Some interested parties want the campaign this year to be a very quiet ed. one, and advocate that the State canyass be limited to speaking at but one or two points in each Congressional District. We believe the suggestion a good one.

If a determination fixed by reverence for American traditions and a desire to maintain American supremacy on American soil constitute treason and jingoism, then let either our national lexicon be revised or revise the biographics of such jingoes and traitors as James Monroe and Abraham Lincoln. The most pucrile argument, however, which we have himself which is that a rejection of the treaty would constitute a rebuke to the administration and necessitate the retirement of Secretary Hay from the aimed at the welfar - of this country, nor can the retirenant of Secretary ministration from that odium. The

THE INTELLIGENCER rejoices to learn that the rumored sale of Hoke Smith's controlling interest in the Atlanta Journal to a Boston syndicate has not been consummated. Under the Smith policy the Journal has become one of the most independent and representative papers in the South, and we should very much deplore a change in the Journal's management.

and Banner office. He commenced in the humble capacity of "devil" and now owns the plant and ably fills the editorial chair. We extend our congratulations to Bro. Wilson, and wish him many more years of usefulness and happiness as a journalist.

Senator Tillman's recent severe arraignment of the country weeklies for lack of tact in making up their columns will not be relished by some of our esteemed contemporaries who have hitherto claimed for that honored worthy a monopoly of all kinds of judgment, taste, tact, and infallibility as a critic. Surely the Senator must be correct this time, too.

A peculiarly happy figure was that employed by the honored Senator Pettus, of Alabama, in his brilliant satire last Friday directed against the Republican majority in general and Senator Beveridge in particular. Senator Beveridge had the day previous delivered his long advertised but much delayed speech in favor of Porto Rican free trade to crowded galleries and ably sustained his reputation as a spellbinder. He pleaded eloquently for fish for the Porto Rican, but evinced a will.ngness to accept a serpent for the Filipinos. In speaking of Beveridge's effort, Senator Pettus declared that "a genuine orator is absolutely absolved from all rules of logic or common sense." Continuing he said:

absolved from all rules of logic or com-mon sense." Continuing he said: Mr. President, the Master once had to select a man to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt and through the wilderness of Caanan. He did not se-lect an orator. No, He selected one of these men from lowa or Maine, and his name was Moses. And he was a stuttering man, too. But Moses told his Master to His face that he could not do it, because he could not speak to the people. And what was the re-ply? "There is Aaron; he speakswell," and they took Aaron along, not in com-mand—that was not allowed; but they took him along as a kind of deputy. And when Moses, on his Master's or-der, went up into the mountain for the tablets, the orator left in charge had a golden calf framed, and he put all the people down to worshipping the gold-en calf. More people worship the gold-en calf now than they did in those days. But while Aaron and his peo-ple were all down worshipping the golden calf the man of God appeared and he pulled out his sword and de-manded to know who was on the Lord's side, and the orator jumped to of Moses' side and went to killing the stalities along with Moses. All these orators will do the same thing. The last one of them. We saw an instance of it yesterday afternoor.
