Mr. Henry Day died a few days ago in the Brubby Creek section of smallpox. At first it was not known what the disease was, but the physicians up there finally agreed that it was a genuine case of smallpox. Several persons were exposed to the disease, but up to this time we have heard of no other cases. The State authorities were notified, but have not taken any steps as yet to stamp it out.

The Columbia State of yesterday, in speaking of the Court proceedings in that city, says: "The case of W. A. Neal, former superintendent of the State penitentiary, as forecasted in the State, was, at the request of Solicitor Boggs, leading counsel for Col. Neal, continued until the next term of court. The attorney general consented to the continuance, upon the request of Solicitor Boggs. This eliminates a very interesting case."

Last Saturday afternoon about 6.30 o'clock Lee Owens and Jim Frazier, two young negroes employed at J. S. Fowler's livery stable, got into a row, which resulted in the former shooting the latter twice, one ball striking his back and the other his arm, inflicting slight wounds. Langston at once and pay their dues.

Mr. W. D. Giles, of Piedmont, paid our office an appreciated call last Friday afternoon. He is one of the many Oconee boys who are forging to the front in business. He has been with the Piedmont Drug Company for quite a while. He has recently accepted a position with Wilhite & Wilhite, druggists, Anderson, and will remove to that place about the first of April. He has our best wishes for abundant success.—Keocoe Courier.

Miss Sallie E. Clamp, daughter of Mr. Chris. Clamp, died at her home in Hall Township on Saturday, March 16th, after an illness of three weeks with typhoid fever. Her remains were buried on the day following at Varennes Church, of which she was a consistent member, a large crowd of sorrowing friends attending the funeral services. The young lady was 18 years of age, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, who deeply sympathize with the family in their sore bereavement.

The post office department have given warning notices of the work of a gang of swindlers who have recently appeared along the line of rural free delivery routes. The notice says that the swindlers "have been traveling about the country representing themselves as postoffice inspectors. Their scheme is to pretend to inspect the mail boxes and then demand from $8 to $5. It is the habit of the swindlers to work their schemes shortly after rural routes have been established, the patrons, not being familiar with the requirements being easily led to believe that it is necessary to pay rental on the boxes."

The annual carnival and merry-makers week in Augusta will be held April 22 to 27 and the C. & W. C. Railroad will sell round trip tickets from all stations at one fare. There will be a grand military parade and prize drill, 25 companies participating, three great bands, including the Charleston Artillery Band, Hagenback's trained wild animals, carnival and midway shows, vaudeville and street shows. The great feature of the week will be the grand display of fireworks by Pain, which will be free to all. Tickets will be on sale April 22 to 26. Final limit of tickets returning April 29.

The Columbia State of yesterday says: "On Thursday last Rev. J. C. Abney went to St. Matthews to perform the ceremony of marriage for his nephew, the Rev. O. M. Abney, of the West End station, Anderson, and Miss Annie Ott. The wedding took place at noon in the Bethel M. E. Church, about eight miles from St. Matthews, and there was a large attendance of the relatives and friends of the happy young people. Mr. Abney was assisted by the Rev. C. D. Mann, of St. Matthews. Several young Columbians, friends of the couple, went down to St. Matthews to attend the wedding. After the ceremony a delightful reception was given at the residence of Mr. W. H. Ott, the father of the bride."

Mrs. Eliza J. Barnett, wife of Mr. B. L. Barnett, died at her home near Lebanon on last Wednesday afternoon, in the sixty-first year of her age. She was in her usual health early in the day, but about 9 o'clock was stricken with apoplexy and never regained consciousness. In her early life she joined the Baptist Church and lived true to that faith until a few years back, when she joined the Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church. She was a native of Georgia, having come to this State when about twelve years of age. Her remains were interred in Lebanon Cemetery on the 29th ult. A husband and five children are left to mourn the death of a true and loving wife and mother, and a noble Christian life is ended. May God comfort and console the bereaved family.

A Card.

Dr. Joe Cabell Davis, State Manager Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association N. Y.

Dear Sir: Please accept my thanks for your kind settlement in full of the Policy held in your Company by my late husband, Arthur P. Hubbard.

MARY M. HUBBARD.

Have you considered the subject of frequent and shallow cultivation? It is endorsed by the most prominent authorities on agriculture, and has come to stay and has been demonstrated to be a success. It breaks and pulverizes the crust on corn, cotton, grain, and all crops. So use the Ecosystem Adjustable Weeder and you will be successful. It is the only adjustable weeder on the market. BROOK BROS. The perfect Cotton Hoe is one that has a blade made of highest quality steel so perfectly tempered that it will hold a sharp cutting edge and not be easily broken by rough usage. One that has a shank of properly tempered spring steel. One with a handle of proper size, made of well seasoned timber and properly set with the blade to which it should be securely fastened. A solid Car Load of these high quality Hoes have just been received by Sullivan Hdw. Co.

Possibly you have never figured as to how cheap you can build a fence of Poultry Wire. At such prices as this Wire is sold by Sullivan Hdw. Co. you can certainly afford to enclose your garden. To those farmers who want Dow Law Cotton Planter, Sullivan Hdw. Co. would like to hear from you. They have the best of these style Planters on the market. Thoroughly well-made of the most approved design.

$35,000.00!

Thirty-Five Thousand Dollar Stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Gents' Furnishing Goods

To be sold at a sacrifice for the next Ninety Days, beginning MONDAY, APRIL 1st.

We give you our reason for such a sacrifice:

After buying our Spring line (by-the-way the largest we ever carried) we decided to build our own Store House, and save large rents, which naturally add to the cost of merchandise.

We don't care to move any Goods from our present place of business. This is no end of the season sale, but all new, fresh and up-to-date merchandise are included.

We intend to sell this stock before moving. Prices and hard work alone can do it. Anderson's trading people are good judges of value and are alive to bargains. We make the price for Cash. The trade can't resist our offer.

Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Gents' Furnishings all share alike in this sale.

We move July 1st to our new Store, South Main St.
