Conducted by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Anderson, S. C.

Andersonians are rightly proud of Anderson. There is a progressive-ness, an up-to-dateness here not found in many towns.

There are many organizations among the women of this place. Church societies, literary societies, patriotic clubs, etc. But there is one, by some considered the best, but we are bold enough to affirm above all others this organization should claim the attention.

Our Court House is a monument to the enterprise of our County. Our City Hall to the enterprise of our town.

Now let us rally to the temperance cause. Women of Anderson united we can erect a monument to this great cause that will reach to heaven above.

Under our immediate observation note the number of lives being wrecked by this demon, drink, the non-guiltily hearts that are breaking.

We have heard of some who do not join the temperance workers because they fear they will thus publish abroad the frailty of some male relative near and dear.

Many give excuses why they don't join with the W. C. T. U. workers. What does this argue? They have felt the lash of conscience, they have heard that small voice within, and beware when you heed not its meaning.

On several occasions waiting in front of our magnificent Graded School and with great interest watching the boys and girls coming out, this thought has come to me: there are the Anderson men and women of future years, and as they playfully pass each other we are reminded how in a more serious manner they will jostle one another in time to come.

Mr. Robertson's house, which is a very strong log structure, was in the middle of the path of the storm and was laid flat on the ground. The loss of these two buildings is placed at $7,000.

Great suffering is being experienced by those deprived of homes at Lavergne and Nolensville.

The rise in the Cumberland River at Nashville is the most rapid known in twenty-five years, the water having climbed twenty feet on the gauge since yesterday morning.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

There are 141 theological schools in the United States, 52 law schools, 92 regular medical schools, 9 electric medical schools and 14 homeopathic.

The storm entered the State from Northern Mississippi and swept across in a northwesterly direction. Great damage is reported from the counties bordering on Mississippi, and further on, Columbia, in Mauree County, is the heaviest sufferer.

Columbia's casualties number twenty-five dead and fifty injured.

The path of the storm is about fifty yards wide and was through the northwestern suburbs of the town. In its path everything is completely wrecked.

The houses of Capt. Aydelot, the Farrells and other large residences were demolished.

With the exception of these four houses the storm's path was through a section of the town populated chiefly by negroes and the poorer classes, and the houses were mere hovels.

The suffering of the people, rendered homeless and bereft of all their goods, is pitiable.

The number of houses destroyed in the Nolensville neighborhood is sixteen. There were two deaths.

All of the sixteen houses were totally destroyed.

Mr. Hampton had $400 in money and this was blown away and only a part recovered.

The baby of Jim Christman, colored, reported lost, was found 300 yards from the house at 10 o'clock lying near a branch uninjured.

At Lavergne, sixteen miles south of here, on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Road, the velocity of the wind was marvellous and, from the best reports, lasted only about twenty seconds.

Mrs. Robertson's escape was marvellous. When found Mr. Robertson was pinned across the back by a large timber and a great scar was on the back of his neck.

In almost every home there were several injured.

In Williamson County great damage was done, but the town of Franklin escaped with comparatively small loss.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of Deed of Trust executed to me by Jas. W. Crawford, dated January 20, 1900, and recorded in the Clerk's office for Anderson County, in Book "T" page 587, I will sell the highest bidder before the Court House door at Anderson, S. C., on Saturday in December next, (Monday, December 3, 1900), at the usual hour of public sales, the following described Tract of Land, to wit:

Executors' Sale.

BY virtue of the power invested in us by a Will made by J. S. Acker, we will offer for sale to the highest bidder at Anderson Court House, on Saturday in December next, all the Real Estate belonging to said J. S. Acker, containing 114 acres, divided as follows:

There was a fagot party in Georgetown one evening not long ago. Of course, you know what a fagot party is—a party where every guest is expected to contribute to the evening's entertainment a song or a recitation or an anecdote or something equally diverting.

This is the story she told, and she said the man in it was an uncle of hers in Utica, N. Y. He has a wife of the ultra good housekeeper sort, and one evening she sent him down to the cellar with a pitcher to draw some cider.

"Did you break the pitcher, George?" she asked anxiously.

"No; drat the blamed thing!" he howled. "I didn't break it; but, by jinks, I will."

And forthwith he smashed the treasured pitcher to smithereens on the cement floor.—Washington Post.

Valuable Farm and Wooded Land for Sale.

BY virtue of the authority vested in me as the Executor of the Estate of Dr. P. A. White, deceased, I will sell at public outcry in front of the Court House on Saturday in December, 1900, at Anderson, S. C., during the usual hours of sale, unless sold sooner by private sale, the following described Land, situated in Centerville Township, and about 5 1/2 miles from the City of Anderson:

TRACT NO. 1, containing one hundred and forty-five (70) acres, more or less, adjoining lands of John L. Jolly, W. T. McGill and others, more fully described by Deed executed by W. W. Humphreys, from Master of Anderson County, recorded in office of Clerk of Court, Book ZZ, pages 53 and 54, together with plat recorded, Book WW, page 47.

TRACT NO. 2, contains one hundred and thirty-three acres, more or less, adjoining Tract No. 1, bounded by lands of S. J. Watson, Mrs. Martha Watson and others, Deed from A. A. Dickson and M. C. Smith, and more fully described by Deed and plat recorded in Clerk's office, Book KK, pages 627, 628 and 629.

The great portion of this Land is in original forest of oak, hickory, pine, etc. Some of the Land now in cultivation is fresh Land, having been cleared of timber a few years ago. Both of the above Tracts are well watered and considered part of the best wooded land in the County.

Terms of Sale—One-third cash, balance on a credit of one and two years, with interest from day of sale, secured by mortgage of the premises and bond of purchaser, with privilege to anticipate payment. Purchaser to pay extra for all papers and stamps.

For further particulars and plats call at White's Drug Store.

Move Right Along and Keep in the Middle of the Road.

Atlanta Constitution.

Let us move right straight along and keep in the middle of the road. All is not lost save honor, nor will the North dare to cut down our representation in Congress—such a move would alienate their new Southern converts, for Southern Republicans are at heart all lilywhites and have no use for the negro in politics.

with the condition that on examination of the other volumes I might accept or reject. In due time they came, and I took up the ninth volume that contained the history of our Civil War.

Sometimes when I ruminate about all their slanders and lies and braggadocio I get sad and then mad and discouraged for fear they will drive us into another war and we will have to whip 'em again.

What we want at the South is to preserve our good name, our historic honor and our traditions. A section that has produced Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Polk, as presidents, Clay and Calhoun and Lee and Stonewall Jackson and President Davis must hold up her proud head and vindicate her honor.
