Some time has elapsed, Mr. Editor, since you last heard from us, and during that time we have been suffering a great deal with a rising in our throat. So you will have to excuse us

The farmers are all making good use of the time picking cotton and saving hay, the rains having ruined a large amount of their fodder.

The farmers will sow another large grain crop this fall. They have at last found out that they can live cheaper have received their own supplies than to by raising their own supplies than to let some other man do the raising. So you can tell Joe Leiter, and all these Western manufacturers, that hereafter we will live at home and board at the

we will live at home and board at the same place.

There is a great deal of sickness in this community, principally chills, at the present writing.

There are three very happy men in this community, and whene'r they meet they "circle three." They are Mr. Walter Holcomb, Mr. John Evatt and Mr. Benjamin Owen. The happiness of the first was caused by the arrival of a baby girl visitor, of the second by the arrival of a bouncing boy, and of the third by another of the gentler sex.

The roads in this community have been worked but it is still a very difficult matter for one to ride over the roads in any ease. If a person drives in a hurry they run the risk of being jolted out of their buggy or getting their vehicle broken. Rocks from the size of one's fist to the size of a half-gallon cup lie so thick along the road that one can step from one stone to another.

We believe in religious freedom, Mr. Editor, and we also believe that it is a shame and a disgrace and also unbiblical for any denomination or sect of people to conduct themselves in any such manner as a certain sect of people, which are now traveling over the country, are doing. They call themselves "The Fire Baptised Sect," and claim to have music and dancing, but they have rightly been termed "fools a prancing."

Rev. Mr. Martin preached a very interesting sermon at Willis Chapel last fourth Sunday to a large and appreciative audience.

Two deaths have occurred in this community in the past week. One was that of Gus Nix, who died of typhoid fever, and the other was a child of Will Nix. Both were interred at Willis Chapel.

Ensign Louis Richardson started on his return to the flagship New York last Sunday. His many friends were sorry to see him leave.

The election is over and things have at last assumed a quiet attitude.

Boleman News.

Mr. Clayton B. Mahaffey has gone to New York, where he has secured a good position. We wish him much success in his new home.

Mr. James I Barton, who has been afflicted for the last two years, we are sorry to say is very low at this writing.

Mr. James M. Richardson, who has been sick all the year, is much improv-three years. She will graduate this session.

The Double Springs Baptist Church elected the Rev. W. W. Leathers pastor for next year at their last conference meeting. The present pastor, Rev. F. M. Estes, having resigned.

It is generally believed that at least is per cent. of the cotton rotted during the recent wet weather.

Dr. E. B. Webb, of Fair Play, has invented a nailless horseshoe. His model was made by Dallas Smith (col.) of that place. Those who have seen the model say it is as fine a piece of workmanship as they ever saw.

All of the gins in this section are worked to their full capacity trying to keep up with their custom ginning on four-cent cotton.

keep up with their custom ginning on four-cent cotton.

There is an abundance of hay being cut and saved, which is much needed, as most of our fodder rotted.

Mr. L. G. Bradberry, our clever and accommodating merchant at Boleman, has built an addition to his store.

The Rev. T. M. Simmons, of the New Ferry section, was in this section visiting the sick last Sunday.

The health of this community is very good, with the exception of a few cases of fever.

News is very scarce. So, Mr. Editor, you must bear with us this time, and we will try to do better next time.

Williamston Items.

The Williamston Female College has commenced its fall session under unusually promising circumstances, and the prospects are that this will be one of the most prosperous years of the existence of this famous institution. It has never been known as a machine where graduates (so-called) were turned out by the score, but it enjoys the reputation of being one of the most thorough training schools to be found anywhere.

Visiting in this community, have returned home.

I wonder what has become of "Uncle Ned"? It seems that he has disappeared. I don't guess he's got over the sore eyes yet, and he'll have to be excused. "Nobody's Darling" ought to write often, as she is "Somebody's Darling" now. If you don't believe it, just ask Mr. G. about it.

As news items are scarce, and so much 3 and 4 cents cotton to pick, I'll close and go to picking. OLD JOE.

We are gratified to report that the health of our people was never better than it is. We have not had a single than it is. We have not had a single case of fever of any sort within toe limits of our town in several years.

The preliminary work incident to the building of the new Methodist Church is progressing as rapidly as possible. The contract has not been placed yet as a veral bids are expected and waiting for them is necessarily delaying actual operations on the building. The Methodist congregation will worship in the College Chapel until the completion of the new Church.

Many visitors have enjoyed the healthful atmosphere, fine mineral water and (they say) kind hospitality of our town during the summer.

Miss Hallie Pelzer and sister, two charming young ladies of Pelzer, are spending a month at the Sadler House.

Fred C. Bigley, of Trenton, is visiting his mother and sisters on Main street.

"Betsy Hamilton" created an abundance of fun last Friday night before a refined audience at the College Chapel, with her unique lecture "Life in the Cracker land and the Old Time South-

The health of this community is very good at present.

Everybody has plenty of work to do.

Picking cotton and saving grass and peavines is the order of the day now with the most of the farmers.

Mr. Vernon Watson met with a very painful accident last Friday, which resulted in breaking the small bone of his right forearm, and also in receiving a heavy fall on his beat. He was heavy fall on his back. He was working in the gin, oiling some ma-chinery, when he was caught by the belt which caused him to lose his bal-ance, and but for the timely assistance of a young man, Mr. Dickson, he would probably have been killed. Vernon is getting along as well as could be expected, and we hope he will soon be up Several of the young people of our community enjoyed themselves at a party last Saturday night given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leach.

Messrs. J. L. Foster, F. P. and J. B. Gentry are running the beef market this season. If any one wants nice fresh beef send your orders to or call on these young men and they will supply you.

fresh beef send your orders to or call on these young men and they will supply you.

Mr. Editor, on last Sunday afternoon it was the pleasure of your humble scribe to attend the Sunday School at Eureka, and we believe we can truthfully say that this is the most interesting and progressive Sanday School of its size we have ever attended. One very impressive feature of the Sunday School that day was the talk which Col. Campbell gave after the exercises of the school were over. His talk was directed principally to their Sunday School Secretary. Mr. Ernest Tucker, whose resignation had been given in the Sunday preceding on account of his expecting to attend the Citadel at Charleston, from which he had won a scholarship at the recent competitive examination. Col. Campbell spoke of the punctual attendance and faithful services of Mr. Tucker, and at the conclusion of his talk presented him with a valuable goldpen, which was a token of appreciation from the Sunday School. "A good name is better than great riches."

several cases of malarial fever, but none dangerous. So we hope we will all soon be well again.

The hammers have ceased ringing and the whiz of the saw is heard no more and our neighbor, Mr. B. D. Martin, resides in a nice new house. I'll tell you, Mr. Editor, this is the finest community for improvements, intelligence and refinement in general that can be found.

We had the pleasure of being shown through the granary of Messrs. W. A. Finley & Co. the other day, which is the nicest and most complete outfit that can be started anywhere. But Mr. Finley is a natural born machinest and knows how to do good work and to

On Monday, Sept. 12th, the angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carroll and took from them their loving son, Charles. The announcement of his death was no shock to his friends, for it had been expected for some time. He had been sick for a year or more with consumption. Charles was 21 years old and was one of Anderwas 21 years old and was one of Anderson County's best and most popular young men. He joined the Baptist Church about three years ago and has been a devoted and consistent member. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Herron, and a large crowd was present to pay their last respects to the deceased. His remains were laid to rest in the Salem Churchyard. We extend to the family our heartfelt sympathy in their sore bereavement.

Mrs. W. B. Hembree has been sick, but we are glad to say she is better

Mr. D. Kay has been very busy making molasses. He has made two or three hundred gallons and has plenty of cane to make up yet.

Mrs. Crayton Cann and her little grandson, from Alice, who have been visiting in this community, have re-thorough training schools to be load anywhere.

The Male High School is again in charge of Professor Geo. S. Goodgion and his sister, Miss Maida. The attendance is very good indeed, and the patrons are highly pleased.

The Carolina Academy will open its doors on the third of October under the management of Dr. James N. Anderson and an able corps of assistants.

The establishment of an institution of this kind here, devoted. as it is principally to the teaching of young men, will be a great acquisition to the already great educational advantages.

Children's Day was observed in the Church Sunday night, and the exercises were very interesting and instructive. Rev. J. E. Singleton's address was very appropriate and interesting. The children rendered their parts perfectly, and decorations were lovely and the collection good. The house would not hold the people, and for such a crowd the order was very good. Such occasions we think are inspiring and result in great good in various ways.

6 Col. Boone's Great Scheme.

The indefatigable Colonel Albert E. Boone, who for some years has been engaged in promoting the building of a double track trunk line of railroad from Cincinnati to Charlenton or some other port on the Atlantic Ocean, has by no means abandoned that difficult, but your investment. but very important, enterprise. The details of the vast scheme in which details of the vast scheme in which Col. Boone has interested many cities and counties in the Middle West have been published in the News and Courier, and are familiar to the railroad men of the city.

According to the Cincinnati Enquirer, a famous English engineer is now inspecting Colonel Boone's road, with a view to advising his friends at home whether or not to put their money into

Some of the people in our section think it wrong to eat swine's flesh. So if you should notice a crowd talking you may know it is on the subject of meats, as that is the topic of the day, but as this is a free country we will have nothing to say in the matter.
Some little silly fellows, who had no better sense and who could neither read or write, thought they would do something to say in the world and the hon. T. C. Dickenson, of Washington, D. Maret, who has had a severe attack of fever, we are glad to say is convalescing.

Mr. George W. Jolly has gone to McCormick to enter the school at that place.

Miss Emma Farmer has returned to Rock Hill, where she has been attending the Winthrop College for the last three years. She will graduate this session.

Some little silly fellows, who had no better sense and who could neither read or write, thought they would do something smart the other day, so they got a few sweet crackers, made in the shape of hogs, and sent them to a gentleman who believes it is wrong to eat hog meat.

C., the finest harbor on the coast, with four-teen miles of sixty-foot water at the wharfs.

The line as surveyed is 1,200 miles long, and the company will endeavor to impress the inspecting engineer with the importance of recommending the building of a double track, which, they believe, the traffic will abundantly justify. Sir Thomas S. Tancred is one of the most represent weilroad engineer of the most renowned railroad engineers and builders in the world. He built all of the railroads in New Zealand, the first seventy miles of the Delago Bay Railroad in South Africa, since extended 400 miles through the Transvaal, several lines in Great Britain, some in Australia, part of the Tehuantepec Trans-Continental Line in Mexico, and upon his recommenda-tion after examination last April the White Pass and Yukon Railway of Alaska, from Skagua to Lake Bennett, Alaska, from Skagua to Lake Belnett, is now being built over what was regarded as unsurmountable obstacles. The firm of Tancred, Arrol & Co. built the great bridge over the Forth at Edinburgh, Scotland, the grandest structure of the kind in the world to day, which was completed in 1889 after five years' work and at a cost of $15,-

Organizing the Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.-Major Gen. Miles, commanding the army, has completed his plan for the reorganization of the volunteer forces into corps, divisions and brigades. The plan has been submitted to the war department for approval. The plan contemplates a reorganization of the volunteer force which has not been ordered mustered out, and designated as an army of occupation for Cuba; provides for the relief of the army in Porto Rico, and establishes a reserve to relieve the troops in the various islands, which will be occupied by the United States.

It is known that the troops of the 7th corps, now under Gen. Lee, will be designated to go to Cuba, and that troops from the camps at Lexington, Knoxville and Middletown, will be selected for Cuban duty. It is under-stood that Gen. Miles deals only with organizations such as corps, divisions, brigades and regiments. The matter of commanding and staff officers will be settled after the mustering out of general and staff officers had been determined.

OUR five years' experience with the DEERING IDEAL BALL BEARING MOWERS has convinced us, as well as hundreds of the best farmers in Anderson County, that they are most appropriately named—that they are ideal in light draft, in strength, in durability and in ability to do perfect work. Perfect as were the Deering Machines last year, we know that they are still better improved and strengthened for the harvest of 1898. Remember that they are the only Mowers on the market that can start from a stop, in any crop, without backing. Every Deering Mower sold is an advertisement for us and in the means of us calling another. tisement for us, and is the means of us selling another. Can our competitors say that?
