questions before his countrymen.

An effort which is likely to incet grate to this country. These people will most naturally select the latitude of Texas as one most nearly corresponding to that of the land which they leave.

W. W. Ball, of Laurens, one of the brightest newspaper men in the State, has decided to go back into journalism and has accepted the position of city editor of the Jacksonville (Fla.) Times Union. Mr. Ball is well equipped for this work, and will no doubt take the front rank in Florida journalism.

After a suspension of two weeks the Oconce News has again made its appearance at Seneca. Mr. E. C. Verner announces his retirement from the editorial chair and is succeeded by Mr D. A. Smith, Jr., of Walhalla. Weextend Mr. Smith the right hand of fellowship and wish him much success.

Here's another instance of McKinley prosperity. The antracite coal miners of Pennsylvania, about 145,000 in number, were ordered to go on a strike last week. Their wages are not large enough to meet the increased cost of living, and their only hope of bettering their conditions is in quitting work until the coal barons right wrongs and increase pay. And labor's chance to win is not gilt edged.

There is considerable difference of opinion just now as to the future price of cotton. Some seem to think it has reached its highest mark for this season, while others argue that on account of the short crop, Texas storm and for other reasons it will go higher or remain firm. It is beyond question that the farmers are masters of the situation, and we believe they are wise enough to look out as te how they sell. Whether it will advance or not is hard to tell, but from present indications we hardly see how it can go below the present price.

In the general election in November there are two constitutional amendments to be voted upon by the people. Both are most important ones. The first is to insert a clause in the constitution that will permit Columbia, Charleston, Rock Hill and Georgetown to issue additional bonds with which to obtain sewerage, etc. The other relates to the drainage and reclaiming of swamp lands in the State. Both these measures have received the necessary two-third vote in the General Assembly. If the people approve them they must then receive the same vote in the General Assembly before they can become of effect.

The municipalities of this country owe it to themselves and the happiness of the thrifty, law-abiding classes of their respective communities to enforce the vagrant law against all who are found idling about without good and lawful reasons for so doing or substantial funds to anwer for their useless leisure. From this vagrant list comes nearly all the petty thieving and other lawless acts that fill the court calendars and add expense to the accounts of city and county that must be met by the taxpayers. Just here we would say that there are more idle, useless negroes roaming around in this country than there are of any other poor race of people on the face of the earth. This state of affairs is unjust to the working, law-abiding class of colored people who are compelled to be judged in many instances along with the worthless idlers who have brought, and are constantly bringing, reproach upon their race, for they have told us so, and will hail with pleasure any movement that will stop the loitering

The talk in some of the newspapers of the State about doing away with the Democratic primary elections is sheer nonsense. Anderson County, we know, would never favor such action. If fraud and sharp tricks are practiced in some counties, let the guilty parties be arrested and punished to the full extent of the law. Each County Executive Committee should see that only upright, honest men are appointed managers of the election. Anderson County pursues such a course, and as a consequence there has never been even a suspicion of fraud or sharp tricks in any of our primaries. In this connection we would say that we believe the State campaign meetings should be omitted. One meeting in each Congressional District would be sufficient. Under the present arrangement a poor man cannot be a candidate for a State office, for the reason that a tour of the entire State is too expensive. And then the meetings do no good. They tend only to stir up strife and bitter feeling, and the majority of the candidates use no legitimate arguments in their speeches, but resort to personal abuse of each other.

The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the South Carolina State Press Association was held at Harris Lithia Springs last week, and it was one of the most interesting and profitable meetings we have ever attended.
From the opening to the close there was not a dull moment in its proceedings. An interesting programme had been arranged for the occasion, and nearly all the members who had been appointed to prepare and read papers on the subjects assigned them came well prepared to perform their duty.
The subjects, of course, were only of interest to the ioguralists and ciation was held at Harris Lithia well prepared to perform their duty. The one thing about the Galveston horror is the fact that at no time has it been exaggerated. The dead have outnumbered even the most extravagant estimates.

Mr. Bryan's letter of acceptance is clear, concise, able, manly and contageous, and, like all papers eminating ones, and, like all papers eminating ones.

Well prepared to perform their duty. The subjects, of course, were only of interest.

The sessions continued through sion Col. T. B. Crews, the venerable with success is being made to get 10,- editor of the Lauren-ville. Herald and one of the charter numbers of the Association, in behalf of our genial hest Mr. J. T. Harris, and the good people of Lamens County, delivered a most cordial address of welcome to the journalists, which was responded to in eloquent terms by Editor Stoppelbein, of the Spartanburg Headlight, and Editor Ayer, of the Florence Times, in behalf of the Association. On Thursday night the members of the Association and many of the guests of the hotel gathered around the banquet table and partook of the many good things spread before them. Several toasts were proposed and responded to, toasts were proposed and responded to, and the banquet was followed by a ball at the Auditorium. The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President, E. H. Aull; Vice Presidents, J. L. Stoppelbein, Spartanburg, and J. L. Sims, Orangeburg; Chaplain, Rev. W. P. Jacobs, D. American Exposition.

A general feeling of gloom and of deep sympathy for the stricken family pervaded our community on Friday afternoon when the news spread that Hampton L. Hawkins had accidentally shot himself and was beyond all hope of recovery. Mr. Hawkins was preparing to ride out into the country, in the Erushy Creek section of Anderson County, where he had been teaching school. On his way he stopped at the residence of his cousin, Broadus Watson, on Green avenue, who was to accompany him on the drive out. After reaching the house he had gone to his cousin's room and while standing before the bureau had taken a small pistol out of his pocket and started to lay it upon the bureau, which had a marble top, with a set of drawers on one side raised above the marble. It is supposed that he failed to put it down securely when the pistol slipped off and fell against the marble, causing a discharge, and the ball entered his body near the groin. Drs. Furman and Ware promptly attended the unfortunate young man, but from the very first examination entertained little hope of his recovery. Various attempts were made, but without success, to locate the ball which is supposed to have ranged upward and lodged in a lung.

Immediately after being shot Mr. of recovery. Mr. Hawkins was preparing to ride out into the country, in Immediately after being shot Mr. Hawkins expressed his conviction that the wound would be fatal and after passing through Saturday u.ged the physicians to let him know the worst. On Sunday morning they told him that his minutes upon earth were numbered, and the calmness with which this information was received and with which he addressed his relatives about him was a full and comforting assurance that his confidence in the supporting presence of the Lord was firm and unshaken to the last. After bidding his loved ones farewell he passed away at about 10:30 o'clock on Sunday morning.

Hampton Hawkins was about twentyfour years of age, and was the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hawkins, who live on Rhett street.—Greenville Mountaineer, 19th inst.

Neva Items.

Since the rain the weather has moderated and is much cooler to the cotton pickers. Cotton is about half open, and that is precious little, but then as we are receiving a good price for it, it isn't so bad after all.

Mr. Editor, we believe it perfectly right, when a man gets the contract for performing a piece of work for the County, that he be allowed to do the work, but such is not the case. A gentleman living in this community recently got the job of working out a piece of road, and after working out a part of the road, he was ordered to

By Jingoes! We've got too many SHOES. Of course we bought them, and we knew we could sell them, and we are powerful glad we've got them, for there's a red-hot bargain in every one of them; but we didn't buy them to wear ourselves, but for our own dearly beloved customers to wear. Now we are here to tell them that by the grace of a right round dollar they can become the proud presessor of the best Shoe this market ever absorbed at that princely figure. We have only a limited number at this price, but we have unexplored oceans of others at prices just as fascinating. We must have room to display these new Shoes, so the old ones we are just giving away.

Now we tried our best to rent about half an acre in front of our Store, where we had our customers' wagons, on which to stack the-
