Our Store's Mission

Is to Supply the World's

Best Merchandise,

Most Broadly and Economically.

EVERYBODY needs new apparel for the Fall and Winter Season.

Every home has imperative requirements. Shopping must be done for every house and every individual.

Where Shall it be Done?

Is the question

Where the broadest collection of Merchandise is to be ing the United States Court in Green-

Where the utmost experience and skill has been applied in selecting.

Where Merchandise is sold for just what it is.

Where PRICES, STYLES and QUALITY can be relied upon is invariably the answer.

THE PUBLIC can never answer these questions intelligently without visiting-

OUR STORE.

And inspecting our large and varied Stock.

LADIES' JACKETS. COATS,

AUTOMOBILES,

CAPES, &c.,

Are much in demand just now. In fact, the demand for

Ready-to-Wear Apparel

Has increased wonderfully in the last few years, and in order to meet this demand we have bought more and better garments than heretofore.

Our boast is the best garment for the price. For instance you will readily see that the-

Jacket or Coat that we offer at $3.50 is superior to that effered by others at the same price, and so on through the column.

We show a remarkable Coat at $4.00.

And make a specialty of the popular-priced $5.00 Jacket latitude. er Coat. It is simply unmatchable at the price.

Our $5.50, $6.00, $6.50, $7.30, $7.50, $8.00, $8.50, $9.00. $9.50 and $10.00 Jackets and Coats are beauties, every one swell and stylish.

Our 42-inch Automobiles are levely garments.

Realizing how hard it has been to buy garments readymade for children and misses in Anderson, we have bought an especially pretty and attractive line of Children's Reefers and Children's and Misses' Jackets, Coats and Automobiles at popular prices.

Judging from the way the stylish, dressy ladies buy-

Our Ready-Made Skirts,

Ours must be the only thoroughly up-to-date line in the city

Rainy Day Skirts from $1.50 to $7.50.

Dress Skirts from $1.50 to $10.00.

Silk Skirts from $7.50 to $25.00.

Every Skirt a model. If you do not care to buy a readymade garment it will pay you to come and look at these, as the ideas gained may be of service to you.

Then we have an excellent line of Under-garments and Ready-to-Wear Waists.

Also, an enormous stock of Winter Underwear. '

Cotton and Wool Flannels.

Blankets, Quilts, Comforts, Counterpanes, &c.

Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods.

Shoes and Groceries.

and merchandise in general, at Wholesale and Retail, at gnaranteed prices.

Come and see or send for Samples. Mail orders filled promptly.

Yours truly,

Successors to Brown, Osborne & Co., wholesale and Retail Dealers in ieneral Merchandise ANDERSON, M. C.

Local News.

WEDVESDAY, OCT. 16, 1901.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Strict Good Middling—8;. Good Middling—8. Strict Middling—7;. Middling—71. Strained Cotton—5 to 7.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

When this issue of THE INTELLIGENcer will have been received by the morning. greater number of its readers we will be located in our new office at the corner of Depot and McDuffie streets and nearly opposite G. F. Tolly & Son's furniture store. Bear this in mind and call to see us in our new quarters.

Cotton pickers are in demand now at good wages.

The Court of General Sessions convenes at Pickens C. H. next Monday. Mrs. G. Ernest Brown, of Birming-

Orr-Gray & Co. have a lot of fine onion sets for sale. See their new ad-

The three oil mills in the city are now at work and cotton seed are in demand at a good price.

J. M. Smith, of this city, is attendville as a juror.

Mrs. D. P. Oglesly, of Elberton, Ga., is in Anderson visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Henry.

The girls especially will be interested in reading the new advertisement of John T. Burriss. Mr. W. S. Lee, Jr., and wife, of Columbus, Ga., are in the city visiting the former's parents. County Treasurer Payne opened his to give you a receipt. Mrs. H. A. Edmunds, of Ridgeway,

S. C., is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Robinson. Dr. J. W. Dargan and wife, of Greenville, are in Anderson visiting the family of Judge W. F. Cox.

Attention is directed to the new advertisement of C. Frank Bolt, who is making a specialty of fine Obelisk flour.

P. B. Acker offers a fine plantation a few miles south of the city for sale. See his advertisement in another col-

A. C. Jones, of Newberry, one of the most popular and genial drummers on the road; spent last Saturday in the

Dr. J. O. Wilbite, accompanied by his son, Joe, has gone to Buffalo, N. Y., to see the Pan-American Exposi-

The State Fair will attract the usual number of visitors this year, and Anderson County will be largely repre-

If you want to buy a fine small tract of land near the city read the advertisement of J. C. Acker in another Lock out for the Aurora Borealis in the clear October evening. It is only occasionally that it may be seen in this Not so much is being said about local politics, but prospective candidates are beginning to feel about for encour-The first white frost this season in this section was visible yesterday morning, and it nipped a lot of tender Joseph A. McCullough, Esq., one of onal business. Our young townsman, Wim. Webb, is erecting a neat cottage on his lot on West Market street, near the western suburbs of the city. The Winthrop Female College at Rock Hill opened its fall session last week, and Anderson County, as usual; is well represented there. Rev. W. B. Hawkins, whose dwelling house on West Franklin street was destroyed by fire a few months ago, has commenced rebuilding. Last Saturday was the first big cotton day in the city this season. Four hunall of it averaged more than 8 cents. Married, on Sunday, October 13, 1901, at Orrville, by Rev. W. B. Hawkins, Mr. C. C. Langston, Jr., and Miss An-nah Poore, both of Anderson County. Mr. Rutledge Osborne and family have returned from the mountains, where they spent the summer. Mr. Osborne is still in a feeble condition.

The telephone line between this city and Septus has been completed, and is connected with the homes of a number of the leading citizens of that section.

Several farmers from Abbeville County brought cotton to Anderson last week. They say they can get a better price for it here than in any oth-Mr. Andy Wood, one of Anderson's his hand badly facerated. Prof. J. A. Durham and W. C. Barnett will conduct an all-day singing at Orange Grove, near Autun, on first Sunday in November. The public is cordially invited to attend. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sullivan, of Hollands, have issued invitations, to the marriage of their daughter, Burkie Pauline, to Fred L. Caudle, on Wednes-I day, 23rd inst., at 3 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Tom Davis has been elected by the City Council a member of the police force to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of Officer Lee to the position of superintendent of the streets.

Married; on Wednesday, October 9, 1901, at the home of the bride's father, M. D. Hall, in Hopewell Township, by Rev. W. B. Hawkins, Mr. Quincy Arnold, of this city, and Miss Mattie

Our young friend, R. T. Haynie, of Varennes Township, had the misfortune to lose a good horse a few days ago. It sickened during the night and was found dead in the stable next ness will be transacted.

Ward N. Thompson, formerly of this city, who has been President of the Abbeville Electric Light and Power Company, has sold his interest in the plant to C. G. Sayer, who will in the future assume entire control of it.

Rev. J. B. Campbell will preach a ham, Ala., is is in the city visiting her sermon on Freemasonary in St. John M. E. Church next Sunday night at 8 o'clock. All members of the fraternity and the public generally are cordially invited to attend the service.

> Communion services will be held at Midway Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning. Preparatory servi-ces will be held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend ble philippies.-Greenville Mountaincer.

The Ruckersville correspondent of the Elberton (Ga.) Star says. "Mr. Guy G. Rucker, Esq. of Anderson, is spending several days in our town this week. We think there must be some attraction over here for Mr. Rucker, as he comes quite often."

John Jasper, the 18-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shirley, died last Thursday night, after an illness of tax books yesterday and is now ready about a week of dysentery. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents in the loss of their only boy-child. -Honea Path Chronicle.

> George N. Wyatt, of Brushy Creek, Anderson County, wasin Pickens Monday. He came to close up a trade for the farm of J. Allen Kelley, which lies to the left of the Pickens and Easley road, and adjoining the place owned by W. W. T. Nalley.—Pickens Sentinel.

> The partridge crop is short this year on account of the excessive rains in the spring and summer. The few that survived the flood remain under the protective wing of the law until Nov. 1st, after which nothing but poor marksmanship will leave enough for seed.

The Board of Trustees of the city graded schools have elected Miss Fannie Rogers to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Nowell as a teacher in the Central School. Miss Rogers is an experienced teacher, having been an assistant in the Lebanon High long illness. She was a most excellent | Chan cellor of the Grand Ledge of this Christian woman, and had a number State, who will of friends and relatives in this County official visit. who will regret to hear of her death. brief business session, at the conclu- 25 per cent less than our competitors. ters are left to cherish her memory.

We are greatly indebted to our good old friend, Mr. F. M. Welborn, of the Five Forks section, for a basket of very fine corn-field beans. Such treats are always in order and highly appreciated. Mr. Welborn brought a large lot of the beans to the city and found ready sale for them at a good price.

The United States Circuit Court will convene in Columbia on the third Tuesday in November, and the following persons from this County have Greenville's most popular lawyers, been drawn as jarors: Grand Juror—spent Monday in the city on professJohn T. Green; Petit Jurors—J. C. Milford, B. F. Wilson, J. R. Caldwell, E. N. Elrod, W. P. Berkmeyer and E. B. Churchwell.

> Mr. George Gambrell is now with a prominent firm in Anderson--one we believe he was with formerly. George is a hustler and won't be downed; he is quick, efficient, affable and courteous, genial in disposition and will make friends wherever his lot may be cast. -- Abbeville Press and Banner. Mr. Gambrell is clerking in the drug store of F. B. Crayton & Co.

Dr. James E. Poore and Miss Lady Pearl Payseur were happily united in the bonds of wedlock on the 10th inst. dred bales were sold here that day, and at the home of the bride in Lancaster, S. C., Rev. J. S. Payseur officiating. The groom is a native of Belton, but is now one of Lancaster's most popular physicians. The happy couple came to Belton last Friday to spend a few days with the groom's mother and other

> Thos. A. Archer and John J. Norris firm name of Archer & Norris and purchased the stock of tinware, stoves, etc., of L. H. Seel, and will continue the business at the latter's old stand. Mr. Archer is an experienced tinsmith and Mr. Norris is an expert in handling most any sort of mechanical tools. The new firm has our best wishes for A large crowd of larmers from almost every section of the County assembled oldest carpenters, while doing some in the Court House last Saturday to work in the Anderson cotton mills last hear the addresses of Mr. J. B. Hunniin the Court House last Saturday to Saturday, had the misfortune to get cutt, editor of the Southern Cultivator, Atlanta, Ga., and Prof. Wing, of the Georgia Experimental Station. The meeting was presided over by Col. B. F. Crayton. The addresses were both practical and interesting, and many valuable lessons were learned from them by the farmers who were present. At the conclusion of the addresses aresolution expressing the thanks of the meeting to the distinguished gentlemen for their presence and able addresses was adopted.

Dr. D. B. Darby died at his home in Walhalla on Tuesday, 8th inst., after an illness of two weeks, aged 54 years. On January 22, 1874, he was happily married to Miss Ida Harrison, daughter of the late Gen. J. W. Harrisop, of this city, and she, with two sons, survives him. Dr. Darby was one of Walhalla's most popular and prominent citizens, and has many friends in this section who will regret to hear of his death.

Elisha W. Byrum died at the County Home last Saturday, morning, and was buried Sunday morning at the old Byrum graveyard near the city. He had been in feeble health for a long time and his death was not unexpected by his friends. The deceased was the Hampton Conclave, Improved Order eldest son of the late Joseph L. Byrum, of Heptasophs, will hold its regular and was born and reared near this meeting this evening at 80'clock in the city. He was about 68 years of age, Masonic Temple. All the members and for a number of years was engaged are urged to attend, as important busi- in business in this city. He served his State in the civil war as a member of If you need athe 2nd S.C. Regiment. Three daughters, all of whom live in Texas, survive him.

> Dr. Marcus L. Sharpe died on the 8th inst. at Spartanburg, in the 77th year of his age. He was born near Pendleton, and he practiced medicine at Pendleton, and Anderson for many years. He was a genial, courteous gentleman, upright in his conduct, and a staunch adherent to principle. Dr. Sharp was a grandson of John Miller, who was the first publisher of the Pendleton Messenger, and who was the printer of the famous Junius Letters. Mr. Miller came to this country soon after their publication, and it was always supposed he knew the author of those remarka-> ooking over his list of delinquent subscribers to compose the following: How dear to our hearts is the silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view; the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things which to us seems so new: the wide-spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell; the coin of our fathers, we are glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well; the spreadeagle dollar, the star-spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so

> Walter Lark, a negro, killed Will Harmon, another negro, with a hammer. last Thursday night on T. J. Cox's farm, near Belton. It seems Harmon told a negro woman something that Lark said about her, and when Lark asked Harmon what he said, Harmon reiterated his remarks. They then began cursing each other when Lark struck Harmon in the head with a hammer, breaking his skull. Deputy Sheriff Dillingham was notified, and early next morning, accompanied by Policeman Robertson and Constable Smith, both of Belton, arrested Lark in a cabin near the scene of the crime. The prisoner was brought to this city and lodged in jail.

Mrs. H. C. Poore died at her home in the pleasure of greeting Hon. G. S. Due West on Sunday, 6th inst., after a Mower, of Newberry, Grand Vicesion of which a banquet will be indulged in. Each member will have the Castle Hall and participate in the royal feast. The occasion will no doubt be a most enjoyable one.

Last Spring the Peizer Manufacturing Co. offered three prizes to residents of the mill town of Pelzer for the cleanest kept yard and most attractive garken. The Company furnished the seeds and a committee of five ladies living in the place have inspected the several premises and gardens each month, taking notes and preparing for their report, which was made on October 1st. In accordance with the recommendations of the report the prizes were awarded as follows: First prize, $25--Mrs. Nellie Nelson; second prize, $15-Mrs. Robert Cobb; third prize, $10--Mrs. W. A. Fowler. The competition has had the effect of arousing quite an active spirit of friendly competition among the ladies of the town and has made it wonderfully bright and

W. Q. Hammond, one of Anderson County's most successful and extensive farmers, met with a very serious misfortune yesterday morning by having his large barn, with nearly all of its contents, destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock by one of the guards of the convicts used on the farm, but it had gained such a headway that very little of the contents of the barn could be saved. In the buildhave formed a partnership under the ing were between 75 and 100 bales of unginned cotten, about 5,000 bushels of oats, a lot of corn, hay and other forage, all of theplows, mowers and other farm machinery, with several wagons and other vehicles, harness, etc. Some of the oats and cotton and a few other things were saved. The estimated loss is about $12,000, on which there was no insurance. It is not known how the fire originated and Mr. Hammond thinks it was purely accidental. On Monday the laborers had some fire in the fields where they were picking cotton, and it is presumed that it got into the cotton that was carried into the barn, as the flames broke out first in that portion of the building where the fleecy staple was store. The friends of Mr. Hammond deeply sympathize with him in his loss, but he bears the burden bravely, and, with his usual per-severence, he will go to work to repair the damage and replace the loss sus-

FOR SALE -Fine Farm of 167 acres situated on Pendeton road near city limits. Apply to R. S. McCully. 16-2

CLOTHING BUYERS.

Suit of Clothes, A Pair of Shoes, A Hat,

Or anything in the way of-

Furnishings,

An editor has been inspired, after It will pay you to look at what we have to offer. We have put the knife deep down in the price for Cash.

ALL PARTIES OWING

Will oblige us by calling and paying their accounts, as we need the money.

All parties owing the old Firm of Hall & Milford and Hall Bros. & Co. must settle at once, as the old business must be wound up.

HALL BROS.

South Main Street.

Cut Price Clothiers.

Chiquqla Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock, and the more than the more results of the mor

200 CASES OF SHOES!

Grand Lodge of this NICE. new, up-to-date Shoes, that will wear. We want to Shoe-up the pay the Lodge an entire family for the Winter. Remember, our Shoes were bought right, and official visit. The Lodge will hold a we will sell them right. It's just as easy as rolling off a log to sell our Shoes privilege of bringing a lady with him.

DRY GOODS.

During the business session of the Lodge the ladies will be entertained in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Coeffe Hell and participate in the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Opera House, and after adjournment, they will be escorted into the Opera House, and after adjournment and the Opera House, and the Opera House, and the Opera House and the Opera Ho

Bargain Department.

In this department we have Job Lots sold below manufacturers' cost, like this: 1000 dozen pairs Hosiery, "scooped' to sell at one-half price. 100 dozen Men's Undershirts, 50c quality, for 25c. 150 dozen Men's heavy Drill Drawers, 25c quality, for 15c, and numbers of small Job Lots of all kinds of Groceries.

Here, again, is where we can do you good. Our $3.75 Flour is what you are paying $4.00 for. Arbuckle's Coffee 10c—you are paying 12½c for it. Good Green Coffee 12 lbs. for $1.00—you are only getting 10 lbs.

Seeing is believing, so come and look through our immense Stock.

Country Merchants will find values here you will find nowhere else.

Remember we have on hand-Acid Phosphates Of all kinds for your small grain crops, and our price is below any one else for the same Goods. Yours truly,

D. C. BROWN & BRO.

South Main Street.

KING & MARTIN HAVE MOVED TO THEIR NEW STORE. On South Main Street,

And are now ready for business and offer GRAND OPPORTUNITIES to the Trade to SAVE MONEY. We have used our Sledge Hammer constantly for the past thirty days and have prices mauled so far under competition that a blind man can see the difference. Can't you see the difference in prices like these :

20 lbs. Sugar for $1.00. Arbuckle's Coffee 10c. package.

We want, must and will have every man, woman and child in Anderson and the surrounding country for our customer, and we aim to get them by offering LOW PRICES and FAIR DEALING.

Q. FRANK JOHNSON.

J. FURMAN EVANS

FRANK JOHNSON & CO., Builders of Delivery and Farm Wagons, Bealers in Carriage Material Hardware and Paints.

Repairing and Repainting promptly executed.

We make a specialty of "Goodyear," Rubber and Steel Horse Shoeing.
General Blacksmith and Woodword..

Only experienced and skilled workmen employed.

We have now ready for sale "The Johnson" Home-made, Hand-made Farm Wagons that we especially invite your attention to.

We put on Goodyear Rubber Tires.

Yours for business,

Church Streat Gangaign fail FRANK IOHNSON & CO.

Church Street, Opposite Jall. FRANK JOHNSON & CO.