WEDNESDAY, OCT. 2, 1901.

There is but one thought uppermost in the minds of the American people just now, and that is how can we best and most efficiently stamp out the anarchists in this country.

Anderson is now ripe for another manufacturing enterprise, and we must have it. Suppose we try a knitting mill and cotton rope manufactory combined. We see it stated that $25,000 would be sufficient for such an enterprise. Who will take the lead in organizing a company? The money, we believe, can be easily obtained.

The Columbia Record is the authority for the statement that the Columbia Female College may be moved to some other city where the local patronage will be larger. If this statement be true, Anderson should offer sufficient inducements to secure the College. We need just such an institution, and an effort should be made to get it.

In commenting upon the succession of President Roosevelt to the office of chief executive of the United States, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat observes that a new epoch has been inaugurated in the presidential office and that hereafter it is more than likely that a war record in the late sectional unpleasantness will no longer be requisite to election to the highest office in the gift of the nation.

Elaborate experiments in feeding wheat to farm animals and swine have been made this year at the Kansas Experiment Station, and also in other States of the corn belt. The experts conclude that wheat has greater nutritive value than corn, and may be used either crushed, mixed with oats or corn, or in connection with straw in time of extreme scarcity. The drought in Kansas has not affected the wheat crop, and many farmers will be compelled either to use their wheat as fodder or sacrifice their live stock.

It is pointed out that President Roosevelt is the first President in half a century that has not either been a participant in the civil war or who went through the terrible scene at an age when the mind would be indelibly impressed with the heat, scars and strife of that terrible struggle. The President represents a new generation. One of his chief qualifications is his well known friendly feeling towards the South. President Roosevelt's uncle distinguished himself as a Confederate soldier, his mother being from Georgia. Many of the gallant fighters he took to Cuba were Southerners. It is well known that he has a very decided friendliness to the South. It is also recalled that he considered General Lee the greatest military leader the English speaking race ever produced.

Every day on our streets may be seen young men who are floundering about, ignorant of a trade or profession and no business training. Most times these are men eminently capable of learning whatever they would set their heads to learn, but they are throwing away their time, stunting their mental capacities by idleness until they will find themselves adrift in a busy world with no knowledge of business, and their only support for a living will be a chance day's labor. Parents who neglect their boy's business training and fail to prepare him for an active place in the world are laying up for themselves a heavy share of blame. A boy really ought to be put to work the time he is 12 years old and be made to realize the value of a dollar. Habit is second nature, and if children are taught to be industrious early in life they will have a fondness for it.

A law ought to be passed fixing the status of dead beats. A man who hires another and fails to pay him or purchase goods or anything of value from our merchants or other business men without any intention of paying—or never pays—is guilty of fraud. The law treats as a thief the man who secures money or goods by false pretense or takes them by stealth. The dead beat ought to be treated the same way for he in fact belongs to that same class. By the unwritten law of trade and commerce he makes false statements with fraudulent intent whenever he obtains a credit that is never cancelled. He is undoubtedly just as guilty, as any man who is unfortunate and really unable to keep his contract can get all the time he needs by acting in a perfectly fair and honorable manner. There is no more necessity for him to become a dead beat than there is for him to do stealing. A dead beat is simply a thief, and should be so treated by law.

The Confederate Soldiers' Home in Atlanta, Ga., was totally destroyed by fire last Monday morning. Of the seventy inmates, including eight invalids, all were taken from the building with safety, though nearly all of them lost their personal effects. The structure cost about $40,000, but was only insured for $10,000. The Atlanta Journal, with its usual enterprise and liberality, leased a big hotel in the city as a home for the Veterans, and at once started a fund for the rebuilding of the Home.

Card from Rev. L. Carlyle Branyon.

Editor Intelligencer: This is the first time I have ever given any attention to gossip concerning myself, whether from individuals or in newspapers. But some days ago I was informed of the notice in your paper copied from a Georgia paper, concerning a committee appointed by my Church to look into my conduct. This was a false and pure and simple, and it has misled many of my friends and acquaintances. Not one of the 300 members in my Church has ever questioned my conduct during the four years of my pastorate there.

The fact is this: I, myself, the pastor, had the Church to appoint a committee to look after one or two of the members who have been gossiping about the pastor and who have opposed his work there from the beginning. I thank you for this space in order to correct a misstatement. That is all. Respectfully, L. CARLYLE BRANYON.

We have two new Gaiser Thrashers and two secondhand Peerless four and six horse power engines in good condition. Also some new Peerless Engines and we can name some very low prices on same. Brock Bros., Anderson, S. C.

Notice to Trustees.

AT the request of several trustees a meeting will be held at Anderson Saturday, Oct. 12th, at 12 o'clock. Questions of general interest will be discussed. A full meeting is desired. Respectfully, R. E. NICHOLSON.

Will sell as a whole or cut to suit purchaser. J. R. & T. Q. ANDERSON, Oct. 2, 1901.

AN INTERESTING LETTER

ANDERSON, S. C., Sept. 16, 1901.

To my Friends and Former Customers: I beg to inform you that I am back home again, and on Saturday, Sept. 21st, 3-1/2 minutes past 8 o'clock, I will throw open my doors to the trading public of Anderson city and the County. I will occupy the D. C. Brown & Bro. old stand next to the postoffice, and invite you to come and see me whether you want to buy or not; I will be glad to see you. My method of doing business will be conducted on the same high plane as heretofore. I will walk in the Straight and Narrow Path of Cash, which will lead you to happiness and prosperity. Follow it. My store will be known as "The Magnet." Value is the mercantile magnet that draws and holds a pleased patronage. I am determined to infuse the Magnetism of Low Prices throughout our business from the beginning. It takes nerve, backbone, jawbone and cheek to sell goods cheap and we are blessed with a full supply of each. We want to be known throughout Anderson and the adjoining Counties as "The High Price Breakers and Low Price Makers."

I will have only one set of prices and that shall be the lowest and marked in plain old figures, which do not lie. No self-respecting store-keeper should have but one price to all. Assuredly, one price is the fair price. I will not have any balbs to offer you under cost to get you into my store, with the hope of selling other goods at a higher price to even up the loss on the bait.

This kind of business is old. People can't do business for nothing and eat chicken gravy, too. The house that claims to sell you everything cheaper than everyone else sells it, insults your intelligence. I aim to chop prices right down to the bone, but can't afford to break the bone.

I will carry a line of Groceries, Tinware, Hardware, Woodenware, Crockery, Glassware, Lamp Goods, Toys Christmas Goods, Candy, Hosiery Underwear, Neckwear, Jewelry, Novelties, Fancy Goods, Stationery, School Supplies and Staple Dry Goods.

Seven things for you to remember: 1st. That we will always have six Bargain Days in every week for you. 2nd. When you come to our store take all the time you want to look things over, as time is a commodity that we neither measure or cut off. 3rd. That all goods are marked in plain figures. 4th. That we sell for Cash only. 5th. Everything from 1c. to 25c. NOTHING SOLD OVER 25c. 6th. That we are headquarters for 5, 10 and 20 cent articles of every description. 7th. That we will give you good goods, low prices and the best of treatment and attention to your wants.

You don't know whether I will do this or not. Don't you think it is worth trying to find out? You can do it easily. Come and see us Saturday. Your money refunded if not satisfied. My aim is to satisfy the public and give them their money's worth. If my goods are satisfactory, tell your friends. If they do not give satisfaction, tell me. Yours always truly, JNO. A. AUSTIN AND THE MAGNET. High Price Breakers and Low Price Makers.
