

Our Last Announcement

— OF —

WINTER GOODS

FOR THIS SEASON.

We take this opportunity of saying to the public that we still have a few very desirable things in Winter Goods, and that in order to move them, so as to make room for Spring Goods, that we are looking for daily, we are willing to make a greater—

Reduction in Prices

Than ever before. In our Dress Goods Department we have a few—

INDIVIDUAL PATTERNS

That it would pay you to buy, even if you had to lay it away until next Winter. Their room is of more value to us just now than their company. We are offering some—

RED AND WHITE FLANNEL

Below the price. Also, a few pairs of—

BLANKETS,

And a few pieces of—

EIDERDOWN.

We are still offering some great inducements on—

CARPETS,

RUGS,

ART SQUARES,

HASSOCKS and MATTINGS.

You can secure some rare bargains in this Department

MILLINERY.

We have some good things that must be sold, and if you have any work to be done in this Department we are in position to have it done by a first-class Baltimore Milliner. Come and let us sell you your Millinery and do your work for you.

We doubtless have one of the best and cheapest assortments of—

RIBBONS

To be found in the city. We have a few—

OVERCOATS AND MACKINTOSHES,

AND

MEN AND BOYS' SUITS.

That we will sell cheaper than others.

SHOES.

We fear no competition on Shoes. The greatest stock in the city. We are especially anxious to close out all Winter stocks, and prefer doing it at a sacrifice rather than carry them over.

Come at once and inspect for yourself.

Don't forget us on—

GROCERIES,

HARDWARE,

FARM SUPPLIES,

ACID and FERTILIZERS.

Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne & Co.,

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in General Merchandise.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. Marton Rogers, on Thursday, January 5, 1899, by Rev. G. M. Rogers, Mr. W. H. Bryant and Miss Georgia Rogers, both of Anderson County. The attendants were Miss Ada Rogers with Mr. Sydney W. Hall, and Miss Eva Gayton with Mr. Monroe Hanks.

Mr. A. T. Newell, one of our most progressive young farmers, has just received two fine head of cattle from Kansas. They are of the Hereford breed, which are recognized as the best cattle in the United States. They were at J. J. Frywell's stables yesterday and attracted the admiration of every person who saw them.

The Young Men's Business League and the Merchants' Protective Association held an enthusiastic meeting at the City Hall a few evenings ago. Both organizations united for the purpose of inducing investors to cast their lot in Anderson. This is a step in the right direction, and both organizations should have the support and encouragement of every one of our citizens.

Mr. Robert T. Chamblee died at his home in Centerville Township last Monday evening, after a brief illness with pneumonia. His remains were interred at Mountain Creek Church today. Mr. Chamblee was about 70 years of age, and was born and reared and spent most of his life in Anderson County. He was an industrious and successful farmer, an honest man, a kind neighbor, and a devoted husband and father. He was a brave and faithful soldier in the civil war, having served throughout in Aiken's Regiment of Cavalry. The deceased leaves a wife and eight children, who have the sympathy of all their friends in their bereavement.

The Seneca correspondent of the Greenville News, writing under date of the 20th inst., says: "After being sick the last few years death came and relieved one of Seneca's leading physicians and citizens at 8:20 o'clock last evening. Dr. J. B. Brown was called from his long sufferings, which he had borne with Christian patience. Owing to his serious illness he has not practiced medicine lately. He formerly enjoyed a wide practice, and has made friends by the score. To know him was to love him. Dr. Brown was born in Belton, S. C., sixty-five years ago. When a young man he left there and attended one of the leading medical colleges at Philadelphia. After completing his medical studies, he went to Georgia and practiced his profession near Dalton. When the war between the States broke out he tendered his services and was accepted as assistant surgeon of the famous 18th Georgia Regiment. At the close of the war he was acting as assistant brigade surgeon under Colonel Wolford. At the surrender at Appomattox Court House he was selected as surgeon of a ship that conveyed troops from Fortress Monroe to Savannah, Ga. A devoted wife and four children survive him—Mrs. J. H. Bryan, Seneca; Mrs. Lechard Lowery, Seneca; Jas. B. Brown, Jr., Atlanta; and Joe Brown, Seneca, are his children."

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Paul E. Stephens, who will continue the business of his father, the late A. S. Stephens. When you need anything in his line give him a call.

Mrs. Kate Flowers died at her home in this city last Thursday morning, after a brief illness with the la grippe, aged 73 years. Her remains were carried to Williamston and interred in the Big Cree Churchyard on Friday. Mrs. Flowers was twice married and both husbands preceded her to the grave. She was the mother of Mrs. Rogers, of the Telephone Exchange, and Mrs. W. C. Keith, of this city, and was highly esteemed by her friends and acquaintances. She had long been a consistent and devoted member of the Baptist Church. She was a daughter of the late Noah Reeves, and was born in Abbeville County, but in her girlhood her parents moved to Anderson County.

Last Thursday evening at the celebration of the Literary Societies of the South Carolina College in Columbia a handsome gold medal was awarded by the Wade Hampton Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy to Mr. J. L. Sherard, of Anderson County, for writing the best essay on "The Effects of the Civil War on the South." The Columbia State, in speaking of the essay, says: "It showed that the writer has most carefully mastered his subject; that he thoroughly understood the art of essay writing from the excellent argument, beautiful language and ease and elegance of diction. Mr. Sherard, the winner, is now teaching in Georgetown, as principal of the graded school at that place. He graduated from the South Carolina College in the class of '98 with distinction."

A monument has been placed over the grave of the Rev. J. Walter Dickson at Smith Chapel, in the Fork, which was his old home Church. The work was executed in Columbia, the expense being borne by the Woodmen of the World, of which he was a member, and by his family. On the obverse side is this inscription: "Rev. J. Walter Dickson, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, August 19, 1849; July 14, 1898. Six years on Circuits, four years on Stations, four years as College Professor, and twelve years in the Presiding Eldership." On the reverse side, in addition to the emblems of the Order and the words, "Erected by the Woodmen of the World," and the Latin sentence, "Dum tacet clamat," is this inscription: "Upon the scene of his birth into the world, upon the spot where he was born out of nature's darkness and began his life-work, he finds rest at last in his native soil, not broken down, but ascended; not collapsed, but irradiated."

Christmas is Ended!

HERE WE ARE AGAIN, READY TO GIVE YOU

New Year Prices.

Our business has been successful, and we extend our sincere thanks to our patrons and friends, and wish for them, as well as ourselves, a prosperous "New Year."

OUR SHOE AND HAT STOCK

We always keep in shape. We have Shoes in all the latest lasts and toes. They will be a little heavy for our Spring business, so they must be moved to make room for our Spring Stock.

PRICES ARE CUT IN TWO.

You find low prices and solid leather. Men's, Youths, Ladies' and Misses' Shoes—any price you wish.

Our new style Hats—Shell Bands—are quite the rage. Grays, Pear's, Tans and Newturies. Come and see how one will look on you.

Our Clothing Department

Is broken. What we have you can buy at your price. Every one knows we are head and shoulders above competitors.

Down they go, and they will go at the Cut Prices.
