On every page of the INTELLIGENCER will be found interesting reading matter.

Mrs. W. F. Reid, of Seneca, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Breazale.

Legal blanks of all descriptions at this office. Special orders filled on short notice.

Last Monday being Saturday, a large crowd visited the city, and business was lively.

Mrs. Eugenia Pearson, of Due West, is in the city visiting her son, Mr. Jas. T. Pearson.

The time for making tax returns to the County Auditor expires on Saturday, 19th inst.

The Hessian fly has appeared in some sections of the State and is ravaging the wheat crop.

Miss Kittie Wuite, who has been visiting relatives at Ninety Six, S. C., has returned home.

There are no vacant dwelling houses in the city. Some enterprising citizen should build a few at once.

The drummers are now traveling in droves, and all of them report business very dull everywhere.

Miss Bertha Keese left yesterday afternoon for Atlanta, Ga., to visit her sister, Mrs. E. M. Dunwoody.

The cold weather of the past week was timely. It was needed to arrest the too early budding of fruit trees.

We hereby express sincere thanks for quite a number of renewals and new subscribers, within the past month.

Some valuable farming lands in Madison County, Ga., will be sold on Tuesday, March 8th. See advertisement.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Neville, who have been spending a few weeks at Summerville, S. C., have returned home.

Our weather prophet says the snow is bound to come yet, and he looks for it the last of February or first of March.

Dr. M. L. Sharpe went over to Spartanburg last week to spend a few days with his nephew, Rev. M. L. Carlisle.

Three valuable city lots will be sold at public outcry on Saturday in March. See advertisement in another column.

The wise man is he who advertises for trade when business is dull. Keep the facts before the eyes of the public.

Married on Jan. 29, 1898, Mr. Robert Land and Miss Nannie Owens, by Rev. S. B. Harper, both of Anderson County.

Dr. J. P. Duckett and Mr. F. T. Wilhite will attend the annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in Charleston next week.

It is very proper, of course, for a man to be always polite, but it isn't necessary for him to remove his hat when talking to a lady through the telephone.

Rev. A. G. Harmon, one of the oldest and best known Methodist ministers in this part of the State, died at his home at McCormick last Sunday night.

It is a fact that women do less talking in the month of February than in any month of the year. This may seem strange, but nevertheless is said to be true.

The new advertisement of D. C. Brown & Bro. calls attention to their well-known brands of fertilizers and acids, and also to their immense stock of farm supplies.

Candidates who are "in the hands of their friends" are quite numerous this year, and it won't be long before they will begin to crop out in the newspapers.

Old folks say that when the dust rises in January we will have a wet spring, plenty of fruit, and a good crop year. Such is the prediction for 1898. "So mote it be."

Married on Sunday, February 6, 1898, by J. H. Rainey, Magistrate, and at his residence, Mr. Waddy C. Branyon and Miss M. G. McCauley, both of Hart County, Ga.

Mr. J. D. Rutledge, traveling salesman for the Antietam Paper Co., Hagerstown, Md., was in the city last Monday. He is a native of South Carolina and a most clever gentleman.

It is stated that an extra daily train will, at an early date, be put on the Blue Ridge Railroad. The schedule will be so arranged that passengers can make close connection with the Southern at Seneca.

Mr. W. C. Whitner, of Anderson, has bought a lot on Oakland avenue, South of the home of Mr. W. O. Reddy, having a frontage of 90 feet. He does not expect to build at once, however. Rock Hill Herald.

Last Monday morning about 4 o'clock the beam and contents of Mr. John B. Neal, of Hopewell Township, were destroyed by fire, supposed to have originated from the beam. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

The north bound freight train on the Savannah Valley Railroad was wrecked near Deans yesterday. Several cars loaded with freight and the tender of the engine were thrown from the track. No one was hurt. The wrecking crew soon reached the scene and cleared the track last night.

If we have a succession of cold snaps about once a week for about a month to come, we can pretty safely depend upon having a fairly good fruit crop. In the Southern States it is a big thing for our people in more ways than one.

The ladies are invited to call and inspect Brown, Osborne & Co's. new embroideries, laces, white goods, bleachings, sheetings, checked homespuns, drills, chevots, ball thread, knitting cotton, &c. They guarantee to meet all competition.

Mr. James Madison White died at his home, near Old Pickens, on Tuesday night, February 1st, at 10 o'clock, after a lingering illness from cancer and the infirmities of age. He was eighty-four years old. He was a native of Virginia, but came to this State in early manhood.

Hon. Edward Herndon died at his home near Westminister last Saturday morning, in the 92nd year of his age. Mr. Herndon was the first representative in the Legislature from Oconee County after it was cut off from Pickens, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

The Antioch Dramatic Club will play "Little Brown Jug" and a negro farce, "Jumbo Jim," at the Antioch school house next Friday evening, 11th inst. Admission, 10 and 15 cents. A large audience should greet the Club, and those who attend may expect an enjoyable evening.

We invite your attention to the advertisement of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company, which is now open and ready for business. Interest will be paid on deposits and money loaned at reasonable rates. The Company has a strong board of officers, and no doubt will be liberally patronized.

The Seneca correspondent of the Wall-halla Courier says: "The Silverman family are moving this week to Anderson, S. C., where Mr. Silverman will merchandise. Mr. Dave Silverman will be greatly missed, as his accomplishments as a violinist have afforded much enjoyment to the people of the town."

Mr. S. R. Tims, who owns and operates a grist mill near Piercetown, has decided to enlarge his plant, put in new machinery and in the future grind both corn and wheat. He will close his old mill on Saturday, 26th inst., and will at once begin the erection of his new mill, which he hopes to complete by May 1st.

Rev. W. R. Richardson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will begin a series of sermons next Sunday night on the Bible. The public generally and the young people especially are cordially invited to attend. The subject of his first sermon will be "What is the Bible, who wrote it, and how did we get it?"

Charlie Smith, of Anderson, was in Piedmont last Tuesday. Charlie has got to be a "pa" now, and is as proud as a millionaire over his good fortune. He says he is sewing in bale heads at the Anderson mills, at which he was always a good hand, and he also says that Gus Cox is running a folder there. Piedmont Sun.

The many friends of Capt. J. R. Anderson, the popular Superintendent of the Blue Ridge Railroad, will regret to hear that he is suffering from appendicitis. He is confined to his home in Walhalla, and was visited last week by Dr. S. M. Orr, of this city. It is hoped that he can be cured without an operation being performed.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons will meet in Charleston next week. Last week it was announced that on account of this meeting the C. & W. C. R. R. would sell round trip tickets on the 7th inst. This was an error. The tickets will be on sale on the 14th and 15th, good until 18th inclusive. The round trip fare from Anderson is $11.05.

Mrs. Andrew Allen, living at the old Anderson Moore homestead a few miles east of this place, fell and broke one of her lower limbs yesterday. It seems that she was watering her cow and in some way the cow became frightened and began running throwing Mrs. Allen to the ground, breaking her leg. She was resting easy at last reports. Honora Path Chronicle.

Abbeville Press and Banner: "Married, at home, Tuesday evening, February 1st, at 7 o'clock, by Rev. Henry Stokes, Miss Katie Powell, of Mount Carmel, to Dr. J. D. Walker, of Anderson. This was a pretty home wedding, and the bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Dr. and Mrs. Walker will make their home in the city of Anderson, where they will be welcomed by many friends."

Married, on Wednesday afternoon, February 2, 1898, at the residence of W. F. Cox, in this city, by Rev. O. L. Martin, Mr. Frank M. W. Sawyer, of North Carolina, and Miss Corrie Moore, eldest daughter of the late E. H. Moore. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a trip to the groom's home in North Carolina. Mr. Sawyer is the supervising architect of the new Court House, and is fortunate in his selection of a bride, who is a most excellent young lady.

Walter Morton, the negro who we mentioned last week as having offered to sell a valuable horse to Mr. J. S. Fowler for $30 and who was arrested on suspicion of having stolen it, proved to be the thief.

Last Monday Mr. Walter Miller, of Trenton, S. C., came to the city, identified both the horse and thief and carried them back to Edgefield. The negro has just finished serving a term in the chain gang and this act will give him another term there. Mr. Fowler received the reward of $25 which had been offered for the capture of the horse and thief.

The editor of the Rome (Ga.) Hustler says: "Dr. George Brown, the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, of Atlanta, is meeting with a most remarkable, at the same time a most deserved success. In my opinion, there is not a more skilled or successful specialist in the South. I make no exceptions. The change of law was made necessary by a rapidly increasing practice. My word for it, if you are suffering with eye, ear, nose or throat troubles, you are standing in your own light until you consult him. His rooms are No. 32 and 34 in the new Austin building. And what's more—he does not dream of me having a word to say in print about him. He rightly prefers all I have tried to say—and more too." Dr. Brown is an old Anderson County boy, and his many old friends here will be more than pleased to hear of his success in his adopted home.

Mr. Samuel H. Earle died at his home in Savannah Township last Sunday night. For a year or more he had been afflicted with Bright's disease and at times was a great sufferer. His death, therefore, was not unexpected by his loved ones and was a great relief to him. Mr. Earle was about 45 years of age and was the eldest son of the late Elias John Earle. He was a most clever, upright man, and had the good will and confidence of a wide circle of friends, who deeply deplore his death. On Tuesday afternoon his remains were interred at Shiloh Church.

The lecture by the Rev. Sam. P. Jones in the Opera House last night contained all of those characteristics and idiosyncrasies of the man which have made him a world-wide reputation. His philosophy is pure and deep, his idiom is inimitable and his homely illustrations are the essence of wit, keeping the audience constantly delighted, while they impress upon the minds of even the untutored the grand lesson intended to be taught. True, indeed, it is that there is but one Sam Jones on earth. The Opera House was packed, the adjacent towns contributing largely to the audience.

Last Friday morning little Rubie, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Davenport, of Williamston, while playing around the grate at home, caught fire and when her mother, attracted by her screams, reached her she was apparently enveloped in flames. The flames were extinguished and a physician was quickly summoned, who administered remedies to the little sufferer, who was fearfully burned on the hands, face and head. Mrs. Davenport was painfully burned on the hands while trying to extinguish her burning child. The unfortunate little child met with a similar accident about a year ago.

Mr. Edmund W. Webb died at his home in the Piercetown section on Friday, 4th inst. He had been a sufferer for six months or more from heart disease and dropsy, and his death, therefore, was not unexpected. Mr. Webb was 71 years old, and was born, reared and always lived in the Piercetown community. He was a worthy, upright man and was highly esteemed by his friends, all of whom deeply regret his death. He was a member of the Hopewell Baptist Church, and his remains were interred there last Saturday, Rev. W. B. Hawkins conducting the funeral services. He leaves a widow, four sons and two daughters to cherish his memory.

The building of the Anderson Tannery, owned by Mr. Casper Schrimp and situated in the northeastern suburbs of the city, was destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The fire caught on the second floor, and is supposed to have been caused by the stove. Mr. Schrimp was at work on the first floor when the fire was first discovered, but it had gained such a headway that nothing could be done to subdue the flames. He was forced to jump from a window of the building and painfully hurt one of his hands. Mr. Schrimp estimates his loss at about $2,000, and had $1,200 insurance in the Greenville Mutual Fire Insurance Co. The loss is heavy on Mr. Schrimp, who is a hard-working, deserving man. He will rebuild.

Mr. R. S. Hill, manager of the Alliance Store, has sold his stock of goods to Messrs. Julius H. Weil & Co., of New York. Mr. Weil has arrived in the city and the force of salesmen is now busy taking stock. The business will at once be transferred to the new firm, who will continue it at the old stand. Messrs. Weil & Co. have had a long experience in the mercantile business in New York, are progressive, energetic gentlemen, and come to Anderson very highly recommended as worthy of the confidence and good will of our people. We extend them a cordial welcome to Anderson and wish them success. They will carry an immense stock of dry goods, millinery, clothing, gent's furnishings, shoes, etc. The readers of the INTELLIGENCER will hear from this firm next week.

An accident which might have proved very serious, occurred Monday afternoon, but as it turned out it was very laughable. A negro from the country was leaving the city with a two horse load of shingles and sitting complacently on the top bundle in front. On going down the hill in front of Dr. Harris' residence the team began to trot, and just as the bottom of the hill was reached the right forewheel dropped into a hole and struck a rock. In an instant the negro was seen to fly from his seat and disappear in the deep drain on the side of the street with the bundle of shingles following him. The shingles did not, however, quite reach the drain or the man would have been badly crushed if not killed. He biskily scrambled out of the drain, reloaded his shingles and continued his journey unhurt and laughing at the accident.

A meeting of the directors of the P. R. & W. C. R. R. was held in Baltimore last Wednesday for the purpose of transferring the property to its recent purchasers, the Atlantic Coast Line. Mr. J. A. Brock, of this city, attended the meeting. Messrs. Thomas, Ryan and Crawford, who were members of the old board, resigned, and Messrs. Walters and Newcomer, of Baltimore, and Elliot, of Wilmington, who control the Coast Line, were elected to fill the vacancies. J. B. Cleveland, of Spartanburg, remains as president, and J. P. Doughty, of Augusta, D. A. P. Jordan, of Greenwood, J. A. Brock, of Anderson, Avery Patton, of Greenville, and J. O. Fleming, of Laurens, are directors. Mr. Craig is retained as general passenger agent, and Mr. Anderson as superintendent.

A Clever Trick.
It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody who tries it will have Lane Back and Weak Kidneys, Malaria or nervous troubles. We mean you can cure yourself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to the liver and kidneys, as a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting, Stiff, Stomachache and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. The Electric Bitters are sold everywhere, and are a miracle worker. Be careful not to get a cheap substitute. Only the genuine is sold at Hill, Orr & Drake's.

To Catch a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. For sale by Evans Pharmacy.
