Remember, that we show the popular Novelties in— Dry Goods and Notions, almost immediately upon their introduction, and while you and this our Buyers will probably be in the market looking for the newest.

Remember, that we carry the largest and most complete stock of SHOES in the city.

Remember, that we make a specialty of FARM SUPPLIES.

Remember our GROCERY DEPARTMENT! We sell heavy Groceries, such as Flour, Molasses, Sugar, Coffee, Oats, Wheat, Corn, &c., as cheap as anybody. Why shouldn't we? We certainly sell as much as they do. We buy in as large quantities as they do. We think that we buy as cheap as they do. Our expenses are reduced to a minimum. Our greed for gain is not above the average man. We are satisfied with our legitimate profit, "to live and let live." Hence we will see to it that you buy your Goods from us as cheap as you can buy them from anybody.

Our prices on all lines always guaranteed. TERMS—Spot Cash or Thirty Days unless specially arranged.

WHOLESALE BUYERS are invited to see us.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON,

Alex. Johnson, the barber, has changed base, and is now working in Mitchell's shop, in the postoffice building, where he will be pleased to serve his old patrons.

Married, on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 24, 1901, at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Duke, in this city, by Rev. W. T. Capers, Mr. Jas. L. Duke and Miss Catherine Gordon, of Clemson.

Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold a special meeting next Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of conferring the second rank. All the members are urged to attend.

Not much of the hunting season remains, but many a partridge that has thus far escaped the remorseless hunter will yet be bagged before the law gives protection to the feathered tribes.

Mr. Paul Barr, who has been studying pharmacy at the college in Charleston the past session, returned home a few days ago and has resumed his position in the drug store of F. B. Crayton & Co.

The improvement noted in recent numbers of Everybody's Magazine is still more conspicuous in the March issue. This is a first-rate magazine, brim-full of individuality, containing remarkably strong stories and articles of distinct interest and readability. Among the ten-cent monthlies it is rapidly forging to the front, and it bids fair to contest the supremacy of its most widely circulated contemporaries.

The Dan Packard Opera Co., which will appear in Anderson on the evening of March 18th, is composed of thirty-five artists, and is the strongest organization of its kind that has ever visited Anderson.

Ex-Sheriff M. B. Gaines, who has recently moved to Oconee County, near Westminster, was in the city last Monday and gave us a call. He expressed himself as being pleased with his new home.

Judge Benet, in Court at Abbeville, created a sensation by saying that the contract system now being investigated in Anderson County, existed to some extent in Abbeville. He ordered the Grand Jury to look into it.

Mr. W. R. Osborne, of the firm of Osborne & Pearson, left last week for the Eastern markets to buy a stock of Spring and Summer goods. He was accompanied by Miss Helen Cater, who will assist him in selecting his stock.

Rev. J. W. Davis, D. D., a returned missionary from China, will deliver a free lecture with stereopticon views on China next Saturday night, March 2nd, at 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Leila White and Mr. Eugene Fant went to Pickens last week where they were attendants at the marriage of Mr. L. C. Thornley and Miss Corrie Bruce, which took place in the Presbyterian Church at that place last Thursday afternoon.

The first snow of this winter fell in this section last Saturday. It began snowing about 2 o'clock a. m. and continued almost without ceasing for about twelve hours. It averaged four or five inches in depth, but was very dry and soon melted away.

The many friends of Dr. Frank E. Harrison in Anderson deeply sympathize with him in the death of his wife, which occurred at her home in Abbeville last Monday. Mrs. Harrison was a most excellent Christian woman, and greatly beloved by all of her friends.

The County Treasurer has received orders from the Comptroller General's office to attach the 15 per cent. penalty after the first day of March and collect with it added until the 15th of March, and then the executions will be placed in the hands of the Sheriff for collection.

Rev. W. T. Capers has resigned the rectorship of Grace Episcopal Church of this city and has accepted the call to the Church at Vicksburg, Miss. Mr. Capers is a most excellent, Christian gentleman, is very popular with all the denominations in Anderson, and his many friends regret to see him leave.

Dr. J. K. McWhorter, of Pendleton, was in Walhalla Tuesday on business. In spite of the fact that he is now living out of Oconee, he can't resist the temptation now and then to run over and "salt down" a few dollars in Oconee's dirt. Like many others, the doctor is of the opinion that it's the proper thing.—Keowee Courier.

Prof. Chas. Lane, of Atlanta, Ga., will preach in the Presbyterian Church at Townville next Sunday afternoon, March 3rd, at 3:30 o'clock. On Monday evening following, at 8 o'clock, he will lecture in the school building. Prof. Lane is one of the most noted humorists in the South and those who fail to hear him will miss a rare treat.

Cholera of a very fatal type appeared amongst the hogs at Clemson a short time ago, and within ten days twenty-eight animals died. The disease is said to have been carried by buzzards that had fed on two hogs that had died in the neighborhood, and which had been left in the woods exposed instead of being buried or burned.

Frank Robertson, the policeman at Belton who shot and wounded a man by the name of Aiken in that town several weeks ago, and who was indicted for assault and battery with intent to kill, had a preliminary hearing in this city last week before Magistrate Wilson, who sent the case up to Court. Robertson gave bond for his appearance.

We have received a copy of the February number of the Exposition Magazine, the official organ of the South Carolina Inter-State and West Indian Exposition. It is a very handsome illustrated publication and contains one hundred and ten pages of interesting matter concerning the progress of the Exposition. The magazine also contains a descriptive and illustrated "write up" of Anderson.

"Big King's" restaurant on Depot street is a popular resort for those who want a good meal at a very reasonable price. A few days ago Mr. King kindly invited us to visit his restaurant and indulge in an oyster feast. Of course, we went, and a royal feast it was. Oysters are served in any style, and the cook certainly knows how to prepare them, for we never before ate any that equalled them. Give "Big King" a call.

Mr. Alfred K. Mann died at his home in Hopewell Township last Friday, in the 67th year of his age. He had long been afflicted with Bright's disease, and at times was a great sufferer. Mr. Mann had long been a devoted member of the Baptist Church, and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved widow and six children who survive him. His remains were interred at Neal's Creek Church on Saturday.

A commission for a charter has been issued by the Secretary of State to the C. F. Jones Company, of this city. The incorporators are C. F. Jones, S. M. Orr, J. F. Fant, Wm. Laughlin, R. S. Lizon, R. C. Brownlee, J. P. Bradbury, J. B. Douthitt and Cathoon Harris, all of Anderson, save Mr. Brownlee, who is of Due West. The company proposes to operate a general department store, doing a wholesale and retail mercantile business. The capital stock is to be $25,000.

Mrs. Charles Cheshire died at her home in the Toney Creek section last Friday in the 34th year of her age. She was a victim of that ever fatal disease, consumption, and had been an invalid for a year or more. Mrs. Cheshire was a daughter of Samuel Poore, and a most estimable woman, whose memory will long be cherished by her many friends. The deceased was a member of Shady Grove Baptist Church, where her remains were interred on Saturday, Rev. M. McGee conducting the funeral services.

The Columbia correspondent of the News and Courier, under date of the 20th inst., says: "Governor McSweeney to-day decided to veto a bill which provided for the establishment of a new school district in Anderson County. The County Superintendent wrote that the local authorities had arranged the districts and that, in his opinion, the Act was unconstitutional and unnecessary. The constitution explicitly states that no school districts shall be created or divided by the General Assembly. The Act was accordingly vetoed."

The Columbia State, of the 21st inst., says: "Mr. R. J. Johnson, representing the Philadelphia North American, was in the city yesterday. He has been sent here to investigate the prison system in this State, and it is understood that he will go to Anderson County to take a glance at the unique situation there. Mr. Johnson called on the governor yesterday and was later taken to the State prison and shown through that institution by Superintendent Griffith." Mr. Johnson came to Anderson and spent Friday here, and, we are informed, visited one or two farms where convicts are employed.

A 4-room cottage owned by Mr. S. M. Johnston and occupied by Mr. D. M. McAdams, on McCully street, was burned yesterday morning about 1 o'clock. Mr. W. B. King, who lives on the same street, was on his way home and discovered the fire. Mr. and Mrs. McAdams were aroused from their sleep by Mr. King bursting open one of the doors and rushing into their room. The alarm was promptly answered by the firemen, who did good work. The neighbors rushed in and succeeded in saving nearly all the household goods. The house was insured for $600.

Dr. John J. Bozeman, one of Ninety-Six's most honored and worthy citizens, died at his home in that town on Tuesday, 19th inst., after a brief illness, aged about 65 years. Dr. Bozeman was a native of Anderson County, having been born and reared in Savannah Township, near Cross Roads Baptist Church, where his parents are buried. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. T. N. Spearman and an uncle of Mrs. C. M. Buchanan, both of this city, and has a number of relatives and old friends in this County. He served through the Civil War as assistant surgeon of the Hampton Legion. Dr. Bozeman married at Ninety-Six, where he settled as a physician at the close of the war, and has enjoyed a large practice and enviable reputation among the people. He was an upright, honorable man, with gentle winning manners and most kindly disposition, and in his death Greenwood County loses one of her best citizens. His wife died several years ago, and he leaves three daughters and one son.
