Riot in Greenwood County.

A riot was precipitated at Phoenix, in Greenwood County, late yesterday afternoon, lasting until late into the night and from the best information obtainable up to this time, three whites and three negroes were killed and one white and fourteen negroes wounded.

Phoenix is situated twelve miles from Greenwood, ten miles from Ninety Six and six miles from Bradley, the nearest railroad station, is densely populated with negroes and the country home of R. R. Tolbert, Jr., the Republican candidate for Congress. No information has been received this morning as to how the riot terminated last night; but at ten o'clock last night, between five hundred and a thousand negroes and whites angrily faced each other ready to resume the battle any moment.

The voting precinct was in the store of Lake & Watson, at Phoenix. One of the Tolberts placed a box in the store, near the regular managers, and called on the negroes who were legally disqualified to vote in this box. Manager "Bose" Ethridge ordered Tolbert to remove the box. Tolbert refused to do so. Ethridge said he would remove it and proceeded to do so, but was met by a volley of shots from the negroes and fell dead. The other two managers opened fire on the negroes, killing three, and the firing became general.

The Spanish government allows her little king, Alfonso, the sum of $1,400,000 a year salary, besides $400,000 additional expense money. We think that by practicing strict economy he ought to get along on that.

The Omaha Exposition has been one of the most successful ever held in this country. It opened last spring with a big debt, which has been paid off and a big fund accumulated. It is now proposed to run the Exposition another year.

European war clouds lower and threaten the universal peace and map lines. The struggle once begun will not be definitely settled before the end of the twentieth century unless the one-man governments are replaced with representative governments by the people.

The St. Louis Republic says in its thanksgiving proclamation President McKinley is eminently fair in acknowledging that his administration was "compelled to take up the sword in the cause of humanity." It was the Democratic party which compelled the McKinley administration.

The war with Spain ended a good while ago. But the expense of it goes on. Without reckoning the salaries and maintenance of the several commissions appointed to arrange peace terms and the conditions of evacuation, the war expense from the 21st day of April until now has been about $1,000,000 day. And this expense continues.

The neglect that the American army has suffered from was that of political trimmers, supported by the papers now raising such a hypocritical howl, perpetrated in the guise of "governments economically administered." Past and defunct Congresses are murderers in fact. They committed murder by persistently refusing to make provision for war emergencies. Will our future congresses do the same thing?

The Southern cotton grower may find it possible to grow a cent cotton when he has learned to diversify his crops so as to raise everything at home, but he will never prosper by following his present course of all cotton crop under the mistaken idea that low prices are due to some other cause than overproduction. He has only to refer to statistics for the past few years to know that a small cotton crop yields greater returns than a big one.

ton made powerful appeals for home and foreign missions. The Church building was not sufficient to hold more than half the people that attended. The collection amounted to fifty dollars. We are glad that the people are waking up to a sense of their responsibility in regard to the heathen and pagan world. A sumptuous dinner was served on the grounds. The Rev. McGuire, of South Union, preached a sermon to a large and appreciative audience in the evening. His sermon was logical and full of thought.

The Baptist Church of this place has called the Rev. D. Weston Hiott, of Westminster, to preach there another year. Rev. S. F. Singleton having resigned. At the instance of Mrs. G. E. Smith and Miss Janie Gaines the ladies of the Baptist Church are making a nice quilt for the Connie Maxwell Orphanage. How beautiful it is to clothe and feed the orphans and to have great and good men like Vase and Jacobs to teach them and train them for the business of this life, and also to train them for a higher and nobler life to come.

The Misses Mahaffey were thrown from their buggy on last Saturday, and Miss Allie was hurt, but learn it was not very serious. It was caused by a runaway horse. Every citizen in the Fork ought to give to the last notch to pull the Black Diamond through this way, for if we miss this line we are cut off ever afterward.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. It was told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her. Her doctor suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle, and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well; now she does her own housework, and is as well as ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Hill-Orr Co.'s Drug Store. Large bottles $1.00 and $1.00.

Townville Items. Sheriff Johnson and Mr. Webb, of Hartwell, Ga., were in our town on last Sunday looking after some escaped convicts. Mr. Clifford Burriss and Miss Maggie Stephenson, of Mountain Creek, have been visiting Miss Janie Gaines, of this place. Mr. James Barton, of Bruce's Ford, is in a very critical condition. His disease seems to be the knowledge and skill of all the physicians.

Mr. Miles P. Singleton, of Westminster, and Miss Griffin, of Pickens, have been visiting relatives and friends in this place. Mr. Jake Cromer, of South Union, has been down to our place sporting one of our fair maidens. The Baptist Sunday School of this place observed Children's Day on the 1st Sunday. The decorations surpassed any we have seen. The children rendered their pieces to perfection, and Revs. J. J. Beck and J. F. Singleton made powerful appeals for home and foreign missions.

These hot values burn our hands, so we drop them like this. Competition will tell you 'tain't so,' and try to hold you, but it's no use, unless you want to be swallowed whole. Now, we know there's lots of slack jaw given us behind our backs, but mark this: The parties doing it either have an axe to grind or they are giving vent to an old grudge. No, they can't sling us around like so many rats by the tail, therefore they want to do us an injury. Others come and go like the Summer's sun or the Winter's snows, but the bargains at The Ten Cent Store go on and on. For nearly ten years we have been the particular bright and shining star around which a number of ineffective competitors have twinkled from time to time, but thanks to the people who know a good thing when they see it we live to tell the tale. In our Wholesale Department we are specially prepared to offer inducements to merchants everywhere. Now, don't be a black sheep. We hope to number you among the best of the flock. So come to see us. Come often. Yours always truly,
