WEDNESDAY, OCT. 10, 1900

At the State Republican Convention in Columbia last week, the white Republicans were relegated to the rear and the negroes took hold of the reins.

Look up your registration certificate and have it ready for use in the coming general election. It is the duty of every Democrat to vote, whether there is any opposition to the candidates of the party or not.

The Philadelphia Times, which was a strong supporter of McKinley four years ago, has come out for Bryan, saying in the course of a scathing editorial that the evils present four years ago have returned sevenfold.

Atlanta's famous Mayor, James G. Woodward, who has created so much notoriety by getting on his henders, will go out of office on January 1st and will be succeeded by Maj. Livingston Mims, who was elected to that office last Friday.

Apparently husbands come high in Philadelphia. It has been decided by a jury in that town that a husband's affections are worth $25,000 to his wife, that sum having been awarded to the woman plaintiff in a damage suit for alienation.

Charles B. Stuever, of St. Louis, is the latest millionaire to distribute his fortune during his lifetime. He has a horror of family quarrels over wills and has divided his money chiefly among his children. Mr. Stuever is a sensible man.

The Georgia State election took place last Wednesday, and the Democrats were successful by about 80,000 majority. The Populists had a full State ticket in the field, but their vote was only about one-half of what it was two years ago.

Every soldier who returns from the Philippines, that is every live one, has the same story to tell about the prospects of the war, and it is one which contrasts strikingly with the oft-repeated official statement that the fighting is about over.

It looks like Gen. Joe Wheeler was right when he said the best way to get rid of Aguinaldo and his followers would be to mount our soldiers on Texas ponies or broncos and scour every island in the Philippines. It seems that the grand old warrior's idea will have to be carried into effect.

Not only will 90 per cent. of the men who were gold Democrats four years ago vote for Bryan this year, but at least 10 per cent. of the Republicans who voted for McKinley in '96 will do the same. These are the predictions of conservative men. If they are realized, Col. Bryan is bound to be our next President.

Elliott Danforth, a leading Democrat of New York, says he was never in a campaign where so much interest and where the Democrats had issues that so appealed to the people. This condition of affairs in the Empire State will cause a draft on Mark Hanna's corruption fund that he will not have much left for investment in doubtful States West.

That was a sad and deplorable catastrophe which happened near Orangeburg last week, caused by a reckless and drunken negro driving into the back of Mr. J. H. W. Hydrick's buggy and throwing him and his wife out, and which caused the death of Mr. Hydrick. The result would have been a lynching, but the negro was promptly taken to the Penitentiary for safe keeping.

A great many of the Republican speakers and newspapers are making a great deal of bluster over the prosperity that they claim is now pervading this country. But it doesn't pervade. It will be difficult to persuade operatives where cotton mills are shut down or the 150,000 coal miners who are out of work, and the many other branches of the unemployed that this country is enjoying unusual prosperity. The trusts and the few, for the benefit of whom the many are ground down, are seeing prosperity no doubt, but the masses of the people do not see it.

Favorable news has reached Washington from the European chancelleries indicating that a complete agreement as to China is within sight and that, too, on the basis of the proposition laid down by Secretary Hay in his note of July 6, and the subsequent notes treating of that subject. The accord of Russia with the United States is more complete than was anticipated at first, and the reports show that all of the European nations probably are placing themselves in position to take advantage of the opening made by the United States and soon will be ready to begin negotiations for a settlement with the Chinese government.

The State Fair will be held in Columbia this year from October 29th to November 2nd, inclusive. These annual gatherings give the people of the different sections of the State an occasion for coming together and renewing and making acquaintances. The social feature of the Fair is therefore one of its best features. The encouragement and help to agriculture is also worth a great deal. The Piedmont country should prepare to show some of its products and thus advertise the advantages of this providence-favored section. And it is hoped that this section will also have, as usual, the finest aggregation of visitors of the entire State.

Wild Hog Items.

Rev. J. A. Burgess preached an excellent sermon to a large congregation at Zion last Sunday evening. Several of our young people attended preaching at Welcome last Sunday. There will be an all day singing at Mt. Zion next four Sunday. Mr. W. Pritchard has been quite sick with a cold. There is some talk of a graded school being established here. One of our young men received a kick from a girl not many Sunday's ago. He said he would not take $5 for it. JACK FROST.

Mt. Zion Items.

Mrs. Flora D. Pickett, from Seneca, is visiting friends and relatives near here. Mrs. M. M. McElroy is very sick with bilious fever. The Barton base ball team will play a match game with the Wild Hog team next Saturday afternoon. Mr. Dave Richey has gone to Georgia on a business trip. The farmers are preparing to sow a great deal of grain in this section. Mr. Jacob M. Smith is running Mr. F. C. Brown's ginney at Rivoli. The muscadine crop is good in this section. Rev. J. A. Burgess will preach at Zion next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. W. Jenkins, an old and respectable negro, died last Monday near here. Miss Neva Bellotte, of Greenville, is visiting Mrs. Ellen Milam and family. Mr. DeWitt George spent last Saturday and Sunday near Midway. DE SOTO.

Denver News.

The patrons and trustees of Oak Grove, McElroy, Sandy Springs and Denver schools have resolved to combine them into one and have a High School located at a central point from the four. They intend erecting an early date a suitable building, and will want for another year experienced and capable teachers. The school will have, it is thought, at least one hundred pupils and will pay a good salary.

Cadets Walter McWhorter and Will Garrison came home from Clemson Friday to stay until Monday. Cadet Hughes, a friend of Mr. Garrison's, came with them. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Browne, of Fairdeal, visited relatives in Denver Saturday.

Cadet Clarence Major was the guest of Mr. J. W. Major's family Saturday and Sunday. Miss Mattie Eskow spent last week with relatives in Pendleton. She returned Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Walter Eskow.

Miss Hattie McWhorter is at home again after a visit of several weeks in Belton. Rev. G. H. Waddell, Supt. of the Epworth Orphanage, Columbia, was at Sandy Springs Sunday afternoon. His talk in the interest of that institution was intensely interesting, and moved the congregation to a liberal contribution towards its support. No one can give to a better cause than the support of these orphan children.

Rev. Mike McGee administered the ordinance of baptism by immersion Sunday morning to the candidates for membership in Welcome Church, after which he preached an excellent sermon to an attentive audience. The cloudy weather and rains of the past week have retarded the opening and picking of cotton to some extent. But the crop is short and a few weeks of good weather will see it all out. Farmers are very wisely preparing to sow largely of small grain. The chickens are happy, as 'possum and potatoes are now on the bill of fare. Many who are not dark do not disdain to partake of these dainties. INCOGNITA.

Belton Items.

Mrs. J. L. Vass and her son, Leland, are at home again, after a two months stay in Virginia. Miss Mattie Brown and Mrs. A. C. Latimer have returned from Wilmington, N. C. Misses Mollie Geer and Rena Rice have returned from Easley. The youngest daughter of Mr. Charlie Kay is quite ill of diphtheria. JACQUELINE.
