J. F. CLINKSCALES, EDITORS AND C. C. LANGSTON, PROPRIETORS.

TERMS: ONE YEAR, $5 00 SIX MONTHS, 2 50

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 30, 1893.

Every State that has adopted biennial legislative sessions is better governed than before—because it is less governed.

A Pennsylvania grand jury has found a true bill against United States Senator Quay, his son Richard and Benjamin J. Haywood, ex-State Treasurer, for fraudulent transactions in connection with the People's Bank.

Spain has accepted the United States offer of $20,000,000, and at a joint session of the peace commission in Paris last Monday afternoon consented without condition to relinquish Cuba and cede Porto Rico, Guam and the Philippine islands.

An exchange says the cotton crop of 1893 is now being bought and sold for less than 6 cents. August futures were quoted on the New York Exchange last week at 5.39; October at 5.41.

One of the most remarkable incidents of volunteer army life was experienced by one of the paymasters at Miami, Fla., recently. A member of the Second Alabama regiment absolutely refused to accept his pay, amounting to $35.

The anti-cigarette law passed by the last Tennessee Legislature is declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of that State. The opinion declares that cigarettes are not legitimate articles of commerce, because they are wholly noxious and deleterious to health.

Let it be remembered that each bank check or draft must bear a stamp. So must every bill of lading, mortgages, conveyances, leases, power of attorney, warehouse receipts, telegraph messages and express packages.

The jurors serving at the present term of Court in Greenville deserve to be congratulated upon the faithful performance of their duties. The jury system is the bulwark of civil liberty, but it is only when stern duty sweeps aside prejudice and sentiment and makes naked evidence the basis of its operations.

It is gratifying to note that the establishing of a Juvenile Reformatory in this State is no longer a possibility but a very great probability. The matter took definite shape during the last session of the Legislature, and a commission was appointed and authorized to make investigations and report.

proval of the taxpayers of the State. The placing of youthful offenders alongside of hardened criminals without an effort to reform them other than by the punishment inflicted by the operations of penal statutes speaks badly for a people living in the midst of Christian civilization. The long neglect of so important a matter—so great a debt due to humanity—can scarcely be atoned for now, however willingly and promptly we may ask through our representatives in the Legislature, and to postpone the matter longer would amount to little less than criminal neglect.

The Only Way Out.

Mr. Error: Southern, and especially Southeastern, farmers are into it, and there is only one way out. The very low price of their leading staple, cotton, will no doubt affect all, involve a great many and ruin financially a large number. Well, in view of this condition of things, with no prospect of any improvement in the future, what is to be done? What is the way out of such a dilemma? Some say buy more guano, fertilize more heavily and make more cotton to the acre. It is very evident there is no get out on that line, but a very good way to make matters worse.

By producing on our farms what we consume and thereby reducing the acreage of cotton, there would be also a reduction of the amount of needed fertilizers which is item of great importance. Look at the caught up condition of farmer, who this year, purchased largely of guanos with the prospect at least of 6 cents cotton to pay for them, and now have to meet their obligations with 4 to 5 cents cotton.

Let it be remembered that each bank check or draft must bear a stamp. So must every bill of lading, mortgages, conveyances, leases, power of attorney, warehouse receipts, telegraph messages and express packages. In every case the stamp must be affixed and the person affixing it must cancel it by writing across its face his initials and the date. The tax act provides that if any instrument or document specified as subject to a tax stamp is left unstamped "with intent to evade the provisions of this act," the offender shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding $50, or imprisoned not exceeding six months, or both.

The jurors serving at the present term of Court in Greenville deserve to be congratulated upon the faithful performance of their duties. The jury system is the bulwark of civil liberty, but it is only when stern duty sweeps aside prejudice and sentiment and makes naked evidence the basis of its operations. When sentiment is allowed to overshadow duty and check the flow of justice criminals take courage and it is only a question of time till all the land is deluged with crime. However much the sentences of the Courts may do violence to the tender susceptibilities of jurors they should know that duty, alone, which brings swift, but just, punishment can give that security of person and property which is so much desired by every community.

By authority of the Old Stone Church Association, Rev. B. P. Reid, O. R. Doyle and J. C. Stribling were appointed as a fence committee to enclose the cemetery on the grounds of the sacred and historical Old Stone Church, near the corner of Anderson, Pickens and Oconee Counties.

This committee have decided to erect an all iron cemetery fence of modern style and finish, and are now ready to receive contributions from the subscribers to this fund as well as all others who feel interested in preserving these grounds. The committee think they will need about $200 in addition to subscriptions already made to complete this work in good and substantial style, and solicit the aid of all friends to this enterprise to send in contributions as early as possible to Rev. B. P. Reid, Chairman of Committee, Pendleton, S. C.

The Court House Clock.

Editor Intelligencer: Permit me who feels exceedingly proud of our magnificent new Court House to ask a pertinent question about the indicator of time placed in its dome. Is it that the old clock is not suitable to the new, or is it that the new modern structure is ashamed of the old clock? The old clock, we are told, is a splendid time keeper; why does it refuse to serve its purpose now? Can you enlighten one who likes to understand the cause of its failure to work? CITIZEN.

Death of Prof. Hamilton.

Prof. Jas. H. Hamilton died at Pendleton Nov. 25th, at the home of Mr. J. Norton Hunter, where he boarded. He was kindly and faithfully nursed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Norton Hunter and other friends, and treated by Dr. Davant, with Dr. Watkins as consulting physician, but the end came. Prof. Hamilton came to Pendleton in autumn last from near Strother, in Fairfield County, S. C., to be principal of our Graded School. He was an entire stranger to our community, and was elected on recommendation of the faculty of the State University, where he graduated recently. In a quiet and unassuming manner he soon gained the confidence and esteem of all. He was a successful teacher. He identified himself with the Presbyterian Church here and engaged heartily in its work, teaching a Sabbath School class of young men. He was a prompt and efficient teacher. He was cut down early in life, but not too soon to impress many with his integrity, his faithfulness and devotion to duty. His remains left Pendleton on Saturday morning to be buried in the cemetery of Salem Presbyterian Church, Fairfield County, S. C., where he was raised. B. P. REID.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like R, but there is really no trick about it. A remedy can try Malaria or nervous troubles. We mean be can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, sets as a stimulant to Liver and Kidneys, is a good purifier of the blood, cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at Hill-Orr Drug Co.

FOR CASH ONLY.

Anderson, Nov. 14, 1893. We have learned by experience that the business methods of the majority of people to whom we have extended credit are altogether too loose, and as we find this condition of affairs becoming more prevalent, we will from and after this date, conduct our practice wholly for cash. In conformity with this intention, we hereby give notice to that effect. By adopting that method, we will defend ourselves from that undesirable element of fashion, the well dressed and well dressed, living on what they owe, and from that class who do not dress so fine, but have no regard for their promises. Thus we will avoid making bad debts for which the paying class will not have to pay, and, too, giving us more time to work for the better class.

We realize that we will work for fewer people, and will lose a few of our customers, whom we prize very highly, but we will have more money, and not be so rushed. Now, we wish to offend no one, but will most positively refuse the invitation to do any work on time, therefore we beg you not to ask us for credit. If you are of the better class, "by which we mean the paying class" that we speak of, we will be glad to see you. But if you belong to that undesirable element mentioned, we will not be glad to see you, nor would we work for you knowingly. We are yours respectfully, STRICKLAND & KING.

P. S. In order to meet our own obligations and maintain our credit, it is incumbent upon us to collect our outstanding accounts; and we will allow no sentimental consideration to stand in the way, therefore we insist that all who are indebted to either of the following, Strickland & King, A. C. Strickland, Strickland & Whitefield, or to Strickland & King, come and pay us now as all accounts that are not paid, or so arranged for us to get the money on them by the first of January, 1894, will be advertised and sold to the highest bidder. We mean to do just what we say, and we most positively will not carry these accounts longer than forty days. Therefore your promises, anything, or have any respect for your credit, come and pay us now. We did your work and trusted to your honor to pay us. Respectfully, A. C. STRICKLAND, STRICKLAND & KING, Dentists.

Now, we know there's lots of slack jaw given us behind our backs, but mark this: The parties doing it either have an axe to grind or they are giving vent to an old grudge. No, they can't sling us around like so many rats by the tail, therefore they want to do us an injury. Others come and go like the Summer's sun or the Winter's snows, but the bargains at The Ten Cent Store go on and on and on.

For nearly ten years we have been the particular bright and shining star around which a number of ineffective competitors have twinkled from time to time, but thanks to the people who know a good thing when they see it we live to tell the tale.

In our Wholesale Department we are specially prepared to offer inducements to merchants everywhere.

Now, don't be a black sheep. We hope to number you among the best of the flock. So come to see us. Come often.

Yours always truly,
