Severe Weather

The "Sunny Seath" has been in the tev 21(b)of the storm king for several days past. In many sections the snow was deeper and the weather colder than was ever experienced before. In this day a light snow, followed by sleet, fell last Satarday, and the merenty tool, a big drop before night. Early Sunday morning the snow commeneed talling again and continued. nearly all through the day, covering the ground to a depth of four or five inches. On Monday the sun peeped out but it had to effect on the snow. Throughout the day it was bitter cold and the mercury flirted around zero. That night it registered four degrees below zero, which is something unusual for this country. This morning the weather is still cold and the snow is sticking well.

Death of Mr. Robert Branyon.

Mr. Robert Branyon, one of Barker's Creeks most highly esteemed citizens, 2nd inst., at 6 o'clock. He had been in feeble health for about ten years with theumatism, and had almost lost the entire use of his legs. He had been a member of the Baptist Church about sixty years. Mr. Branyon married Miss Frances Hunt and ten children were born unto them, four sons and six daughters. He volunteered in the for Congress. Confederate war and belonged to Co. K, Ovr's Regiment. In the second batth of Manassas he received a severe wound in the arm, which disabled him for further service in the war. On Friday his remains were interred in Wright. His body was borne to the grave by his old comrades, viz., Messrs, John T. Green, J. H. Dunlap, W. P. Wright, T. T. Wright, J. S. Ragsdale and L. M. Kay. He leaves eight children to mourn his death, who have the sympathy of a host of friends.

A Narrow Escape.

Alley, the 6-year-old son of Mr. Jas. E. Barton was painfully burned yesterday morning at his home near the northern suburbs of the city. Alley, with his older brothers, had decided to havn't heard the particulars. go out rabbit hunting. At the suggestion of a negro boy, the boys gathered up some old sacks and thoroughly J. A. Gaines, at this place, wrapped them around their legs to protect them from the snow. While placing these sacks in position Alley stood too near the fire and in a few seconds his apparel was in flames. The little fellow screamed at the top of his voice, which attracted the attention of his father, who was in the dining room at breakfast. Mr. Barton ran to his son's assistance, and it was with difficulty that he pulled the burning sacks from the little fellow's legs, tinally having to pour water on them to put out the fire. The calves of both legs were severely burned, raising large blisters, but will not leave a sear. The little fellow is now doing well. In extinguishing the flames Mr. Barton was painfully burned on the fingers of his right hand.

Commendable Work.

The continued rains, the heavy snow and the extremely cold weather has caused more or less suffering among the poorer classes. For several days preceding Sunday the police would hear of some poor negro, and in a few cases of some poor white family, needing both food and fuel, and on Saturday several appeals for help were made to the city authorities. On Sunday morning the snow was falling thick and fast, and, of course, this would cause more suffering. That afternoon Mayor Hood called the City Council together, and after hearing the statements of the policemen, it was resolved
