Dots from Denver.

The 21st January and no severe cold weather nor blizzards yet in our favored Sunny Southland.

Farmers are very anxious to get to sowing spring oats, but the ground is still too wet from the heavy rains which have fallen recently.

The man, Jim Clarke, who was so badly wounded in the row with Lev Davis and his son Baily on the 13th near here, is thought stands a chance to recover.

Wilson Reeves, son of Mr. Robert Reeves, has been quite sick with pneumonia but is now convalescent.

Mrs. Lottie McClelland, who has been in bad health for several months, has been very much worse recently.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Bowen and son, Mr. Dave Bowen, of Bowman, Ga., have been visiting relatives near Denver recently.

Miss Lily Garrison has just returned from a pleasant visit of several days to her sister, Mrs. Annie Eskew, near Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Garrison and little granddaughter, Carrie, visited relatives in Waltham and Seneca last week.

Mr. Sylvester Elrod, the "Nimrod" of our section, while visiting relatives in the Asbury community last week, went squirrel hunting and returned home laden with game.

Dr. John G. Duckworth will leave this week for New York to take a post graduate course and will be gone several months.

Rev. R. E. Stackhouse preached a fine sermon last Sunday at Sandy Springs to a large and attentive audience.

Rev. W. H. Bailey and Mrs. Bailey, with their little son, Master Caroline, spent a few days Christmas with relatives in Pelzer.

Mrs. R. A. Buchanan and sister, Miss Lella, with their friend Miss Patterson, of Aulam, S. C., attended the dance given by Mr. Dobbins at his residence Saturday night.

Prof. J. L. Sanders, who is teaching the Zion school, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Miss Maggie Tribble has charge of the school at New Prospect and comes highly recommended as a good teacher.

Mr. Tom Bolt will resume his studies in the high school at Lavonia, Ga.

The young folks of this community enjoyed a box party given at r. T. Y. Dalrymple last Wednesday night.

Messrs. Anderson and Jefferson Cromer left for Sherman, Tex., last Saturday, where they expect to make their future home.

Miss Mattie Eskew is among her many friends here.

Messrs. Neal and Dillard, of Clemson, called on some of our fair girls recently.

Mr. D. P. Tate, who has been nursing Mr. Cobb at Belton, is expected home soon.

The bright pupils of Prospect school are advancing rapidly under the direction of Miss Tribble.

Lowndesville Paragraphs.

Miss Jessie Thompson, of Anderson County, is visiting the Misses Bowman near town.

Miss Annie-Lizzie Carter, of Hartwell, Ga., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Lella B. McCalla, at her home in the "Fork."

Miss May Shumate, of Anderson, is at the Methodist parsonage, visiting Rev. and Mrs. Daniels.

The Masquerade party given by the young men of the town was a decided success. About one hundred guests were present and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Our townsmen, G. W. Speer, Esq., is located at Gaffney for the practice of his profession, the law.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meschine will give a party to-morrow (Tuesday) night, at their country home, "The Hermitage," about six miles from town.

Dr. A. B. Matthews, of Elberton, is visiting Dr. J. B. Moseley.

Belton Items.

Some men measure the year just past by the good they have done; some by the money they have made.

Dr. Cox and Dr. Hainey are in Baltimore and New York respectively taking post-graduate courses in medicine and surgery.

Mr. J. D. Lokey's son, Gemelle, while playing at the school building last week, had the small bone of his leg broken just above the ankle.

The election for warden in Ward No. 4 will be held next Monday, Jan. 28th, at the usual hours and place.

Last week during the night some party or parties in order to give vent to their hostilities, broke nearly all the street lamps of the town and cut down the tent of a traveling artist.

During the past week two important events occurred in our town. Miss Inez Campbell and Mr. Walter E. Greer were married at the Baptist Church.

Rev. W. T. Tate preached a strong sermon Sunday on "Religion at Home." His advice was timely and wise.

The dramatic club will give a very attractive play at the Academy Friday night, Jan. 25th.

New Hope Items.

Dr. W. H. Pepper, with his lovely bride, has moved into our midst. We extend to them a hearty welcome.

Rev. Mr. Robertson preached his first sermon at this place last Sunday afternoon, and made a most favorable impression upon his people.

Mr. R. A. Buchanan and sister, Miss Lella, with their friend Miss Patterson, of Aulam, S. C., attended the dance given by Mr. Dobbins at his residence Saturday night.

Prof. J. L. Sanders, who is teaching the Zion school, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Miss Maggie Tribble has charge of the school at New Prospect and comes highly recommended as a good teacher.

Mr. Tom Bolt will resume his studies in the high school at Lavonia, Ga.

The young people have had a number of pleasant social gatherings this winter.

Mr. Tom Bolt has returned to Lavonia, Ga., to attend school.

Several of our young people are attending boarding schools and colleges: True Dean, Belton; Tom and Clarence Bolt, Lavonia; Lee Sanders, Vanderbilt; and the Misses Brown, Rock Hill.

Miss Cobb, of Belton, has been visiting Miss Evie Smith. Messes Smith and Hall visited Miss Cobb on her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eskew visited relatives at Deaver Sunday.

Messrs. Neal and Dillard, of Clemson, called on some of our fair girls recently.

The bright pupils of Prospect school are advancing rapidly under the direction of Miss Tribble.

We look forward with pleasure to the establishment of the daily Rural delivery.

Alice Items.

Moving and changing around is the order of the day.

J. B. Leveret, Jr., of Moscow, and Mr. Watts, of Corine, worshipped at Rocky River Church last Sunday.

A number of negroes have died in this section within the last two months.

A Tribute to A. Beaty Sherarr.

A gloom was cast over our community when the announcement was made that Beaty Sherard was dead.

During last summer he contracted consumption, and, despite the skill of attending physicians and the constant ministrations of loving hands, the dread disease worked its way, daily consuming, until Saturday, the 12th inst., when he peacefully breathed his last.

Beaty Sherard was the son of D. J. Sherard, and at his death was in his 29th year. He obtained his academic training in the Moffattville High School, and from there he went to Erskine College for one or two sessions, and then to the South Carolina College, graduating from the last named institution in the summer of 1898.

He practically worked his own way through College. He began the practice of law in Columbia, first being associated with Col. J. T. Sloan, then afterwards opening up an office to himself. Though permitted to practice his chosen profession only for a short while, still he gave promise of taking a very high stand among the lawyers of the State.

As a man he was the soul of honor, full of energy, genial in disposition, lovable in character, kind hearted and sympathetic. His manner was such as to make friends, wherever he would go.

He early gave his heart to the Savior, uniting first with the A. R. P. Church, at Due West, when a student at Erskine College, then when leaving there he transferred his membership to Good Hope, where in infancy he had been baptized, and in which he had been brought up.

In Church, as in all of his other duties, he was faithful and consistent to the very last. During his long and trying illness, he never murmured, or complained, but bore his sufferings with patient resignation, committing himself, as he said to his pastor, into the hands of the Savior.

While fully realizing his critical condition he was remarkably hopeful to the last. Dying on Saturday at the home of his childhood, he was laid to rest on the following day, the Sabbath, in the cemetery at Good Hope Church in the presence of a large concourse of friends, the funeral services being conducted by his pastor, assisted by Rev. J. V. Black.

"There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore— And bright in Heaven's jewelled crown They shine forevermore."

Good Hope, Jan. 16th, 1901.

This State's Monument.

A special meeting of the Chickamauga monument commission has been called to be held on Friday afternoon next in the office of Gov. McSweeney at 5 o'clock.

This meeting has been called for the purpose of taking preliminary steps toward the unveiling of the South Carolina monument on the battlefield in May. It was at first thought that this event would not take place until July, but now that the date for the Confederate reunion at Memphis has been changed to May the unveiling will also take place in May in order that veterans from this State bound for Memphis may stop off at Chattanooga and participate in the ceremonies. It is especially desired that there be a large gathering of South Carolinians on the famous battlefield. Every effort will be made to provide a most fitting programme.—The State, Jan. 21.

To the Colored Teachers of Anderson County.

The Colored Teachers' Association is called to meet Saturday, Feb. 2nd, at 11 o'clock, in the Greely Institute, Anderson, S. C. All of the teachers are earnestly requested to attend.
