

WE DON'T

Want you to overlook
the Fact that we are

HEADQUARTERS

For Everything Pertaining to the

Dry Goods Business,

And that we are now showing the greatest line of

Fall AND Winter UNDERWEAR,

FOR MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN,

Ever Shown in Anderson!

And at Prices as Short as the Cotton Crop.

Just a brief mention of a few Underwear items suitable for present use, of Underwear in a weight suitable to resist the sudden changes incident to the present season.

READ

The list below and come and call for the GARMENTS:

Ladies' Ribbed Cotton Vest,

Long sleeves, high neck, Fall weight, suitable for present use. Price 10c. each.

Ladies' Vest,

Either flat or ribbed, the greatest value you ever saw for 25c. Our 50c. line for both Men and Women is great, as is also our 75c. and $1.00 lines. We are showing a—

Union Suit

At the remarkably low price of 25c., the greatest value on earth. Also, UNION SUITS at 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, &c., and in sizes for Men, Women and Children. We have them made of Pure Cotton, All Wool and Cotton and Wool.

Our Undershirts

For Men at 25c. and 50c. are exceptional. You are usually put to considerable inconvenience in fitting the Children. Come direct to our Store, we can fit them. We have all sizes, from the little Wool Wrappers for the new infant up.

We have certainly struck—

A BONANZA IN UNDERWEAR,

And want the Trading Public to know it. It is folly for you to go elsewhere and buy your Underwear without seeing ours. Ours is—

HOT STUFF,
WARM NUMBERS,
COLD RESISTERS!

Come and see it, and you will undoubtedly buy your Underwear from us.

Yours anxious to sell UNDERWEAR,

Brown, Osborne & Co.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

General Merchandise,

ANDERSON, S. C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 27, 1899.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Corrected Weekly by Brown, Osborne & Co.

Strict Good Middling—67.
Good Middling—64.
Strict Middling—61.
Middling—58.
Stained Cotton—5 to 5 1/2.

Miss Sue Whitfield is visiting in Abbeville this week.

Mr. Jeff D. Maxwell, Jr., is in the city visiting his parents.

Miss Ditma Gilmer went to Greenville to-day to visit friends.

Mr. J. C. Watkins returned from Battle Creek, Mich., last Friday.

Miss Marie Hoffman, of Seneca, was shopping in the city last week.

A lot of cotton from Georgia was marketed in the city last week.

Mr. Ben Sullivan, of the Black Diamond, was in the city last week.

Col. J. B. E. Sloan advertises a fine plantation near Pendleton for sale.

The farmer who has held his cotton so far this season has made money by it.

Miss Mamie Poulnot, of Charleston, is in the city visiting Mrs. Eliza Skelton.

Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell was away last Sunday, attending Presbytery at Fort Hill.

Dr. A. C. Strickland offers some valuable city and country property for sale.

Mrs. J. P. Hillhouse and children, of Greenville, are in the city visiting relatives.

Rev. O. J. Copeland will preach at Shiloh next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Thos. H. Russell will return to the Citadel Friday to resume his studies there.

The attention of farmers especially is directed to the new advertisement of Brock Bros.

Mr. Thos. Daniel and brother, of Chandler, S. C., spent a few days in the city last week.

Mrs. Pinson and Mrs. Hitt, of Cross Hill, are visiting Mrs. Jas. Spearman, who is very ill.

Mr. Frank Watkins leaves to-day for Spartanburg to resume his studies in Wofford College.

If you anticipate sending your children to school, read Cobb & Crayton's new advertisement.

Next Monday is Salesday. There will be several sales of real estate by Probate Judge Nance.

Mr. M. L. Bonham, Jr., left yesterday for Greenville to resume his studies at Furman University.

Miss Iola Cooley, of Williamston has been enrolled as a student of Converse College at Spartanburg.

Mr. Ira A. Giles, who won the Citadel scholarship, will go there Monday to enter upon his work.

Miss Lillian Caldwell and Miss Besie Norris, of Hickory Flat, were shopping in the city Friday.

Mrs. L. H. Seel came home Monday from Williamston, where she has been recuperating her health.

Miss Nellie Humphreys leaves tomorrow to enter the Presbyterian College for Women in Columbia.

Tax-paying time is rolling around again. See the notice of County Treasurer Payne in another column.

Mr. C. E. Elgin has returned to Nashville, Tenn., to resume his studies in the University of Nashville.

The pretty fall goods which the Anderson merchants are now displaying are exceedingly attractive.

Rev. O. L. Martin and family returned last week from Virginia, where they have been spending several weeks.

Mr. J. H. Hutchison, of Iola, is quite sick with typho-malaria fever. We wish him speedy restoration to health.

Messrs. Norman Prince, Vic Wilson, Mortimer Sloan and Miss Mary Ligon are to be in Wofford College this year.

The indications are that all the cotton in this County will be picked and ready for market before November first.

Miss Eleanor Cochran leaves the city to-day to go to Spartanburg, where she will resume her studies in Converse College.

Brown, Osborne & Co. call your attention to hot stuff and warm numbers in winter underwear in their new ad. Read it.

The attention of teachers of the public schools is directed to the advertisement of Superintendent of Education Nicholson.

Messes Cecil Swilling, Daisy Webb, Helen McGill and Ellen Linden, of Hartwell, Ga., were shopping in the city Friday.

Miss Sophia Dwyer was in Atlanta this week, visiting relatives and attending the opening of the dry goods stores there.

Dear delinquent, THE INTELLIGENCER printers are needing a little cash. Open your heart and purse and come to our assistance.

In their new advertisement this week Lesser & Co. make their fall announcement, and quote prices on goods in every department.

Messes J. B. McGee and W. Y. Miller will serve a grand barbecued dinner next Saturday. See advertisement in another column.

Add the following numbers to your telephone exchange list: J. W. Quattbaum, residence, 147; Baylis Maxwell, residence, 148.

Mrs. F. Clinkscales, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Brown, for a few days, returned to her home, near Belton, last Friday.

Osborne & Osborne announce that they have just received a car load of stoves, and a big lot of crockery, etc. See their advertisement.

Miss Veleria Clinkscales, of Moflatts-ville, was in the city Tuesday on her way to Due West, where she will attend the Due West Female College.

The Pelzer steam laundry, with a capital stock of $2,500, has been chartered by the Secretary of State. I. J. Phillips is president, and J. E. Carter business manager, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Major Holland, popular salesman for Deane & Ledliffe, is quite sick at his home near the city. His many friends hope for a quick recovery.

Rev. H. C. Fennel, of Lowndesville, occupied Mr. Sumnerell's pulpit at the Presbyterian Church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Edwards preached in the evening.

Mr. E. B. Dunn, of Dublin, Ireland, is in the city visiting his uncles, Messrs. Wm. and Richard Laughlin. He will probably become a citizen of the United States.

Now that the blackberry crop is about exhausted, we would suggest to the Blue Ridge Railway people to put on a fast train between Anderson and Walhalla.

Before purchasing your goods consult the advertising columns of THE INTELLIGENCER, and you will know where to get the best goods for the least money.

Messrs. W. H. Harrison and Noel Sharpe have returned home from Hot Springs, Ark., where they have been spending a few weeks recuperating their health.

The people of Neal's Creek Church have decided to have services twice a month next year, and have re-elected Rev. O. J. Copeland, their present pastor, to serve.

Mr. C. M. Buchanan has nestled in quite a cozy home on McCully street, where he intends giving a mammoth "house warming" party to a host of friends in the near future.

Ensign Louis C. Richardson, of the United States Navy, has recently been transferred to San Francisco, Cal. He is an Anderson boy, and is highly esteemed by his superior officers.

We are pained to announce the very serious illness of our staunch old friend, Mr. Jas. A. Drake, at his home in the County. Recent reports from his bedside are not encouraging.

The Baptist congregation at Walhalla has called the Rev. L. Carlyle Branyon, of Hartwell, Ga., for pastor. Mr. Branyon is a native of this County and is a young minister of great promise.

Will Wright, a negro, was committed to jail last Friday by Magistrate Stone, of Varennes, charged with a criminal assault on a little negro girl, aged about 8 years, three weeks ago.

Mr. W. D. Bewley, accompanied by his little son of Elberton, Ga., has been spending a few days in the city visiting his sisters, Mrs. C. S. Sullivan and Mrs. W. H. Frierson, the latter being seriously ill.

Mr. S. W. Williford, Jr., has accepted a position as salesman with Messrs. Dean & Ratliffe, where he would be glad to see his friends. That firm is to be congratulated upon such a happy selection.

The large and attractive advertisement of C. F. Jones & Co. this week will prove interesting to every one of our readers, old and young, male and female, and we advise you to read it carefully.

L. A. Tannery, a merchant of this city, claims that a negro attempted to rob him last Saturday night about 12 o'clock, just as he began to ascend the stairway leading to his room on the second floor.

Moore, Acker & Co. have added to their stock a new and complete line of fancy dress goods, millinery, etc., which will be in charge of Mrs. D. M. Wilson and Miss Ola Moore. Read their new advertisement.

A number of farmers are storing their cotton in the Anderson Warehouse. The storage rates are very reasonable, and the farmers can draw 80 per cent of the value of their cotton on their certificates.

Miss Blanche Cox, of Homea Path, Miss Augusta Hubbard, Messrs. Raymond Wilgin and J. J. Harris, of this city, will go to Nashville, Tenn., this week to take up their studies in the Peabody Normal College.

D. C. Brown & Bro., having bought the entire stock of the Electric City Shoe Store at an extremely low price, an offering of the goods at one-half the original price. Read their new advertisement in another column.

The few cases of small pox in Brushy Creek Township, this County, are within eight miles of the city of Greenville, and it is to be hoped that the headlines over the article of the Anderson correspondent of the Greenville News would indicate.

Mrs. Pauline Garganus, who has been spending the summer vacation with her parents in this city, has returned to Marion, Ala., to resume her duties as a teacher in the Judson Female Institute. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Louise Patrick, who is a student of the Institute.

Our little friend, Lela Tins, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. J. P. Tins, of Garvin Township, picked one hundred pounds of cotton in one day last week, which is a good day's work for many grown people. Is there another 8-year-old girl in the County who can beat Lela's record?

At the grand millinery opening of Julius H. Weil & Co. to-morrow and Friday, Mr. A. C. Heggie, the celebrated representative of the renowned "Teddy's teas," will serve a cup of this tea to each lady. Everybody is welcome. Read the new advertisement for particulars of the opening.

We are in receipt of the catalogue of the Winthrop Normal and Industrial College for the year 1898-'99. It is a handsome publication, containing 104 pages, and giving a vast deal of useful information concerning the work done in this popular institution. During the past year there were 173 students enrolled.

Dr. W. E. Campbell, of Atlanta, Ga., who is just recovering from a severe illness with fever, and who has been spending a short while at his old home, Belton, was in the city Friday and gave us a pleasant call. Dr. Campbell is associated with Dr. Calhoun, the noted specialist, in Atlanta, and stands very high in his profession.

Next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock will meet with Mrs. Robert E. Ligon. This is an important meeting, being the second anniversary of the organization of the Chapter, consequently the time for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Every member who can possibly do so, is urged to attend.

Another serious fire was averted Sunday by the effective work of the fire department when Mr. E. W. Brown's residence was discovered to be on fire. Had there been any pressure at the beginning, the fire could have been extinguished by the garden hose; but owing to the absence of pressure for an inexcusably long time, good headway was attained by the flames, so that the damage is considerable, but is fully covered by insurance. This is the second fire on that street within the last few years, in both of which there was absolutely no pressure. Unless the city wants its insurance rates increased, it would better pay more attention to its fire protection.

Dr. W. E. Campbell, of Atlanta, Ga., who is just recovering from a severe illness with fever, and who has been spending a short while at his old home, Belton, was in the city Friday and gave us a pleasant call. Dr. Campbell is associated with Dr. Calhoun, the noted specialist, in Atlanta, and stands very high in his profession.

Next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock will meet with Mrs. Robert E. Ligon. This is an important meeting, being the second anniversary of the organization of the Chapter, consequently the time for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Every member who can possibly do so, is urged to attend.

Another serious fire was averted Sunday by the effective work of the fire department when Mr. E. W. Brown's residence was discovered to be on fire. Had there been any pressure at the beginning, the fire could have been extinguished by the garden hose; but owing to the absence of pressure for an inexcusably long time, good headway was attained by the flames, so that the damage is considerable, but is fully covered by insurance. This is the second fire on that street within the last few years, in both of which there was absolutely no pressure. Unless the city wants its insurance rates increased, it would better pay more attention to its fire protection.

Dr. W. E. Campbell, of Atlanta, Ga., who is just recovering from a severe illness with fever, and who has been spending a short while at his old home, Belton, was in the city Friday and gave us a pleasant call. Dr. Campbell is associated with Dr. Calhoun, the noted specialist, in Atlanta, and stands very high in his profession.

Next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock will meet with Mrs. Robert E. Ligon. This is an important meeting, being the second anniversary of the organization of the Chapter, consequently the time for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Every member who can possibly do so, is urged to attend.

Another serious fire was averted Sunday by the effective work of the fire department when Mr. E. W. Brown's residence was discovered to be on fire. Had there been any pressure at the beginning, the fire could have been extinguished by the garden hose; but owing to the absence of pressure for an inexcusably long time, good headway was attained by the flames, so that the damage is considerable, but is fully covered by insurance. This is the second fire on that street within the last few years, in both of which there was absolutely no pressure. Unless the city wants its insurance rates increased, it would better pay more attention to its fire protection.

Dr. W. E. Campbell, of Atlanta, Ga., who is just recovering from a severe illness with fever, and who has been spending a short while at his old home, Belton, was in the city Friday and gave us a pleasant call. Dr. Campbell is associated with Dr. Calhoun, the noted specialist, in Atlanta, and stands very high in his profession.

Next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock will meet with Mrs. Robert E. Ligon. This is an important meeting, being the second anniversary of the organization of the Chapter, consequently the time for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Every member who can possibly do so, is urged to attend.

Another serious fire was averted Sunday by the effective work of the fire department when Mr. E. W. Brown's residence was discovered to be on fire. Had there been any pressure at the beginning, the fire could have been extinguished by the garden hose; but owing to the absence of pressure for an inexcusably long time, good headway was attained by the flames, so that the damage is considerable, but is fully covered by insurance. This is the second fire on that street within the last few years, in both of which there was absolutely no pressure. Unless the city wants its insurance rates increased, it would better pay more attention to its fire protection.

A recent issue of the Charlotte Observer says: "Mr. W. C. Whitner, of Rock Hill, has employed Architects Hook & Sawyer to prepare the plans for a handsome colonial residence. Mr. Whitner's residence will be the handsomest in Rock Hill and one of the finest in the South. It will be fitted with every modern convenience. The drawing shows a magnificent building."

Health Officer Martin is deserving of special praise for the vigilant lookout he has kept all during the Summer on the sanitary condition of the city. When we recall that the health record this Summer is above that of many years, due principally to a more strict surveillance over the disposition of refuse or garbage, we feel like rising up in the name of the city and calling him a sure enough "peach."

Mr. P. L. Pullen, of Fork Township, has sent us a few sample ears of his corn crop, and they are the finest we have seen this season, the largest one weighing two and one-half pounds. He has about one hundred acres in corn on his Tugaloo bottoms, and notwithstanding the crop suffered from the drought, he will harvest a fine yield. Mr. Pullen is a progressive farmer, and believes in producing "hog and hominy."

Mr. R. A. Gentry, of Hopewell, who was awarded a scholarship in the South Carolina College at the competitive examination here in July, has sent in his resignation to President Woodward. He has accepted a ten-months school at Mountain Springs, in Brushy Creek Township, to commence on or before the 30th of October next. The patrons of this school are fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Gentry, who is a most excellent gentleman and an energetic teacher.

Mrs. Carrie Bridges Hale, wife of George W. Hale, an old time resident of Piedmont, committed suicide by taking laudanum last Wednesday morning. A note was found in her clothing stating as a reason for her rash act, "that while at all times her husband and his family had been very kind in their treatment of her, she had notwithstanding become tired of life, and feeling that her sins had been forgiven her she should seek in death rest in the arms of the Saviour."

Mrs. Cynthia Glenn, wife of Mr. W. A. Glenn, of Savannah Township, died at her home on Saturday last, after a very short illness. Deceased was a daughter of the late James Burriss, of Savannah Township, and had passed her three score years and ten in quiet, peaceful, Christian living. She was a member of the A. R. P. Church, and a conscientious and consistent Christian in every walk of life. A pathetic feature of her decease is that her aged and grief-stricken husband is himself critically ill, with bare hopes for his recovery.

The South Carolina Presbytery met at Fort Hill last week, and Rev. W. H. Workman, of Liberty, S. C., was elected Moderator. The Spring meeting will be at Westminster, on April 10, 1900. A commission has been sent to Hodges to organize a Church there if the way be clear. The Flat Rock Church will be served at present by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell every third Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting was very pleasant, and those who attended speak in the highest terms of the hospitality and kindness of the good people of that section.

A romantic marriage occurred at the Hotel Bobo on Wednesday afternoon, September 20th. The contracting parties were Capt. Grant, of the 29th U. S. Volunteers, and Miss Lillian Fant, the attractive daughter of Mr. G. W. Fant, one of the most highly respected citizens of Anderson, S. C. It was another illustration of the adage "love laughs at locksmiths." Rev. J. W. Collier was the officiating minister. The happy couple immediately took the train for Atlanta. Capt. Grant's regiment starts for the Philippines Saturday, and his blushing bride will accompany him. —Hopwell (Ga.) Sun, 22nd inst.

Miss Sue Wilcox died at the County Home last Sunday night, aged about 70 years. She was a native of Abbeville County, and was the last of a large and influential family. More than twenty years ago she came to Anderson, and for a number of years was the teacher of art in the Anderson Female Seminary. She then lived with her two sisters, Mrs. Chipley and Mrs. Latimer, both of whom preceded her to the grave. Miss Wilcox was a most accomplished lady, and by her amiable disposition made a friend of every acquaintance. She was a devoted member of the Episcopal Church, and during her residence at the County Home she exemplified the teachings of the blessed Saviour in her work among the unfortunate inmates. On Monday afternoon her remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. W. T. Capers.

The survivors of Company E, 20th South Carolina Regiment, held a reunion at Neal's Creek Church last Friday. Of that valiant Company, which did such noble and grand service during the civil war, only thirty were present. In the forenoon Gen. M. L. Bonham spoke to the survivors and those present, about the diverse circumstances under which the warriors fought and the odds which they had to overcome, and of the heroism of the Confederate soldier. Then he told them of the transcendental qualities of the women who upheld the men while they were away in the army, and who so greatly encouraged them in the noble cause. When Gen. Bonham finished speaking the meeting adjourned to partake of the bounteous dinner, which the ladies had prepared for the occasion. After dinner, Hon. A. C. Latimer addressed the audience upon the "Issues of the day." He gave the farmers some good advice concerning their course in the future. The reunion was closed by prayer by the pastor, Rev. O. J. Copeland. At the conclusion of the meeting, the survivors assembled and agreed unanimously to meet again next year at Neal's Creek.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city, last Friday evening. She had been in feeble health for several years, and about two months ago came to Anderson from Greenwood, where she had resided for the past two years, during which time she was engaged in teaching art and music in the High School of that town. She was soon confined to her bed with a severe case of influenza, which caused her death. Mrs. McSmith was the oldest daughter of the late John C. Kingswood, of Abbeville County, where she was born and reared. She was twice married, and by her first marriage a son and a daughter survive her. She had been an active and devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for long number of years. She was a lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was a most accomplished teacher of art and music, which she pursued with remarkable energy throughout her life. On Friday afternoon the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Hall, D. D., of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. J. N. H. Sumnerell, of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McSmith died at the home of her son, Mr. L. E. Norryce, in this city