DRESS GOODS

AND MILLINERY!

It is high time that you buy that New Dress of yours if you expect to wear it on EASTER SUNDAY.

Dress Makers all over town are getting more and more busy every day, and unless you make arrangements soon for the gown you expect to wear on that great day of dress and fashion, you are liable to disappointment. We are this season better prepared than ever to furnish the world's newest and choicest dress materials, not only equalling but positively surpassing any similar showing made in Anderson, and at prices that will emphatically prove our supremacy in the Retail Dress Goods Business.

Our Buyers have spared neither time nor money in searching for the proper things, consequently anything that does not possess sterling merit cannot cross our threshold; so that if you buy Dress Goods of us you may know that you are buying right, and that prices are right, too. Don't fail to see our-

BLACK DRESS GOODS,

As well as our-

COLORED DRESS GOODS.

Also-

SILKS

In all the popular weaves and colors and newest Novelties.

In our-

Millinery Department.

The choicest creations of the Milliners' art, the work of foreign artists as well as the clever products of our own experts. We would be pleased to have the Ladies' call and inspect the display, for a description of even a fraction of the fine things shown here is hardly possible. If you need anything in the way of Millinery, (and is there ever a time when a woman doesn't?) call and see our Stock. If you do you'll be sure to purchase, and we will try to make the selection of your new Hat both pleasurable and profitable to you.

Mrs. Jane Gaillard Robinson and Miss Minnie Wilson will take pleasure in showing you Millinery, and Miss Helen P. Cater and Miss Ola Moore, and a number of Gentlemen would be delighted to show you Dress Goods, Dry Goods, Notions, &c.

As we have dispensed with the usual "Opening," we wish to say that we are now showing our-

PATTERN HATS,

And all the NEW GOODS as fast as they arrive. We are putting forth special effort in behalf of-

EASTER OUTFITS.

We not only have the HATS and the material for the Dresses, but a Dress Maker, in the person of Mrs. J. M. Duke, who understands thoroughly the making of stylish garments.

MERCHANTS

Here and there you can find a few peach and plum trees in bloom.

Mr. H. H. Edwards, of Varenues Township, has moved into the city.

Miss Annie Nicholson is in Greenville visiting her sister, Mrs. Werner.

If you need a pair of shoes, read the new advertisement of D. C. Brown & Bro.

Your attention is directed to the new advertisement of the Thomson Cycle Works.

Read Brown, Osborne & Co.'s timely review of choice Easter dress goods and millinery.

It will pay you to read the advertisements in the INTELLIGENCER closely every week.

Paul E. Ayer, real estate agent, offers some fine city property for sale. See advertisement.

The gardens are beginning to look up a little, but we will miss our Easter roses this year.

Messrs. J. L. McGee and W. B. Magruder went to Atlanta a few days ago to buy some horses.

Mr. Clarence E. Tolly, who has been spending several months in Havana, Cuba, has returned home.

Streeterverse Jackson began work on the streets last Monday morning with a large force of hands.

The grand Spring opening of Lesser & Co. will take place next Tuesday. See their new advertisement.

Don't neglect to plant plenty of corn and peas. Plant peas with all your corn and follow all small grain with peas.

The Alliance Store is making extensive preparations for its Spring opening next Tuesday. See new advertisement.

Col. James A. Hoyt, editor of the Greenville Mountaineer, spent last Saturday and Sunday in the city visiting relatives.

The Wallhalla News says: "Mr. John M. Hubbard, jeweler, of Anderson, has presented the Wallhalla Baptist Church with two large globe lamps."

The citizens of Belton held an enthusiastic meeting a few days ago and resolved to build a cotton mill. The enterprise is to be capitalized at about $75,000.

Mr. Walter Lewis, who has been attending a veterinary college at Toronto, Canada, returned home a few days ago, and is again at his old place with J. L. McGee.

An exchange says: "If those of our readers whose hens do not lay every time they want eggs, will feed them on nearly done cow peas they will have eggs to burn."

Mr. W. T. McGill, who has been managing the State farm in Sumter County, has returned to his home near this city, and is warmly welcomed by his many old friends.

Mr. W. K. Carlisle, who has been in the employ of the Southern Railroad at Union, S. C., has resigned his position, and last week came to Anderson to visit his relatives.

Mrs. Jane Gaillard Robinson is in the millinery department at Brown, Osborne & Co.'s, and would be pleased to have her friends and acquaintances call and see her there.

Rev. W. P. B. Kinard, an evangelist will begin a series of meetings at Iva on the fifth Sunday in April instead of on the last Sunday in this month, as was announced two weeks ago.

If you contemplate buying clothing, hats, caps, and gents' furnishing goods, the Spring announcement made by Hall & Milford in their new advertisement this week will interest you.

The Daughters of the Confederacy of Sumter will observe Memorial Day on April 26th, and Gen. M. L. Bonham, of this city, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address on the occasion.

Next Saturday evening "The Cuban Spy," an interesting drama, will be rendered at Honea Path by the Dramatic Club of that town. We bespeak for the young people a crowded house.

The dinner served by the R. E. Lee Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy for the benefit of the Veterans' Remunion in Charleston was liberally patronized, fifty dollars being realized from it.

Married, on Sunday, March 20, 1899, at the Methodist parsonage in this city, by Rev. W. W. Daniel, Mr. Wm. Wallace and Miss Neta Fant, youngest daughter of Mr. J. L. Fant, all of Anderson.

The Anderson County Drainage Association will meet in the Court House next Saturday, at 11 o'clock a. m. All who are interested in the Association are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. J. Stuart Land, of Columbia, was in town a day or two last week. Mr. Land spent his boyhood days in Anderson, and his visits here are always a source of much pleasure to him and to his friends.

Camp Maj. Frank Hill, United Confederate Veterans, will meet at Iva next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. All the members are urged to attend promptly, as the meeting will be an important one.

The Board of Health cannot start too soon to look after foul places in town. After so much rain as soon as the sun gets hot the miasma will rise. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is an old but true saying.

That enterprising firm of C. E. Jones & Co. have received such a big stock of spring and summer goods that it takes big space of the INTELLIGENCER this week to tell what they have in store for the public. Their big advertisement, which covers nearly the whole of the 5th page, will prove interesting to every person who entertains a desire to buy dry goods, hats, shoes, clothing, etc., and we advise you to read it carefully, then give them a call.

Mr. Marshall R. Kay, a brother of our townsmen, Messrs. Ed. and Ab. Kay, died at his home at Mt. Carmel, S. C., on the 13th inst., after a lingering illness, aged 30 years. He was well known and highly esteemed in his section.

The firm of Osborne & Clinkscales has been dissolved. Mr. Clinkscales has sold his interest to Mr. Rutledge Osborne, who, with his brother, under the firm name of Osborne & Osborne, will continue the business at the old stand.

It gives us pleasure to announce that our good friend, Capt. Jas. A. Gray, who has been quite sick at his home three miles south of the city for several weeks is able to be out again. We hope he will soon be restored to his usual good health.

The alarm of fire sounded last Friday morning about 8:30 o'clock and came from the second story of the Garrison house, on South Main Street. The fireman responded promptly, and the fire was extinguished without doing much damage.

There has been large sales of cotton seed by farmers of the surrounding country during the past few weeks. In some instances the farmers have been exchanging the seed for commercial fertilizers, and in others they have been taking the cash.

Miss Victor Nardin, of Anderson, S. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. J. Simpson. Miss Nardin is one of Anderson's most attractive young ladies, and her many Texcon friends are always glad to have her with them—Texcon (Ga.) Record.

There is talk of a telephone connection between Hartwell and Anderson, which would be a public convenience. There are a lot of people in that progressive city that we would like to attack with the jawbone of Balaam's little beast.—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

A very short time is left for the sportsmen, for after April 1st their fun will be over until November 1st. It is a fortunate thing that so short a time is left to hunters, for the birds have had a hard time of it this winter and it will take a long time for them to recover from it.

Messrs. Arthur and Henry Martin, sons of our clever old friend, Mr. M. A. Martin, of this County, left last Monday for Lexington, Ky., where they will spend the next four months attending a Business College. Both are worthy young men, and we join their friends in wishing them a pleasant sojourn in Kentucky.

A meeting of Camp Stephen D. Lee, United Confederate Veterans, was held in the City Hall last Monday afternoon and the following delegates were elected to the approaching Reunion in Charleston: P. M. Ruff and J. L. Mauldin; alternates, John Eskew and R. F. Divver. A committee was appointed to select a Sponsor.

Vice-President Gannon, of the Southern Railway, and Receiver Beattie, of the Blue Ridge Railway, were in the city last Wednesday inspecting the Blue Ridge Railway. They visited all the stations between here and Wallhalla. It is rumored that the Southern wants to purchase the Blue Ridge and complete it through to Knoxville, Tenn.

At a meeting of Camp W. W. Humphreys Sons of Confederates last Monday afternoon, Messrs. J. M. Patrick, J. D. Maxwell and E. M. Rucker, Jr., were elected delegates to the approaching meeting in Charleston. The alternates are Messrs. J. K. Hood, M. M. Mattison and L. H. Seel. Miss Felicia Murray was elected sponsor for the Camp.

Miss Sallie Munro died at her home in Union, S. C., last Saturday morning. Although she had been quite a sufferer for some time, her death came rather sudden and unexpected. Miss Munro was the youngest daughter of the late Judge Munro, who resided in Anderson many years, and has many friends in this section who will be pained to hear of her death.

Dr. A. T. Montague, President of Furman University, spent last Sunday in the city, and delivered two most interesting and eloquent addresses in the First Baptist Church. At the morning service his subject was "Baptist Education," and at the evening service "Christian Education." He was greeted by large congregations, and every one of his hearers was deeply impressed with his remarks.

The young mill men at Pelzer will have two base ball teams this year, one from Mill No. 4, and the other from Mill No. 1. They will no doubt have good struggles for the mastery. A new military company is also proposed among the mill men, a suggestion being made to call it the "Smyth Rifles," in honor of the president of the mill company, who takes a deep interest in his employes, and in their pleasures too.

Dr. H. C. Miller died at his home near Pendleton yesterday, after an illness of several weeks. He was a native of Abbeville County and was 79 years old. He has been living near Pendleton a number of years, and was well known throughout the up-country as one of the State's most successful and accomplished physicians. His remains were interred to-day in the Episcopal Churchyard at Pendleton. Two daughters are left to cherish his memory.

The Greenville News of the 17th inst., says: "There was an elopement in Anderson yesterday in which Homer A. Hammonds, of this city, and Miss Annie May Jones, of Anderson, were the principals. The marriage occurred at the home of C. A. Logan, in Anderson, the Rev. W. W. Daniel officiating in the presence of a party of friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hammonds came to Greenville yesterday afternoon and spent last night at the Southern hotel. They will go early this morning to Asheville, N. C., where the groom has established his business, and where they will make their future home. Mr. Hammonds is well thought of here. He has for the past two years been in the employ of J. E. Payne, of West Greenville."

There is room in Anderson for another big cotton mill, and we are pleased to know that an effort is being made to secure it. Mr. J. J. Fretwell is one of the leading promoters and is securing subscriptions to the capital stock every day. The shares are $100 each, and there are few citizens who cannot take one or more shares. $100,000 of home capital can be secured, the promoters will have no trouble in getting that much or more foreign capital. The Young Men's Business League of this city should take up this enterprise and assist in making it a success. There are, we believe, two hundred members in the League, and each member should subscribe to at least one share of the stock. We suggest that the officers of the League call a meeting at once and see what can be done in the matter.

Clemson will open the base ball season by a game with Cornell University, of Ithaca, N. Y., on Clemson's campus, at 3 p. m., Wednesday, March 23rd. Cornell University is one of the largest institutions in the world, having enrolled this season 2,300 students. They are up-to-date in all athletic sports. Clemson, though young, has been well trained, and while they may not defeat Cornell, there will be a hot game, and Cornell will find out that she is not the only college that can play base ball. Cornell being so far off, it was necessary for Clemson to give a large guarantee for a game. Therefore they will have to charge an admission fee of 25 cents; ladies and children 10 cents. Those paying to see the game will be furnished with tickets, which they are requested to wear in a conspicuous place. You can't afford to miss this game!

Capt. W. D. Evins, formerly a citizen of Anderson, died suddenly at his home in Evinston, Fla., on Monday, 13th inst., of congestion of the brain. On Tuesday preceding he was apparently in his usual good health, and early that morning walked out on his plantation. Not returning by noon his loved ones became uneasy about him and instituted a search for him. He was found prostrated in a field in an unconscious condition, and was brought to Anderson. Physicians soon reached him and everything possible was done for him, but he never regained consciousness and gradually grew weaker until death came to his relief. Capt. Evins was in the 6th year of his age, and was a son of the late Matthew Patton Evins, a prominent citizen of Laurens County, S. C., where he was born and spent his boyhood days. He was educated at Davidson College, from which he graduated with the first honors of his class. Studying law, he was soon admitted to the bar and located at Dalton, Ga., where he practiced until the beginning of the civil war, when he promptly enlisted and served under Col. Ford Todd in Virginia. A year later he was made Captain of a Company from Laurens, S. C., and afterwards a Captain in the Sixth Cavalry, often assuming command of the Regiment. In early life he joined the New Harmony Presbyterian Church in Laurens County, and throughout his life was a most devoted and consistent member, filling the positions of Ruling Elder and Sunday School Superintendent. In January, 1869, Capt. Evins married Miss Mary Creswell, of Greenwood, and settled in this city, where he lived until 1884, when he moved to Florida. His wife, two daughters and one son survive him, and in their sore bereavement they have the sympathies of a wide circle of friends in Anderson.

The Veterans Return Thanks to Ladies.

ANDERSON, S. C., March 21st, 1899. To the officers and members of Robert E. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Anderson, S. C.:

The Veterans of Camp Stephen D. Lee desire to express their hearty appreciation of the handsome contribution made by you for the fund for the Reunion in Charleston.

During the long trying months of the war, and especially as those months lengthened into weary years, it was the brave, cheerful, tireless help of the mothers of our Southland that inspired our armies to endure with fortitude the many hardships we encountered. When the war was over it was the women who taught us first to resume our duties with cheerfulness. Many of our comrades had fallen, and lay in neglected, unmarked graves, while we were almost too broken to do them honor, but you and your mothers took up the loving task, and while too poor to raise monuments, decorated their graves with spring flowers and tears. Soon, with returning prosperity, eye, even before it returned, you began to raise monuments to those heroes of a Lost Cause, and in your hearts we are assured that the sacrifices of the Confederate soldier will be cherished and remembered, and that to future generations you will transmit that underlying principle of liberty for which we fought, and the sentiment and romance of the Old South, which we esteem more precious than the triumph of those who fought us.

P. M. RUFF, C. A. REED, B. F. WILSON, M. P. TRIMBLE, Commander.
