

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 30, 1901.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Corrected Weekly by Brown, Osborne & Co. Strict Good Middling—94. Good Middling—94. Middling—94. Stained Cotton—8 to 9.

Next Monday is Salesday, Mrs. S. R. Marshall, of Greenville, is in the city visiting relatives.

Rebecca C. Calhoun has been appointed postmistress at Clemson College.

Eggs, chickens and other country produce are in demand in the city at good prices.

Miss Annie Harbin, of Seneca, has been spending a few days in Anderson visiting friends.

You have only three more weeks in which to make your tax return to the County Auditor.

Anderson is being visited every week by men who are prospecting with a view of locating here.

Farmers are blue over the weather. Every time the ground gets dry enough to plow, there is more rain.

Geo. E. Clarke, editor of the Williamson News, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a call.

Some very fine sweet potatoes are being brought to the market. So far they have kept very well this winter.

Anderson needs and must have another hotel. Who will take the lead in organizing a stock company to build it?

Street Superintendent Jackson is doing a substantial piece of work on South Main street, opposite the City Hall.

The 25 per cent. discount sale is still on at B. O. Evans & Co., as will be seen by reading their new advertisement.

A few tardy tax payers are coming in, but not enough to pay the treasurer for the time he keeps his office open.

Mrs. J. H. Everett, of Bryson City, N. C., is in the city visiting her brother, Mr. W. H. Simpson, and other relatives.

A few bales of cotton are being brought to the city nearly every day. The price of the staple does not vary much.

The Hill-Orr Drug Co. have just received a fresh lot of garden seed, as will be seen by reading their new advertisement.

L. A. Hunicutt, of this city, has been elected keeper of the dispensary at Pendleton, and will take charge of it 1st February.

Rev. D. G. Caldwell, of Doe West, spent last Sunday in Anderson, and preached to the Central Presbyterian congregation.

There has been a great deal of moving among farm tenants this year. Some of our farmers are complaining about the scarcity of laborers.

The annual spring meeting of the South Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Society will be held in Columbia on 6th February.

Mr. W. W. Keys, of the Baptist Courier, Greenville, S. C., spent last Friday in town and was warmly greeted by his many old friends.

Hon. G. E. Prince came up from Columbia Sunday morning and spent Monday in the city, looking after some important professional business.

Our farmers are busy hauling off commercial fertilizers. Look out for 5 cents cotton next fall and don't fail to raise plenty of "hog and hominy."

The Anderson Telephone Exchange is now connected with Autan, Pendleton, Clemson College, Seneca, West Union, Walhalla and Westminster.

The Electric City Guards perfected their organization last Wednesday night and they will soon be mustered into the militia service of the State.

In their new advertisement this week Hall Bros. invite a close inspection of their stock of clothing, which they are offering at prices that will please you.

Mr. J. E. Norment, the genial traveling agent of the News and Courier, spent a day in the city last week and was a welcome visitor to our sanctuary.

R. Frank McKinney, formerly of this city, and Mrs. Alice Rampley, of Greenville, Ga., were married at the home of the bride on Wednesday, 23rd inst.

We are having very fine winter weather, but nevertheless there are a large number of cases of grip in the community and the doctor is busy these days.

Married, on Tuesday, January 22, 1901, at the residence of the bride's parents near Pendleton, by Rev. E. A. Durham, Mr. T. G. Dillard and Miss M. L. Cox.

The postoffices at Crayton, Fairdeal and Lonoke, in this County, have been discontinued. These offices will be supplied by the rural free delivery from Belton.

Dr. A. T. Montague, President of Furman University, will deliver an address at Lebanon Church, in the upper section of this County, this evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. J. B. Nelson, of Pelzer, was in town last Monday shaking hands with his friends. He imparted the sad news of the death of his wife, at her father's at Parkville. She went there with the hope of recuperating her health. She was a good Christian woman and beloved by her neighbors and friends.

The Preston Literary Society of Wofford College has selected Norman L. Prince, of this city, as one of its speakers at the junior debate at the commencement next summer.

Rev. S. J. Carledge, of Washington, Ga., has accepted the call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, and will enter upon his work here about the 1st of March.

Married, on Wednesday, January 23, 1901, at the residence of the bride's father, J. W. Bowie, by Rev. R. C. Ligon, Mr. L. C. McCarley and Miss Mattie Bowie, both of Anderson County.

Messrs. T. B. Earle, J. H. Weil and W. D. Simpson returned home last week from Georgetown, S. C., where they spent a week or more hunting and fishing. They report a most delightful trip.

The store of Mr. J. L. Parrot, near Seneca, S. C., was destroyed by an accidental fire last Sunday night. The stock of goods and building were worth about $1,500, and there was no insurance.

Last Saturday afternoon Pitts & Byrd, of this city, made an assignment to M. L. Bonham, Esq., for the benefit of their creditors. Their liabilities are about $6,000 and the assets about the same.

The new advertisement of Moore, Acker & Co. will interest you. They are receiving new goods, and are offering some of their winter goods at cost. Read their advertisement and give them a call.

The Chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy has elected the following officers to serve the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. M. Patrick; Vice-President, Mrs. J. E. Barton and Miss May Russell; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Quattlebaum.

Farmers are met at the threshold of this year's operations by high prices for mules. These prices are based on the assumption that cotton will bring ten cents next fall. Take care! Unless providence should again interfere, six cents will more likely be the figure.

W. S. Lee, Jr., formerly of this city, but now living at Columbus, Ga., was married in that city last Wednesday to Miss Mary Martin. The happy couple arrived in Anderson on Thursday and that evening a reception was given them at the home of the groom's parents.

The committee of arrangements request us to publish the following notice: "The Bible Institute will meet with Shiloh Baptist Church the second Sunday and Saturday before in February. Everybody invited to come and bring well filled baskets. The Bible reading is very interesting and beneficial."

Douglas, the shoe man, who spends more than $100,000 a year for newspaper advertising, makes this affirmation: "Any man who has an article of merit or any man who has a business in a good location who will advertise and keep on advertising is bound to more than get his money back and to become successful and wealthy."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Marshall, with Mrs. H. G. Pinekey, of Anderson, arrived in the city last Saturday and were the guests of homefolks. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Marshall. They left for their home last Monday morning and were accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Marshall and Messrs. Henry Cason who will spend a while with relatives in Anderson.—Abbeville Press and Banner.

J. H. Coker, a machinist of Pelzer, met with a fatal accident in Greenville last Monday. He was working at the Monaghan Mill and fell through an elevator shaft from the third floor to the bottom floor, killing him almost instantly. His neck was broken and the skull considerably bruised. The deceased was about 25 years of age. His remains were interred yesterday at Pelzer.

The Saluda delegation to the General Assembly will be asked by the parties interested in the Saluda-Greenwood railroad to have the act chartering the Saluda-Johnson railroad Co., amended so as to provide for an extension by way of Greenwood to Anderson, S. C. This is a very necessary step and developments of an interesting nature are expected to take shape in the near future.—Saluda Sentinel.

The marriage of Miss Esther Day of Easley to Mr. William D. Sitton of Brushy Creek, Anderson County, took place about a week ago at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Day, near Easley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Wiggins, pastor of the Methodist Church at Easley. There were present at the ceremony only a few intimate friends of the young couple.—Greenville News, 20th inst.

Mr. F. G. Brown has retired from the firm of Brown, Osborne & Co., having sold his interest to his old partners, W. R. Osborne and J. T. Pearson, who will continue the business at the old stand under the firm name of Osborne and Pearson. An announcement to this effect is published in another column to which we direct the attention of our readers. We bespeak for the new firm a continuation of the liberal patronage given the old firm.

Mr. R. E. L. Bunch, who was appointed General Passenger Agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railway system Jan. 1st, has inaugurated a service over this railway second to none, and the best ever given in the South. There are two trains daily in each direction, the "Metropolitan and Florida Limited" and the "Florida and Atlanta Fast Mail," each composed of the finest equipment made by the Pullman Co. The trains carry Pullman drawing room sleepers, observation and dining cars, and also day coaches of the finest make for which no extra fare is charged.

Mr. Fred C. Clarke died at his home in Broadway Township this morning at 3 o'clock, after a brief illness, in the 42nd year of his age. Mr. Clarke was the fourth son of the late J. B. Clarke, and was a worthy, upright young man. Besides his venerable mother, several brothers and sisters, he leaves a wife and five children, and in their sore bereavement they have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends and relatives. The funeral services will take place tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Last Saturday George Gaines, a negro tenant who lives on Mr. C. D. Watson's farm near Deans, came near meeting with a fatal accident on South Main street, opposite the Patrick Military Institute. He was coming into the city with a load of cotton, and while driving down the hill his team got frightened and started off at a rapid gait. The driver was thrown to the ground, one of the wheels ran over his head, cutting a painful gash and breaking one of his ribs. Dr. Harris dressed the wounds and the negro was sent home that afternoon.

Last Friday Mr. M. B. Richardson, of this County, received a package from his son, Ensign Louis C. Richardson, of the United States Navy. The package came from New Zealand, which country has just been visited by a war vessel on which Ensign Richardson is doing service, and contained five Samoan taps or table spreads and two floor mats. The articles were evidently made of the fiber of some sort of tree or vine, and were hand-painted in various colors. They are certainly curiosities and attracted the admiration of every person who saw them.

Last Saturday afternoon at Belton Policeman Robertson, while attempting to arrest Bernet Aiken, was stabbed in the back by Sam. Aiken, brother of Bernet. Being overpowered by the Aiken brothers, Robertson used his pistol, shooting Sam. Aiken through the right wrist and left breast. The wounds of both men, while painful, are not serious. The Aiken brothers have been arrested and lodged in the County jail. Their father, who lives in Abbeville, came to Anderson Monday and is arranging to have them released on bond, which has been fixed at $500 each.

The banquet given by the Hook and Ladder and Pioneer Firemen at the City Hall last Thursday evening was a royal feast and a most enjoyable occasion. A number of invited guests were present to partake of the excellent menu with the firemen and every one of them was loud in his praises of the preparation and service of the feast. When everybody had indulged to their utmost capacity cigars were passed around and a number of the guests were called on for a speech. Mayor Tolly responded first and was followed in the order named by Rev. J. B. Campbell, J. D. Chapman, W. T. Capers, Gen. M. L. Bonham, Alderman Brown, Sullivan, Patrick and Kennedy and J. K. Hood, Esq., all of whom highly complimented Anderson's brave and efficient firemen.

The Washington correspondent of the News and Courier, under date of the 28th inst., says: "Representative Latimer was at the postoffice department yesterday in the interest of the various postoffices in his district. He secured from the division of allowances and salary an extra allowance of fifty dollars for rent of a suitable building for the postoffice at Anderson and one hundred dollars for a new clerk in the Belton postoffice. The former allowance commences the first day of July and the extra money for clerk hire at the Belton postoffice commences the first of February. Mr. Latimer intends to present an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill providing for free city delivery in towns of five thousand population or over, and towns whose receipts are five thousand dollars or over."

Lowndesville Items. Miss Janie McNeill, of Mt. Carmel, has been visiting friends here for about a week.

Dr. Jas. B. Moseley took a business trip to Abbeville Monday. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meschline gave a party Tuesday night at their country home, "The Hermitage," in honor of their guests, Miss Annie Hawthorne, Miss Ida Hawthorne and Miss Alice McAllister, all of Lattimer.

The Misses Bowman entertained a party of friends Monday night, 23th. Misses Carrie and Jessie Thompson, of Varennes, are visiting them.

Mr. W. L. Bowman was painfully, although not seriously, injured by a falling tree Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Moseley Hacketts will give a party to-night (Tuesday) at their home about five miles from Lowndesville. —MORNING HORTON.

Townville Items. One of our citizens lost two fine cows one night last week. Mr. Furman Boleman was in town one day last week receiving tax returns.

Our new school building has been completed, and a better house cannot be found in the County. It is situated in the southwestern portion of our town, and has a beautiful playground of two or three acres. It is the pride of all the students.

Our school is presided over by Prof. R. P. Clinkscales, who is assisted by Misses Annie Dickson and Maggie Spears. One hundred and forty scholars are enrolled.

Resolutions Adopted by the City Council.

CITY HALL, ANDERSON, S. C., January 28, 1901.

At a call meeting of City Council held this morning in council chamber, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Council request Senator J. M. Sullivan, on behalf of the Board of Trade, the Hon. J. L. Tribble on behalf of the city at large, and John K. Hood, Esq., city attorney, on behalf of City Council, to appear before the proper committee of the General Assembly of the State and advocate the passage of the bill introduced in the House by the Hon. E. M. Rucker, Jr., requiring the railroads entering this city to provide a union passenger station for the accommodation of the travelling public to and from this city.

Resolved further, That the expenses of said representatives be paid by City Council.

(Signed) G. F. TOLLY, Mayor. B. C. MAXWELL, City Clerk. Council also passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, on Jan. 2 last the City Council of Anderson did adopt a resolution requesting the Hon. A. C. Latimer to support the bill providing for an appropriation by Congress for a national exhibit at the South Carolina and West Indian Exposition, to be held at Charleston, S. C., and

Whereas a bill is now pending before the General Assembly of this State providing for a $50,000 appropriation for said exposition; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the said City Council hereby requests the Anderson County delegation in the General Assembly to support said bill.

(Signed) G. F. TOLLY, Mayor. B. C. MAXWELL, City Clerk. Anderson, S. C.

Big Creek Items.

We have a large and interesting Sunday School, the enrollment and attendance being larger than ever before. Mr. Austin Clement, the Superintendent, spares no pains in his effort to make it a model school.

Messrs. Patrick Hindman, J. C. Wilson, W. E. Poore and J. P. Black have changed their mail from Williamston to Belton to be carried by R. M. D. No. 4.

Miss Bulah Callahan, of Pelzer, visited her parents Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Smith, of Belton, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. S. A. Spearman returned home from Newberry last Friday, where she had been visiting relatives.

Mr. John L. Hindman, of Pelzer, spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Holiday, of Greenville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coker, last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. F. A. Spearman has been quite sick for several days, but is convalescing.

Mr. F. A. Spearman and daughter, Clara, went to Anderson one day last week.

Mrs. Durham, accompanied by her son, John, of White Plains, visited her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Reeves, last week.

Mrs. R. W. Reeves has been quite sick several days, but we are glad to say is better.

Mr. Patrick Hindman has completed a public road through his plantation, which leads from his residence to the Power House and then to Pelzer.

News is very scarce this week. Our best wishes for the prosperity of the dear old INTELLEGENCER.

NOBODY'S DARTING. When you want first-class, up-to-date photos call on GALLAGHER BROS., at their new studio next door to Ligon & Ledbetter—upstairs. Satisfaction is fully guaranteed to every customer.

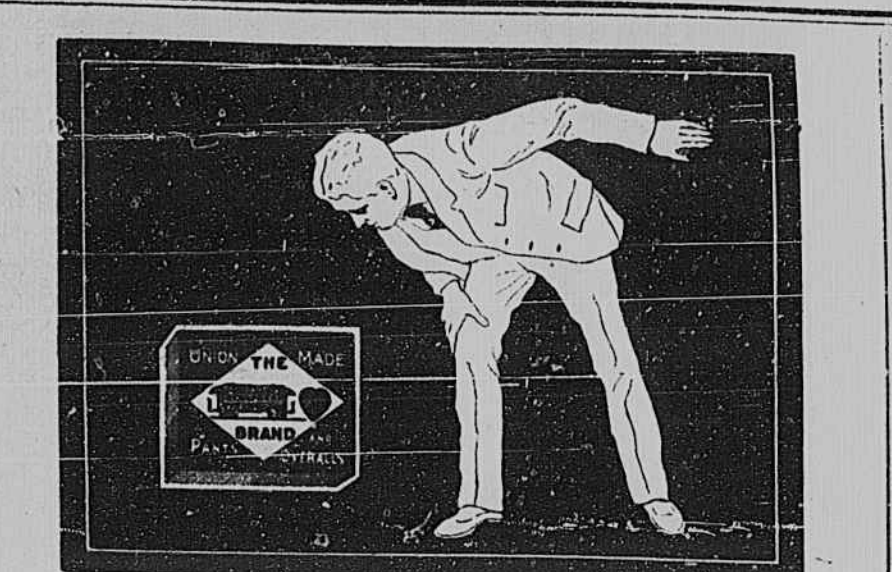

WANTED—Several good Milk Cows. Apply to J. D. Richardson, Anderson.

We offer this week hundreds of pairs of Sample Shoes at prices to please. Come quick while we have your number. Prices on these Shoes too cheap to quote. Vandiver Bros.

Don't cash purchases made in car load loss enables Sullivan Hardware Co. to always take care of their customer in prices.

If you want a good Shot Gun, Rifle or Pistol, try Brock Bros., as they have a large assortment and their prices are right.

Jobbers prices on "Schapps," "Early Bird" and "Blue Jay" Tobaccos. Lowest prices on Flour, Coffee, Corn, Bacon, and heavy Groceries. Vandiver Bros.

A CLOSE INSPECTION

Of our Stock will teach you how to dress well on little money. We believe that our Goods are a little bit better, and our prices a little bit lower, than any other Store in town. That we are not alone in this belief is shown by the large number of pleased customers who are wearing the Clothes we sell. Among these customers are working men. They are the best dressed working men in the community because the Clothes we sell are the famous—

Carhartt Brand Coats, Pants and Overalls, Made in Detroit. We want every man who toils to know how good these garments are.

HALL BROS. Cut Price Clothiers.

Special January Bargains

W.F. Marshall & Co's.

To brag is sometimes pardonable. We don't exaggerate. You cannot match these values. We must sell these Goods to make room. Cost not considered.

- 8 Plush Capes $1.25.....for 90c
3 Plush Capes 1.75.....for 1.25
7 Plush Capes 2.00.....for 1.50
9 Plush Capes 2.75.....for 2.00
4 Plush Capes 3.25.....for 2.50
5 Plush Capes 3.75.....for 3.00
2 Plush Capes 4.50.....for 3.50
1 Plush Cape 6.00.....for 5.00
1 Plush Cape 5.50.....for 4.50
1 Golf Cape 4.50.....for 3.50
3 Collarettes 2.00.....for 1.65
4 Ladies' Black Jackets 4.00.....for 3.00
3 Ladies' Black Jackets 3.00.....for 2.50
2 Ladies' Black Jackets 2.00.....for 1.50

OUR CLOTHING STOCK

Still has some fine Bargains, as we are very anxious to close out this line. If we can fit you, you can get more for your money here than anywhere.

W. F. MARSHALL & CO. Successors to C. S. Minor and the 10c. Store.

Better than a Savings Bank. Is the sheet anchor of Life Insurance. It offers the best protection for the family when death claims the husband and father. A policy in— Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co. Will give you a feeling of security that your family is provided for and safe from want, and the premium is low. Let us insure you. M. M. MATTISON, STATE AGENTS, Peoples' Bank Building, ANDERSON, S. C.

DR. A. S. TODD, Townsend Building, north Main Street, ANDERSON, S. C. OFFERS Improved treatment for Rupture, Piles, Strain, Discharge, and Gonorrhoea-Urinary Troubles. Special treatment for facial blemishes of ladies and children. Jan 10, 1901 30 3m FOR SALE. Ten Cars Ear Corn. CELY & BRO., Greenville, - - - S. C.

D. S. VANDIVER, E. P. VANDIVER, J. J. MAJOR, VANDIVER BROS. & MAJOR DEALERS IN Fine Buggies, Phaetons, Surrys, Wagons, Harness, Lap Robes and Whips, High Grade Fertilizers, Bagging and Ties. We have on hand— Swift's High Grade Guano and Acid. Royter's High Grade Guano and Acid. Patasco High Grade Guano and Acid. Dry mixtures and finely pulverized. Yours truly, J. Some Specials and Special Prices on Buggies and Wagons.

BUGGY REPAIRS Let us Repair your Buggy or Carriage from start to finish with high grade Wheels or double-stitched Curtains, so as to look nearly like new, and give several years extra service. Remember, repairing of all kind promptly done. PAUL E. STEPHENS.

BANK OF ANDERSON. J. A. BROCK, President. JOS. N. BROWN, Vice President. B. F. MAULDIN, Cashier. The largest, strongest Bank in the County. Interest Paid on Deposits. By special agreement. With unsurpassed facilities and resources we are at all times prepared to accommodate our customers. Jan 10, 1900 29

PARKER RYE. None Purer. None Better. Ask for it at all Dispensaries. FOR RATES AND MAPS ALL POINTS NORTH AND WEST ADDRESS FRED D. BUSH, District Passenger Agent, Louisville & Nashville R. R. No. 1 Brown Building, Opposite Union Depot, ATLANTA, - - GA. "No Trouble to Answer Questions."

A. H. DACNALL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Anderson, - - - S. C. OFFICE—OVER THE POST OFFICE. Trustee's Sale. BY virtue of the authority vested in me by J. A. Caffee, by his Deed of Trust dated July 10, 1899, which is not yet recorded, I will sell to the highest bidder before the Court House door at Anderson, S. C., on Salesday in February next, (Monday, February 4), at the usual hour of such sales, the following described Real Estate, to wit: All that certain Tract or Parcel of Land, containing nine-tenths (9-10) of an acre, more or less, in the City of Anderson, adjoining Ann Washington and others, and more fully described in Deed of said premises, made to me by David Dooley, dated August 16, 1893. Terms—Cash. Purchaser to pay extra for papers and stamps. LEE G. HOLLEMAN, Trustee. Jan 9, 1901 29

FOR SALE. THE HASKELL ESTATE, containing three thousand (3,000) acres, more or less, lying on the waters of Little River, and situated in the Flatwoods section, in Abbeville County, will be sold either as a whole or in tracts. The Seaboard Air Line Railroad runs through the place and has a Flag Station on this property. A fine old dwelling of ten rooms, in good repair. Property exceptionally well watered and wooded. Parties wishing information will call on or communicate with L. C. HASKELL, Agent, Abbeville, S. C. Nov 28, 19 23 3m