WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1900.

Senator Pettigrew is reputed to be the most unpopular member of the Senate. Certainly he must be with the McKinley administration, which is daily ripped up the back by the unpopular statesman.

The announcement of the Honorable Colonel Cole Louquacons, of the County of Newberry, for Lieutenant Governor, betrays the rumor that the small fry politicians have deserted the barn-yard in the interest of governmental progress.

The Republican party is intent upon keeping Kentucky to the front. To add to the many political complications in that stricken commonwealth the enemies of Senator J. C. S. Blackburn have charged that that gentleman has become a total abstainer, and it is said that the evidence against him is conclusive. Josephus is a sleek duck and will not easily be trapped. Who knows but that he is getting ready to spring the great Palmetto moral institution upon the Blue Grass tippers as a coup d'etat?

The Nebraska Democratic platform, reputed to be the political offspring of Mr. Bryan, is pretty good, with the exception of a liberal populist strain so characteristic of its distinguished author. Its apologists hereabouts would have trusted and reconciled Democrats to believe that Democracy in Nebraska is merely a quarantined element and has no relation or connection with the national Democracy. From continued aggressions, we are justified in warning the Populist party against Mr. Bryan's version of "benevolent assimilation."

And now comes Collis P. Huntington, the President of the Southern Pacific Railway, in his frantic fight against the Nicaragua Canal and takes a hand in the Alabama and Texas Senatorial fights. In both States he has marked for slaughter the incumbents who have fought bravely for the Canal through thick and thin, and who are regarded as the Canal's strongest friends. Huntington's transcontinental railroad would be the principal sufferer by the building of this great artery of commerce, and there is little wonder that he is interesting himself in such political affairs as threaten his dividends.

The miserable Philippine entanglement bodes no good for the peace and welfare of the United States. Aside from the inevitable increase of the army and navy necessary to protect our dignity in the far east, we are about to become involved in one of the most gigantic foreign embroglios that has ever held the boards of history. Had it not been for our officious intermeddling and land grasping policy born of a mad colony mania in the canting guise of "benevolent assimilation," we could retain our dignity and rest secure beneath the shade of the Monroe doctrine regardless of oriental wars and diplomatic complexities. We have, however, withdrawn from the shelter of this strong citadel and now with contending and humiliated armies in the Philippines, with trouble on our hands in China and with a divided army—a mere handful in the aggregate—we are but inviting national disgrace and ruin every day we attempt to establish our sovereignty over foreign land. A terrible storm is brewing in the Orient. Russia, France, and Germany are snarling at the British lion. The United States, Great Britain's natural ally, and Japan must be drawn into the conflict. It cannot be coincidental in the United States to withdraw from the Philippines, and she should find a way out at the earliest possible moment. The people do not want to get into a first-class war while McKinley is the commander-in-chief of the army; they want vertebrate statesmen in national crises.

It should be a matter of shame to the American people that the highest law-making body has the distinction of being the softest dupe to gold-bid schemes and confidence artifices of any green horn in the country. There are the pension steals, the appropriation steals, the army contract steals, and the congressional salary steals. Of this latter class least is known by the uneducated populace. The rule of the House of Representatives allowing to each contestant for a seat in Congress the sum of $2,000 as expenses is wholly unjustifiable by any reasonable hypothesis. It encourages wild-cat contests at the expense of the government, contests that would not otherwise be undertaken for the reason that the beneficiary, the contestant, should be compelled to foot the bills incident to the contest from his private account. We recall an instance of this kind in which the contest was not decided until near the end of the Congress in favor of the contestant who drew his salary for the entire time, while the contestee had already drawn his salary, thus costing the country the full salaries of two Representatives and the contest expenses of each. There may be some little justification in appropriating a sum to cover the costs of contests upon the part of the contestee, but it is absolutely stupid to encourage and foster baseless contests by defraying the costs incurred by contestants. Certainly if the game is worth the candle, the contestant should furnish the tallow.

A prominent Republican in Congress is authority for the interesting statement that the policy of the McKinley administration toward Porto Rico is shaped by the prospective campaign contributions from the protected interests in the coming election. He says: "The possible unpopularity of the Porto Rican tariff was balanced against the certainty of money to use in the campaign, and the decision was in favor of the campaign contribution. It was not expected that the storm of protest would be as strong as it is, but it is now too late for a change." Another Republican has seen the handwriting on the wall, and, with commendable candor, refuses to hope against hope and acknowledges that his party has made an irreparable blunder. This has all along been apparent to the voting population, but the difficulty was in getting Republican leaders to acknowledge it.

Iola News.

The school at Iola has had a successful term. The patrons were so well pleased with the teacher, Miss Alma Brock, of One West, that they have secured her for the next session. We have as bright children in Iola as can be found anywhere. Lizzy Mitchell won the prize. Miss Alma was sorry she couldn't give every one a present as she thought they deserved one.

Mrs. J. H. Hutchison has been real sick for two weeks with heart and lung trouble. We hope to see her in her usual health soon.

Mrs. J. F. Wilson has been on the sick list for some time but is better at this writing.

We understand little Ernest, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Garrison is very ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Garrison were visiting Mrs. Garrison's parents at Iola Saturday night.

The Supervisor was in our neighborhood last week. We are expecting better roads soon. C. B.

Septis Items.

There is a great deal of sickness in this section at the present, and the doctors are kept busy.

Mr. Wm. Watkins is very low with grip. Mr. Watkins is perhaps the oldest citizen of the County, being ninety years of age.

Mr. I. H. Lazener is very sick with pneumonia.

Miss Lucy Link has had pneumonia, but at present is convalescing.

Several of Mr. Shaduck Johnson's family have been sick.

Old Uncle Perry Ashby, an aged and respected colored citizen of this community, died of pneumonia last Saturday a week ago. He was honest in all his dealings, always respectful to the white people, and never meddled in politics. What more need be said of any man?

Very little farm work has been done, and the farmers have all got the blues.

What is looking very well, but oats are going to be almost a failure. Messrs. M. B. Huchins and F. M. Withorn have the finest wheat we have ever seen.

The people of the community are requested to meet at Willis Chapel on the second Sunday in April for the purpose of organizing a Sunday School.

Nearly everybody in the community attended the sale at the residence of the late Micah Melton last Friday.

After an absence of some time will give you a few facts.

The general health of our people is very fine, with the exception of Mrs. Jane Drake, who has been quite sick, but we are glad to know she is some better.

The Martin Grove school is in a flourishing condition under the control of Miss Eugenia McLeroy. A lady of rare talents and is beloved by all the children.

Messrs. Parker Robinson and Vol. Pruitt, two of our young gentlemen, paid Moscow a flying visit last Sunday.

Miss Nancy Siverd is home on a short visit this week.

Mr. Jim Parker and sister, Miss Eula, visited relatives in the Big Spring section last Saturday night. They attended preaching the following Sunday at Barker's Church.

Miss Eugenia McLeroy and Neta Pennell spent Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Keaton's.

Mrs. Steven Fisher, of the First Creek section, spent the past week with home folks.

Mr. R. Tutt left last Tuesday for Wilford, where he will still practice medicine. We regret very much to see him leave, but our loss in giving him up will be without doubt his gain. We join his many friends in wishing him success in his new location.

Miss Mamie Norris and Kittie Drake visited in this section last Saturday night.

Miss Nettie Cowan spent Sunday with Miss Eugenia McLeroy.

Southern Railway New York Office.

Since the reorganizations and consolidation of the various railways of the South into one great corporation—the Southern Railway Company—under the admirably conducted management of the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., and the consequent presidency of Mr. Samuel Spencer, this trunk system has taken its place as one of the greatest enterprises in the world. The industrial and material development of the South, together with the developed comforts of a winter sojourn there, have given to it an enormous passenger traffic, which year by year increases. To meet the demands and to further the convenience of the public, the company has recently established an up-town office at No. 1185 Broadway, where the General Eastern Passenger Agent, Mr. A. S. Thweatt, is located. The office has been handsomely and luxuriously fitted up with every accommodation for the patrons of the road in the transaction of business, purchase of tickets, securing of berths, etc. These tickets may be procured to Cuba, Mexico, California, or any other point in the great South and West. To an old-timer of thirty years ago, recalling the discomforts of a trip through the Southern States, the up-to-date luxury of travel over the Southern Railway and its connections is a gratifying surprise.—Town Topics, March 15, 1900.

Under the new currency law a national bank can be started on a very small capital. All that is required is sufficient cash to pay the premium on the necessary amount of bonds. The par value of the securities will be at once returned to the purchaser in the form of new crisp notes. Any one desirous of entering in the note issue business, if he have credit, can go into an established bank, negotiate a loan of the required capital for a few days, buy his bonds, turn them over to the Government, receive his circulation notes and pay his obligation with them and then go ahead, doing business on the money of the depositors.

A Tribute.

'Twas one of God's saddest dispensations when He removed from among our midst the beloved form of Miss Addie Bowen, who, by her sweet and cheerful disposition, had won many friends. Now as we, the members of her Sunday School class, take our places, there is one vacant seat, and 'tis so hard to realize the sad fact that we shall never again behold her among the number, for she was ever in her place at both Church and Sunday School and was loved by all of her associates. But, alas, she is gone and is now singing that sweet and everlasting song around the Father's throne in Heaven, awaiting the coming of her loved one. We deeply sympathize with the lonely sister who is now left to mourn the loss of her who was ever her companion. Her cheerful face and disposition, her kind and sunny smile, and her home circle by the loved ones, but they can only look up thro' their blinding tears and say, "Thy will be done," and have the sweet consolation of knowing that they shall one day be reunited around the throne of our happy Father. "Not now, but in the coming years."

It may be in the better land; We'll read the meaning of our tears, And there, some time, we'll understand.

"God knows the way; He holds the key; He guides us with unerring hand; Some time with tearless eyes we'll see; Yes, there, up there, we'll understand."

Card of Thanks.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: IT WAS MY misfortune some weeks ago to lose my mule. Immediately my friends and neighbors came forward with contributions sufficient to buy me another one. To each contributor I want to return my sincere thanks, and assure them that their kindness will never be forgotten. Surely "a friend in need is a friend indeed."

Very truly,

A QUICK SHOT

To get a bird on the wing!

Everything advancing at such a rapid rate requires quick action and the cash down to get in on the ground floor.

But who, oh, who! had the judgment, the foresight and the cash to plunge in before the advances? Ah, we proclaim to all the world that we are among the happy few. Thousands of dollars put in good staple stuff a long time since enables us to pour out such a volume of Bargains as has never been seen here before. Every purchase you go to make they tell you about the advance, do they? Well, why don't you give us a show and see how little advance there is in fact. Gracious knows we are glad to serve you even at our low prices.

Profit, you say? Well, really, there would be no profit at to-day's prices if we had to buy now, but remember we have the stuff bought in large lots before the advances and we divide our good fortune with you.

Do you use China, Glassware, Crockery, Tinware, or have you any use at all for a Trunk, either good or cheap? All these items we bought in car load, and 'tush had them laid down to us at about what our competitors would have paid for the same goods in the market. Add the difference in cost to the difference in to-day's market, and you see how we make so much difference in our figures.

Remember—"Down with Competition is our Battle Cry." And this is how we do it:

Wool finish Dress Goods at 5c. per yard. A small lot of Outings, good weight, at 4c. and 5c. A good Ging-ham at 4c., a better one at 5c., and the very best at 6c. All Calicoes 4c. and 5c., none higher. A good quality Towel Crash at 6c. Good Table Damask at 24c. A fair one at 15c. yd. Heavy Domestic Checks at 5c. yd. A good quality and pretty pattern at 4c. yd. In Cheviots we have the best and heaviest weights, prettiest patterns and latest styles at 7c.

If you want a fine Suit for a little money or good Pants at small cost, don't pass us. We mean to sell you if you look at the goods. Buy a Handkerchief and show it to your neighbor—24c., 5c., 8c., 10c., and on to fine Silk for those of fancy turn. All sizes, styles and colors. Hose and Half Hose for you—24c. pair, 5c., 7c., 10c., 12c. We can please you sure. Wear our Linen Collars—8c. each, Celluloid Collars at 5c.

Are you half shod? See what we can do for your feet. 10c. to 25c. per pair saved on Shoes is as well for you as anybody. Do you want this money? If so it is yours.

Let us sell you a Tea Set or a Dinner Set, handsomely decorated.

13 piece Decorated Table Set $1.00.
14 piece Decorated Table Set $2.90.
58 piece Decorated Table Set $4.75.
100 piece Decorated Table Set $7.50.

And finer still at $3.50 to $10.00. See our genuine fine Imported China. We have Lamps at 10c. to $5.00 each, and feel sure that you will be pleased and benefited by giving us a look.

We shall be glad to have you trouble us at least long enough to see us and get our prices. If you don't like us, if you don't like our ways, or if you ain't got the cash and have to trade on time you can use as a lever. You can save money that way if you don't want to trade with us.

Music in the family is a good thing. It brightens the smiles of the happy and lessens the grief of the troubled heart. We can help you out from a Jew's Harp to a Guitar, Violin or Banjo with an Accordion thrown in. If you want the best String and Bows at the lowest price see ours.

We have just taken the agency for the wonderful Sousa Band Harp, the best Harmonica ever sold for 25c. Will sell a few at 20c. to get them started. This is a Harp made with sense. Try one of these and get music without blowing yourself to death.

Now, don't wait until it is too late, and then say we never had all these good things. Remember, a quick shot only gets the bird on the wing.
