During the hot days of June, when fans and iced drinks were in demand, and the sales of Woolens forced at enormous discounts, we thought of cold Winter nights, and bought-

CASE AFTER CASE.

The result is that we have a stock of Plankets that in quantity and quality would do credit to the large City Stores, and at prices that would make them blush.

Without saying more we will quote a few prices, and ask the public to come and pass judgment. We have a surprisingly nice Cotton Blanket, good size, at 45c. per pair, one that would astonish you at 75c. per pair, and an eye-opener at $1.00 per pair, but the following are our drawing cards:

A splendid Gray Blanket, 10-4 at	$1.35
An excellent White Blanket, 10-4, at	1.45
An exceedingly good White Blanket, 10-4, - at	1.95
White Blanket, 75 per cent wool, 10-4, at	2.45
One solid case All Wool Blankets, Southern make,
10.4 (- he - ste Sthir itle a number) et	9 90

10-4, (make a note of this—it's a warm number,) at 2.90 One solid case absolutely All Wool Blankets, guaranteed. North Carolina made, 10-4, at 3.95 The above Blanket, 11-4, A fine Blanket, 11-4, A superior Blanket, 11-4, - -Extra Handsome Blankets, 11-4. Superfine 11-4 Blankets,

We have also a nice assortment of-

CRIB AND CRADLE BLANKETS.

ALSO,

FANCY ROBE BLANKETS, Our clever friend, M. R. B. Goodgion, of Williamston, has been spending a few days in the city visiting the family of his kinsman, J. C. C. Featherston, Esq.

And the HOTTEST, ALL WOOL SCARLET BLANKET 10-4, for $2.45 that you ever saw. It is a remarkable value. Ask to see it, even if you do not care to buy a red Blanket.

Read the above prices and compare them with others. Post yourself on the quality and value of Blankets, and then we will have no trouble in selling you. We have the-

BLANKES.

And are offering them at a very close margin of profit.

Come and See.

Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne & Co.,

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Local News.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 18, 1899. THE COTTON MARKET.

Corrected Weekly by Brown, Osborne & Co.

Strict Good Mddling—72. Good Middling—72. Strict Middling—72. Middling—7. Stained Cotton-5 to 64.

Court convenes at Pickens next Mon-

County Treasurer Payne is now ready to receive your taxes.

The State's barroom in Anderson is evidently doing a good business. Mrs. N. L. Fant was the guest of Mes-dames Dean and Ratliffe this week.

The new advertisement of King

Bros. tells you how to save money.

If you have a cough réad the new advertisement of the Hill-Orr Drug Co. Mr. J. N. Watkins, of Greenville, has been spending a few days in the city.

Attention is directed to the new advertisement of the Sullivan Hardware

Mr. F. M. Butler and family, of Macon, Ga., are in the city visiting rela-

Osborne & Osborne are offering bargains in stoves. See their new advertisement.

Mr. Tom Maxwell, of Greenville, spent last Sunday in the city visiting his parents.

The new advertisement of B. O. Evans & Co. will prove interesting to the male sex.

Anderson needs and must have a public library. Who will take the lead in the matter?

In their new advertisement C. F. Jones & Co. talk about their immense stock of clothing.

Cloaks and suits for the ladies are described in the new advertisement of Julius H. Weil & Co.

Read Osborne & Osborne's new advertisement on stoves, tinware, china, glassware and crockery.

The rate from Anderson for the round trip to the State Fair is $3.20, which includes admission to the Fair.

In their new advertisement Carlisle Bros. call attention to their stock of Oliver Chilled plows. Read it. The Knights of Pythias will hold an important meeting to-morrow evening. Every member is urged to attend.

Policeman King went to Greenville yesterday to attend the United States Court as a witness in a postoffice bur-

Messrs. J. S. Fowler and W. Q. Hammond are in Columbia this week attending Court as witnesses against W. A. Neal.

The stock show takes place at Pelzer next Saturday, and will no doubt attract a large crowd of both exhibitors

Mr. Paul E. Ayer has announced to his friends that he will be a candidate for Mayor in the municipal election next Summer.

Mrs. Carrie McCully and Mrs. J. M. Patrick left yesterday on a visit to Washington, New York and other

A number of our friends have called and settled their dues to the INTEL-LIGENCER, and there are others who should do likewise.

Brown, Osborne & Co. are making a fuss on blankets. Read what they say in this issue, make a note of their prices and give them a call.

County Treasurer Payne had his annual settlement yesterday with the Comptroller General's chief clerk. Everything was found correct.

J. P. Hutchinson, a fireman on the cannon ball, has been promoted to engineer on the Anderson division of the Southern Railway.—Greenville Times.

A large number of the Anderson boys and girls who are off at College can't do without the old Intelligencer, and are having it sent to their address.

Mr. G. W. Weldon, one of the Fork's progressive young farmers, gave us a call last Monday. He says the farmers of his section are sowing crops of small

Rev. O. J. Copeland has just closed a very successful and interesting meeting at Oakdale Church, in the Fork. There were eighteen accessions to the

Mr. John Flynn, formerly of Anderson but now a most popular "knight of the grip," is spending a few days in the City, combining business with

Rev. O. J. Copeland, the pastor, will begin a series of meetings at Neal's Creek Church next Friday night. Everybody is invited to attend the

The Cox Manufacturing Company has just closed a trade with Mr. J. L. Glenn for a site for their mill northwest of the city limits on the Blue Ridge Railroad.

Miss Dit Gilmer, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Anderson, returned home to Anderson yesterday after captivating Greenville generally.
—Greenville News, 17th.

Miss Lola Casey, the accomplished teacher, of Anderson, arrived on Sat-urday last, rain or shine, and on Monday assumed charge of the Harricane school.—Clinton Gazette.

The Ordinance dividing the city into six wards is published on the second page of the INTELLIGENCER. The citizens of the city should clip it out and file it for future reference.

Mr. Ollie Fant has gone to Pittsfield, Mass., where he has accepted a position with a big manufacturing plant. He is a most excellent young man and will make friends in his adopted home.

Send THE INTELLIGENCER any item Send THE INTELLIGENCER any ifem of personal interest that you may happen to be in possession of. If you have a telephone in the house you can telephone the message. Any favor of this kind will be gladly received and the paper will be made that much more readable for your having contributed to it.

Send THE INTELLIGENCER any ifem of personal interest that you may happen to be in possession of. If you have a telephone in the house you can telephone the message. Any favor of this kind will be gladly received and the paper will be made that much more readable for your having contributed to it.

Mr. W. A. Lowery, a prominent citizen of Seneca, and well-known in this County, died at his home in that town the was a brother-in-level of the was a brothe last Saturday. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. J. 5. Fowler, of this city.

The Presbyterians have been offered a lot by the Orr Cotton Mill on the condition that a Church be erected on it. A committee from the Anderson Church has been appointed to consider

Mr. W. S. Lee has just completed a new dwelling house on Bleckley street, and Mrs. Sherard, Mr. Wells and Mr. Cuen have let the contract for the creetion of three more houses on the

The Confederate Veterans of Brushy Creek Township are requested to meet at Mt. Airy on Saturday, Nov, 4th, at 3 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing a Township Pension Board. Every Veteran is urged to attend.

The United States Circuit Court conrenes in Columbia on November 28th. The following citizens of Anderson

The new advertisement of Mr. G. F. Bigby will prove interesting to housekeepers, who are troubled now to supply their tables with something to eat. He carries a choice line of groceries, and sells then at prices that will please you. Give him a call.

Monday night, just after dark, the bicycles of Messrs. Ben. Fant and Charlie Mauldin were stolen from the sidewalks in front of their respective places of business by two negroes. The police soon recovered the wheels and arrested one of the negroes.

On Tuesday, 10th inst., Mr. John P. Sitton died at the home of his son, Mr. Samuel Sitton, in Brushy Creek Township, aged 82 years. He was of Anderson County's oldest and most upright citizens, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and relatives.

On account of the Wallace Circus in in Augusta to morrow, you can go from Anderson to Augusta and return for two dollars. You can go down on the regular passenger train and remain in Augusta until 8 o'clock p. m., when a special train will bring you back to

Last Saturday morning Mrs. Leila Cobb was found dead in her bed on the plantation of Mr. J. M. Erskine, near Midway Church. Until recently she had been an inmate of County Home, and had gone to Mr. Erskine's to pick cotton. She was about 60 years of age, and had no near relatives in this County

Astronomers say that November will be a period peculiarly attended with meteoric display. On the night of the 15th, meteors will be most conspicuous. It will occur after midnight. Stick a peg by the date and keep your eyes open if you want to see stars moving without the pain attending when you strike your thumb with a hammer.

The Southern Railroad will run a special train from Anderson and Greenville to Columbia and return three days during the State Fair. The train will leave Anderson at an early hour in the morning and return late in the evening, thus allowing passengers to spend all day in Columbia. The fare for the round trip will be very low.

Our clever friend, Dr. S. G. Bruce, of Townville, gave us a call last Saturday while in the city. He is offering his property at Townville for sale, and is contemplating moving to Pickens, C. H. to practice dentistry. Dr. Bruce is a most estimable citizen, and Pickens will be most fortunate in securing him as a resident. We regret to see him leave our County.

Joe Freeman, of Anderson County, was convicted of transporting liquor and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve thirty days on chaingang. The Supervisor and other prominent citizens certified that the man's health was such that he could not labor and at the suggestion the governor commuted the sentence to $20 or fifteen days .- Columbia Record, 16th.

Mr. J. Pink Little died at his home in Belton Township last Friday night from the effects of cocaine blood poison. He had a tooth extracted a few on. He had a tooth extracted a few days previous in which cocaine was administered. The deceased was quite a popular and substantial gentleman, and will be mourned by a wide circle of friends. He leaves a young wife and four small children to mourn his untimely death. His remains were interred at Shady Grove Church on Sunday

· Mrs. Senith Stone, widow of Berry Stone, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. W. Wilson, in the Craytonlaw, Mr. J. W. Wilson, in the Craytonville section, on Monday, 9thinst., aged about 85 years. Her maiden name was Massey, and by her marriage seven children were born, three of whom preceded her to the grave. She had lived to see the fourth generation of her offspring. She was a most estimable woman and was greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends and relatives. She had long been a consistent member of Barker's Creek Church, where her remains were interred, Kev. N. G.
Wright conducting the funeral services in the presence of a large congregation.

Thoughtful persons cannot repress a deep sympathy for the mother of the young man or woman, boy or girl, whom the minister, during the progress of his sermon, finds it necessary to rebuke for misbehavor in the Church. Though the reproof be ever so gentle—merely a dignified silence until the whisperers and gigglers have finished—that parent must feel crushed by the fruit her The public schools of Williamston Township, District No. 8, will open on Monday, November 6th. The teachers are urged to be at their places promptwayward offspring to some secluded spot down behind the barn and there have him or her do the "hooche-cooche" with such variations as the "pigeon wing," "mule dodge" and "buzzard lope," or a medley of the whole. This kind of dance will receive Scriptural senetion. From though it descript dan't sanction. Even though it doesn't, don't allow him or her to disgrace you by misbehaving in Church.

> Mrs. Elizabeth C. Breazeale, widow of the late Kenon Breazeale, departed this life at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. A. Eskew, in Centreville Township, last Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, in the 73rd year of her age. She had been in feeble health for a long time, but was confined to her bed only about three weeks. The deceased was a daughter of the late John Fretwell, was born and raised in this County, and until four years ago always lived on the place of her birth. On November 9, 1847, she married Mr. Breazeale, who preceded her to the grave about five years ago. By this union ten children were born, of whom three sons and three daughters survive her. Her long life was a beautiful epistle of a Christian's love and faithful devotion to the precepts and example of her blessed Saviour, and she fell asleep trusting in His promises, and strong in the faith and hope of a glori-ous and peaceful resurrection to im-mortal existence beyond the portals of propriating another man's mule for his own use. Last Sunday Mr. Ward N. Thompson drove into the city, hitched his horse in the rear of the Masonic Temple and attended services at the Presbyterian Church. About 1 o'clock he returned to his buggy, but it was gone. Thinking that perhaps some other member of the family had driven the horse home, near the eastern su-the horse home, near the eastern suburbs of the city, he mounted his wheel and went home. The horse and buggy were not there and had not been seen by any member of the family since morning. Mr. Thompson returned to the city, reported the matter to the police and Deputy Sheriff Dillingham. In the meantime it was learned that a negree heal been seen driving the horse out. gro had been seen driving the horse out the Belton road. Deputy Dillingham at once started to Belton, and Mr. at once started to Belton, and Mr.

Thompson, on his wheel, went to Honea Path. At Belton the Deputy phoned to Honea Path, and shortly afterwards the negro drove into the latter place closely followed by Mr. Thompson.
Mr. Dillingham changed horses at Bel-County have ben drawn to serve as Jurymen: Grand Jury—G. W. Fant, Jr., and D. A. Geer; Petit Jury—L. Reed ton and soon reached Honea Path. The corresponding to the control of the control negro was brought back to the city and lodged in jail that night. The next ride he will take will be to the peniten-

Autun Items.

It becomes our sady duty to chronicle the death of Mr. Clark Smith. On last Wednesday morning the Great Sovereign of the Universe called for the soul He had left with Mr. Smith, and with a joy and gladness that can only be imagined by those that have suffered as Mr. Smith, for unward of suffered as Mr. Smith, for upward of twelve years, as a most helpless invalid, he peacefully closed his eyes and launched out, with a sacred trust, into the Great Beyond. Mr. Smith was about forty-five years of age. His remains were interred in the family burying ground.

Several of our farmers are taking advantage of the beautiful weather and are rapidly sowing oats.

Cotton picking is almost over.

The Sandy Springs Literary Society had a short but spirited debate on the subject in hand last Saturday night. The Society will meet again next Saturday night, 21st inst., at 7 o'clock. The attend.

Union Meeting.

The next Union meeting of the Piedmont Association will be held with the Central Baptist Chhurch on the fifth Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. Introductory sermon by J. W. Sheriff.

1st Query—"What are the evidences of regeneration?" To be opened by T. R. Clovensha.

2nd Query—"What can be done to awaken a greater interest in missions and all benevolent objects?" To be opened by A. M. Young. J. JAMESON, Moderator.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Brown Quinine Tablets. All druggists retund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature on every box. 25c.

Nota day passes (Sunday excepted) that the highest praise is not heaped upon the Oliver Chilled Plows.

FOR RENT-One small cottage. Apply to M. Kennedy.

The Syracuse Chilled Plows, sold by Brock Brothers are best, lightest draft, and do the prettiest work of any Chilled Plow ever sold in Anderson. See them before you buy any other.

When you have any kind of Plumbing I would like to figure with you on it. John T. Burriss.

Even with the poor crops this year the Oliver Plows, sold by Sullivan Hardware Co., gave results, visible to any ordinary observer, which no other Plow attained. If your Piano or Organ needs tuning or repairs, it will pay you to see Mr. Jas. A. Ruddock of The C. A. Reed Music House, who will guarantee perfect satisfaction

A good Harrow should follow a good Plow. Follow the Oliver Plows with Sullivan Hardware Co's matchless Harrows and the work will count.

For Sale—My residence and lot in Townville; a 5-room house, centrally lo-cated on Main Street, near both Churches and the School; smokehouse, carriage house, cook house, stables and bern, with fine well of water and garden. Also two horses, top buggy and one double surrev. Terms easy. Apply to S. G. Bruce, Townville, 8 C.

It is now in order to select you a good Gun and supply yourself with Ammuni-tion from Sullivan Hardware Co.'s big

Go to Brock Brothers and see the Avery Disc Plow before you buy any other make. They will sell you one at a low Mend your own Harness! You can do it quickly and effectively with Sullivan Hardware Co.'s Harness Riveter. It is the simplest and most useful article for this purpose we ever saw, and sells for a trifle. Call on them and see it tried.

For Rubber and Leather Belting and Machinery supplies, Brock Brothers is the place to find them when you are in need of such goods.

Who does not appreciate a good Razor or a good Knife? Sullivan Hardware Co. can satisfy the most fastidious in price and quality.

The best and cheapest stock of Fall and Winter Dry Goods in the city at Vandi-

Big drive in Shot at Sullivan Hardware Co.'s. 1,000 bags to be sold.

Ballard's Obelisk and Guthrie's Finest Patent Flour for $4.50 per barrel at Van-diver Bros. Free city delivery. 'Phone 75 Sullivan Hardware Co. is in receipt of the largest invoice of Pocket Cutlery and Razors ever displayed in Anderson.

The biggest, best and cheapest stock of Shoes in the city at Vandiver Bros.

Oliver Chilled Plows have made a record. Before their introduction in Anderson large turning plows were unpopular and rejected. Now the Oliver has friends wherever tried, and pays big div-

Have hot water pipes run from your stove to bath room. Try Osborne & Osborne.

reputation. Buy only the genuine Olivers from Sullivan Hardware Co. Iron King Stoves are considered the best Buy one. Osborne & Osborne

Sole Agents. 400 kegs of Rifle Powder in Sullivan Hardware Co's Magazine to be sold under Iron King Stoves are sold in Anderson only by Osberus & Osborne. Twenty-five Dollars will buy a fairly good square practice Piano at the C. A. Reed Music House. They are intrinsi-cally worth double that amount. If you want the finest Texas Seed Oats cheap, get them at Vandiver Bros.

Cut Flowers, Pot Plants and Palms for Ale. Mrs. J. F. CLINKSCALES, 242 Main St. Roofing, tin work, galvanized iron work and plumbing done on short notice by Osborne & Osborne. Every Was and

Boy that

Buys Clothing knows

We are known all over South Carolina and Georgia as the people that gives the biggest value in-

We can beat either State on $5.00 Suits.

Our $7.50 Suits are the pride of our Store, in any style members expect to have a real live debate and cordially invite the public to attend.

Bob AMATEUR.

Soil AMATEUR. Suits, in all the latest Stripes and Plaids.

SPECIAL:

$10.00 Suits. They are dressy in the extreme, every style new and latest designs, in Plaids Stripes and Checks. These $10.00 Suits are equal to any $20.00 on the market. Prices always the lowest-everybody knows that.

Clothiers and Furnishiers.

D. F .- Don't forget our line of SCHOOL SUITS-guaranteed to stand any boy in South Carolina and Georgia. Price $2.50 to $3.50.

News for that go and the

the Boys to School

little Girls.

WE have just received the largest shipment and the best assortment of Children's, Misses and Little Gents'-

SHOES

Ever brought into Anderson. See us on all kinds of Shoes, and when you see your friends don't forget to tell them that we are the only exclusive Shoe people in Anderson.

Yours for Reliable Shoes,

COBB & CRAYTON, The Shoe People.

SHOES at HALF PRICE!

WE have decided to place the Stock of Shoes recently bought of the Electric City Shoe Store on the market at-

One-Half the Original Price.

This means you can buy your Shoes (Men's, Womens' and Children's) at one-half the price you pay for the same goods anywhere else.

Some one in order to sell his wares may say his Plow is as good as the Oliver. This is doing business on other people's their or are for Fall Shoes, for it means a big saving of Dollars to you. We cordially invite all to call and examine this Stock before placing Very respectfully,

D. C. SROWN & BRO.

ROOMS for RENT.

GOOD LOCATION.

APPLY TO

(NEXT TO POST OFFICE.)

NEXT TO NEW BANK.

THOMSON CYCLE WORKS,