

In order to make room for our . . .

SPRING GOODS!

Which are daily coming in, we offer Special inducements in Winter Dress Goods, Shoes, Overcoats, Rubber Coats, &c. We have some great bargains in these lines, and solicit your inspection.

We hope to do the largest business in—

Dress Goods, Dry Goods, Notions, Millinery, Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Groceries

Of all kinds, including—

Guano, Acid, Meal, Farm Supplies, &c

That we have ever done before. We are prepared to supply your wants in all lines, and to our farmer friends will say we will be pleased to receive your orders, which we can fill in all departments, and will guarantee satisfaction. If we have not what you want, we will send out and get it for you.

Our Mr. Osborne, Miss Helen Cater and Mrs. Ida Crayton, our Milliner, are now in the Northern markets looking up the best and latest things in their respective departments. It goes without saying that the thorough knowledge of the wants of our friends and customers possessed by the above-named trio guarantees the selection of the most complete and well-bought line of Dress Goods, Notions, Millinery, &c., ever shown in this market.

We have secured the services of Mrs. J. M. Duke, of Pendleton, to take charge of our Dress-Making Department, than whom there is no better Dress-Maker or of more artistic taste in Upper Carolina. Her superiority as an artist in her line is too well known to require that we say more in her praise than that we guarantee all of her work to be up-to-date and first-class in every respect. Her prices will be reasonable, and we pay no commissions in this department.

We shall put forth our best efforts during the coming season to give our friends the best and latest style Goods at reasonable prices and the most courteous attention. There is no sentiment in this, there is no friendship in this, there is no kinship in this, but solid business; and if you wish to get the best value for your money come around and inspect our Goods. Exercise your judgment and we fear no competition.

Thanking you all for your past liberal patronage we cordially invite you to make our Store your place of business.

Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne & Co.

The last issue of the New York Musical Courier gives a lengthy account of a grand operatic concert which was recently given in that city by that noted teacher, Madame Meysenheym, and her pupils. Among the pupils who participated in the concert was Mrs. Josie Peoples, of this city, who is complimented very highly.

The indefatigable C. S. Minor had a hard struggle with nature last Monday in his effort to sprout a spring advertisement. Every time he made a start the young shoots froze before he could get them on paper. But C. S. triumphed and the result appears in our columns this week. Read it. Will give your sides a shake and may save you money.

The Atlanta Constitution of the 2nd inst. says: "Mrs. A. C. Latimer, wife of Congressman A. C. Latimer, of Belton, S. C., is visiting her charming daughter, Miss Mamie Latimer, who is attending Washington seminary. Mrs. Latimer is accompanied by two of her little daughters, Olive and Alice. Mrs. Latimer is a niece of the late Governor Joseph E. Brown."

The Court of Common Pleas adjourned last Saturday afternoon, and a large number of cases had to be continued until the next term. The case of Wm. Ellis against the Anderson Cotton Mill for $15,000 damages for the loss of his arm in the mill about eighteen months ago, consumed about two days of the Court. The Jury staid out all of Friday night, and, being unable to agree, were discharged Saturday morning and a mistrial was entered.

Grant Park in Atlanta is soon to have a magnificent museum for the preservation of curiosities, Confederate relics, etc. A movement has been started in this direction by our energetic friend, Dr. George Brown, Vice-President of the Board of Park Commissioners, and he is meeting with great success in his work. He is being backed in the movement by some of the city and State authorities, and the object is to build an institution to cost a good sum that will be an ornament to the Gate City.

Mrs. Day, wife of Capt. Elias Day, died at her home in Easley last Wednesday evening, after a long and painful illness. Mrs. Day was truly a good woman, and had lived a Christian for many years. Having united with the Baptist Church when quite young she adorned the life of her profession until the end came. She leaves a disconsolate husband and seven children (nearly all of whom are grown) with a wide circle of friends to mourn her death. She was about 50 years of age, and was a sister of ex-Sheriff Bolt, of this County.

Last Saturday in Atlanta a charter was granted by Secretary of State Cook to the incorporators of the Seaboard and Gulf Railroad to construct 47 miles of their line through the eastern portion of Georgia. This line is to run from Anderson to Caraballa, Fla. The Atlanta Constitution, in speaking of the charter says: "It is the intention of the company to construct the 47 miles of the line through this State at the earliest possible moment, and to this end Secretary of State Cook was informed Saturday after the granting of the charter that the construction of the line in Elbert county would begin at once. The road is incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000 and is to have its principal office in this State—at Stillmore, Emanuel county. Prominent among the incorporators of the company are George M. Brinson, J. S. Carling, A. Block, G. A. Smith, Chas. Hurst, Howard Smith, O. A. Cole and George Ketchum."

The Greenville News of the 3rd inst. says: "Charles H. Pack, the Anderson furniture dealer, who was placed in jail here Tuesday on a warrant sworn out against him by his partner, W. B. Freeman, charging forgery, has waived preliminary before Magistrate Hodges and been released on a $250 justified bond signed by Dr. W. S. Pack, of this city, who is a brother to the accused. The amount of the bond was fixed by Magistrate Russell, of Anderson, by whom the warrant, which was countersigned by Magistrate Hodges here, was issued. The trial is to be had at the next term of the Anderson Court, which opens on the 13th Monday in June. The prosecutor was disappointed when he heard of the release, and thinks the amount of the bond is too small. Solicitor Ansel does not think that the bond is too small, as the minimum punishment fixed by law for forgery is seven years and such fine as the judge sees fit to impose. The maximum penalty is one year and a fine. The defence say that the forgery is only technical and are confident that they can secure an acquittal. A. H. Dean has been employed to defend Mr. Pack."

Electrocuted.

Scientists and electricians cannot agree upon the number of electric volts that are necessary to cause a cessation of life in the human body. Some claim that an excessive shock is more likely to cause incineration rather than instantaneous death; but if they would turn their attention to prolonging and increasing the pleasures of life the public would hail the result with more satisfaction. For instance, the electricity generated in a wave of laughter is, after all, the most pleasant shock, and to see a large assembly moved by a current of uncontrollable mirth while witnessing the performance of Fitz and Webster's new musical farce comedy, "A Breezy Time," places beyond dispute the fact that large volts of laughter are better than volts of electricity any day. "A Breezy Time" will be seen at the Opera House Friday evening. Seats on sale to-morrow at Willhite's drug store.

An Appeal from the Daughters of the Confederacy for Aid.

Friends and countrymen, lend me your ears, or rather your eyes. Our State, through her metropolis, has invited the Confederate Veterans to meet with us in May. Now, it behooves us, as loyal South Carolinians, to prove our traditional hospitality. The shame of insufficient accommodation for our visitors would not fall upon Charleston alone, but upon the State of South Carolina.

In '61 we led the van, it was the clarion tones of our fathers, upon most of whom a deep silence has fallen now which called our sister States to unite with us in resenting tyranny and wrong to fight, if fight we must, for the independence which our Revolutionary sires had so hardly won.

Many of you remember the day the troops went off, some of you then were bright-eyed girls, and proudly, though through a mist of tears, you waved farewells to brothers and sweethearts who, side by side, marched hopefully away. You remember, too, that some of those brave boys never came home again, and those who did were boys no longer, but earnest, saddened men. Bravely they took up the hard burden of life and year by year the ranks have grown thinner, the heads whiter, the furrows deeper, until now, instead of the hopeful young men of '61, there is a band of noble old men to whom we, the women of a later generation, owe a double meed of reverence and love. Regardless of the heavy burden of unaccustomed poverty, and the bitter defeat of a cause they felt to be right and just, they sheltered our childhood's years and smoothed for us the path of life.

Now to these men unto whose lives so much shadow has fallen, a bright spot is their annual reunion—when they meet with old war time comrades, tell again the dear old war time tales, clasp hands and look into eyes that, until the glad reunion on the other side of the dark river, they may never meet again. Let us make for these old soldiers one more happy time; it will surely be the last for many. Anderson County did not fall in '61; let her not fail now. The South Carolina Reunion must be the best the Veterans have ever known.

The Robert E. Lee Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy wish to help the Veterans send a large contribution to Charleston, to be used in the entertainment of South Carolina's visitors, and in order to do so they have determined to serve dinner on Friday, March 17th. Now, ladies, it is a physical impossibility to see every one of you to ask for a contribution to this dinner. But through the columns of our newspapers I make a personal appeal to every woman in Anderson, town and County, to help us. Mrs. J. O. Willhite is chairman of the committee on meats, Mrs. B. F. Wilson is chairman of the committee on salads, Mrs. J. E. Breazeale has charge of the coffee, Mrs. F. G. Brown is chairman of the committee on cakes, Mrs. Raymond Beatty of deserts. Notify these ladies of any contribution you may wish to make to their departments. Or Mrs. Wm. Laughlin or Mrs. J. R. Vandiver will make a note of any contribution you may offer them. They will also receive the names of those who wish to contribute rice, bread, pickles, etc. The ladies who promise edibles are asked to send them in as early in the morning as possible, as we wish to be ready to serve dinner at 12 o'clock. We will notify you later what hall we shall occupy. Now, gentlemen, do your part, every one of you, on Friday, March 17th, taking your dinner with the Daughters of the Confederacy.
