The early gardener has gone to work in earnest.

We have had a touch of spring weather the past week.

R. T. Jaynes, Esq., of Walhalla, was in the city last Saturday.

Nearly every other person you meet is afflicted with a severe cold.

Mrs. Burt Mitchell, of Westminster, is in the city visiting relatives.

It is hoped that the farmers will sow a large crop of oats this spring.

Misses Bessie and Octavia Williams, of Greenville, are visiting the Misses Russell.

The time for making your tax returns to the County Auditor expires next Saturday.

B. O. Evans & Co. are offering some rare bargains in hats. See their now advertisement.

Mr. F. C. Withers, the genial representative of the Columbia State, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McM. Sawyer returned last Thursday from their bridal trip to North Carolina.

The prudent farmer will raise, hog, hounding and hay this year, and not enlarge his cotton fields.

Court convenes here next Monday. Witnesses and jurors should be in their places promptly.

The little son of Mr. C. S. Sullivan has been quite sick with pneumonia but is now convalescing.

The crop of candidates is budding beautifully, and the outlook for a large crop is promising indeed.

The contractors have about completed the new Jail, and Sheriff Green will move into it in a few days.

Miss Elise Mauldin and Miss Caro Miller visited friends and relatives in Greenville last week.

Moore & Lucas, of the Racket Store, have a new advertisement this week, and we advise you to read it carefully.

The Peruch-Belden Co. occupy the Opera House every night this week. The admission prices are only 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Mr. J. E. Weil, accompanied by Miss Helen Cater and Mrs. Gardner, has gone to New York to select his stock of spring goods.

Married, on February 9, 1898, by Rev. W. B. Hawkins and at his residence, Mr. Charlie Kay and Mrs. Sallie Kay, both of this County.

Mr. J. P. Young and Mrs. Carrie Latimer have gone to Birmingham, Ala., to spend a few weeks with the family of Mr. G. E. Brown.

In their new advertisement this week C. F. Jones & Co. announce that they are displaying some early spring goods. Read what they say.

The County Board of Assessors will meet on Tuesday, March 1st. See the advertisement of the County Auditor in another column.

The farmers are farther advanced than usual at this season of the year in preparing their lands, and will not be in such a rush as last year.

Messrs. Clarence Prevost, Geo. Townsend, Joe Bell, Robt. Belcher and Lawrence Maxwell attended a dance in Greenville last Friday night.

Guano seems to be all the go now, and judging by the amount going out daily there seems to be very little idea of any reduction along this line.

The new advertisement of O. D. Anderson & Bro. this week will interest you. Read it, give them a call and you will be pleased with their goods and prices.

Mr. G. N. Williams, of the Lebanon section, Anderson County, has moved to Mrs. Wm. Pullen's old home place, near the Cracker's Neck section of the Fork.—Oconee News

Several prominent railroad officials of the Atlantic Coast Line paid Anderson a short visit last Thursday evening in a special train. They were out inspecting the C. & W. C. R. R.

A freight train was wrecked yesterday morning on the C. & G. R. R., near Columbia, and as a consequence the north bound passenger train was delayed several hours in the afternoon.

Mr. E. G. Evans, Jr. and family, who have been living at Union, S. C., for several years, have moved to Anderson to make their future home. We extend them a cordial welcome.

The South Carolina Christian Endeavor Union will hold its annual meeting at Clinton on April 1st. Special reduced rates will be granted to delegates by all the railroads of the State.

An important meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, United Confederate Veterans, will be held in the Mayor's office next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All the members are urged to attend promptly.

Married, on February 5, 1898, at the home of the bride, near Donaldsville, by Rev. R. W. Burt, Mr. S. N. Latimer, Jr., and Miss Rosa Cunningham, daughter of the late Dr. John Cunningham.

Rev. W. R. Richardson, of the Methodist Church, who is now delivering a series of sermons on the subject of the Bible, will preach on "The Inspiration of the Scriptures" next Sunday night.

Married, on Wednesday, February 9, 1898, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. M. McGee, by Rev. R. G. Leon, Mr. J. E. M. G. and Miss Jennie McGee, all of Anderson, S. C.

Our good friend, Jap. Wilson, having returned from Anderson this week, Jap says he is not beautiful but accomplished, and attained his high culture by the brick at the top of stack chimneys.—Hartell (Ga.) Sun.

Farmers, just take it for granted that your neighbors are going to act the fool by planting an increased acreage in cotton next spring and you plant an increased acreage in food crops. All do that, our word for it, and you will come out ahead of the bounds.

Mrs. Narcissa Ashley, wife of Mr. Joe M. Ashley, died at her home near Due West on Saturday, 5th inst. The cause of her death was heart failure and she was sick only a few hours. Mrs. Ashley was a daughter of John Ables, of Abbeville County, and was a most estimable lady.

Lent begins this month Wednesday, Feb. 23, will be Ash Wednesday, and the period of 40 days of self-denial will begin at that time. Holy week begins this year April 3 and Easter comes April 10. During the 40 days intervening between the first and last date mentioned the season will be religiously observed by a great many.

While hauling cotton to the Savannah Valley depot last Friday night Wade Childs, a negro who drives one of Mr. Lucius Murphy's drays, met with a painful accident. He was thrown from the dray and three of his ribs were broken and one of his shoulders was dislocated. The accident may prove fatal to the unfortunate negro.

Hon. Josh W. Ashley, of "Citizen" celebrity, passed through town Monday. He repels the foul insinuation that he has the Congressional ideas. He will not try to immerse Mr. Latimer under the waves of adversity, but will remain near his post as first Senator from Honea Path County and tender shepherd of the yaller dog.—Greenwood Index.

Messrs. Julius H. Weil & Co., successors to R. S. Hill, make their first announcement to the readers of the INTELLIGENCER this week, and we urge you to read carefully what they say. The sales-ladies and salesmen in the employ of Mr. Hill are retained by the new firm, and they will be more than pleased to serve their friends at any time.

Mr. B. R. Clarke is now running "clerk in charge" on the A. & C. fast mail train, he having recently been detailed to the head clerkship. This is quite a compliment to Mr. Clarke, as the promotion was made over quite a number of clerks older in the service. Mr. Clarke is an old Anderson boy and we join his many friends here in extending congratulations.

Belle Hardy, a drunken negro woman, entered the meat market of Mr. F. G. Massey, on South Main street, last Saturday night and raised a row. Mr. Massey ordered her to leave and she refused. He then attempted to put her out, when she grabbed a butcher knife and painfully cut Mr. Massey in the abdomen. Dr. Nardin dressed Mr. Massey's wound, which is not serious. The woman was arrested and lodged in jail.

Mrs. Wright, the beloved wife of Rev. N. G. Wright, died at her home in the Craytonville section last Sunday morning. She had been in feeble health for a long time. Mrs. Wright was a most excellent Christian woman and was most highly esteemed by her many friends, who deeply regret her death. She leaves a devoted husband and eight children, who have the sympathies of all their friends in their sore bereavement.

The Sullivan Hardware Co. have presented us a very fine razor, for which we return many thanks. The razor is known as the "Barber's Model," and is manufactured in Germany by Krusius Brothers, who have no equals in the manufacture of razors. If you want to enjoy a good, easy shave, we advise you to invest in one of these razors. The Messrs. Sullivan have a large stock of them and will be more than pleased to show them to you.

Every farmer should see that his barn contents are well insured. Nearly every day the daily papers contain accounts of fires in rural districts, barns and contents and outbuildings, and in some cases the whole season's crop going up in smoke without a cent of insurance, leaving the unfortunate farmer penniless. Fire and life insurance are two things that should never be neglected. The cost is trifling compared with the benefits in case of accident.

Mr. J. J. Norris had the misfortune to lose a $300 cottage on his farm in Savannah Township last Monday afternoon, and his tenant, Joe Edwards, colored, lost everything he had. His entire family saved nothing but the clothing they were wearing. The fire was caused by sparks blowing from the fire-place into a closet. Joe and the older members of the family were in the field at work, and before they could get to the house the fire had gained such headway they could neither extinguish it nor save any of the contents.

The Anderson Mutual Insurance Company is growing very rapidly. Within the past thirty days they have written about $50,000 of new insurance, and applications are pouring in every day. The risks are placed with the same caution that has been exercised from the beginning. The Company was organized for the benefit of the citizens of Anderson County and no insurance will be placed beyond the County limits. It is now nearly eighteen months since the Company began writing policies of insurance and only one assessment has been called for.

On Monday night the officers made a successful raid on moonshiners over in the woods beyond Simpson's gin house in Anderson County. They found a crowd assembled and captured a three-gallon package of corn liquor. On Tuesday morning another search produced a five-gallon keg of the same kind of liquid. Both packages were confiscated. On Tuesday C. C. Whitmore was arrested on a charge of selling orders for whiskey. On Wednesday he was tried before Equire Mitchell's Court and the case was sent up to a higher court.—Pickens Sun, III.

There is a lot of good music, good singing, artistic dancing and hundreds of fun you should go to the Opera House tonight. The performance given Monday night and last night were capital and the "Gipsy" track will be presented. The music given here particularly at the Opera House is very pretty and vivacious, possessing great volubility and magnificent dexterity. In fact, every member of the company sustains his or her part well. The music during and between acts by Miss Grace Earle and assistant is culled from fine selections and completely relieves the tedious while waiting for the curtain to rise.

At the Hotel Chiquola Monday night there was a delightful Valentine ball given by the Chiquola German Club to visiting young ladies. The visiting ladies present were Misses Fannie Hoke, Octavia Williams and Dessie Williams, of Greenville, and Miss Guyton, of Blacksburg. There were many fair Anderson ladies present and young gentlemen enough to go round and ten stags over. The young people were chaperoned by several of the leading married couples of our city who still love the delightful mazes of the dance, and the occasion proved exceedingly enjoyable.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sadler, wife of Mr. A. S. Sadler, died at her home in Williamston last Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. She had been seriously ill for several months, and her death was not unexpected. Her remains were interred in the Williamston Cemetery on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Sadler was a daughter of Mr. J. J. McLeese and was born and reared in Rock Mills Township. She had long been a devoted and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and was a kind neighbor and an affectionate wife and mother. She leaves a wide circle of friends who will long cherish her memory and who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Mr. George M. McDavid died at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Jas. W. Keaton, near this city, last Sunday night. He was sick only a few hours, and the announcement of his death was a great shock to his friends and relatives. He spent Friday in the city and apparently was in his usual good health. Mr. McDavid was a son of the late Allen McDavid, of Greenville County, where he was born and reared. Since his young manhood he has resided in Anderson County, and, being a surveyor, was well known and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. He was about 65 years of age and was a most genial, clever hearted man. A few years ago he joined the Midway Presbyterian Church. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. Four children and a host of relatives are left to cherish his memory. His remains were interred yesterday in the Midway Churchyard, Rev. J. L. McLin conducting the funeral services.

Quite a number of our young ladies and gentlemen attended the dance at Clemson College last Wednesday night, which was tendered the graduating class by the undergraduates. There were also present quite a number of young people from Pendleton, Seneca, Walhalla, Pickens, Esley and Greenville, and the dance was a grand success. Those from Anderson were Misses Claudia Prevost, Marie Prevost, Christine von Bostel, Zoe Beckley, Edlie Osborne, Caro Miller, Felicia Murray, Montie Riley, Dittmer Gilmer, Marie Gillard; Messrs. S. R. Parker, W. S. Brock, Jno. R. Cochran, B. D. Earle, D. S. Taylor, F. B. Maxwell, T. J. Bell, F. E. Bell, J. Scott Murray, C. C. Prevost, S. H. Prevost, Jr., R. S. McCully, G. B. Townsend and Master Feaster Tribble.

The beautiful nuptials of Mr. Luther E. Dean and Miss Claudia Parker were solemnized in a most impressive manner at the hospitable home of the bride's father, Mr. R. E. Parker, of Martin Township, on the evening of the 9th inst. Rev. W. B. Hawkins performing the ceremony. The bride, who is possessed of many rare intellectual gifts and moral traits is, besides, a most beautiful and charming woman, blooming with many maidenly graces and a favorite wherever she is known. The groom is well known as a gentleman of sterling worth and popularity, and both start life together under most auspicious stars. Beneath an immense bower of mistletoe, the bride, elegantly gowned in an exquisite dress of white organdie, elaborately trimmed in lace and ribbon, stood beside her future consort; the maid of honor, Miss Lucia Parker, a sister of the bride, standing to the left and a little to the rear of the bride, was charming in her tasy gown of light blue; the attendants standing to the right and left of front were Dr. Haynie with Miss Anna Dean, radiant in pink silk trimmed with lace and ribbons, and Mr. Walter Pruitt with his handsome new-made bride in cream satin with lace and floral trimmings. The ceremony over the wedding party with the assembled guests were ushered into the spacious dining hall, where delicacies fit to tempt the appetite of an epicurean entertained the fairly glowing tables. The occasion was a most enjoyable one and will long be remembered by the throng of happy guests who at a late hour bade a reluctant farewell to the scene of mirth and joy. On the following evening at the residence of Mr. R. B. Dean, at Dan, S. C., a brilliant reception was tendered the bridal party and was also largely attended by friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The Surprise of All. Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La-Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds guaranteed to do this and work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Hill and Drug Co.

To Take a Cold in One Day. Take Lanette's Broom Quinine Tablets. All Bronchitis and the most serious Colds cured in 24 hours. For sale by Evans, Parsons & Co.
