bears testimony to his faithfulness and success under the blessings of heaven, in lengthening the cords and strengthening the stakes of our beloved Zion in that quarter of the Lord's vineyard where he has worked as watchman and overseer. The Presbytery of South Carolina having received notification of the resignation by the Rev. John B. Adger, D. D., of his pastoral relation with the Pendleton Church, on account of his declining years, recognize this act as an indication of the closing up of his long and distinguished labors for our beloved Church;

therefore

1. Resolved, That Presbytery has heard with profound regret of the resignation by our greatly honored co-presbyter of his pastorate, especially when we consider the reason for said action. 2. That Presbytery assures Dr. Adger of our deepest sympathy for him in his feeble health.

3. That this Presbytery do now engage in special prayer, led by Rev. J. O. Lindsay, D. D., for our brother, that his health be restored and he be spared yet many years to the Church.

4. That the clerk write a letter to Dr. Adger, informing him of our action.—

wonle, Ga., a visit last week.

Messre, J. P. Myres and J. T. Hanvey spent last week traveling through the mountains, going as far as North Carolina. Mr. J. W. Gibson had the misfortune of getting his eye put out while cutting stove-wood recently. Mr. Henry Burns also had the same ill luck. Mrs. Hester Pelfry, of Central, S. C., is pending a fortnight with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tannery, of Mt.

Mr. Oscar Sullivan left for Clemson College the 23rd inst., where he will take a course of study.

JUDGE MULLETT.

— It is said that the grave of Eve is visited by over forty thousand pllgrims each year. It is to be seen at Jeddah, in a cemetery outside the city walls. The tomb is fifty cubics long and twelve wide. The Arabs entertain a belief that Eye was the tallest woman who ever lived.

— Benjamin Harrison, it is said in Indianapolis, will be a candidate for President in 1896. He is really a candidate now, much as he may protest, and, cautious as his friends are in feeling around for public opinion, there can be no further doubt about his candidacy. His managers have arranged a speaking tour for him which it is hoped will set Indiana on fire.

Now try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely lo you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds is guaranterd to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself how good a thing it is.
