The following program has been arranged for Memorial Day, (May 26), and will take place in the Court House at 3:30 o'clock p. m.:
Chairman—Col. J. L. Mauldin.
Prayer.
Addresses—Hon. D. H. Russell, Col. E. E. Campbell.

Card of Thanks From An Old Soldier.

Mr. Editor: You will please give me a short space in your valuable paper to express my thanks to the good people of the city of Anderson for the kindness shown me in defraying my expenses to the recent and grand Reunion in Charleston. The kindness in this action will long be remembered, also the hospitality I received from the good people of the old City by the Sea.

Respectfully, G. D. MORRISON.

The Veterans Pleased With Charleston's Hospitality.

ANDERSON, S. C., May 15th, 1899.
Editors' Intelligencer: Please give space in your columns for a few old Veterans to thank the kind, generous-hearted citizens of Anderson, who so kindly assisted us to visit the Charleston Reunion, the grandest occasion ever tendered the Confederate Veterans. May God bless the people of Anderson. Through them we have partaken of that we never dreamed of; we met those we never expected to see again; we can not find words to express our gratitude to the good people of Anderson. As to Charleston we can only say she overdone the thing. And while we are loud in our praise for the City by the Sea, we regret that one of our number should return home and under-rate the thing. Going, as he did, on a complimentary ticket, free from any expense, had he only eaten black molasses, bread and water, any old hero would have praised it. We will tell the people what we had and no truthful Veteran will deny it. Here is the bill of fare: Boiled ham, boiled beef, beef hash, Irish potatoes, rice, loaf bread, corn bread, pickles, good coffee and sugar. We eat on a nice table, had new dishes, new knives and forks, and think 1,440 men were served at once. We also had cots to sleep on. Gen. Joe Wheeler inspected our lodging and pronounced it good; in fact, he said in our presence that Charleston was ahead of all the reunions he had seen. Now, Mr. Editor, this is the truth, the whole truth and nothing else.

Long live the people of Anderson is the wish of your humble servants.

Townville Items.

Several of our friends went to Pul-len's Mills last Saturday to pic nic. We are sorry to note the illness of Mr. J. A. Gaines. We wish him a speedy restoration to health.
Mrs. W. K. Sharp and Mrs. Ledbetter visited the family of Mr. F. L. Sitton last week.
Mrs. Baylis Bagwell, of Seneca, S. C., is visiting friends and relatives in this section this week.
Our friend, Mr. L. C. McCarley, is off to Cook's this week visiting friends in his newly painted buggy. He says the first young lady who rides in his buggy is his intended.
Don't miss the entertainment next Friday night at the school house.
Our friend, P. S. Mahaffey, has just received a new wheel from the Columbia Wheel Manufacturing Co., which he prizes very highly.
Prof. H. H. McCarley visited a friend in Due West recently.
Mrs. Bird and children are visiting the family of Mr. W. T. Hunt.
Mr. J. T. Long and bride worshipped at the Presbyterian Church Sunday. Mr. Long is one of our most progressive farmers. We wish him and his wife much happiness and prosperity.
Rev. Mr. W. S. Hamiter preached an excellent sermon Sunday, after which communion was partaken of. Two young ladies united with the Church.
Rev. Mr. Inabinet will preach here on the third Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
The old Veterans say they enjoyed themselves finely at the "City by the Sea."
Our clever friend, Dr. Giles, left for Columbia Sunday.
Children's Day has been postponed at the Presbyterian Church.
Prof. J. M. Fant has closed his school.
Mr. Jesse Campbell, of Oconee County, visited Dr. S. G. Bruce last Sunday.
SCHOOL BOY.

Boleman News.

The Rev. Mr. King, of near Oakway, Oconee County, preached an interesting and instructive sermon at Tugaloo Academy last Sunday evening.
Mrs. Claude E. Skelton and children, of McCormick, S. C., are visiting relatives in this section.
Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gantt, of near Townville, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Maret last week.
Mrs. Margaret Tribble, of Anderson, is visiting friends and relatives in this community.
Mr. R. L. Morton, of near Boleman, visited relatives near Richland, Oconee County, last week.
Mrs. Wm. H. Cole, who has been spending two or three weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fredericks, near Adams Crossing, has returned home.
Mr. John H. Ouzts, of the Deep Creek section, visited relatives in this community recently. Mr. Ouzts is an old former resident of the Fork, and his many friends are always glad to meet him.
Mr. A. J. Harrison, who has been quite sick, we are glad to say has about recovered.
Mr. J. N. Tribble is suffering a great deal at present from a sprained hip and boils. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.
Mr. James I. Barton, of the Bruce's Ford section, is visiting friends and relatives in this section. Mr. Barton has been a confirmed invalid for the last three years, not being able to leave his home the most of his time. His many friends are glad to see him out again, and hope that he may yet recover.
Miss Annie B. Dalrymple, who has been teaching at Carswell Institute, has returned home to the delight of her many friends.
The weather for the last month has been almost perfect for farm work, and we farmers have made good use of it and are now done planting corn and cotton, and have commenced plowing and hoeing our crops, which will be our principal occupation until about the first of August.
Wheat is looking well and at present promises a good yield.
Since writing the above we learn that Mr. James I. Barton was taken suddenly worse last night (Sunday) at his brother's, Mr. J. A. P. Barton.
SCRIBBLER.

Mr. Editor: The Anderson Graded School closed Friday, May 12th. We think all who attended and inspected the work of the children in the different grades, felt much gratified with the success of the school and the patient work of all the teachers. The exercises in the Third Grade, taught by Mrs. Nowell, consisted in dialogues and speeches by the children and an exhibit of their work in the way of maps, original stories and problems in arithmetic. The singing was beautiful and in perfect time, showing careful and patient training. The children were bright and responsive, and their little voices rang out clear and true in the songs and choruses. This teacher, while training the minds of her pupils, has not neglected the higher culture of the heart and soul—teaching the little ones courtesy, charity and a love of the true and beautiful. A lasting impression for good has been made on their young hearts along with their practical studies and duties. A VISITOR.

Denver Dots.

This is good weather for grumblers. All winter it was too wet, and now it is too dry, so the grumblers are making good use of the time. They say if it don't rain soon the blackberry crop will be a failure, and that would be a calamity, as there will be very little other fruit.
There has been a good deal of sickness in our community in the last two weeks. Mr. W. D. Garrison was quite ill for a few days, but we are glad to see he is up and about again. Mr. J. R. Garrison's baby is quite sick at this writing.
Mr. A. E. Browne has had another severe attack but is better now, thanks to the skill of our good physician, Dr. Duckworth. Mr. Browne desires to return thanks to his neighbors for much kindness shown him during his sickness. To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elrod he is indebted for a treat of the earliest and finest strawberries ever seen. Mr. Elrod has an ideal country home and a farm on which he raises nearly everything in the way of fruits and vegetables that can be grown in this climate.
Misses May and Bessie McWhorter, escorted by Mr. T. R. Simpson, Jr., and cousin, visited the Misses Simpson at Piedmont recently and report an enjoyable time.
Miss Graden Browne, of Newborn, Ga., is spending some time with her cousin, Miss Blanche Browne.
Miss Lillie Boggs has closed her school near Equality and is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Bowden.
Mr. Arthur Erwin attended the Reunion at Charleston and says it was a grand affair. The old soldiers give Charleston the praise for her unbounded hospitality. They would like to meet there again, no doubt.
Mrs. J. W. Major is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Pruitt, whose baby is critically ill.
Mrs. G. M. Harper and daughter, Mrs. Alice Tolly, visited Mr. Browne's family last week.

Corner Creek Shiftings.

We have been ploughing hard to-day and are somewhat tired to-night as we endeavor to give the readers of the great old INTELLIGENCER a few thoughts from this locality.
A good rain is much needed in these parts just now. The grain crop is suffering very much, and so is upland corn—and, well, "old cotton" is coming out just the same, being thinned out to a stand. May the rains descend.
Miss Olive McAvain, of Abbeville, who has been spending a few days in our midst with friends, returned to her home to-day. Miss Olive is a very beautiful and lovable young lady, and during her short stay made many friends here.
J. B. Gassaway returned to his home on last Saturday evening from Spartanburg, where he has just completed a course in bookkeeping in the Neal Herold Business College of that city. Brown says he is well pleased with the institution of business learning.
Reid Wilson spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Belton.
Joe Hanks has recently purchased a new up-to-date Viking wheel.
It was the happy pleasure of this writer to attend the closing exercises of the Zurline School last Thursday night, and from the way the pupils acquitted themselves goes to show that the teachers, Miss Leslie Branyon and Miss Cora Elgin, have well rendered their faithful services to the patrons of the school. We would like to make mention of all the songs, recitations, dialogues, choruses, etc., but for the want of space we will not. Owing to the large crowd present everybody never got seated, and a goodly number failed to see or hear any of the programme. There was a certain crowd of worthless scamps who didn't do anything but steal, for we missed a good buggy whip and we heard of another fellow losing a new buggy cushion. The road book says, "Thou shalt not steal," but regardless of the Bible or the laws of our State, there is a certain class of people that will continue to do this which they know is wrong.
After all of "Bill" Neal's rascality and swindling the State, there are a few little wide-mouthed, long-tongued fellows who are applying long-tonguedness to us that they are doing so, but we believe if he had "gobbled" up the whole business they would have no doubts said, "oh, he hasn't done any thing very bad." But one rascal will take sides with another. He is no longer "Colonel" in politics of South Carolina.

Long-McCarley Wedding.

On Wednesday, May 10th, at 5 p. m., at the residence of the bride's father, J. L. McCarley, Esq., Miss Donna McCarley and J. T. Long were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. This interesting event was witnessed by numerous friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. S. Hamiter, pastor of the Townville Presbyterian Church. A series of hearty congratulations followed and then supper was served in the best of style. Life opens up auspiciously for Mr. and Mrs. Long. Mr. Long is a quiet, steady man, well qualified to succeed in business. His bride is well known in the country, and is a favorite wherever known, being held in the highest esteem by all in her immediate community.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space to express my gratitude to those of my neighbors and friends who so kindly ministered to our comfort during my recent illness. I assure them their thoughtfulness is duly appreciated. May God's richest blessings rest on them.

First Creek Items.

Well, Mr. Editor, we are through planting and ready now to go to hoeing cotton, and it almost makes our poor backs break.
Our pastor preached a most excellent sermon last Sunday.
Misses Maud and Wannie Banister spent last Saturday night with Miss Bertha Lowe.
Wheat is looking fine in this section but oats are not looking so well.
One of our First Creek boys seems to have some attraction up the country, as we see him going up there occasionally. That is right; go it for you have no time to idle away.
A certain young boy went to bed with his brother one night recently. He got up in his sleep and put on his brother's pants. His brother was very much amazed the next morning on getting up. To his surprise he could not find them. But looking all around and everywhere he could not find them, but seeing his brother had them on in bed.
A certain old widower made a call a few weeks ago but his excuse was to see this part of the section and what they were all doing, but he just did get the glimpse of her. I think he will have to make another call.

To Make Our May Business More Interesting!

We are selecting out Special Lots of nearly every class of Merchandise in our Big Stock. We expect to make our Store of interest to buyers throughout the entire Summer. Every indication points to a good business. We have made preparations for the business—now all we want is the customers. If they continue to treat us as they have been doing we can't complain.

At the small margins of profit on which we do business it takes a great volume of business to keep us going, and from month to month we try to increase the record of same month in any former year, and we are glad to announce that we are succeeding in doing this.

The people want the Goods—we have them and want to sell them. Anderson is bound to take a great stride forward. We expect to see her grow rapidly. We want our business to do the same thing. How can we make it do so? By having what the people want, giving them polite and attentive service, and full value for every cent spent with us, by being on the alert and giving them always the very best that their money will buy, and doing business on business principles. That's what we are trying to do.

Hear Us:

We are right in the swim with a fresh, clean, Up-to-Date Stock of—

Dry Goods, Millinery, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Gents' Furnishings, etc.

We are in position to please you as well as at any time during the season.

Mark one other fact: We are giving you the worth of your money. We ask your business on the grounds that we can do as well for you as can be done anywhere.

We thank our many friends and customers for the liberal support they have given us in the past, and assure you of our continued desire to please in every particular.

WE ARE AGENTS FOR THE

MOST STYLISH—LOWEST PRICES—BEST FITTING
