Look out for his advertisement next week.

Last Wednesday Lester Williford, a negro tenant on D. A. Skelton's plantation, in Rock Mills Township, was killed by lightning. He was standing at a window in his home when a bolt of lightning struck the roof and fell to the floor. His clothing caught fire in several places and his moustache burned off. The negro's wife and child were in the same room but were not hurt. The house was damaged.

Nelson Sullivan, a negro about 60 years of age, was killed by the south-bound train, on the Blue Ridge Road, near Pendleton, last Saturday morning. He lived at Seneca and it is presumed was on his way home, as he was walking beside the track as the train approached him. He was struck by the cow catcher on the shoulder and knocked into a ditch, and his neck was broken. An inquest was held and no blame is attached to the railroad.

James D. Campbell, of Belton, the efficient Court stenographer of the Sevier County, was organized in this city on Tuesday evening, August 27th, with a select list of 30 charter members. The following officers were elected and installed: J. R. Cochran, Past Action; E. F. Geiger, Archon; Rev. H. H. Hurchison, Prelate; P. H. McCully, Provost; J. T. Ligon, Warder; W. L. Tribble, Inspector; W. H. McGee, Sentinel; R. C. Mattison, Financier; A. M. Sharpe, Treasurer; R. T. Thornton, Secretary; W. W. White, O. B. VanWyck and J. B. Shanklin, Trustees. From the past record of the order it has a bright future in Anderson, and the members who compose the order are devotedly pledged to carry it forward with the hope that his health would be benefited. The remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery last Thursday. The bereaved parents have the sympathies of all their friends.

A convalescence of the Improved Order of Heptasophs, a fraternal order of twenty-three years standing, was organized in this city on Tuesday evening, August 27th, with a select list of 30 charter members. The following officers were elected and installed: J. R. Cochran, Past Action; E. F. Geiger, Archon; Rev. H. H. Hurchison, Prelate; P. H. McCully, Provost; J. T. Ligon, Warder; W. L. Tribble, Inspector; W. H. McGee, Sentinel; R. C. Mattison, Financier; A. M. Sharpe, Treasurer; R. T. Thornton, Secretary; W. W. White, O. B. VanWyck and J. B. Shanklin, Trustees. From the past record of the order it has a bright future in Anderson, and the members who compose the order are devotedly pledged to carry it forward with the hope that his health would be benefited. The remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery last Thursday. The bereaved parents have the sympathies of all their friends.

Mr. Sylvester Leverett, the eldest son of Hon. J. B. Leverett, of this County, died at Richland, S. C., last Friday afternoon, after an illness of a few weeks with typhoid fever. The remains were brought to this place Saturday morning and interred at Cross Roads Church, Rev. W. W. Leathers conducting the funeral services. The deceased was about 30 years of age, and a most worthy, upright young man, whose death is deeply regretted by all of his acquaintances.

To fill the vacancy in the corps of graded school teachers made by the resignation of Mrs. A. M. Kirtrell, who was Miss Lottie Powe, Miss Maude Wilson, of Anderson, has been elected. Miss Wilson is a former resident of Florence, and her election is a source of great gratification to her friends. She is an accomplished teacher, having had several years' experience in the best schools of this State. Miss Wilson, it will be remembered, is a daughter of the Rev. J. B. Wilson, a former presiding elder in this district of the Methodist Church.—Florence Times.

In view of the fact that there are so many Rural Mail Routes to be established in Anderson and adjoining Counties the Beaver Manufacturing Company, of Beaver, Penn., have opened a branch office in this city under the management of Mr. L. L. Gaillard, and those that will enjoy the many benefits and conveniences derived from Rural Free Delivery will do well to place their order at once with Mr. Gaillard for a Box that has been approved and adopted by the Department. Articles that have secured this Ideal Mail Box say that it is beyond question the most practical, most convenient and F. D. box on the market. It has an automatic self-locking signal device that prevents outside parties from interfering with it, and has a letter slot in the side in order that you may deposit mail without unlocking the box. See advertisement in another column.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Matilda Lee, wife of Wilton E. Lee, which occurred at her home in Centerville Township last Thursday morning, was a great shock to many of her friends, and brought sorrow to a large circle of relatives. It was known that she had been sick for several weeks, but her condition was not considered serious until two or three days preceding her death. Mrs. Lee was the third daughter of the late David M. Watson and about 34 years of age. In her girlhood she joined the Baptist Church, and throughout her life was a most devoted and exemplary member. She possessed many noble virtues of both mind and heart, and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of acquaintances, who will long cherish her memory and who deeply sympathize with the grief stricken family in their sore bereavement. Besides a devoted husband and two children, she leaves a venerable mother, four brothers and two sisters to mourn her death. On Friday afternoon the funeral services were conducted at home by Rev. J. R. Earle and the remains were interred in the old Burris family graveyard near-by. The four brothers and two brothers-in-law acted as pall bearers.

Mrs. D. B. Dean, of Cincinnati, will open Art Studio in the room over the storeroom of Capt. J. M. Patrick on Monday, Sept. 16th. She will be at the Studio on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 13th and 14th, and may be consulted there regarding terms, etc.
