A Masonic Day.

Last Friday was a notable day in Masonic circles in this County. Hiram Lodge, of this city, had invited the craft of the whole County to be her guests for the day, and in response to the invitation the spacious Lodge room was well filled with brethren at 9:30 a.m. to witness the exemplification of the Master Mason's degree, the can-didate being Mr. Harry A. Orr, of this

Rev. Byzon Holly, of Greenville, pastor of the Episcopal Church, who is Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of this State, was present as the guest of the Lodge and conferred the degree, the lecture being delivered by the Worshipful Master of the Lodge, Mr. Jno. K. Hood.

Owing to the fact that Rev. Mr. Holly had to return to his home on the 2:30 train, the address which he had accepted the invitation to deliver was cepted the invitation to deliver was given immediately following the degree. It was intended that this address should be made at Fretwell's Spring, following the barbecue. Those who were thus deprived of hearing the eloquent divine missed a very instructive and profound disquisition upon some of the beautiful principles of Masonry as emblematically represented. This as emblematically represented. This address was intended for all who were as emblematically represented. This address was intended for all who were invited to the barbecue, and would have entertained as well-as instructed the malienes. Miss Louise Ligon, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Troy, Bellevue and other places, has returned the audience.

At half-past twelve the Masons drove out to Fretwell's Spring, to which alluring spot they had been preceded by many other guests of the Lodge, both ladies and gentlemen, where a splendidly barbecued dinner was elegantly and tastefully served by the committee and tastefully s ladies and gentlemen, where a splendidly barbecued dinner was elegantly and tastefully served by the committee who had this important matter in charge. This committee consisted of Messrs. J. B. Watson, U. E. Seybt, G. W. Evans, J. P. Duckett and Duck Bolt. The cue was essentially a meat dinner—beef, mutton, pork, kid, chicken—with natural accompaniments, as bread, Irish potatoes, pickles and coffee.

Surely it is not often that one attends so delightful a 'cue at so convenient and beautiful a place. It will not soon be forgotten by those who were present.
Mr. Holly reached here on the 7 o'clock train Thursday afternoon and was entertained by Jno. K. Hood, Esq. His limited stay was regretted by the Masons, as well as his other friends bere

Hiram Lodge is in a thriving condi-tion, and her membership has been in-creased by nearly thirty additions in the past 18 months.

Since this auspicious occasion the brethren will sing with added emphasis, "Hail, Masonry Divine!"

At the Base Ball Park.

The Anderson base ball park was festive yesterday afternoon, in honor of the Union-Anderson battle of the ball. A jammed grand stand witnessed the Blue Ridgers succumb to nine expensional almost phenomenal. Union the Blue Ridgers succumb to ninc exceptional, almost phenomenal Unionists batters as they crashed unmercifully straight balls, crooked balls, Chinese puzzle balls, in short, they hit and hit hard in spite of splendid efforts from the local box. The game began with a canter for Anderson, with three scores to her credit, at the finish of the first inning. In the next inning the home team added another run. Goose eggs inning after inning marked the sadfaced Anderson man who held the score card until the eighth dragged around, when the Blue Ridgers spurtscore card until the eighth dragged around, when the Blue Ridgers spurted, and he marked a run. Even the speedy-twirling ball, shot out of the hands of "Joe," failed to wrest victory from the tenacious Union men. At the close of the ninth round, not a cheer was heard—small boy rooters forgot their horn—not even a smile dared toy with the lips of hundreds of Anderson beauties—the gloom of defeat settled down just as the sun disappeared in sympathetic disappointment.

Following is the order the Blue Ridgers lined up: Byers s. s., Riley 2b., Guy 1b., Poole l. f., Callaham 3b., Hudgens c., Rice c. f., Smith r. f., and Richardson and McCully did the pitchers' act.

Richardson and McCully did the pitchers' act.

Lack of space prevents mention of but two of the numerous brilliant plays. Hudgens is a little wonder. Out of four times at the bat, he made three single base-hits and a two bagger. His catching was phenomenal. Riley put in his usual cool-headed star playing. By a difficult, but extremely graceful pick up of a warm grounder, he won an avalanche of applause from the "beauties," cranks and irrepressible small boy rooters. Guy, on first, did beautiful work.

It seems that Manager Mattison ex-

It seems that Manager Mattison expected several crackerjack players yesterday, who failed to appear, and it was in this way forced upon him to substitute others at the last moment. This, in part, is given as the cause of the seventeen to six defeat at the hands of Union yesterday. Though it is admitted lack of team work at critical points was mainly responsible for the water-loo

Union's team is the strongest in the State, composed of players from all parts of South Carolina and two from Tennessee. Defeat by such a team is not so bad.

Meeting with Success in his Adopted

The Denver (Col.) Sunday Post of July 2nd contains a picture of Judge July 2nd contains a picture of Judge John M. Wardlaw, a native of Anderson County, and a son of Mr. Andrew Wardlaw, formerly of this County but now living in Arkansas. As it always gives us pleasure to note the success of an old Anderson boy, and knowing that it will be read with interest by his many friends and relatives in this County, we reproduce the following from the Post:

County, we reproduce the following from the Post:

Last week the Supreme Court examined a large class of applicants for admission to the bar. Among the candidates was the County Judge of San Mignel, of which County Telluride is the official centre. In all the San Juan district this Judge, John M. Wardlaw, is very well known as he was for years in charge of the Western Union telegraph office at Telluride and later a newspaper man connected with the principal papers of the district, and also the correspondent for Denver and Eastern journals. His ambition was the law, and he studied for the profession, so when he ran for the office of County Judge he was not unequipped for the judicial position, though not a member of the bar. After his election he determined to win the name of law.

Last week the hearts of many were made glad by reason of the refreshing rains, which came in copious showers. They did not come a whit too soon, but rather late, yet not too late to do much good toward reviving the thirsty crops. The crops in some portions of the Corner are fine indeed. The corn is especially promising

On account of the threatening aspect of the weather, the crowd was rather small, yet there were enough to enliven the time, for the hours sped swiftly by, and ere we were aware the clock sounded forth the hour for our departure. To Mr. and Mrs. Sherard are due the thanks of our party for their generous efforts in making the occasion a success.

In company with Mr. L. J. Duckworth, your humble scribe made a flying visit to Laurens last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. We had a pleasant ride until 4 o'clock, when we arrived at our friend's home, Mr. Henry Simmons. After a delightful evening we retired for the night to awake in the morning much refreshed. Soon after an excellent breakfast, we found ourself on a pleasant walk with a most charming young lady. When dinner was over a crowd of the young people took a pleasant ride over to a neighbor's, Mr. — Brownlee, where we enjoyed an pleasant ride over to a neighbor's, Mr.

— Brownlee, where we enjoyed an evening of pleasure. Alas, Sunday morning came too quick and ere the clock chimed ten we were bidding our friends adieu and preparing to return. We had a most delightful time; never enjoyed ourselves better in all our life. The only fault we find with Laurens is her roads. They are just awful, and we think if some of the leading citizens would come up and spend a few hours in Anderson County they surely would make an improvement on their roads.

Mr. Tommie King, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. King, passed from life unto death on Tuesday morning, July 18th. He had been sick for the past two years, but was improving until Thursday morning, when he was taken with rheumatism of the heart, which brought on his death. It seems hard to give up the one we loved so well, but God knows best, and we should submit willingly to Him. Tommie was one of these good-hearted, friendly boys, and the community loses one of her noblest young men. He was in his 17th year, just budding into manhood, with his hopes bright and a glorious future in front, but, alas! he is gone where sorrows never come. Our deepest sympathy goes out for the family, and especially for the sister, Miss Corrine, as she longed for the time to come when her brother should come from college with a happy face and bright future. She waited for the time when she could see her brother in business with success on every side. Boys, suppose we take warning by the death of this worthy member of the bar. After his election he determined to win the name of lawyer, although he was already a Judge. That he will receive the sheepskin there is bardly a doubt.

Mr. Wardlaw was born in Anderson, S. C., in 1870. He was educated at the Carolina Collegiate Institute of Anderson. In 1890 he came to Colorado to take a position with the Western Union Telegraph company at Pueblo. He went to Telluride in 1891 and last Fall he was nominated on the Republican and Silver Republican tickets for County Judge and elected by a handsome majority over the Democratic and Populist fusion candidates. This Spring he was appointed town Clerk of Telluride, which position he holds with his County Judgeship.

Winningly to Him. Tommhe was one of the rindly boys, and these good-hearted, friendly boys, and the community loses one of her noblest young men. He was in his 17th year, lust budding into manhood, with his hopes bright and a glorious future in front, but, alas! he is gone where sorrows never come.
