OLD ROSIN DE BOW. A Tribute.

Death has entered the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Callaham and plucked the lovely bud that was just beginning to bloom, and transplanted it in that sweet home beyond. Little Cora died Thursday, February 1, 1900, of croup, and was about two years old. The grief stricken parents have the consolation that their loved one has crossed over death's chilly waters, and is now sleeping in the arms of its Savior, who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." The little one's remains were laid to rest in First Creek graveyard, Rev. W. D. Moorer conducting the funeral services.
