Miss Josephine Byrum, daughter of the late Joseph L. Byrum, died at her home, near the western suburbs of the city, this morning at 2 o'clock, aged 46 years. She had been afflicted with cancer of the breast for several years, which yielded to treatment, and a few months ago it was thought that she would soon be restored to health. A change for the worse, however, soon came over her and she gradually weakened away until death claimed her. Miss Byrum was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a most estimable woman. Those who knew her best loved her most. Five sisters and four brothers are left to cherish her memory. The remains will be interred this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the family graveyard, Rev. J. N. H. Summerell conducting the funeral.

Thirty-five years ago Elijah Bowen, who was then a volunteer in the service of the Confederate States as a member of Co. G, 22nd South Carolina Regiment, disappeared from his post while on picket duty in front of Petersburg, Va. His comrades mourned him as dead and so reported to his family in this County. Nothing had been heard from him until last Wednesday, when he suddenly appeared in Anderson and was recognized by some of his old comrades and his son, Mr. Whitaker Bowen, (who was only five years old when his father disappeared), from a photograph he had of him. He claims that he was captured on Morris Island, near Charleston, and carried to New York, where he was liberated a few days after his arrival. Since then he says he has been residing on a farm in New Jersey.

Mr. William S. Haynie died at the home of his grandfather, Capt. P. K. Norris, in this city, last Monday morning about 3 o'clock, in the 29th year of his age. The announcement of his death was no shock to his friends and loved ones, for it had been expected at any time for several months. He had been afflicted nearly all of his life with a complicated disease, which brought on nervous prostration, but he was not confined to his bed until a few weeks ago. Mr. Haynie was the eldest son of Mrs. L. H. Seal by her first marriage to Dr. W. S. Haynie, who died when the son was an infant. Since his mother's marriage to Mr. Seal, Mr. Haynie has resided with his grandparents, who left nothing undone that would tend to his comfort and relief during his long affliction. In his boyhood he joined the Presbyterian Church, and walked in the paths that lead to eternal happiness around the blessed Saviour's throne. He realized that his end was near and consoled his loved ones by telling them to meet him on that "bright and happy shore." Surrounded by his devoted mother and grandmother, just before he breathed his last, he reached out his hand to each of them as to bid them good-bye, but his voice was too weak to utter his words. On Tuesday morning the funeral services were conducted at home by Rev. J. N. H. Summerell, after which the remains were borne to Silver Brook Cemetery and interred. Many beautiful flowers and wreaths of evergreens adorned the casket as a testimonial from the friends of the deceased.
