

OPENING SPRING AND Summer Goods!

After an absence of several weeks, searching the Eastern Markets and Fashion Centres for the latest decrees of Fashion, our Buyers have returned, and our—

New Goods Arrive Daily. Every incoming freight and express train brings us something new. Immediately upon receiving them we open them, mark them at a reasonable price, and exhibit them for sale. We do not wait for a formal OPENING DAY, but then and there, without further ceremony, WE have a—

SPRING OPENING.

Hence we extend a most cordial invitation to all to call at once and inspect our selections for the Spring and coming Summer. A good portion of our—

Dress Goods

Have already come. We are now showing Novelties in early Spring Dress Goods. Our stock of—

Black Dress Goods

Is almost complete, even at this early date. We have long been proud of our Black Goods Department. We can sell you a nice Black Dress from 25c up to $2.00 per yard, in staple, fancy and novelty weaves.

New Silks.

They are here, too, pretty and stylish. Foulards are again popular, and we can show you some lovely Foulards; but from what we have seen and heard we think more of Plain Silks, Chinas, Taffetas and the soft, clinging Louisines in particular. Also, Crepe-De-Chines, which we now have in all popular colors.

SOME NEW TRIMMINGS

Are here, too, and are absolutely correct. BLACK VELVET RIBBONS are seen on almost everything. We have them in all widths. NARROW SATIN RIBBONS, in colors, are almost as popular; we have them, too.

Notions, Notions.

We have given more thought to Notions than ever before, and will show a most attractive line of Notions. We will be constantly on the lookout for Novelties for this Department, and will, from time to time, show the newest Belts, Gloves, Ladies' Neckwear, Corsets, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, &c.

Millinery.

We are now showing new Street and Walking Hats, Bailleurs, &c., and hope within a few days to show our PATERN HATS. We will continue to carry an up-to-date line of Millinery.

Laces and Embroideries.

Ours is an immense stock—dainty and well-selected lines. We can certainly satisfy your wants in Laces and Embroideries. ALL OVERS promise to be in great demand, and we have made preparation to supply the demand. Our LACE CURTAINS are unusually pretty and reasonable in price. Also, our Curtain Materials, Swisses, &c.

STAPLE DRY GOODS.

We shall endeavor to sustain the reputation of our predecessors, and carry the largest and most complete line of Staple Dry Goods in the city.

In all lines our ambition shall be to excel. We prefer a reputation for selling good and satisfactory merchandise to a reputation for selling cheap. By making our business a study and keeping informed, and with the Ready Cash, we shall endeavor to buy our Goods so as to always give a good, reliable article for little money. Quality considered you will always find our prices as low as the lowest.

OUR TERMS ARE SPOT CASH. However, if your credit is Gilt Edge, and you have a reputation for prompt payment, we will be pleased to run a Thirty Day account with you.

MERCHANTS should look through our Wholesale Department before buying. We will make it to your interest.

FARMERS should see us about their Supplies.

We are Headquarters on GROCERIES.

Winter is still lingering in the lap of Spring.

The Court of General Sessions convenes at Pickens next Monday.

This section experienced some of the coldest weather of this winter last week.

The blue birds, the welcome harbingers of Spring, have made their appearance.

County Treasurer Payne says there are very few delinquent taxpayers in this County.

Hon. A. T. Smythe, of Charleston, spent a few days in the city last week attending Court.

Mrs. H. L. Adams, of Charlotte, N. C., is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. A. S. Stephens.

Several letters from our County correspondents reached us too late for publication this week.

Mrs. J. E. Reed, of Rock Hill, is in Anderson visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Campbell.

The Easter bonnet is happy on the way, and the average married man is studying hard how to meet it.

B. W. Boyd, Esq., of Hartwell, Ga., spent several days in Anderson last week in attendance upon Court.

The cold weather of the past week has had one good effect—that of retarding the advancement of the fruit blooms.

Arrangements are being made with the Sturgis Carnival Company to give a carnival in Anderson the first week in April.

Hon. Stanyarn Wilson, of Spartanburg, spent a day in the city last week in attendance upon the Court of Common Pleas.

If the old saying be true that a pint of March dust is worth a bushel of corn in September, this year will be a good year for corn.

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rive side Manufacturing Co. will be held on April 18th. See advertisement.

You will find the new advertisement of Moore, Acker & Co. very interesting reading in regard to Spring and Summer goods, etc.

Mr. J. G. Riley has been confined to his bed for a week or more with a severe and complicated attack of the grip. We wish him a speedy recovery.

When you see a man moping around with a pale appearance as though he had been half starved, you may be pretty certain that grip has had him down.

A. W. Anderson, the genial Superintendent of the C. & W. C. R. R., spent a day or two in the city last week. He says that Anderson is sure to have that union depot.

The house of Rev. R. L. Duffie, three miles from town, was burned Tuesday. The house was occupied at the time by Mr. M. B. Gaines, late of Anderson.—Westminster Times.

Married, at the Methodist parsonage, McLure Circuit, on Sunday, March 10, 1901, by Rev. J. W. Bailey, Mr. J. T. Stewart and Miss Mamie Chasteen, both of Anderson County.

Albert M. Carpenter, an old Anderson boy, who has been living at Greenwood for a number of years, but is now connected with the Columbia State, is spending a few days in the city.

Messrs. R. W. Simpson, Jr., of the Charleston News and Courier, W. E. Gonzales and J. A. Hoyt, Jr., of the State, were in the city last week reporting Court proceedings for their respective papers.

Adjutant-General Floyd has notified Capt. John M. Patrick that the Electric City Guards have been accepted and enrolled in the State militia. The Guards will be uniformed and armed in a short while.

Last Saturday Magistrate J. J. Gilmer of this city, forwarded his resignation to Gov. McSweeney, who will appoint his successor as soon as our Senator and Representatives shall name the man.

Mr. H. C. Townsend is the first of our citizens to invest in an automobile. It made its appearance on the streets yesterday, and, of course, attracted the attention and admiration of every person who saw it.

Dr. W. H. Nardin, Jr., who has been spending the past two months in New York taking a special course in the diseases of the eye, ear and throat, has returned home and is warmly welcomed by his many friends.

The regular services at Sandy Springs Church next Sunday will be held at 8:30 in the afternoon instead of at 11 in the morning. The congregation should bear this in mind and attend the services in the afternoon.

Mr. M. T. Glenn, of Hollands, S. C., was in Hartwell Tuesday and favored The Sun with a pleasant call. He is a sterling citizen of Anderson County and much esteemed by those who know him.—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

Married, on Wednesday, March 7, 1901, at the residence of Mr. T. S. Glenn, by Rev. J. C. Shive, Mr. Walter M. Smith, of Liberty, S. C., and Miss Bessie Glenn, eldest daughter of the late Hon. John M. Glenn, of this County.

Read what Osborne & Pearson say in this issue about Spring and Summer goods. Their new goods are now ready and they invite all to call at once and inspect them. Do not wait for a formal opening day. Come now—the invitation reads.

Rev. S. J. Cartledge, of Washington, Ga., who has been called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church, is expected to arrive in Anderson next week and at once enter upon his work. A cordial welcome awaits Mr. Cartledge and his family.

Our correspondents are doing fine work these days. We want them to keep it up, and we want to hear from every section of the County which is not now represented in our columns. Write us the news, and write every week if possible.

We are indebted to the committee for an invitation to attend the third annual celebration of the Castalian Literary Society of the Due West Female College on Friday evening, 15th inst. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion.

Mrs. J. W. Bailey was called home from Pelzer last Thursday to the bedside of her husband, Rev. J. W. Bailey, who is very sick with the grip at the McLure Circuit parsonage. But we are glad to say that, at this writing, the patient is convalescing.

Col. J. Jamison, Commander, requests us to announce that there will be a meeting of Camp Leebetter, No. 722, U. C. V., at Guyton next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The meeting will be an important one, and all the members are urged to attend.

Last Sunday morning at an early hour Henry Burno and Sam Taylor, two negroes employed at the Anderson Fertilizer Factory, got into a row, which resulted in the former shooting the latter, inflicting a serious wound in the shoulder. Burno made his escape.

Prof. R. Means Davis is preparing a record of all who have attended the South Carolina College, whether graduates or not, from the first day the institution was established to the present. He will be pleased to receive the names of those who went from this County.

Mr. J. J. Norris, the electrician at the Orr Cotton Mill, met with a painful accident last Monday afternoon. A hatchet accidentally fell from its place, striking one of his feet, cutting through his shoe and inflicting a severe wound. He will have to use crutches for awhile.

While nearly every town and community in the State have had one or more cases of smallpox, Anderson has not had a single case. This speaks eloquently for the healthfulness of the "Electric City" and surrounding country, and the homeseeker should make a note of this fact.

Mr. C. A. Reese, of Tennessee, has located in Anderson and opened a stock of tailoring and gents' furnishing goods in the C. A. Reed building on North Main street. Mr. Reese is an experienced merchant, and comes to Anderson highly recommended. We bid him a cordial welcome and wish him success.

Mr. George W. Davis, of Anderson County, has been up on a visit to friends in the vicinity of Westminster. Mr. Davis is quite an agreeable, up-to-date young farmer, who is alive to the scientific side of his profession. We have been told that he has persuaded a pretty young lady to farm with him.—Westminster Times.

Mrs. Anna Maria Stribling, widow of the late Munford Stribling, died at her home near Richland, in Oconee County, last Wednesday morning. She was one of the few real daughters of the Revolution, her father, John Verner, having served in that war. Nine sons, two daughters and fifty grandchildren survive her.

Mr. A. T. Newell, one of the leading farmers of Anderson County, and the man who figures so prominently in the sensational alleged slavery of convict labor in that County, spent yesterday in the city. He states that he is on his way home from Columbia, where he went to secure more convicts for his farming lands.—Spartanburg Herald, 8th inst.

The new advertisement of Keith & Co. will prove interesting to all of our readers, and especially to parents who have boys to clothe. This firm has a complete stock of men's pants, shoes and hats, staple dry goods, tinware, crockeryware, etc., all of which are being offered at prices that will please you. Read what they say and give them a call.

Mrs. Nancy C. Acker, relict of the late Joseph Acker, of this County, and mother of Mrs. T. A. Archer, of this city, died at Easley last Thursday morning, of pneumonia, aged about 67 years. Mrs. Acker was the daughter of the late J. D. Sitton, of Brushy Creek Township, and a most noble Christian woman, whose death is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends and relatives in this County. Six children survive her. Her remains were carried to Williamston and interred by the side of her husband.

The famous Dan Packard Opera Co. will appear in the Opera House next Monday night, 18th inst., in that interesting and comic opera, "Prince Protemus," which was produced in Boston for a run of 200 nights. Mr. Packard will be seen at his best. His every entrance is a signal for applause, and in the many funny situations of the opera he guarantees to make you laugh every minute. A bevy of beautiful girls are with the company, in fact a whole beauty show, and their splendid appearance and good voices would alone make a successful entertainment. The cost of the company is a remarkable one from the fact that every member is an artist of standing and ability, with a metropolitan reputation. Tickets and reserved seats may be secured in advance at the Evans Pharmacy.

The Court of Common Pleas adjourned last Saturday afternoon after a hard week's work, though the docket was not cleared and a number of cases were continued. The most important case heard during the week was that of Asbury Harris as administrator of Elbert Harris vs. Anderson County. This was a suit to recover $10,000 damages for the severe whipping given Elbert Harris by a mob in the Summer of 1898, from the effects of which, it is claimed, he died a few days afterwards in the County Jail. It was the second trial of the case and resulted as in the first hearing, a mistrial. It is said that the Jury stood 9 to 3 in favor of the County.

A correspondent of the Greenville Mountain, of the 6th inst., says: "The many friends of Hon. John O. Wingo will be pained to learn of the death of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Wingo, at their home near Campobello, on the 4th inst. Mrs. Wingo was a Miss Jamison, of Anderson County. She was an earnest Christian and possessed of beautiful traits of character. A loving and devoted wife and mother has been taken from the family circle. The cause of her death was pneumonia and heart affection. May a kind and loving Father give grace to the bereaved ones and help them to realize that what He doeth now they may not know, but that they shall understand it all hereafter." Mrs. Wingo was the third daughter of Col. Joshua Jamison, of this County, and the announcement of her death will bring sorrow to the hearts of a wide circle of friends, who will long cherish her memory.

Mr. John H. Clarke died suddenly at his home on River street, in this city, last evening about 7 o'clock, and the announcement was a great shock to his friends, many of whom had greeted him on the streets during the afternoon. He was suffering with a severe attack of the grip, and about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon was forced to leave his place of business, go home and retire to his bed. His family soon discovered that his condition was serious, and Dr. J. O. Wilhite was sent for, but before the doctor could reach him he breathed his last. Mr. Clarke was the eldest son of the late J. Baylis Clarke, and was 56 years of age. He was born and reared in Anderson and has always resided here. He was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Burris, who died leaving one son. His second marriage was to Miss Crosby, who, with seven children, survives him. When the Civil War began, though only a boy, he offered his services and served until the end. Mr. Clarke had long been a member of the First Baptist Church, was a genial, clever-hearted man, and highly esteemed by all of his friends and acquaintances, who deeply sympathize with the venerable mother, devoted wife and children in their sore bereavement. The funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 o'clock at Baptist Church.

A red-handed outrage was perpetrated last Saturday evening, the culmination of a serious cutting affair in which Messrs. Dean & Ratliff lost a large portion of their stock of dry goods, pants, shirts and shoes. Having advertised a special cut sale for 30 days on these goods in order to reduce stock, it is pronounced by them in their new advertisement this week as a very serious cutting affair. Moral—Advertise in the INTELLIGENCER.
