About Posting Lands.

At its last session, the General Assembly made material changes in the statutes relating to the posting of lands. The law as it now stands is as follows:

Section 176. Every entry upon the lands of another, after notice from the owner or tenant prohibiting the same, shall be a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars or imprisonment with hard labor on the public works of the County not exceeding thirty days: Provided, That whenever any owner or tenant of any lands shall post a notice in four conspicuous places on the borders of any land prohibiting entry thereon, and shall publish once a week for four successive weeks such notice in any newspaper circulating in the County where such lands are situated, as proof of the posting and of publishing of such notice within twelve months prior to the entry, shall be deemed and taken as notice conclusive against the person making entry as aforesaid for hunting and fishing.

Approved the 2nd day of February, A. D., 1898.

"Everybody Has a Hobby."

So agrees Fate Goodbar, the author of the late operatic comedy success, "As We See It," which comes to Anderson Dec. 5th, bearing the endorsement of both press and public from the East. "Oh, what some power the gift of us, to see ourselves as others see us," is the foundation of the funny plot, which is said to keep the audience in a continual uproar for three solid hours, leaving only pleasant memories of a bevy of pretty Vassar girls, sweet singers, up-to-date comedians, dainty dancers, elaborate costumes and beautiful scenic effects. The casts includes the following well-known artists: Harry Moore, Bill Allen, J. J. Sully, Harry Ellsworth, Bert Tenney, James Kasser, Robt. W. Edwards, Miss May Cook, Miss Lillian M. Knott, Miss Besie Palmer, Miss Una Ellsworth, the three charming Schuyler Sisters, the Davis Sisters, &c. "As We See It" can hardly fail to please all, embracing as it does, bright, sunny comedy, brilliant music and refined specialties. Opera House next Monday night, Dec. 5th. Reserved seats on sale at H. H. Russell's.

Anderson Graded Schools.

It is formed by selecting three pupils from each class, but no class is entitled to representation unless its members make 90 per cent. or more on general average for the month. Where more than three in a class make 90 per cent. the three highest are taken.

Mr. Girard Earle, son of the late Elias Earle, died at his home on Monday morning, the 28th inst., after a confinement of two weeks with dysentery. He enlisted some months ago in the 1st S. C. V., and while at Chickamauga he was stricken with typhoid fever, which left his constitution in a shattered condition, rendering him unable to battle with the weakening disease that followed. Last Friday was his birthday, and he was, therefore, three days over 44 years old. Knowing him as we have from boyhood, as a school-mate, as a friend, all through life, we feel that it is our duty to speak a word to his memory. In all the relations of life he was honest and upright, kind-hearted and true; unassuming in his nature and quiet in his disposition, his true worth was only known by his intimate friends. A few years ago he gave his heart to his Saviour and united with Roberts Church, and to the day of his death exemplified his profession by a godly walk. Only a few hours before he died he expressed himself as perfectly resigned to the divine will. This family have been sorely stricken. Six of the family have died in as many years. They have and justly deserve the deepest sympathy in all of their friends in their sorrow. His remains were interred at Shiloh on Tuesday, the funeral services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Ligon.

Gentle Sheppard tenderly laid those who have been bereft. Through sorrows night and danger's fold and fast them with Their loved ones at garner in the sky.

Mr. O. F. Rynn, who moved from this neighborhood about a year ago to Catawba, N. C., is here among his old friends for a few weeks winding up his unfinished business. He is looking well and speaks in the highest terms of his new home.

We have commenced to sow wheat and oats, but are making slow progress owing to so much wet weather.

Rev. H. M. Allen, pastor-elect at Shiloh, will preach the second Sunday in January and Saturday before, at the above Church.

Our entire community was saddened on Thanksgiving day to hear of the death of Mr. Jno. T. Wilson at his home near Big Creek Church. Funeral services were conducted Friday by Rev. R. W. Burts, and the remains were interred in the cemetery at Big Creek.

The residence of Capt. B. C. Martin was totally destroyed by fire last Friday morning at daylight. A defective flume seems to have been the cause of the fire, and such headway had been gained by the flames before they were discovered that scarcely anything was saved. An out-house containing a large amount of corn caught fire several times and was only saved by heroic efforts. Capt. Martin's loss is considerable, as only $750 insurance was carried. A new house will be erected at once on the same spot.

Work on the Methodist Church is progressing quite rapidly.

Thanksgiving services were conducted in the College chapel by Rev. Mr. Kilgo, assisted by Revs. Attaway, Lander, Wood and Wilson. The collection taken was applied to the new Church.

Mrs. J. C. C. Featherstone and daughter are visiting relatives in Laurens.

Cadet Joseph C. Duckworth, accompanied by several classmates, came over from Clemson College Thursday and spent three days in town. A sociable was given in their honor at the residence of Mr. J. C. Rush Friday evening, followed by one at Mrs. C. L. Cooley's the next night. Oh, those brass buttons!

Mr. H. Reeves, a druggist from Laurens, is now filling prescriptions at Wilson & Co's drug store.

The Misses Scott, of Liekville, visited the family of Capt. W. A. McKelvey recently.

Miss Chiles, of Greenville, visited the Misses Brown last week.

Mr. Hewlet Sullivan, of Wofford College, spent Thanksgiving at home.

The farmers are hoping for dry weather now, as very little small grain has been sown.

Mr. J. H. James has purchased a lot on Main street from Mr. J. M. Ramsey and has let the contract for a six-room house to contractor Smith, of Anderson. Mr. Smith also has a contract to erect a large house for Mr. J. P. Gossett at the "Oaks."

Arbor day was observed at the Male Academy last Friday.

Zarine Criss-Crosses.

Thanksgiving passed off very quietly. Everybody went to Church and left the turkeys in the pots a kicking.

Our farmers are rushing around to get their cotton gathered before the fast approaching holidays come, and prepare the soil for sowing wheat and oats.

The potato crops in this vicinity were excellent. No danger of anybody perishing during the coming winter season—"taters" are too plentiful.

Corn shuckings are all over, and our farmers are rejoicing over their full cribs.

Rev. Mr. Moore, the pastor of Little River Church, moved into the parsonage last week. Mr. Moore is a fine man and an excellent preacher. We are well pleased with him.

Mrs. Rosannah Branyon returned home Sunday after an extended visit to relatives at Craytonville.

The Zarline Academy is now on a boom. New pupils are enrolled every day.

Miss Rozella Bowen left last week to take charge of the Craytonville school. We wish Miss Bowen much success.

Mr. Lem Kay, of Annie, spent Saturday with his grandfather, Mr. J. R. Robinson.

Our friend, Rev. W. M. Moore, has gone to Abbeville, where he has secured a position in the cotton mills. We regret his departure very much.

Dr. W. C. Bowen and wife, of Belton, worshipped at Little River Sunday.

Miss Maude Branyon, who has been visiting in Annie, is now at home.

Mrs. W. A. Darby and little son, who have been sick, are now convalescent.

Miss Cora J. Shirley, who is teaching the Long Branch school, spent Sunday with home folks.

Gather ye broom straw while ye may, for there'll come a time when you'll need it some day.

ROSEBUD.

Flat Rock Items.

The farmers are cheered up by the rise of the cotton market.

Rev. H. C. Fenel carried on a few days' meeting at this place commencing the 3rd Sabbath afternoon.

Mr. Alston G. Thompson went to Gaffney last Wednesday to attend the wedding of his cousin, Miss Janie Thompson.

Miss Mamie Norris came home last Saturday on account of sickness. We hope she will soon recover, though we are glad to have her in our midst. Her sister, Miss Pearl, left last Sabbath afternoon to take Miss Mamie's place in the school-room.

Miss Jessie L. Thompson, who has been at the Due West Female College for the past two months, is at home sick. She came home two or three weeks ago sick and spent several days and returned hoping to soon recover entirely, but in a day or two after her return to College she was taken ill again. She came home again on the 25th inst. Miss Jessie is a bright and interesting young lady, and we wish for her a speedy recovery. She was in the sophomore class.

Last Sabbath evening was right cool but that did not affect the traveling of the bags, for a good many of them went down the road toward Hebron. Some of them surely must be stuck down there.

We are having some cold and snowy weather now, yet we are not through picking cotton yet. But if it stays this way long I suspect the people will have some sausage to eat.

Returning Thanks.

The Daughters of the Confederacy desire to return thanks to all who so kindly gave them help in making the entertainments at the Opera House last week a success. They duly appreciate the sacrifices that were made by the young ladies in giving up their pleasure hours to attend rehearsals and to the young business men for the same purpose. The little girls and boys, too, are to be thanked for their loyalty in the work, and both of our newspapers for their able and willing aid. To the two gentlemen who gave us their countenance and backing throughout and saved us all annoyance in arranging the final settlement we are duly grateful. The ladies and gentlemen who furnished the music, both at rehearsal and for entertainments, were invaluable and to them we owe in a great measure the success of our efforts; and also, to the liberality of the directors and managers of the Opera House in allowing us frequent rehearsals there. To Drs. Strickland & King we are deeply indebted for the privilege of using their office. And let us not forget the generosity and courtesies of Messrs. Will Brown, G. J. Bee and W. D. Simpson in the matter of printing and distributing our advertisements. Many and sincere thanks to all.
