

Our Store's Mission

Is to Supply the World's

Best Merchandise,

Most Broadly and Economically.

Fall and Winter Season.

Every home has imperative requirements. Shopping must be done for every house and every individual.

Where Shall it be Done ?

Is the question

Where the broadest collection of Merchandise is to be found.

Where the utmost experience and skill has been applied in selecting.

Where Merchandise is sold for just what it is.

Where PRICES, STYLES and QUALITY can be relied upon is invariably the answer.

THE PUBLIC can never answer these questions intelligently without visiting—

OUR STORE,

And inspecting our large and varied Stock.

- LADIES' JACKETS,
- COATS,
- AUTOMOBILES,
- CAPES, &c.,

Are much in demand just now. In fact, the demand for—

Ready-to-Wear Apparel

Has increased wonderfully in the last few years, and in order to meet this demand we have bought more and better garments than heretofore.

Our boast is the best garment for the price. For instance you will readily see that the—

Jacket or Coat that we offer at $3.50 is superior to that offered by others at the same price, and so on through the entire list.

We show a remarkable Coat at $4.00.

And make a specialty of the popular-priced $5.00 Jacket or Coat. It is simply unmatched at the price.

Our $5.50, $6.00, $6.50, $7.00, $7.50, $8.00, $8.50, $9.00, $9.50 and $10.00 Jackets and Coats are beauties, every one swell and stylish.

Our 42-inch Automobiles are lovely garment.

Realizing how hard it has been to buy garments ready-made for children and misses in Anderson, we have bought an especially pretty and attractive line of Children's Reefers and Children's and Misses' Jackets, Coats and Automobiles at popular prices.

Judging from the way the stylish, dressy ladies buy—

Our Ready-Made Skirts,

Ours must be the only thoroughly up-to-date line in the city.

Rainy Day Skirts from $1.50 to $7.50.

Dress Skirts from $1.50 to $10.00.

Silk Skirts from $7.50 to $25.00.

Every Skirt a model. If you do not care to buy a ready-made garment it will pay you to come and look at these, as the ideas gained may be of service to you.

Then we have an excellent line of Under-garments and Ready-to-Wear Waists.

Also, an enormous stock of Winter Underwear.

Cotton and Wool Flannels.

Blankets, Quilts, Comforts, Counterpanes, &c.

Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods.

Shoes and Groceries.

And Merchandise in general, at Wholesale and Retail, at guaranteed prices.

Come and see or send for Samples.

Mail orders filled promptly.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON,

Successors to Brown, Osborne & Co.,

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

Married, on Sunday, October 20, 1901, at the home of Mr. C. M. Buchanan, in this city, by Rev. O. J. Copeland, Mr. Walter Burris and Miss Alice Carpenter, eldest daughter of the late A. A. Carpenter, both of Anderson County. A few intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony.

Dr. Jas. H. Crawford, who has been practicing medicine in Anderson for several months, has moved to Walhalla. The Doctor is a most excellent, clever gentleman, and made many friends here who regret to see him leave us. We join his friends in wishing him much success in his new home.

The following young ladies from this County are enrolled as students of Chocoma College in Greenville: Misses Roma Farmer, Annie Sadler, Mary Louise Johnson, Eubank Taylor, Aurea Boleman, Ruby Hammond, Mattie Tripp, Lela Thompson, Maggie Thompson, Clara Simpson, Louise Ligon, Annie Shanklin, Alice McCauley and Eva Newton.

At the earnest solicitation of his many friends and for the benefit of his wife and numerous children, Mr. R. Gilmer Todd announces himself a candidate for popular patronage, having become stultified at the store of Messrs. Denn & Radcliffe, of this city, where he will be delighted to serve his friends to the best of his ability in his poor weak way.

The barn and stables of Mrs. Mary A. Davis, who lives about seven miles west of the city, were burned Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock. A valuable horse and cow, a buggy, a lot of hay and farming implements were consumed inside the building. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss will reach $400, on which there was no insurance.

Dr. R. L. Parker, of Belton, and Miss Ida E. Nickles, of Due West, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Nickles, of Due West, on Wednesday afternoon, 16th inst., Rev. W. J. Wyley, assisted by Rev. O. Y. Bommer, performing the ceremony. The couple came to Belton that evening and a reception was tendered them at the home of A. R. Campbell.

Christine, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. C. M. Robbins, died at her home in Garvin Township, last Friday. The remains were interred at Eureka Church on Sunday, Rev. T. P. Lide conducting the funeral services. She was a bright, interesting girl, but had been a great sufferer since infancy with a disease of the kidneys. The bereaved parents have the sympathies of all their friends.

In the Court of General Sessions at Columbia last Monday the case of the State against Wm. A. Neal, charged with breach of trust, was not pressed by the State. At the last term of Court Col. Neal was convicted of failure to turn over funds to his successor. The Attorney General stated informally a few days ago that he would not push this last of the several charges against Col. Neal, as the Governor had pardoned him on the ground of penitence, etc.

The Clinton Chronicle of the 18th inst. says: "On Oct. 16th at the residence of her brother, Mr. H. I. Horton, Mrs. Fannie Horton Simpson was married to Mr. Jesse R. Emerson of Kirkwood, Fla., Rev. J. B. Parrott officiating. It was a very quiet home wedding, only a few friends and relatives being present. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Emerson boarded the North bound stubble train for Hamlet, N. C., and will go from there to Jacksonville Fla., and on to their future home in Kirkwood." Both the bride and groom have many friends and relatives in this native County, whom we join in extending congratulations.

Joe Washington, a negro tenant on J. E. Horton's plantation in Broadway Township, killed a very large rattlesnake last Friday. Several of his children, accompanied by their dog, were in the woods near their home, and one of the boys was about stepping on the snake, when it struck at him. The little fellow was badly frightened, and, yelling at the top of his voice, attracted the attention of his father, the other children and the dog. The latter ran right up on the snake, and was bitten by it. The dog was very sick for awhile but soon recovered.

Since the sale of the Blue Ridge railroad the State Sinking Fund Commission has begun proceedings to collect back taxes. The suit has not heretofore been brought, it is said, because of the Blue Ridge scrip situation, but the situation with regard to this tender is said to be now changed. It is easy to see that this will naturally be resisted and that the present owners bought the property free of encumbrance and with a clean and clear title, and that the Court which sold the property will see that its title is protected.

A negro employed at the ginhouse of Hon. J. Belton Watson, in Centerville Township, met with a painful accident last Friday morning. While feeding the gin his clothing was caught and he was drawn against the saws. His right hand and arm was badly lacerated, and his shoulder dislocated. He was also cut on the body under the arm and received a wound on his head and lips. Drs. Duckett and Gray dressed the wounds and were forced to amputate two of his fingers. The negro is now doing well.

The barn on the plantation of W. D. Spearman, in Brushy Creek Township, was destroyed last Monday afternoon by fire. A big lot of hay, corn, peas and other farm products were stored in the building, together with a number of plows, mowers and other farm implements, and scarcely anything was saved. The loss is estimated at about $700, on which there was insurance to the amount of $500 in the Anderson Mutual Fire Insurance Co. The fire was first discovered in the roof of the barn and is supposed to have been accidental.

The Piedmont correspondent of the Greenville Mountaineer says: "A rather strange incident occurred at J. T. Wigginton's place over in Anderson County last Wednesday morning. An abandoned well some thirty feet deep had been covered with brush. A negro was ploughing in close proximity to it, when, by some means or other, the horse he was using fell into the aperture in the ground and went to the bottom. The well was not overly large round, and the animal was tightly wedged in, though it did not seem to be injured. At last accounts it had been in its prison all day without being released, though efforts were made to rescue it."

The Court of Common Pleas continued its session all through last week, and notwithstanding many cases were tried, the docket was not cleared and many cases were continued until the next term. The case of Elizabeth Ballethrie vs. W. Q. Hammond, a suit for damages for obstructing a stream and injuring her land, was called Wednesday afternoon, and consumed the balance of the week. It was, too, the most important case heard during the term. The verdict of the jury was in the defendant's favor, but the plaintiff will carry the case to the Supreme Court, which will finally settle the question whether a landowner who ditches a stream through his lands has the right to dam it so as to prevent the sand above from coming down on him.

We have received a copy of the Chattanooga Daily Times, of the 17th inst., from which we clip the following marriage notice, which, we know, will be read with interest by the friends of the bride in the Pendleton section: "Miss Annie Simpson, a prominent society woman of Pendleton, S. C., who has been spending the summer in this city with friends, was quietly married to Mr. James F. Wright, a popular young South Chattanooga, at the residence of Rev. W. M. Lingle, pastor of the first Presbyterian Church at Dalton, Ga., on Sunday evening, Oct. 6, at 6 o'clock. Miss Simpson is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson, of South Carolina, one of the best known and most prominent families of the Palmetto State. She is quite an accomplished young woman and her marriage will come as a surprise to her many friends, both in this city and in her native State."

Last Thursday night was a red letter occasion for Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, on which they did themselves proud as chivalrous and gallant hosts to their ladies fair. The occasion was the official visit of Grand Vice-Chancellor Mower, of Newberry, to Chiquola Lodge, which was celebrated by a sumptuous and tempting banquet of luscious bivalves. Chancellor Commander L. S. Mattison did the honors of the occasion in his accustomed handsome manner, and it is useless to say his guests shared richly his happy mood. The speaker of the evening, Grand Vice-Chancellor Mower, responded in a fitting manner to the toast "Pythianism," and was followed by Grand Chancellor Bonham in an eloquent response to "The Grand Lodge," Geo. E. Prince, Esq., and Capt. H. H. Watkins were at their best in their well-known happy and versatile vein as they responded to their respective toasts "Chiquola Lodge, No. 32," and "Woman." E. M. Lucke, Jr., Esq., sustained his well deserved reputation as a polished and fluent speaker in his neat and touching tribute to "Friendship, Charity and Benevolence." Impromptu talks were also made by Revs. J. B. Campbell, J. D. Chapman, and B. M. Anderson and Mayor G. F. Tolly. The occasion was one long to be remembered with pleasure by those who were so fortunate as to be present.
