LATEST WAR NEWS.

Special to the Intelligencer. COLUMBIA, S. C., May 10—2 p. m.

Despatches received in London from Shang Hai say that Admiral Montejó, of the Spanish Navy, who escaped alive from naval battle at Manila, was killed by Spanish populace.

In Hong Kong it is reported that the insurgents are massacring women and children outside of Manila, and that Dewey has not force to control them.

The Cape Verde fleet is reported at Martinique.

The Pekin will sail Thursday from San Francisco for Manila with supplies, ammunition and reinforcements for Dewey.

Two prizes were brought into Key West this morning.

4:30 p. m.—Wheeler left Washington today to join his command at Chittanooga.

Two American war ships are reported at Mole, St. Nicholas; Spanish war ship watching outside.

The States protest against division of troops, and think that the men from each State should serve together. All the regulars have been ordered from Chickamauga to Tampa.

Austria declares neutrality. President McKinley believes that the Cape Verde fleet has gone to the Philippines.

The volunteers have been ordered to Tampa instead of Chickamauga for immediate invasion of Cuba.

Miles, Lee and Quesada confer this morning over despatches from Gomez giving the plans of the Cuban army to join the invading forces.

Belmont and six other capitalists will give the United States a big battleship.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Sec. Long received a cable late this afternoon announcing that the Cape Verde fleet had arrived at Cadiz, and this ends all hope of a battle at Porto Rico between Sampson's fleet and this Spanish fleet.

Dixie will be heard in Havana in a few days, and it will be the liveliest air the Spaniards ever heard.

Congress has determined to continue in session until the end of the war. We sincerely hope the war will soon end.

It is very evident now that every candidate for the Senate and House of Representatives will have to define his position on the liquor question.

All the world stands with heads uncovered in the presence of a brave deed, and Dewey and his men are certainly entitled to the highest praise.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that the Mississippi suffrage law is valid, and this is taken to mean that the South Carolina suffrage law will stand.

Miss Helen Gould, of New York, seems to be very patriotic. She has offered the Government $100,000 to prosecute the war, and is willing to double the amount if necessary.

The war that the United States is now carrying on with Spain is undoubtedly adding to the stock of information possessed by the average American in regard to other lands than his own.

New Orleans has furnished a regiment of volunteers that need not fear yellow fever, having already had it. Secretary Alger is in favor of amending the army bill, so as to take at least 6,000 such. Senator Caffery says that 20,000 can be had in New Orleans.

The United States Supreme Court has declared the dispensary law constitutional, with the reservation that individuals may order liquor for private consumption without hindrance from the State authorities. This means that the original package establishments will have to go.

The southern newspapers are doing the farmers and all the people of this section good service when they urge the planting of larger food crops and the raising of more hogs. The war came upon us when it was not too late to provide, at least partially, against the calamity of short food supplies in the south this year. Already the prices of provisions have advanced, and they will go higher as the war advances. It passes comprehension that the great majority of the farmers of the south have gone on year after year relying upon the west for their meat and bread when they could have raised it at home for less than its ordinary cost. Now that the price of corn, the price of wheat, the price of meat, the price of everything to eat, is sure to go up and may remain unusually high for a year or longer, it would be the height of folly to depend upon the western supply instead of our own farms.

John Sherman is certainly up against it hard in his old age. Forced out of the Senate to make a place for Hanna, and now kicked out of the Cabinet. Sherman has made few real friends during his long public career, but he has not deserved such shabby treatment as he has recently received.

The New York Tribune remarks: "Even a year ago such appointments as those of General Wheeler and General Lee would have been almost impossible. A common enemy has removed the last vestige of proscription. The southerner is as anxious to defend his country as the northerner, and some anxiety is expressed in the South lest the war end before the old Confederates have the chance to march under the Stars and Stripes.

Nothing has occurred since our trouble with Spain began that is more gratifying to the national feeling than the rigorous action of the Mexican government in guarding carefully against a treacherous assault upon this country by Spanish residents of the neighboring republic. President Diaz has no idea of permitting Spanish sympathizers within his territory to draw Mexico into a compromising attitude toward the United States.

Great Britain, realizing the potency of the growing power of the United States, is willing, nay, anxious, to bring about an alliance of the English speaking people. To such advances our country should not be deaf. If, as a Christian people, we earnestly desire the peace of the world, in no way can we secure it so effectually as by the combined strength and unity of purpose of the United States and England. The world would be a gainer by such an alliance.

Of all the senseless fads of which woman is guilty, that of trailing skirts is the most devoid of sense and reason. A lady passed us on the street the other day and the rattle of her silk and newly starched skirts made us think we were being overtaken by a hailstorm. After she had passed we wished we had been, for it would have been far more refreshing than the cloud of dust which her trailing skirts swish-swashing over the dusty crossing threw into our faces.

The London Times' Account.

LONDON, May 9.—The Hong Kong correspondent of the Times describing the fight at Manilla says: "The cable from the bay to Manilla having been cut by the rebels, the city was taken by surprise by the appearance of the American fleet. The Spanish flag ship having got up steam advanced out of line to meet the Olympia. Commodore Dewey had issued an order for his fleet to concentrate its guns on the Spanish flag ship and the signal was obeyed with telling effect. The flag ship retired. The Olympia fired a 3-inch shell which raked the Reina Maria Christina throughout her length and caused her boilers to explode, killing her captain and sixty men. She drifted away on fire.

"Altogether one hundred and forty men were killed, and about the same number were wounded. Admiral Montejó transferred his flag to the Castilla, which was sunk shortly afterward by a storm of shot. At a quarter of 8 the Olympia signalled to cease firing. The Americans were exhausted, having been at quarters since 10 o'clock on the previous night.

"A conference of captains was held and it was found that not one had been killed, but that several had been slightly wounded by splinters. Two torpedo launches attacked the Olympia. The shells from her big guns were unable to strike so small an object, but a hail of 6-pounder shells sank the leading launch, all on board being killed. The other launch was beached with twelve shot holes, and the boat was covered with blood.

"Half an hour after noon a white flag was hoisted at Cavite and the Spanish crews deserted their ships, taking away their dead. Admiral Montejó fled to Manilla with his two aides-de-camp.

The Army at Chickamauga.

CHICKAMAUGA NATIONAL PARK, May 8.—It was given out officially today that 40,000 men of the volunteer army would be mobilized here just as soon as they have been mustered into the Government service. With the ten regiments of regulars now here filled to war strength the army at this point will number 50,000. It is also announced that Major Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Major Gen. Joe Wheeler and Major Gen. James H. Wilson will be in command. The purpose being to form the volunteer men into three army corps.

The first instalment of recruits is coming in rapidly. One hundred arrived here to-day and information of the recruiting officers is to the effect that all the recruits required will be obtained in a comparatively short time.

Col. William E. Welborn, the aged father of A. C. Welborn, of this city, was married on the 21st of April to Harriet Vandiver, of Habersham County, Georgia. Colonel Welborn is 81 years old and his bride is 45. His son, A. C. Welborn, did not know of the ceremony until yesterday. Colonel Welborn lives on Tugaloo River, in Oconee County, and has a number of friends hereabouts.—Greenville News.

—Missouri farmers realize as high as $20 an acre by the sale of their corn-cobs to the manufacturers of corn-cob pipes.

He Should Be Punished.

Mr. Editor: For the last two or three years we have seen, in your issue, a man named God, who from time to time skinned the trees in front of my house, jerked off palings, broken the fence and committed other unfriendly acts. It is evident this individual lives on my side of town, and the proximity of these hostile demonstrations, together with the persistence with which they are kept up, gives evidence of the fact that at some time in my life either willingly or unwillingly, I have done this man some injury. I am not at all sure, however, by what means he has done me such an injury, either by imitating my self better than they are getting something they wanted, refusing them credit, or some such unneighborly offense. Now, whatever my fault, and they are many, there is no man living who wants to get on with people more than I do, and I do not have good terms, and I desire to say this publicly to this individual, as I am not sure of his private address, that if he will come to me like a man and disclose his identity, I will happily bestow his pardon and, in addition, give him ten of my hard earned dollars, or if he is too modest to come himself, a like sum will be paid to anyone of his friends or enemies who will furnish satisfactory evidence of his whereabouts. T. F. HILL.

Another Suggestion.

Mr. Editor: We see in the last issue of your paper somebody has suggested a number of gentlemen for the people of Anderson County to vote for, and we notice he has left out the eastern portion of the County entirely. Well, we are free to vote for anybody we please, and we ask space in the old, reliable INTELLIGENCER to suggest a ticket to the voters of our County, and if anybody can beat it, at right. Happy Married.

On last Thursday afternoon, when the thermometer was registering near 80 degrees in the shade, Mr. Joo. A. Fant, of Bolton Township, was happily united to Miss Marjorie Pressley, of Charleston, at the residence of prospective County Treasurer, C. P. Kay, the ceremony being performed in an impressive manner by Rev. N. G. Wright. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the groom, where an elegant reception was tendered them. More than sixty invited guests were present and merry making reigned supreme for several hours. Mr. Fant is a progressive young farmer, who is well and favorably known in the eastern section of the County. Miss Pressley, although a stranger among us, has already won many lasting friends. May heaven's richest blessings rest upon them. GUEST.

An Atchison (Kan.) schoolboy, upon being ordered by his teacher to write a composition in verse concerning his native State, sized up the situation as follows: "Kansas is the State the grasshoppers ate, where the cyclone blows careless and free, where the jackrabbit hops and the Populist yaps; still the State's pretty good for to see."
