Mountain Springs News.

Owing to the recent bad weather, there are a great many farmers who have not finished picking cotton and sowing wheat. Some say they are going to finish sowing their wheat if it takes them till the middle of January. The Debating Society at this place has suspended until next spring. The bad weather did not hinder the young people from enjoying several entertainments around in the community during Christmas, Among some of them were a Christmas Tree at the home of Mr. C. C. Brown on the night of the 21st, gotten up by Mr. John Williams. It was enjoyed by all present. Also one at the residence of Mr. J. J. Moore on Thursday night, 26th, given in honor of Miss Mourning Moore and Mr. Edward King, In spite of the rain and cold the young people came with their beautiful presents, which were received by a committee and carried to the room and delivered to another committee, whose business it was to arrange the presents on the Tree. At 7.30 o'clock the doors were opened and the anxious, but patiently waiting, crowd was invited into the room to receive the presents which their friends and lovers had so kindly purchased for them. After the distribution of the presents the crowd was engaged for a short time in a few innocent games, after which they quietly returned to their homes, feeling that it had been a gathering long to be remembered.

The musical entertainment at the home of Mr. H. R. Jones on Friday night was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Perry Brown and family, of Greenville, spent a few days during Christmas with friends and relatives in this community. We hear the wedding bills will ring

OLD BILL.

Christmas passed off very quietly at this place.

The young people of this community gathered at the home of Mr. G. W Browning on Friday, Dec. 27th, and enjoyed themselves greatly at various plays and games and target shooting. Among the guests were Messrs. James Elwell, William Brenzeale, Allen Wil-King, of Wofford College, who is at home spending the holidays.

The young folks of this community enjoyed themselves at the home of Mr. H. R. Jones with a musical entertainment on Friday night, 27th inst. There were a large number present and the occasion was enjoyed by all.

We have had continued rains for last two days throughout this section.

There was a Christmas Tree at the home of Mr. J. J. Moore on Thursday night, 26th inst., which was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Miss Mae McMahan, who has been teaching the school at this place, is at home spending the holidays.

The health of the people of this community is very good at present.

Most of us have finished picking cotton, while there are many who have not finished sowing wheat.

This community has suffered at the hands of some thief who has been stealing corn from several of our farmers. Mr. Jesse Adkins lost several bushels recently. CUMSO.

Letter to Mr. P. K. McCully, Jr., Anderson.

Dear Sir: We cannot repeat too often that it's folly to buy a thin paint, because when you do so you are paying twice as much as its worth for a lot of linseed oil contained therein. You add 5-8 to 3-4 gallon of oil to each gallon of white lead and oxide of zinc than any other paint made. We much wish that you would get prices, color cards and ton & Co.

A Plea for Commercial Unity.

After paying a visit to Charleston and inspecting the magnificent Exposition every loyal South Carolinian must necessarily feel proud of his State and its wonderful resources. Our entire State is filled with manufacturing enterprises of almost every kind, and we venture the assertion that if a Chinese wall was placed around the entire State the people of South Carolina could exist without the balance of the world. Within our borders we can produce all that is necessary for food, raiment and the well-being of a happy people. Our educational institutions will compare favorably with any State in the Union. Such being the case, then we ask the question, "if you are a patriotic son of South Carolina and earnestly desire to aid in the further upbuilding of your State, why do you send your money away from home? In answer to this prestion some merchants will say: We can buy to better advantage outide of the State than within its borders." Are you aware of the fact that i the jobbing trade of South Carolina can meet all competition? If their prices or terms do not compare favorably with Northern concerns why cannot all of these matters be arranged by thorough organization! There are numbers of small manufacturing industries throughout South Carolina struggling for a living, while our own people are stabbing them in the back by patronizing Northern concerns, and either failing or refusing to give them

If all of the people of South Carolina were determined to give all home enterprises the preference, and buy nothing outside of the State which could be bought at home, there would spring up a tide of industrial prosperity which would shake the State of South Carolina from the mountains to the seaboard; our revenue from taxes would board; our revenue from taxes would increase to a marvellous extent, and every man, woman and child in the State would benefit thereby.

Some folks will give us the old threadbare, cobwebbed excuse: "Those jobbers in sleepy old Charleston have no get-up-and-get about them and, while we would like to trade with them, we can't." If this excuse has any foundation in fact then where do you get your money from? Isn't it strange that the bankers should be so enterprising while the wholesale merenterprising while the wholesale mer-

Charleston has met you half way and if you love your State as you should it now behooves you to meet her the other half.

> Let by-gones be by-gones and let us all get together. The men you once disagreed with down there have either forgotten all about it or are dead and buried. The younger generation has now taken hold and they have already demonstrated to the people of South Carolina that they are hustlers.

We want to see the whole of the people of South Carolina living together together as brother to brother, bear each other's burdens, share each other's joys, defend each other and pledge ourselves to aid each other in every movement looking toward the upbuilding of South Carolina. Let us give more time to business and less to politics. Our business may slip away from us, but the politician we have with us

Let every member of the county and State boards pledge themselves, all things being equal, to support and maintain the manufacturing and mercantile enterprises of South Carolina in preference to all foreign concerns. With a State organization the matter of freight rates can better be adjusted than with individuals. Every boy wants a Gun of some kind. His sporting nature craves the delight which a Gun affords. An Air Rifle will satisfy him if it is well made and has sufficient shooting strength to make it more than a mere toy. Sullivan Hardware Co. have a line of these Rifles that are made to stand the hard usage to which the boys subject them without "going to pieces." They are behulfully finished and are far above comparison with the ordinary "make shifts" on the market. Call for a "Daisy" when you want the best.
