Last night a sneak thief entered the hall of Mr. H. G. Johnson's residence, on Greenville street, while the family were at supper and stole two overcoats and a hat and then came out on the piazza and carried off a bicycle, which he rode to the extreme limits of Calhoun street, where he left it. No arrests have been made, but the police think they have the thief spotted.

The Piedmont Sun says: "George Richardson, a colored man living on the plantation of Mr. J. F. Clardy, near Beavertown Church, in Williamston township, went to a frolic one night last week, came home about midnight, went to sleep and slept so soundly that the rats gnawed his toes and he did not wake up until they had eaten into the flesh and the toes were bleeding. Squire Clardy vouches for it."

It is reported here that Will Walker who, went to Texas some weeks ago, had been found dead by some parties of that State. It seems from the report that he attempted to cross a stream and in some way lost his balance and fell from the foot log and was drowned. We have been unable to learn the fact, but suppose the above is about correct. Mr. Walker lived a few miles from this place and was well known by many of our readers.—Honey Path Chronicle

A brother editor says: "No sensible man should get angry because a newspaper man duns him for money. A dun is not an impeachment of a subscriber's integrity, but it is the outcropping of the publisher's necessity. For instance, a thousand men owe from one to four dollars. He has to dun them to pay expenses. Instead of becoming angry for what is honestly due, the subscriber should thank the editor for waiting on him patiently and pay up like a man."

Some of the energetic ladies of the First Baptist Church have arranged to have a concert in the dining hall of the Hotel Chiquola, which has been kindly tendered them by "mine host" Dickens, next Thursday evening. All of the best musical talent of the city will participate in it, and those who attend may expect a most interesting program. The admission will be only 25 cents, and the proceeds will be used in repairing the fence of the Baptist Churchyard. The object is a most worthy one, and we bespeak for the ladies a large audience.

The Goldsboro (N. C.) Headlight of January 20th contained the following marriage notice: "The marriage of Miss Lezza McGee and Mr. M. E. Brezazale, of Mount Olive, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Day, on Greenville street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. F. D. Salsbery officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple departed on the southbound train for Mount Olive, their future home, taking with them the best wishes and congratulations and well wishes of a host of friends. The bride presents were numerous and costly, silent but weighty testimonials of the high esteem in which they are held." Mr. Brezazale is an old Anderson boy, and his many friends here will join us in extending congratulations and wishing he and his happy bride a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

Dr. W. G. McGee, surgeon dentist, has purchased the outfit of the late Dr. J. C. Whitefield and moved to Anderson, where he will practice his profession. He will also occupy the old office of Dr. Whitefield, over the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank. Dr. McGee is the eldest son of Rev. M. McGee, of this County, and for the past few years has been practicing his profession at Philadelphia, Pa., and Wilmington, Del. He is an experienced dentist, a worthy young man, and we are delighted to have him locate in Anderson. His card will appear next week.

Miss Mary I. Latimer died early yesterday morning at her home, 415 Bacombe street. After several years of painful suffering, the end came as a happy release. Miss Latimer was over sixty years old and was a native of Laurens County. She was a daughter of the late Fleming and Eliza Latimer. Her father was a well known citizen who moved to this city about forty years ago, and for some time conducted the Farmers' Hotel on the Duncan corner, Main and Washington streets. Her family connection is a large one extending over Greenville, Laurens and Anderson.—Greenville Mountaineer, 29th Feb.

It gives us pleasure to announce that Rev. Sam P. Jones has decided to give one of his celebrated lectures in the Opera House, in this city, next Tuesday evening, 8th inst. The indications are that the Opera House will be crowded as never before. Quite a number are expected on the railroads and not a few have expressed their determination to come in from the country to hear him. If you have never heard this great and original thinker, we advise you to take advantage of this opportunity, for you will never regret it. Admission, 75 cents; gallery, 50 cents. Reserved seats, without extra charge, may be secured in advance at the usual place.

Mrs. Othello O'Neal, wife of Mr. Mike O'Neal, died at her home near Townville last Friday, after an illness of several weeks, aged 26 years. Her remains were interred in the Townville Baptist Churchyard on Saturday, Rev. J. F. Singleton conducting the funeral services. She leaves a devoted husband and ten children to cherish her memory. Mrs. O'Neal was born and reared near this city and was a granddaughter of the late Rev. Jacob Burris. In her girlhood she joined the Baptist Church and was a consistent and devoted member throughout her life. In their sore bereavement the husband and children have the sympathies of a wide circle of friends and relatives.

Miss Mamie Schrimp and Mr. Thomas William McCarley were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Geo. L. Schrimp, in this County, on Wednesday, January 29, at 4 o'clock p. m. The ceremony was very impressively performed by the Rev. J. J. Noonan. The attendants were Mr. John Horton and Miss Sallie Schrimp, Mr. W. King and Miss Mollie Whitaker. Immediately after the ceremony refreshments were served. The following day the bridal party were tendered a reception at the residence of the groom's father. The bride and groom received many useful and beautiful presents. The young couple have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Miss Eliza Hillhouse died at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. A. B. Bowden, in Pendleton Township, last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia, aged 63 years. The deceased was the youngest daughter of the late Rev. Joseph Hillhouse, and was born, reared and had always resided in the section where she died. She was a very intelligent woman and an exemplary Christian, having been a devoted member of the Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church since her girlhood. She has a wide circle of friends, all of whom will be pained to hear of her death. Her remains will be interred to-morrow (Thursday) at 11 o'clock at Mt. Zion Church, Rev. B. P. Reid conducting the funeral services.

There was a delightful little dance at Hubbard's hall Monday night and the following is a list of the participants: Misses Cora Clarke, Zoe Bleckley, Caro Miller, Montie Riley, Claudia Prevost, Edna Earle, Grace Cater, Ellie Osborne, Louise Humphries, Felecia Murray, Dittmer Gilmer and Messrs. L. C. Parker, Rhett Parker, F. B. Maxwell, Joe Bell, John Sadler, T. Prevost, John Cochran, Clarence Brock, Durant Earle, Clarence Prevost. At this same hall a week ago a dance was given in honor of Mr. Laurence S. Davis, of Roanoke, Va., who was on a short visit to friends here. Mr. Davis is one of Roanoke's most popular young men, and he made many friends in Anderson who regretted to see him leave so soon.

A coal black negro, who gave his name as Walter Morton, rode into the city yesterday morning on a very pretty bay mare and offered to sell her to Mr. J. S. Fowler for the small sum of $30. The mare is about six years old, 15 1/2 hands high, barefaced all around, has a beautiful long black tail and a small sore on her right side, and would sell readily for $125.00. The low price asked for the mare and the negro's actions aroused Mr. Fowler's suspicions, and he took charge of the animal and turned over the negro to Chief of Police Dillingham, who locked him up. Shortly after being locked up it was accidentally discovered that the negro was about to effect his escape, he having removed the door fastenings. He was then transferred to the County Jail. He first claimed that his home was in Augusta and said he purchased the horse at McCormick. After his arrest he told two or three conflicting stories. The negro is a stranger in Anderson, and it is very evident that he has stolen the mare.

Household Goods.
The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and all ailments of the throat, Chest and Lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at Hill Orr Drug Co.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. For sale by Evans Pharmacy.
