Read about Brown, Osborne & Co.'s remarkable sale of embroideries and laces in this issue.

Miss Eleanor Knight, of this city, has gone to Fair Play, where she is teaching a class in music.

If you need a gin, read the advertisement of F. E. Watkins, agent for the old reliable Pratt gin.

The closing exercises of the Williamson Female College will take place to-day and to-morrow.

C. F. Jones & Co.'s new advertisement tells of their summer closing out sale in every department.

Miss Glenola Cummings, who has been attending college at Belmont, N. C., has returned home.

Mrs. J. C. Harris and children are off on a visit to relatives and friends in Williamson and Greenville.

The first watermelons of the season were in the market last week. They came from southwest Georgia.

Mrs. L. E. Cochran, of Seneca, has been spending a few days in the city with her daughter, Mrs. Keese.

Mr. Clarence Young, who has been buying cotton in Mississippi, has returned home to spend the summer.

The Court of General Sessions convenes next Monday. Witnesses and jurors should be on hand promptly.

The Anderson roller mills have commenced work on the new crop of wheat and are turning out a pretty sample of flour.

Mr. Jas. Tiller and family, of Atlanta, are in Anderson visiting Mrs. Tiller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Arnold.

Messrs. J. J. Norris and Will Bryson, left this morning for Horse Cove, N. C., where they will spend a few days vacation.

The excursion run by L. P. Smith & Co. to Atlanta last week was well patronized and the excursionists report a most pleasant trip.

The Pelzer Athletic Club with a capital stock of $500 asks for a charter. J. S. Blair, J. A. Smythe, Jr., and E. F. Woodson are incorporators.

Our townsman, Mr. J. G. Cunningham, after a long illness, is now rapidly regaining his health. His many friends will be delighted to hear this.

John T. Burriss has a few good second-hand gins and a lot of other things that he is offering at bargain prices. Read his advertisement.

Mr. John A. Steveman, a popular young gentleman from Lancaster, S. C., who has been visiting the home of Mr. W. S. Lee, has returned home.

The examination of teachers for the public schools took place last Saturday. There were 28 white and 27 colored applicants before the board.

Messrs. W. O. Jones and L. M. Heard, prominent citizens of Elberton, Ga., have been spending a few days in the city as the guests of Maj. J. A. Brock.

Those of our citizens who were so fortunate as to hear the lecture of Dr. Evans, of Columbia, last Wednesday night enjoyed a rare intellectual treat.

Dr. B. A. Henry, who has recently located in Anderson, has purchased a lot on McDuffie street and will soon erect a handsome dwelling house thereon.

The Oconee County Alliance will have a barbecue at Seneca on July 4th. Among the invited speakers are Senator Tillman, Congressman Lattimer and Tom Watson.

Mr. D. C. Brown has let the contract to the Anderson Lumber Co. for the erection of a handsome 6-room cottage on North Main street. The work will commence at once.

A meeting will be held at Eureka next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of electing trustees for school district No. 25. All who are interested are urged to attend.

The qualified voters of School District No. 6, (Centerville Township) will meet at Hunter's Spring next Saturday, 24th inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing the school trustees of that District.

This section was visited by a good rain last Saturday, and it seems to have been general throughout the country. The mercury took a big tumble and fires and overcoats felt comfortable Saturday evening.

Mr. J. J. Fretwell has just returned from a trip to western cities, where he purchased two hundred and fifty buggies and wagons from the manufacturers. Look out for his advertisement next week, but in the meantime if you want a vehicle give him a call.

The trustees of Wofford College have elected Prof. John G. Clinkscales, now at Clemson College, to the chair of mathematics. Wofford has done more than well in securing his services, for he is eminently fitted for the work.

The laying of new, heavy steel rails on the Blue Ridge Railroad is progressing rapidly and will soon be completed. Receiver Beattie should give us two trains a day each way over the Road, especially between Anderson and Seneca.

L. E., infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kay, died in Belton on Friday, 9th inst., after a brief illness, aged eleven months. The remains were buried in the cemetery at Belton, Rev. P. F. Kilgore conducting the funeral services.

Dr. Ralph W. Brown, accompanied by his little son, of Roanoke, Va., is spending a few days in the city visiting his mother and other relatives. Dr. Brown is a most worthy young man and is succeeding well in his profession in his adopted home.

Mr. Fred G. Brown left for Asheville, N. C., last Wednesday to attend the convocation of the Knights Templar and Mystic Shrine. He was accompanied by Mrs. Brown, Miss Mamie Brown, of this city, and Miss Janie Gantt, of Penton, and spent several days there.

The Board of Trustees of Newberry College have conferred the honorary degree of doctor of divinity upon Rev. W. W. Daniel, pastor of the First Methodist Church in this city, and Rev. J. W. Daniel, of Abbeville, both of whom are alumni of the college in the class of 1879.

Julian Wilton, the little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Banister, of Varennes Township, died of diabetes last Thursday at 10 o'clock. Friday morning the remains were laid to rest in the Varennes Churchyard. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Married, on Tuesday morning, June 20, 1899, at 9:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in this city, by Rev. W. W. Daniel, Mr. J. W. Robinson, of Abbeville, S. C., and Miss Lucy Bowie, daughter of Mr. J. A. Bowie. The couple left on the southbound Southern train for the home of the groom.

Married, on Thursday, June 15, 1899, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. B. Hawkins, Mr. W. C. Pearson and Miss Lula McGregory, both of Anderson County. We join the friends of the bride and groom in extending congratulations and wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Mr. Furman Keys, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. W. Keys, of Greenville, spent a few days in the city last week visiting relatives and friends. Furman is a fine looking young man now, and holds a responsible position with one of the largest wholesale dry goods firms in the city of New York.

Last Sunday night a burglar entered the office of the Anderson Ice Factory and made an effort to break into the safe by trying to knock off the hinges of the door. He failed to get into the safe, but greatly damaged it. The drawers of the bookkeeper's desk were broken into, but nothing of any value was secured.

The Elberton (Ga.) Tribune says: "Mr. John L. Nance settled his suit against the Southern Railway for $2,500 last week. He was hurt in a slide up on the Elberton branch in November, 1895, at Toccoa. Mr. Nance was formerly a citizen of Bowman, this County." Mr. Nance is a brother of Judge Nance, of this city, and formerly resided in this County.

Bertha, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pink Reed, died at their home in this city last Wednesday afternoon, aged six months. The little one was only a few hours with cholera infantum. On Thursday morning Rev. O. L. Martin conducted the funeral services at the home of the bereaved parents, after which the remains were interred in the Baptist Churchyard.

The Atlanta Journal of the 14th inst. says: "Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Harris have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. J. W. Dodd, which will be solemnized Wednesday evening, June 21st, at 8 o'clock, at the Central Baptist Church." Mr. Dodd is the third son of Mr. J. J. Dodd, of Anderson, and is now connected with the police department of Atlanta.

The competitive examination for the cadetship at the United States Naval Academy from the Third Congressional District was held in this city last Thursday. There were only seven applicants. James P. Maxwell, third son of our townsman, Col. J. D. Maxwell, won the prize, with S. D. Pearman, of this County, alternate. Both these young gentlemen have been attending Clemson College.

Mr. T. A. Ratliffe, Jr., of Anderson, S. C., is smiling upon his Rockingham friends for a week or so. We regret to know that he is a little thin, caused by overwork during the past several months. Tom is one of the successful young men who have gone out from Rockingham to inhabit other communities and to say the least of it he is one of the kind we are all proud to own.—Rehville (N. C.) Review.

Mr. J. E. Horton, of Belton, S. C., who owns the desirable corner lot on the north side of the public square, opposite Cason, Johnson & Co's, live and learn, was in town recently, and we are glad that he will begin the erection in August of a large and handsome two or three story brick building on said lot. This will be a decided improvement upon the appearance of that part of our beautiful square.—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

The Southern Railway now sells week end tickets Saturdays and Sundays from Columbia to Asheville, Hendersonville, Flat Rock and Saluda at the rate of $3, and to Spartanburg and Greenville at the rate of $2.50. These tickets are good returning Monday following date of sale. If this privilege is extended to Spartanburg and Greenville, why can't Anderson secure it? We suggest that the Young Men's Business League take up the matter and have Anderson put on the list.

The Columbia correspondent of the News and Courier, under date of the 17th inst., says: "Bryant and Smith, two white men in Anderson County, are under sentence for larceny. They are charged with having used fraudulent means in getting money for cotton. They have been in jail for about four months, and now ask for a pardon. The presiding Judge and Solicitor ask for the pardon, and Bryant and Smith, in their application for pardon, say they were seduced by the justifications of the devil to do this act."

Prof. G. Marshall Moore came up from Bamberg yesterday. Readers of the Index will remember that he had his leg broken in a game of base ball some time ago, and has been confined ever since. His father, Postmaster L. W. Moore, went down and brought him back. Mr. Sanders, of Bamberg, also accompanied Mr. Moore. Prof. Moore has been teaching in the Carlisle Training School at Bamberg for the past year, but has resigned his position there and has accepted the principal's place in the Anderson Graded Schools.—Greenwood Index.

Mr. J. Munroe White, of Fort Worth, Texas, accompanied by his sister, Miss Bertie, of Greenville, spent last Friday and Saturday in the city visiting relatives and friends. Mr. White is a native of Anderson County, where his parents formerly resided, but for the past nine years has been traveling salesman for Messrs. Peaslee, Gaubert & Co., one of the largest wholesale houses in Louisville, Ky. Munroe is a model, energetic young man, and his visit to his old home was a source of much pleasure to his many old boyhood companions.

Hon. T. C. Dickinson, European Attorney and Financier of the Black Diamond Railway, arrived in New York from London last Saturday, and will be in Anderson in a few days. He comes at the suggestion of the capitalists to perfect some necessary papers, and to assist in finishing the survey now being made in South Carolina. There are now three corps of surveyors at work in this State, and they have been instructed to make the survey a permanent one, having been furnished with the necessary blanks to secure all the rights of way. It will take at least two months more to complete the survey.

Last Monday morning the Pioneer Reel Team left for Columbia to participate in the Firemen's Tournament now in progress in that city. The party was composed of the following gentlemen: W. L. Brissey, Assistant Chief, W. S. Dwyer, Captain of the Team, Ernest Leveret, Wrenchman, W. P. Nicholson, Nozzleman, E. P. Smith, P. C. Fant, W. W. Norwood, W. E. Murphy, Tom Davis, Cliff Green, Zimmie Sharpe, Joe McKinney, H. W. Caldwell, Hiller Ledford, W. J. Tribble, F. M. Manclenburg, Jr., R. N. Lacy, W. A. King, W. B. King and T. M. Norwood. Policeman King accompanied the boys, and Dan. Burt accompanied them as porter. It was a fine-looking body of young men.

Jim Johnson and Jim Benson, two young negroes, are in trouble, and they are likely to do service in the chain gang for a long term. Johnson has been in charge of the delivery wagon of Ligon & Ledbetter for several years, and while delivering goods to persons who had bought them, he would also deliver some goods that had not been bought from the members of the firm or their salesmen. Benson is the manager of the "colored enterprise store" on West Market street, and there Johnson would deliver goods that had not been bought from his employers. The police had worked the case up, and when they entered the "enterprise store" they found a barrel of sugar, boxes of tobacco and other things that had the private mark of Ligon & Ledbetter on them. It is difficult to estimate how much goods Johnson has stolen. He was carried into the Mayor's Court under six charges of petit larceny and he pleaded guilty in all of them. Mayor Hood sentenced him to a fine of $15 or thirty days on the public works in each case. Benson had a preliminary hearing in a Magistrate's Court and his case was sent to the Court of Sessions, where Johnson will also be tried when he finishes his term in the city chain gang.

A Mississippi river steamboat stopped two hours the other day while a farmer's wife hunted up a cow and milked her for the benefit of a sick passenger. "Of course this happened down South," says the Chicago News, "where people have not as yet become so pressed for time as to be unable to stop even for the purpose of saving human life. Imagine, if you please, the experience a sick passenger on a Chicago street car would be subjected to in trying to have a train held while somebody rushed into a drug store for the purpose of getting a saving draught."

"Let a man die," says the Fireside Guard, "and he is suddenly full of good qualities, his faults are all forgotten and only the good is remembered. Why not speak good of the living?" Upon which the Monroe (N. C.) Enquirer comments: "Just for this reason, gentle reader. If you take your pen in your hand and write a whole lot of praise of some living man, you will find it probably live to be given the lie by that man's actions, for we all play the fool at some time while we are on the stage of action. And then, if you praise a man who cannot bear praise, and some men are so constituted that a little praise makes most disgusting fools of them, you have done a great deal more harm than if you kept your mouth shut. With these facts before us we continue to wait until men die before spreading flowers on their graves."

The undersigned will have a car load of Georgia Watermelons in the city on Friday, June 23rd, at 10 o'clock.—Jas. F. East.
