The heavy rains which have fallen in this section almost daily for the past ten days have done much damage. An exchange says there is hardly a married man, excepting editors, who does not habitually carry in his pockets the picture of an attractive young lady who is not his wife. We violate no confidence when we say her name is Miss Anna Widens Williams, of Philadelphia, and that picture ornaments the silver dollar which all of us use—when we have it.

The latest manufacturing enterprise for Anderson is a fertilizer factory, with a capital stock of $100,000. Several of our progressive citizens have been considering the matter for some time, and last Wednesday it was determined to inaugurate the enterprise at once. A brief canvass resulted in securing subscriptions to the amount of $40,000, and it was very evident that there would be no trouble in securing all the capital needed for the plant. A petition has been forwarded to the Secretary of State for a commission to organize the Company. The incorporators are F. G. Brown, J. J. Fretwell, B. Frank Mauldin, W. G. Watson, J. M. Sullivan, J. H. Masters, M. A. Dean, John Eskew, D. A. Ledbetter, P. B. Allen and W. F. Cox. Let the good work go on.

Mr. John I. McGee, a popular and influential citizen of Greenville County, died at his home at Fountain Inn last Wednesday night of paralysis, aged 50 years. He was a brother of Mr. W. P. McGee, who died near Donaldsville on the 16th inst. His wife and four children survive him. He has many friends and relatives in Anderson County who deeply regret his death.

Mrs. Mattie Ramage, the beloved wife of Mr. Dorsey Ramage, died at their home, near Fair Play, on Saturday, 16th instant, after a brief illness, aged about thirty years. Great preparations are being made at Piedmont for the fourth of July. The Piedmont people are expecting a large crowd, and they are preparing to give them all the accommodations and entertainment possible. One of the features of the day will be a barbecued dinner put in proper shape by an expert at the business. There will be a game of ball in the morning and afternoon between the Piedmont-Greenville team and the Anderson team. In the afternoon there will be bicycle, sack, potato, wheelbarrow races, climbing the greasy pole, etc., followed in the early evening by a display of fireworks.

The Warrenton correspondent of the Abbeville Medium says: "Last Monday in response to a letter from one of the patrons Prof. R. B. Cheatham went up to Belton and made such a good impression on the people there that he was at once elected Principal of the Belton High School for the next session. The School is a large one, pays a good salary and employs two assistant teachers. Prof. Cheatham is to be congratulated upon being employed by people who appreciate the fact that he is one of the best teachers in Abbeville and will build up their school with the growth of the town. Willington's loss is certainly a big gain for Belton."

Last Friday night Mr. C. H. E. Ortman's horse escaped from the stable in the rear of his bakery, and next morning was found dead at the Blue Ridge Railroad yard, with a long, terrible gash in its bowels, which no doubt caused its death. Mr. Ortman has been informed that the horse was seen on North Main street, near the railroad bridge, between 10 and 11 o'clock that night, and that a buggy, occupied by two men, came down the street at fast speed and ran into the horse, the end of the shaft entering its bowels and cutting the long gash. The horse could be traced from Main street to where it was found by the blood dripping from its wound along the route it traveled. It is not known who the persons are that occupied the buggy.

Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Royal, who have been serving as Missionaries in China for the past five years from the Southern Baptist Convention, have returned to the United States on a short vacation to visit their old homes and relatives. Mrs. Royal, who was Miss Mary Sullivan, of this city, was sent as a missionary to China, where she met and married Mr. Royal, who had preceded her to that heathen land a short while. Mr. and Mrs. Royal arrived in Anderson a few days ago and were warmly welcomed by the latter's many friends. On Sunday night Mr. Royal delivered a most interesting address in the First Baptist Church on his work and experience in China. They left China last March, when everything was comparatively peaceful there.

A most distressing accident occurred near Dean last Monday morning by which Mr. Wad. A. Dean, a son of Mr. R. B. Dean, and a brother of Mr. Major A. Dean, of this city, was dangerously shot in the left hip, the ball ranging upward and lodging under the skin near the right nipple. The course of the ball, which was a .38 calibre, showed that the intestines were uninjured though it came into contact with some of the larger bones and grave fears are entertained that the liver and right lung were penetrated. There seems to be no certainty as to how the unfortunate accident occurred, the most plausible theory being that the pistol was discharged in his pocket while he was asleep on a workbench in the yard. At last reports he was resting very quietly, though his friends are quite apprehensive as to the result. He is a popular and energetic young farmer who numbers his friends by the score, and they await anxiously the coveted news of his ultimate recovery.
