Death of Mr. Joseph Martin.

Our citizens were greatly surprised Tuesday morning by the announce-ment of the death of Mr. Joseph Martin. Very few knew he was ill. He was on the streets in usual health the first of the week, and on Thursday morning last came up to go to work, but was seized with a chill and forced to go home and take his bed. An attack of pneumonia developed from which he could not be rallied and he breathed his last at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning, in the 62nd year of his age.

Very few men were better known in this County than Joseph Martin, and few men occupying the same modest position in life have been so universally esteemed. His faults were lost sight of in his affable generous nature and in his dealings with men which exemplified the practice of the golden rule as fully as man can practice it. Mr. Martin was a native of Ireland and came to America when fifteen years old. In his last moments, when disease held sway over his brain, his mind wandered back to the days of his boyhood in old Ireland, and taking up the thread of life where it ran through those sunny days spent the last hours of his life admid the happy, joyous days of his youth.

For nearly a half century Anderson has been the home of Mr. Martin, and here he has raised a large family of children; and while his business as harness maker did not reward him with wealth, honor always abode in his home, and is left as a heritage to

The wife and ten children survive him, all of whom are grown except two. The remains were interred at Silver Brook Cemetery this morning, after sprvices at the home, conducted by Roy J. N. H. Summerell. The deceased had been a member of the Presbyterian Church all his life.

Tribute of Respect.

Mrs. Jage Simmons, relict of the late Mr. Isaac Simmons, died at her home near Crayton on Monday, Dec. 26, 1898, after an illness of about three weeks of typhoid fever. Mrs. Simmons was the mother of four children, all of whom survive her-three sons and one daughter. She was a member of Mt. Bethel Baptist Church. She will be greatly missed by her friends and relatives. Her remains were interred in the Bar-ker's Creek Churchyard, Rev. N. G. Wright conducting the funeral services in the presence of a large congregation of sympathizing friends. She had been left a widow for 33 years, having her children to raise. Mrs. Simmons was a friend to most all who onew her. We sympathize with the S. M. WRIGHT.

Notes From Carswell Institute.

Well, Mr. Editor, it has been long time since I have written anything for your paper, and it may be that my greens, from which was suspended two communication may find its way to the waste basket, as it may not be considered worthy of being published in your valuable columns.

The Institute is one of the prettiest spots in Hall Township. It has been and is yet a noted place. But where are the old landmarks of the days when the Institute was in its bloomsuch as Dr. W. J. Milford, Maj. James Thompson, Z. Hall, Jackson, McPhail and others, with Rev. E. R. Caswell as Mrs. Griffin met the afternoon train at Belton, which they boarded for their future home at Lockhart, carrying money in building up a place of learning for the rising generation? The most of them have passed over the river never no more to return, but their memories still live, and at that time the Institute was known to be one of the best schools anywhere in the country. Some of Anderson County's most prominent men received their early training here. The old students of the Carswell school had a reunion at this place last Summer, and have arranged to have them here annually, which is a proof that those who attended the school more than two score years ago still have great respect for the old

The Company was composed of men from Hall, Corner, Savannah and, I think, some from Varennes Townships. I do not think in all of the records of the Confederate Army that you can find anything to excel Company F, of which I am proud, as I had some relatives and a great many friends in it.

of these ladies. Our community is wonderfully b'essed in the way of conveniences. We have a Baptist Church about 3 miles South. Rocky River, a Presbyterian, north about 2 miles, a Methodist west 3 miles, and a Baptist east 3 miles, all of which are very ably supplied with men of God as pastors. Besides we dead earnest again. have been having preaching twice a month the greater part of the year at this place by Rev. M. McGee and Rev.

The young and some of the older people of this section have organized a Singing Society that meets once every two weeks during the winter, presided over by Prof. Banister, who does not spare any pains in instructing his class that they may get the benefit of his knowledge in the rudiments of music. it is so much better that our young people should spend their time in singing praises to God than to be serving the devil by attending balls and game

We have four corn and three wheat and two saw mills and cotton gins within three miles, and as good farming land as any in the County.
