Special DECEMBER SALE.

We intend to make the present month an unusually attractive one to the trading public. Every department in our Mammoth Store is replete with all the →●業の米の米の米の米の

Novelties and Necessaries

Of the Winter Season, and we will offer EXTRAORDINARY BARGAINS in every line in order to still further increase our business and reduce our stock. It will be to your interest to-

Visit our Store

Every day this Month,

And see the many tempting bargains offered. Beginning to-day-

Wednesday, December 1st,

We shall inaugurate our-

SECOND SPECIAL SALE,

And shall CUT PRICES on all-

DRESS GOODS, TRIMMINGS. LININGS, SILKS.

MILLINERY, CAPES,

> JACKETS, SKIRTS.

> > CARPETS, RUGS,

MATTINGS,

LACE, CHENILLE and TAPESTRY CURTAINS, CLOTHING, OVERCOATS, BLANKETS, QUILTS, COMFORTS, SHOES, &c.,

And, in fact, everything in the Dry Goods line. Our effort shall be to give-

Better Goods for Less Money, or more Goods for the Same Money than any other House.

No. House in this section is better prepared to supply you with new, desirable Goods at Cut Prices than we are. Doing a considerable Wholesale Business, and buying direct from Manufacturers, and in original [packages, and for the Cash, we are in position to sell you Goods much cheaper than many of our competitors. It requires no thought or study on your part to convince you of the superior merits of our Store. A glance through our Stock will prove to you that all we claim is true. There is not a better shopping place in South Carolina, certainly none in Anderson. We shall not name-

THE THOUSANDS OF BARGAINS

In store for the economical purchasing public. Prices made now that may never be known again. Do not miss this chance. During the month of December a rare oppurnity is yours for purchasing Dry Goods, Millinery, Clothing, Shoes, &c., at ridiculous figures.

Remember that this Special Sale is open until the night of December 31, 1897, but don't wait until the best things are gone, but come at once.

> We are determined to sell Goods during the month of December CHEAPER than others.

> > Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne & Co.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Wholesale and Retail Dealers in General Merchandise,

mountes that each day some articles are cut lower, and bargains are being secured by his customers. He wants you to come and see his goods and learn the prices, and

ANDERSON, S. C.

LOCAL NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 8, 1897.

THE COTTON MARKET. Corrected by Brown, Osborne & Co. Strict good Middling Cotton 5 7-16. Good Middling Cotton 5 5 16. Strict Middling Cotton 5 8-16. Middling Cotton 5 1 16. Stained Cotton 41 to 42.

Bad colds are quite prevalent now.

Remember, you have only about three nore weeks in which to pay your taxes.

Old 1897 is now on the home stretch with only a few more feet until its race is

E. M. Rucker, Jr., and family, of Washington, D. C., are in the city visiting relatives.

Mrs. W. J. Stribling, of Walhalla, was in the city last week shopping and visiting

Rev. Geo. T. Baker will preach at Hope-well Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Joe McCully, of Charleston, is in the city visiting his mother and other relatives.

J. H. Grant, Esq., will leave in a few days for Sioux City, Iowa, on professional

Mrs. Jeffards, of Orangeburg, is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Richardson.

Rev. W. B. Hawkins will preach in the Second Baptist Church, this city, next Sunday night,

Mr. W. W. Martin. of Greenville, was in Anderson last Friday and gave us an appreciated call.

Mr. H. G. Pinckney is now clerking for L. H. Seel, and will be pleased to serve his friends at any time.

Mr. Julian Fant. of the C. & W. C. R. R., has been spending a few days in the city visiting his parents.

The Evans Pharmacy have a fine remedy for rough skin, chapped hands, etc. Read their new advertisement.

Our young friend, T. W. McCarley, of Townville, has come down to assist in the store of C. S. Minor for a few weeks.

Master Neel Pressley, of Septus, left yesterday for Greenwood, where he will spend a few weeks visiting relatives.

Rev. R. C. Ligon will preach at Deans next Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend the service.

Miss Sarah Power has gone to Charles-ton to visit friends, and from there she will go to Albany, Ga., to spend a few Read carefully the new advertisement of John T. Burriss this week. He has a big stock of Christmas goods, and is offering them cheap.

A correspondent of the Anderson Intelligencer signs himself or herself "Nobody's Darling" "It" must be a girl. If she would but come to Newberry she'd

The young men of Honea Path have or-

The new advertisement of D. C. Brown & Bro. will interest you. They quote prices on goods that you need, and it will rearranged the revenue districts. The to go and get what you want. We want to whisper in the ears of the little boys and girls that Old Santa Claus is now abroad and that they had better be on their good behavior. Rev J. Walter Dickson, of Columbia, will preach at Smith Chapel, Townville Circuit, on the third Sunday inst., at the usual hour for holding services.

The November number of The Caro-linian, the South Carolina College maga-zine, has been received. It is full of interesting matter, and well gotten up

Married, on Monday, December 6, 1897, by Rev J. B. Herron, and at his residence, Mr. W. A. McConnell and Miss Cora Mocre, both of Anderson County.

There is no improvement yet in the price of cotton If we judge by the receipts at the ports we are almost obliged to be lieve that a large crop has been made.

Mr. S. A. Hutchinson, of Elberton, Ga who spent a few days in this County last week visiting his son, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a pleasant call.

Go to Charleston next week and partici-pate in the Gala Week and we venture you will have a most enjoyable time. The railroad fare for the round trip is very low.

Married, on Wednesday, December 1, 1897, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. L. S. Eskew, near Denver, by Rev. M McGee, Dr. Robt Day and Miss Kate Eskew.

The Chiquola Dancing Club will have its annual Christmas ball on Monday evening, 27th inst. Bearden's Band, of Augusts, will furnish the music for the Chiquola Lodge Knights of Pythias will hold a special meeting next Friday even-ing in memory of their late brother, Dr.

John C Whitfield. All the members are

Dr. Mercer, the specialist, of Greenville, will arrive in the city next Tuesday to spend a few days. Read his advertisement in another column, and, if you are afflict-

Mr. W. P. Snelgrove, our clever and efficient County Supervisor, has been ap-pointed a Vice President of the Good Roads Association of South Carolina by the Executive Committee, Pav your debts. Establish the reputa-tion of being a debt payer and your standing in the community will be improved, and you will earn the approval of your conscience, which is better.

The annual meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held on the first Tuesday in January. If you have a claim against the County present it at that meeting. See advertisement.

Married, on Wednesday, December 1, 1877 at the residence of the bride's father, J. H. Hutchinson, Esq., by Rev. M. Mc-Gee, Mr. Clarence Burriss and Miss Wingo Hutchinson, all of Anderson County.

Mr. J. A. Ellison, postmaster at Williamston, has been removed and Mr B. F Russell appointed to succeed him. Mr. Ellison was an efficient and accommodating officer, but his politics were against

Mr and Mrs. E. P. McAdams, of Athens, Ga, have been visiting relatives in this County during the past week. Mr. McAdams was in the city Monday and was a welcome visitor to the INTELLIGEN

Store continues, as will be seen by reading the new advertisement of R S Hill, the manager, in another column. He an out in bulk any day.

The Board of Trustees of Varennes Township requests us to announce that they will meet in the office of the County Superintendent of Education, this city, on Thursday, 23rd inst., for the purpose of signing school claims.

It is reported that there are over one hundred cases of small pox in Atlanta and the Board of Health has resorted to compulsory vaccination. There is danger of the disease spreading, and our people should be on the look-out. Lest Monday Rev. G. M Rogers exhibited in the city some very fine specimens of augar beets of his own production. He says they can be very successfully grown in this County, and says they cannot be excelled as a food for stock.

We used to know a young girl whose name was Mary. When she grew up and went to college she dropped the r from her name and it was May. About a year ago she got married and now she has dropped the r and they call her Ma.

the y and they call her Ma. Agent Keys, of the Southern Express Company, is now occupying his new quarters in the building just erected by Miss Lizzie Williams, on West Benson street. The office is a commodious one and is handsomely finished and fitted up.

Mr. Joab Mauldin died at his home near Pickens, C H., on Tucsday, November 30th, aged 58 years. He was one of Pickens County's best and most popular citi-zens, and had served four terms as Sheriff of the County. A widow and nine chil-dren survive him.

Dr. John L. Woodside died at the home of his son-in law, Mr. E. A. Williams, in Pelzer, last Wednesday, after an illness of about two months. He was about sixty years of age, and had lived the greater portion of his life in the Woodville section of Greenville County.

Salesday in December always attracts a large crowd to the city, and last Monday was no exception to the custom Good order prevailed and everybody seemed cheerful and in good humor. The tracts of land sold by the Probate Judge brought fancy prices, as usual.

Gov. Ellerbe has appointed Hon. J. Belton Watson, of this County, one of the delegates from the Third Congressional District to the cotton growers' convention, which meets in Atlanta next Tuesday, and also to the Lane convention, which meets in Memphis on the 20th inst.

D. C. Ellis, who has been in this County for several years, leaves for Anderson County this week, much to the regret of his many friends here. He and his excellent family made many friends here, who wish for them a continuance of the same and prosperity in their new home.—Pick-

C. F. Jones & Co's. change of advertise ment came in too late for this paper. They want to call your attention to their stock of holiday novelties in handkerchiefs, art linens, table covers, cravats, collars, cuffs and numerous other articles that will make useful Christmas presents. Look out for their "ad." next week, and in the meantime go to see them.

pretty soon be somebody's darling, for we have some boys here who make darlings ganized a young men's prayer meeting of girls as soon as they set foot on New-which meets at the Baptist church every berry's soil No town of its size can beat this for darlings .- Newberry Observer.

pay you to go and see them.

Before you purchase your Christmas goods, consult the advertisements in the INTELLIGENCER, and you will know where to go and get what you want.

Hearranged the Tevended district consists of eleven Counties, as follows: Abbeville, Anderson, Greenville, Greenwood, Laurens, Newberry.

Oconee, Pickens, Saluda, Spartanburg and Union. Mr. Webster has appointed Mr. A. C. Merrick, of Walhalla, deputy collections. lector for the third district.

Rev. S. B. Harper, the popular young pastor of the Second M. E. Church in this city, completed his first year's work in this city last Sunday, and has gone to the annual Conference, which is now in session at Florence. Mr Harper is an energetic worker in his Church, and his efforts in this city have been year successful in this city have been very successful, forty names having been added to the roll of his Church during the past year. We hope he will be returned to Anderson.

The Williamstonian says: "Dr. R. P. Ransom arrived in town Tuesday with his Ransom arrived in town Tuesday with his patient, Mr J. K. Owings, whom the doctor had taken to Atlanta for surgical treatment. The Atlanta specialists declined to operate as yet, preferring to wait until nature had in part attended to the wound. Dr. Ransom's treatment in the case was not changed in any way, but it is feared that it will be some weeks before the operation can be successfully performthe operation can be successfully perform-

The Toccoa (Ga.) Record says; "Rev. Hiott and family left Wednesday morn for Westminster, S. C., to make their future westminster, S. C., to make their future home. We are sorry to lose this estima-ble family and hope they will be highly satisfied with their new home. Mr. Hiott has satisfactorily filled the Bantist pulpit here for the past two years." Mr. Hiott's many friends in this County will be delighted to hear of his return to the old Palmetto State.

The postoffice department has issued an order forbidding the renting of postoffice lock boxes and call boxes to minors. The order was issued because the postal authorities found out that many girls and boys carried on correspondence without the consent of their parents, receiving the mail in the boxes they had rented. The authorities learned of several cases in which harm had been done to young people by acquaintances formed as the result of such correspondence.

of such correspondence. Mr. E. B. Keys, an energetic young farmer of this County, exhibited to us Monday three stalks of what he calls im proved 5 lock cluster cotton. Two or three years ago he discovered a stalk of the cotton in his crop, and he watched its growth and saved the seed. This year he had thirty-flve acres in this cotton, from which he gathered about nineieen bales. The stalks, which are not very large, average about sixty bolls each McCully Bros., of this city, will sell the seed for Mr. Keys.

The Rev. S A Steel. D. D., of Nashville. Tenn., will deliver his popular lecture on 'Getting Married or Paradise Regained," at the Opera House in this city on Wednesday evening, 15th inst. Dr Steel pays Anderson this his second visit at the invitation of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church His lecture last spring here on "Home Life in Dixie before the War," met with unbounded praise. "Getting Married or Paradise Regained," we are assured, puts the Doctor at his best. Do assured, puts the Doctor at his best. Do not fail to hear him.

On Saturday, November 27th, Mr. Clarence Stone died in Elberton, Ga, from the ence Stone died in Elberton, Ga., from the effects of an overdose of morphine, taken, it is thought, with suicidal intent. The deceased was 23 years of age, and a son of Mr. Cass Stone, of Pelzer. He had been living in Elberton for the past four years, and was highly esteemed by his friends. No cause can be assigned for the rash act a net always rays found in his pocket. A note, however, was found in his pocket addressed to his mother, saying he was tired of living in this sinful world. His remains were interred in Elberton.

Housekeepers would do well to lay in their supply of raisins and other fruits necessary to making cakes at once as the price on some has recently advanced and will continue to do so until the Christmas season, is over. The Greenville News, of the 3rd inst, says: 'On last Monday Prue White son of expectedly as it did, huried the young them out.
man to the ground with great force. He was picked up and found to be severely injured; one leg being badly bruised and his back slightly sprained. Yestarday he was brought home and is now confined to his bed at his father's residence, Mr. White has many friends in the city who will regret to learn of his misfortune.' The many friends of Mr. White in this his native County will regret to hear of his accident and will in us in the hear of his a should do so at once, for he may sell accident, and will join us in wishing him a attempt to copy the sould be should do so at once, for he may sell accident, and will join us in wishing him a attempt to copy the sould be should do so at once, for he may sell accident, and will join us in wishing him a strength to copy the sould be should be , speedy recovery.

Four women and one man were lodged in jail here last Friday evening charged with receiving stolen goods. Some of the goods were identified by L A. & T. H. Brock, of Hones Path, S. C., whose store was burglarized the preceding Tuesday, and some of them were identified by C. S. Minor, of this city, as his property. The parties arrested are Laura Washington, Lou Simmons, Alice Bozeman, Annie Jones and Will Jones, all colored. There are others who are connected with the burglary, and an effort is being made to burglary, and an effort is being made to arrest them.

Addison Brooks and Grady Reynolds, who murdered M C Hunt, a brother of Dr. — Hunt, of Townville, will be hanged on Friday, 17th inst., at Jefferson, Ga. The crime was committed last February in Jackson County, Ga. Mr. Hunt was murdered and robbed. The two criminals were tried and found guilty. Brooks appealed to the Supreme Court, but the decision of the lower Court was sustained, therefore Gov. Atkinson resensustained, therefore Gov. Atkinson resentenced Brooks and Reynolds, his partner in crime, and both will be hurled into eternity from the same scaffold on the 17th

The many friends in Greenville of Dr. John M. Manly will be interested in the information that the distinguished young professor is spending the winter in Anderson with the family of his father, Dr. Chas. Manly. Prof. Manly who holds the chair of English in Brown University, Providence, R. I, has been given a year's vacation by that celebrated institution and he will spend it in literary work. His he will spend it in literary work. His book already published has attracted favor-ably notice from the students of Shakespeare, and a bright literary career seems to lie before him.—Greenville Mountaincer.

The Hartwell (Ga) Sum of last week says: "Mr W. H. Boleman, one of the best men in Hartwell, died on Thursday morning, December 2, 1897, at 5 o'clock, and was buried in the Hartwell cemetery Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. C. A. Jamison. Mr. Boleman was a consistent member of the Methodist Church and lived a life above reproach No man was more highly respected. He was 77 years of age, and leaves a wife and a large circle of relatives to cherish his precious memory." The deceased is the father of our efficient County Auditor, Mr. G. N. C. Bole

The West African Wilderness, a branch of 'The Missing Link or Disorganized Order of Gorillas' was organized in this city last Wednesday night with the following officers: Big Gorilla, E. W. Taylor; Baboon, W. R. Hubbard; 1st Monk, A. M. Sharpe; 2nd Monk, F. M. Murphy; Bug-de banan, J. K. Hood; Old Gorilla, W. H. Harrison; Darwin, M. M. Mattison. A special meeting will be held to night for the purpose of initiating a number of members. The membership of the organization is confined to members of secret orders. This branch starts off well, secret orders. This branch starts off well, and will no doubt scon have a large membership.

The Lowndesville correspondent of the Abbeville Press and Banner says: "Senator I. H. McCalla had the misfortune to lose his barn and contents by fire about dark Wednesday evening It was perhaps the most costly and well arranged building of the kind in the County. He carried insurance, but nothing like its value. In it were about 300 bushels of peas, about 100 bushels of coro, a quantity of cotton seed hulls, hay, 10 600 feet of lumber stored in the building, etc. It was with great difficulty that 85,000 pounds of seed cot-ton, stored in his gin house near by, was saved. The house took fire several times. The fire is supposed to have been started by and enemy."

Gala week in Charleston commences next Monday, 13th inst., and continues until the 20th. A large number of people from every section of the State are expected to attend. An interesting program has been arranged for their entertainment, as will be seen by reading the advertisement of the committee of the Gala Week Asso ciation in another column. The Southern Railway offers reasonable rates to all desirous of visiting Charleston at this time Tickets will be put on sale on the 13th, 16th, 17th and 18th, limited for return pas sage until the 20th inst, inclusive, at the rate of one fare ($3.10) for the round trip. On the 14th and 15th tickets will be sold, limited for return passage until the 18th inclusive, at the rate of $5.10 for the round trip. The fare from all the points along the road is the same in proportion.

Lard Cans! Lard Cans!

Three gallon can 20c Four gallon can 25c Six gallon can 30c. Eight gallon can 35c. Don't forget to call and see old Santa Claus in our window. Toys of all kinds Jno T. Burriss.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25:. For sale by Evans Phar-

J. P. Donahoo & Son will have some fine Tennessee hogs on this market on Thursday, 16th inst., and will sell them Butler & Lyeth's Dining Room is growing more popular every day. We fed over 100 people Salesday.

W. L. Lyeth, Manager.

FOR SALE-60 pair Skates, good condition. Cheap. Address, Louis B. Honston, Greenville, S. C.

A place where the most modest lady can go unattended by gentleman is Lyeth's Dining Room. Nothing but the best of order allowed. W L Lyeth, Manager. Try our all Pork Sausage, cased or uncased, scientifically seasoned and ground by electricity. If you try them once you will have none other. Butler & Lyeth. NOTICE-All parties oweing me for Stoves and Accounts are respectfully re-quested to call in and settle at once, as I heed the money before Xmas. Respect-

John T. Burriss. fully, Wanted 1-25 Rezor Back Hogs. The kind that can out-run a nigger. Butler & Lyeth

We buy Raw Hides and pay the cold cash for same. Butler & Lyeth Think! The Oliver Chilled Plow Works, of South Bend. Ind., sell six times as many Turning Piows as any other manu-facturers in the world, Why? Because the Oliver Chilled Piows are the best in the world, and the world knows it Sullivan Hardware Co, General Agents, are prepared to prove it.

Wanted !-1,000 dozen Eggs Sell them now, as the market will be flooded Christmas and down will go the price.

Butler & Lyeth.

Reflect! Why is it the Sullivan Hard-ware Co. stand 16 to 1 in relation to their competition in the Plow business? Be-cause the Sullivans sell the Oliver Chilled Plows-the greatest Plows on the Globe.

Wanted!—Ten regular Boarders. Table will be supplied with the very best the markets afford. No riff raff people wanted or taken. W. L. Lyeth, Manager. Old Santa Claus has made his head quarters at the store of John T. Burriss quarters at the store of John T. Burries where a large and most beautiful display of Doils, Toys, etc. is being made. Prices on everything are very low, and you will be agreeably surprised by inspecting the goods how many children you can make happy for so little money. Select your Christmas goods now, and be sure to give Mr. Burries a call and see his stock. Mr. Burriss a call and see his stock.

The Oliver Plows sell themselves and Sullivan Hardware Co. only have to roll

All who are indebted to Archer & O-borne will please call and settle with us at once, as we have their accounts. Osborne & Clinkscales.

Osborne & Clinkscales have just received a lot of Jardinieres. Call and see them. Ask yourself why so many small fry factories try to imitate the Oliver Chilled Plow? Don't you know they would only attempt to copy the best. Sullivan Hard-

Before you Turn Your Dollar Loose.

Did you ever think five minutes where was the best place to buy

YOUR CLOTHING,

Did it not occur to you that

Was the place, and, of course, you would like to know why? Think over it awhile and see if you can't figure it out why they can sell you at a smaller margin. We respectfully ask you to call and inspect the best line of-

BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SCHOOL SUITS

Ever shown in Anderson. Junior Suits, Reefer Suits, Middy Three-Piece Suits, Double Breasted Suits. All made with Double Seats, Double Knees, Riveted Buttons and Patent Waistbands, and warranted not to rip.

You can't afford to buy your boy a Suit without first seeing the famous Mrs. Jane Hopkins' make of Boys' and Children's Suits and Pants.

Seeing is believing. Come and inspect. Very truly yours to please,

HALL & MILFORD What a Harvest

- For the -

U. E. SEYBT

IS SHOWING THE

PRETTIEST LINE OF MILLINERY

That has ever been shown in Anderson.

MRS. IDA PERCIVAL CRAYTON is again in charge of our-

Millinery Department.

Where she will be pleased to sell you a New Hat, but if you intend having your old Hat trimmed over, don't fail to bring it to her, as she will fix you up the prettiest Hat you have ever

And don't forget that U. E. SEYBT has a well-assorted Stock in every department, which he is offering far below his competitors. For good, honest Goods and honest dealings always.