Orr's Regiment.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: I notice in the INTELLIGENCER of March 2d you published some bloody records, as shown by George L. Kilmer, writing in the New York Advertiser, in which he shows that Orr's Regiment of Rifles, South Carolina Volunteers, lost more men killed in battle than any Regiment in either army. He puts the number at three hundred and thirty-four. I do not know the number that nine of the Companies lost, but the roll of Co. K shows thirty-nine killed. It is not my intention to show the number of killed and wounded, but to show that Orr's Regiment received the greatest honor of any Regiment in Lee's Army. It occurred on the morning of May 6, 1864, at the Wilderness. Gen. A. P. Hill, with Wilcox and Heath's divisions, met Grant with his hosts at the Wilderness and held him in check from 3 o'clock p. m. until dark, stopped the battle, then we fell back a short distance and lay down for the night with our guns in our hands. The next morning at break of day we were up and in line of battle. We moved to the left out in a plain broom sage field. By that time it was near sunrise. Then orders came to move forward; at the same time the sharpshooters began to fire and fall back in the edge of the timber. Some distance in front could be seen a full line of battle of the enemy. About the time we met the sharpshooters coming back, a courier rode up with orders for us to fall back behind a battery, some two or three hundred yards in our rear. Col. Miller stepped out in front of the regiment and said: "Men, the eyes of Gen. Lee are on you. I want you to fall back in good order. About face, guide center, march!" when all moved like we were on regiment drill. The troops on each flank had left out at double-quick. Orr's Regiment fell back in good order, with colors flying. Soon we saw Lieut. L. C. Haskell, of McGowan's staff, coming to us in a gallop. I do not know whether there were more than one that were in hopes that he had orders for us to come out in double-quick or not, for the whizz of the minnie balls were anything but pleasant. When he got to the regiment he raised his cap and said: "Col. Miller, I have orders from Gen. Lee to salute your flag for coming out in good order." We fell back behind the battery and were soon relieved by Gregg's brave Texans. I have always thought the good order in which we fell back was the cause of Gen. Lee sending us into the terrible battle of Bloody Angle, six days later.

Pendleton Items.

Mrs. A. N. Wright died on the 7th inst. and was buried on the 8th in the family burying ground. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. B. P. Reid, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. M. M. Hunter is quite sick at this writing, but we hope he will soon be out again and at his place of business. Mr. John Eskew, a resident of Georgia and uncle of our townsmen, Mr. S. L. Eskew, was on a visit to his nephew this week. The old gentleman is hale and hearty for one of his age. He is 85. According to the regular by-laws of Camp Corporal Tally Simpson, No. 1006, each member is requested to meet at the Farmer's Hall on Saturday, March 20, to help elect delegates to the State Reunion in Charleston, April 7. The people of Pendleton have formed a Choral Union which meets every Tuesday afternoon, when both young and old join in singing together, for both pleasure and profit. All wishing to improve the singing of our different Churches, are cordially invited to join. Mr. Henry Trescott has bought the Hastie place and will become a resident of our town in the near future. Mrs. William Henry Trescott has been right sick for several days. We hope she will soon be well again. TELL TALE

Corner Dots.

The health of this community is very good with the exception of the mumps. The young people here are having quite a lively time. They have a sociable nearly every Friday night. Miss Sallie Sberard has purchased her fine piano. Miss Sallie has a great talent for music. We wish her much success. Mr. Ira Hamilton goes up the road quite often. It seems like there are great attractions up there for him and "Joe" L. near Dean's. Miss Louis Davis has a flourishing school at Moffattville Academy. The patrons were right in electing her the second time as teacher, for she is a very bright and intelligent young lady. Miss Mable Smith, one of the most charming belles of Gastonia, N. C., also has a very fine school at Moffattville. I know "Tada" heart will be broken when she leaves. Miss Nettie Bowie is clerking for A. S. Bowie. She would be glad to have her friends call. Misses Mattie and Nettie Bowie, accompanied by Miss Sumpie Teasley, made a flying visit to Hartwell, Ga., last Saturday. Well, Mr. Editor, if this does not find its way to that dreadful waste-basket I will write again. Success to the INTELLIGENCER. EGO

Lend-a-Hand.

Last Saturday, the first day that the Lend-a-Hand office was open, was a very successful day both in receiving and distributing reading matter. The Society tenders its thanks for valuable contributions from Mrs. G. F. Tolly, Mrs. A. G. Means, Mrs. Blackley, Mrs. Seel, Mrs. M. L. Honham, Mrs. John M. Hubbard, Mrs. Elsie Gray, Mrs. M. E. Nowell, Miss Lillie Strickland, Miss Della Cater and Miss Evie Lewis. We have some on hand, but the demand increases. Respectfully, B. M. SULLIVAN.

Pension Notice.

The County Board of Pensions will meet on Monday, March 23th. All Township Boards who have not sent in their reports, will please do so by the 23th inst. to County Auditor Tolman. JOHN C. GANTT, Chairman.

Corner Creek Happenings.

The beautiful spring weather is here, the peach and plum trees are blooming and we hope we may have lots of fruit to eat this year. Mrs. Mary Bigby is very ill with pneumonia at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Taylor, of Neva, visited relatives in our midst last week. Supt. A. W. Attaway visited the McAdams school at this place last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shirley, of Neva, spent Saturday night and Sunday here with friends and relatives. Mr. Hugh Wilson, of Abbeville, has been called to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Bigby, who is very sick with pneumonia.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Ann Maxwell Wright, relict of Maj. John D. Wright, departed this life at her home in Pendleton on the 7th day of March, 1898, and after appropriate and solemn services, conducted by Rev. B. P. Reid and the venerable Dr. John B. Adger, of the Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Mr. Dunlap, of the Methodist Church, was laid to rest in the Baptist Churchyard by the side of many of her family who had preceded her. Mrs. Wright was the daughter of Mr. Robt. A. Maxwell, a grandson of Gen. Robt. Anderson, of Revolutionary fame, and her mother was a Miss Earle, a sister of Judge Earle. Mrs. Wright, at the time of her decease, was seventy years of age, and for many years had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, and although she had lost her husband in the Confederate war and all of her property by its results, and had endured the anguish that only a mother can feel, when called upon to bury the last of her surviving children, she still maintained her cheerful spirits went about doing good, thereby illustrating in the highest degree a true Christian spirit. The large course of friends who followed her remains to their last resting place eloquently prove the high esteem entertained for her character and noble Christian virtues by those in whose midst she lived, labored and died. A FRIEND

Tribute of Respect.

With trembling hand and aching heart we raise our pen to pay as best we can a last tribute to the memory of Mrs. Annie Sims Casey, the beloved wife of Mr. M. A. Casey, who has just departed this life. For the past four weeks the life of this loving wife and mother had been ebbing away, and day by day her friends and loved ones stood around her bed with sad hearts and tearful eyes, only to see another strand break and the cord grow weaker. Ye, weaker and weaker it grew until the morning of the 5th inst., as the dawn of another day was gently approaching, the remaining strand was severed and the spirit of the beloved one was wafted into the great eternity. Death is a sad thing even when it comes and takes away the aged who have out-lived their usefulness; it is a sad thing when it swoops down and takes away the infant who has never lived to know the sorrows of this world, but oh! how much more sad is it when it comes and lays its resistless hand on a fond mother, who is almost in the bloom of life as was this one, for she had just entered her thirty-seventh year. She seemed to think when first taken ill that she was never to get well, and knowing that she was to leave six poor little children in this cold and unfriendly world with only a father's care, we cannot say that we believe she was unprepared for death; yet she met the inevitable doom not with fear, but with courage and beautiful resignation. It is indeed sad to think that this loved one is gone from among us forever, but those tokens of existence, her well known voice that we so often heard and cherished, and the vacant chair she does not now fill, and the sweet smile that always covered her face. And now dear friend, wife and mother noble and true we bid thee farewell. Over thee shall grow the flowers; thy virtues will not be forgotten; love shall not perish. "Dearrest loved one, we have laid thee In the peaceful grave's embrace; But thy memory we will cherish Long as reason holds its peace." WALTER L. CASEY.

Around Alice.

War is the general topic of the day in this section. Some of our farmers are planting corn and some preparing to plant cotton seed. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Bowen, of Bowman, Ga., visited their daughter, Mrs. Brooks Galley, recently. Capt. E. M. Snipes and wife, of Piedmont, visited us last week. Our townsmen, W. P. Bell, was called to Lowndesville last week to attend the funeral of his mother. Mrs. Eliza Hal has gone to Abbeville to spend awhile with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Anderson. Some of our boys must be in love or something else. They can't eat nor sleep sound. Cheer up, boys, and don't take it so hard. It will do you good when you get over it. It is so delightful to hear the gentle birds singing these beautiful mornings. It makes a fellow feel like going to see his best girl. Miss Creswell, of Troy, S. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Willie Moore. S. O. Jackson, Esq., has started out to make us some good roads. Misses Daisy and Dessie Blackman worshipped at Mt. Bethel last Sunday. Miss Bessie Cowan, one of the Mohawk's sweet sixteens, is visiting in this community. Messrs. Wheeler Moore and Will Childs, of the Nation, were in this community last Sunday looking after the interests of their hearts. Come again, boys. Well, Mr. Editor, as it is the early bird that catches the worm, we suggest the name of W. P. Bell for County Supervisor. FARMER.

C. F. JONES & CO. Herald the Spring Tide at Big New Store on Brick Range

AFTER spending some time in New York and other markets our buyers have selected a pretty, bright and practical line of Spring Dry Goods. Notions, Millinery, &c. for our trade. We have never been more fortunate in striking pretty, attractive Merchandise than thus far this year. What people want at reasonable prices is the great thing in merchandising. If we have that, some will say it is advertising talk; but come to see us and you will find our Stock just that way. We are now ready for Spring business in all Departments.

At present one of our most popular Departments is— SILKS. We are showing quite an assortment, and from the way the Ladies are picking them up they must be choice styles and patterns. Everything points to a great Silk season. We have them in Waist Patterns, Dress Patterns, Cut Pieces, Plain and Fancy Black, Bayadere Stripes, and all the newest Novelties. Will be glad to have every one see our Silks.

IN EARLY SPRING DRESS GOODS We can please you as well as any one. Our buyer put much time on this line, for it is the most difficult stock to select in the Spring. The prices in Bolt Goods range from 25c. to 75c.—in Patterns from $5.00 to $12.50. We are still selling Black Goods at old prices. Our stock is large; we anticipated the advance and laid in a large supply. Besides the house from which we purchased Black Goods went out of the wholesale business, and we got in at closing out prices. You know the Tariff advances the price of Dress Goods. No Tariff on our Black Goods.

SMALL WARES.—Ladies' Belts and Belt Buckles. We have them in various designs, styles and prices, and are always delighted to show them. Another Special Fad is Sashes. Our line of Sash Ribbons range from 50c. to $1.50 per yard. There is nothing adds more to a lady's appearance than a pretty Sash. Come early and get first and best. REMNANTS and 5c STUFFS.—This attractive price will furnish you some real bargains. See our Remnant Counter every time you come to our Store. New things constantly arriving. Let us emphasize one thing. We have put much hard work on our Spring business. Since the early days of January it has been our constant thought, and we believe your money will buy as much good, honest stuff from us as any place in the State. In order that every one may know what we have, we would be glad to have every one call to see us. We will appreciate your looking at our Stock. Will let you hear from us often now. Yours very truly, BROWNLEE & VANDIVERS, General Merchandise, Cotton and Fertilizers, ANDERSON, S. C., February 23, 1898.

IT IS OUR HEAVY GROCERY SEASON and we are rolling them out in great shape. Our prices on Flour, Coffee, Tobacco, Sugar, Rice, Lard, Ham, Bacon, and all Heavy and Fancy Groceries are "warmed." Remember, you will cheat yourself if you buy any of the above before seeing us. We carry the best and cheapest lines of NEW ORLEANS SYRUPS obtainable. Just received a new lot of genuine MUSCOVADO MOLASSES. They are fine goods. Try them. GUANO and ACID at prices not obtainable elsewhere. For the next few days we will sell JEANS, FLANNELS, BLANKETS, SHOES and BOOTS far below their real value. We always carry one of the largest, and by far the cheapest, line of SHOES in this glorious Piedmont region. We appreciate every cent of trade you may be so kind as to give us. We are always glad to see you. Come and make our Store your headquarters. Yours very truly, BROWNLEE & VANDIVERS. THE BEST Tea and Coffee Store. WE HAVE SECURED A LOT OF Genuine Seed-Tick Coffee, Which is famous for its cup qualities, and will sell you Seven Pounds for One Dollar. We have just received a lot of SILVER TEA, A nice present with every package. We guarantee the Tea in every particular, and if it don't suit you it comes from AUSTIN'S—bring it back and get your money. Here are some of the Presents: Dish Pans, Teapots, Cups and Saucers, Plates, Carving Knives, and many others too numerous to mention. Call and see them. JNO. A. AUSTIN & CO., The Best Tea and Coffee Store.

OUR SHOES MUST GO! WE'VE got too much money invested in Shoes, and it is our principle to rush off Goods that we are overstocked on, even if we have to do so at a sacrifice. Remember, this is no Cost Sale, but for the next thirty days, commencing Wednesday, January 19th, we will sell any shoe in our Store for less money than the same shoe can be bought in South Carolina, and place behind our offer a FIFTY DOLLAR GUARANTEE. Some people can offer to sell at Cost but don't do it; or if they do, it is not strange that they have to sell out at Cost if their "Cost" is as high as the price they claim it "Cost." We buy our Shoes Cheap, and will sell them cheaper. Nor do we propose to be second to any Firm in— HEAVY GROCERIES. Our DEAN'S PATENT FLOUR, TOBACCO, RED and YELLOW OATS at less than standard prices places us at the front in filling the largest as well as the smallest bills. HIGHEST GRADE GUANOS at guaranteed prices. DEAN & RATLIFF.
