A correspondent of the Hartwell (Ga.) Sun says: "Rev. John Brown, a young gentleman residing at Brown's Ferry, in Anderson County, S. C., who has recently entered the ministry, preached at Sardis Church on last Sunday morning. His sermon was pronounced by all who heard it a masterly effort for one so young. Married, on Thursday, July 6, 1901, at Shiloh Church, in Savannah Township, by Rev. J. R. Earle, Mr. Wm. B. King and Miss Claudin Wilson, second daughter of B. F. Wilson, Esq., both of this city. The money is said to have been hid by Mr. Knox during the war to prevent capture by the Yankees. He afterwards searched for the money, but not having been careful in identifying the place, never found it. It is reasonable to suppose that the money found by the negro is a part of that hid by Mr. Knox."

At the February term of Court of Common Pleas for this County a case was made up and submitted to Judge Benet by the Board of County Commissioners and Judge of Probate Nance involving the constitutionality of the salary bill passed by the last Legislature. An appeal was taken by the County to the Supreme Court, which has rendered a decision sustaining Judge Benet's decision. This, no doubt, will restore all our County officers to the fee system.

The Charleston Sunday News says: "Mr. Andrew C. McFall, manager of the Charleston Cotton Oil Company, died at his late residence yesterday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock. Mr. McFall has resided in this city for a little over a year and during his stay here his health has not been well. Last October he took to his bed with a complication of diseases and the end yesterday afternoon was not unexpected. For years he had been an almost incessant sufferer from Bright's disease, but with remarkable fortitude he battled against the disorder. The remains of Mr. McFall will be taken to Darlington in the morning and the funeral services held in that city during the afternoon." The deceased was about 50 years of age, the eldest son of the late Capt. John McFall and a brother of Mrs. J. C. Harris, of this city. He has a host of friends and relatives in Anderson County who will be pained to hear of his death.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anderson Fertilizer Company was held in this city yesterday. The report of the President and Treasurer, Mr. F. G. Brown, was a most gratifying one. It showed that notwithstanding the company did not get its plant into operation until late in the season, it had met with big success, having sold every pound of fertilizers manufactured, and a number of orders had to be turned away. The Clemons College analysis of the grades manufactured brand it as the best fertilizers on the market. The following Board of Directors were elected to serve the ensuing year: F. G. Brown, J. J. Fretwell, J. M. Sullivan, D. A. Ledbetter, W. Q. Hammond, W. W. Smith, B. F. Mauldin and Earle Sloan. The Board met after the adjournment of the stockholders and elected the following officers: President and Treasurer, F. G. Brown; Secretary, R. E. Burriss; Superintendent, F. A. Burbridge. This is a home enterprise that deserves and should have the patronage of all our farmers. Next season the company will be able to supply every demand for its output.

Other Mowers will come into the field, run a hundred yards and choke down, but the McCormick works right through. You can cut from ten to twenty acres a day with a team of horses, even if they are old a team over twenty-six years old has done it. McCormick Mowers are sold by Sullivan Hardware Co.
