EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: Since our recent affliction and sad bereavement, we have received numerous kind letters of sympathy and condolence from our friends sylipathy and condense from our friends and neighbors in Anderson, and we desire through the columns of the INTELLIGEN-CER to respond to all of them. Words fall us to express our appreciation of the many kind words expressed in these letters, and we assure our old friends that the recep-tion of their letters did us a great deal of good and helped us to bear our burden of sorrow. We pray that God will abundantly bless them for their kindness and com-forting words of sympathy. We wish it were possible to meet each one—especially those kind ladies in Rock Mills Township and thank them personally. But this is impossible, and we beg they will take the will for the deed. We have come here to make this our home, and will stay here This is a fine country, though the water is not as good as in some sections. We do not lay it to the country that we lost our children, for people die everywhere with typhoid fever. Our sons contracted the typhoid fever. Our sons contracted the fever on the farm, six miles in the country and our daughter was stricken down at our home in the city at the same time. They received every attention possible and the people were very kind to us, but nothing seemed to do them any good from the start. We had to give them up, and, oh! what a trial it was. But we are not without hops, for our children died in the faith of eternal life. The separation is only for a time, and we all hope to meet again in that bright world above. The Lord doeth all things for the best.

Very respectfully.

Very respectfully, T. C. EHEARER.

Editors Intelligencer: In your issue of November 27th there appeared a com-munication under the caption "Cedar Frove Items," in one paragraph of which a slur is cast upon the Cedar Grove Church. The correspondent stated that the Church was in a tangle and that it would take fifty deacons to straighten the congregation. Now, if his idea is that the congregation is to be straightened by descons, no wonder he raised it to fifty. I was at a loss to know who wrote the action and whom how it was the control of nity. I was at a loss to know who wrote the article, and upon inquiry at your office, to my utter astonishment, a manuscript was produced with my name as the author.
